PROXY STATEMENT FOR 2008 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

Our Board of Directors solicits your Proxy (the Proxy) on behalf of Lantronix, Inc., a Delaware corporation for use at our 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the Annual Meeting) to be held on Wednesday, November 19, 2008, at 9:00 a.m. Pacific Standard time, and at any adjournment(s) thereof, for the purposes set forth herein and in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Annual Meeting will be held at our principal executive offices located at 15353 Barranca Parkway, Irvine, California 92618.

These proxy materials, which include the Proxy Statement, Proxy, letter to stockholders and Form 10-K, were first mailed on or about October 10, 2008, to all stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. In this Proxy Statement, we refer to the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008 as the 2008 fiscal year.

INFORMATION CONCERNING SOLICITATION AND VOTING

Record Date

Stockholders of record at the close of business on September 24, 2008 (the Record Date) are entitled to notice of the Annual Meeting and to vote at the Annual Meeting. Presence in person or by proxy of a majority of the shares of common stock outstanding on the Record Date is required for a quorum. As of the close of business on the Record Date, 60,497,876 shares of our common stock were outstanding and were the only class of voting securities outstanding. Each share is entitled to one vote on any matter that may be presented for consideration and action by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting.

Street Name Holdings

Most stockholders hold their shares through a broker, trustee or other nominee rather than directly in their own name. If you do hold shares directly in your name with our transfer agent, Mellon Investor Services LLC, you are considered the stockholder of record with respect to those shares and we are sending these proxy materials directly to you. As a stockholder of record, you have the right to grant your voting proxy directly to the named proxy holder or to vote in person at the Annual Meeting. We have enclosed a Proxy for you to use. If your shares are held in a brokerage account or by a trustee or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of these shares held in street name, and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you together with a voting instruction card, by your broker, trustee or nominee. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker, trustee or nominee how to vote and are also entitled to attend the Annual Meeting; however, you may not vote these shares in person at the Annual Meeting unless you obtain a legal proxy from the broker, trustee or nominee that holds your shares giving you the right to vote the shares in person at the Annual Meeting.

Revocability of Proxies

Any stockholder has the power to revoke his or her Proxy or voting instructions at any time before the Annual Meeting. If you are a stockholder of record, you may revoke your Proxy by submitting a written notice of revocation to Lantronix, Inc., 15353 Barranca Parkway, Irvine, California 92618, Attention: Corporate Secretary, by submitting a duly executed written Proxy bearing a later date to change your vote, or by providing new voting instructions to your broker, trustee or nominee. A Proxy will not be voted if the stockholder of record who executed it is present at the Annual Meeting and votes the shares represented by the Proxy in person at the Annual Meeting. For shares you hold beneficially in street name, you may change your vote by submitting new voting instructions to your broker, trustee or nominee, or, if you have obtained a legal proxy from your broker, trustee or nominee giving you the right to vote your shares, by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Our Voting Recommendations

The Board of Directors recommends that you vote:

FOR the nominees named herein to serve as directors until the 2009 Annual Meeting of Stockholders; and

FOR the ratification of the appointment of McGladrey & Pullen, LLP as our independent registered public accountants for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2009.

Voting and Solicitation

Each share of common stock outstanding on the Record Date will be entitled to one vote on all matters presented at the Annual Meeting. Stockholders do not have the right to cumulate their votes in the election of directors.

By signing and returning the Proxy or voting instruction card according to the enclosed instructions, you are enabling Reagan Sakai, our Chief Financial Officer and Secretary, and Ronald Irick, our Senior Corporate Counsel, who are named on the Proxy as proxy holders, to vote your shares at the meeting in the manner you indicate. We encourage you to sign and return the Proxy even if you plan to attend the meeting. In this way, your shares will be voted even if you are unable to attend the meeting.

Each valid Proxy will be voted according to the stockholder's direction. If no direction is given, the Proxy will be voted: (i) FOR the election of each of the nominees for director named herein; and (ii) FOR the ratification of the appointment of McGladrey & Pullen, LLP as our independent registered public accountants for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2009. No business other than that set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders is expected to come before the Annual Meeting. Should any other matter requiring a vote of stockholders properly arise, the persons named on the Proxy will have discretionary authority to vote all proxies received with respect to such matters in accordance with their judgment.

We will pay the costs of soliciting proxies from stockholders, including the preparation, assembly, printing and mailing of proxy solicitation materials. We will provide copies of solicitation materials to banks, brokerage houses, fiduciaries and custodians holding in their names shares of common stock beneficially owned by others with instructions to forward these materials to the beneficial owners of common stock. We may reimburse brokerage firms and other such persons representing beneficial owners of common stock for their expenses in forwarding solicitation materials to such beneficial owners. Proxies may be solicited by certain of our directors, officers and employees, without additional compensation, personally or by telephone, telegram, letter or facsimile.

Householding

In an effort to reduce printing costs and postage fees, we have adopted a practice approved by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) called householding. Under this practice, stockholders who have the same address and last name and do not participate in electronic delivery of proxy materials will receive only one copy of these proxy materials unless one or more of these stockholders notifies us that they wish to continue receiving individual copies. Stockholders who participate in householding will continue to receive separate proxy cards.

If you share an address with another stockholder and received only one set of proxy materials and would like to request a separate copy of these materials and/or future proxy materials, please send your request to: Lantronix, Inc., 15353 Barranca Parkway, Irvine, California 92618, Attention: Investor Relations, visit our website at www.lantronix.com, or contact Investor Relations by phone at (949) 453-3990. You may also contact us if you received multiple copies of the proxy materials and would prefer to receive a single copy in the future.

Table of Contents

Quorum; Abstentions; Broker Non-Votes

The holders of a majority of the shares of common stock outstanding on the record date and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting and any adjournments or postponements thereof. If you submit a properly executed Proxy or voting instruction card, even if you abstain from voting, your shares will be counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum. If a broker, trustee or other nominee indicates on a proxy that it lacks discretionary authority to vote your shares on a particular matter, commonly referred to as broker non-votes, those shares will also be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum at the Annual Meeting.

For purposes of Proposal 1, the seven (7) nominees receiving the greatest number of valid votes will be elected. Because directors are elected by plurality, withheld votes and broker non-votes will be entirely excluded from the vote and will have no legal effect on the election of directors. Proposal 2 requires the affirmative approval of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting (the Votes Cast). For these purposes, abstentions with respect to a matter are treated as Votes Cast with respect to such matter, so abstaining has the same effect as a negative vote.

Under the rules that govern brokers who have record ownership of shares that are held in street name for their clients, who are the beneficial owners of the shares, brokers have discretion to vote these shares on routine matters but not on non-routine matters. Thus, if you do not otherwise instruct your broker, the broker may turn in a Proxy voting your shares FOR routine matters but expressly instructing that the broker is NOT voting on non-routine matters. All of the proposals discussed in these proxy solicitation materials are currently considered routine matters. A broker non-vote occurs when a broker expressly instructs on a Proxy that it is not voting on a matter, whether routine or non-routine. Broker non-votes are not treated as Votes Cast.

Nomination of Director Candidates

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee considers candidates for board membership, and recommends director nominees to the independent members of the Board of Directors for consideration and approval. There are no specific minimum qualifications that a director must possess to be nominated. However, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee assesses the appropriate skills and characteristics of a nominee based on the composition of the board as a whole and based on the nominee's qualification as independence, diversity, skills, age and experience in such areas as operations, finance, marketing and sales.

Any stockholder holding shares of our common stock continuously for at least 12 months prior to the date of the submission of the recommendation may recommend a candidate for election to the Board of Directors by directing the recommendation in writing by letter to Lantronix, Inc., 15353 Barranca Parkway, Irvine, California 92618, Attention: Corporate Secretary. The recommendation must include the candidate's name, home and business contact information, detailed biographical data, relevant qualifications, a signed letter from the candidate confirming willingness to serve, information regarding any relationships between the candidate and Lantronix and evidence of the recommending stockholder's ownership of our common stock. Such recommendations must also include a statement from the recommending stockholder in support of the candidate, particularly within the context of the criteria for Board membership, including issues of character, integrity, judgment, diversity of experience, independence, area of expertise, corporate experience, length of service, potential conflicts of interest, other commitments and personal references.

In addition, a stockholder may nominate a person directly for election to our Board of Directors, provided the person meets the requirements set forth in our bylaws and the rules and regulations of the SEC related to stockholder proposals. The process for properly submitting a stockholder proposal, including a proposal to nominate a person for election to our Board of Directors at an annual meeting, is described below in the section entitled Other Matters - Stockholder Proposals.

Stock Option Program. Members of our Board of Directors who are not employees of ours, or any parent or subsidiary of ours (Non-Employee Directors), are eligible to participate in our 2000 Stock Plan. Under the 2000 Stock Plan, Non-Employee Directors are eligible to receive a discretionary grant of non-statutory stock options on the date such Non-Employee Director first joins our Board. Each Non-Employee Director is also eligible for an additional annual option grant. The exercise price for these options is 100% of the fair market value of the shares on the date of grant. These options have a term of ten years; provided, however, that they will terminate earlier depending on different circumstances.

Grants issued on or prior to December 2007 vest as follows: Twelve months after the date of grant, 50% of the options vest. The balance of 50% vests 1/24 per month each month thereafter, until vested in full; provided, however, the optionee continues to serve on the Board on such dates.

Grants issued to each Non-Employee Director from January 2008 to June 2008 vest as follows: each option vests as to 30% of the shares 12 months after the date of grant, as to 30% of the shares 24 months after the date of grant, and as to 40% of the shares 36 months after the date of grant; provided, however, the optionee continues to serve on the Board on such dates. Notwithstanding the foregoing vesting schedule, vesting may accelerate upon satisfaction of certain performance criteria related to the Company's closing stock price on the Nasdaq Capital Market.

Beginning with the 2008 Annual meeting, each Non-Employee Director will receive a restricted stock grant with a fair value of $80,000 based on the closing stock price on the date of the Annual meeting. The restricted stock will vest after one year of continued service.

Except as described above, directors do not receive any other compensation for their services as our directors or as members of committees of the Board of Directors.

The table below summarizes the compensation paid by the Company to non-employee directors for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008.

Before selecting McGladrey & Pullen, LLP, the Audit Committee carefully considered the firm's qualifications as independent registered public accountants. This included a review of the qualifications of the engagement team, the quality control procedures the firm has established, as well as its reputation for integrity and competence in the fields of accounting and auditing. The Audit Committee's review included inquiry concerning any litigation involving McGladrey & Pullen, LLP and any proceeding by the SEC against the firm. In this respect, the Audit Committee concluded that the ability of McGladrey & Pullen, LLP to perform services for Lantronix is in no way adversely affected by such litigation or investigation. The Audit Committee's review also included matters required to be considered under the SEC's rules on auditor independence, including the nature and extent of non-audit services, to ensure that the auditors' independence will not be impaired. The Audit Committee pre-approves all audit and non-audit services provided by McGladrey & Pullen, LLP, or subsequently approves non-audit services in those circumstances where a subsequent approval is necessary and permissible. All of the services, if any, provided by McGladrey & Pullen, LLP described under Audit-Related Fees, Tax Fees and All Other Fees were pre-approved by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee of our Board of Directors has determined that the provision of services by McGladrey & Pullen, LLP other than for audit related services is compatible with maintaining the independence of McGladrey & Pullen, LLP as our independent registered public accountants.

Post-Employment and Change-in-Control Payments

No Named Executive Officer has or had an employment agreement that provides for a specific term of employment. Accordingly, the employment of each executive officer may be terminated at any time at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

We have entered into agreements with our named executive officers that provide certain benefits upon the termination of their employment under certain prescribed circumstances. Those agreements are summarized as follows:

Jerry D. Chase President and Chief Executive Officer. In February 2008, we entered into a severance agreement with Mr. Chase. If within six months after a change in control occurs, and either (i) we terminate Mr. Chase without cause or (ii) Mr. Chase resigns with good reason, we will continue to pay him 150% of his then current base salary and incentive bonus target in regular payroll installments and continue certain of his employee benefits for one year after his termination date. In addition, upon such a termination event, Mr. Chase's outstanding unvested stock options will immediately vest.

If we either (i) we terminate Mr. Chase without cause or (ii) Mr. Chase resigns with good reason, we will continue to pay him 100% of his then current base salary and incentive bonus target in regular payroll installments and continue certain of his employee benefits for one year after his termination date.

Under Mr. Chase's agreement, cause is generally defined as (i) executive's commission of a felony or misdemeanor or his possession, use or sale of a controlled substance (other than the use or possession of legally prescribed medication used for their prescribed purpose); (ii) executive's significant neglect, or materially inadequate performance of, his duties as an employee of Lantronix; (iii) executive's breach of a fiduciary duty to us or our stockholders; (iv) executive's willful breach of duty in the course of his employment; (v) executive's material violation of our personnel or business policies; (vi) executive's willful misconduct; (vii) executive's death; or (viii) executive's disability. For purposes of the agreement, executive shall be considered disabled if executive has been physically or mentally unable to perform his essential job duties hereunder for (x) a continuous period of at least 120 days or (y) a total of 150 days during any 180 day period, and executive has not recovered and returned to the full time performance of his duties within 30 days after written notice is given to executive by us following such 120 day period or 180 day period, as the case may be.

Under Mr. Chase's agreement, good reason is generally defined as (i) we substantially lessen executive's title; (ii) we substantially reduce executive's senior authority; (iii) we assign material duties to executive which are materially inconsistent with executive's then-current status; (iv) we reduce executive's base salary or benefits from that in effect at (A) the execution date if the executive resigns with good reason after we have entered into a definitive agreement for a change of control, or (B) the time of the consummation of the change of control if the executive resigns during the period beginning on the date of the consummation of a change of control, and ending on the two-year anniversary date of the consummation of such change of control (unless, in either case, such reduction is in connection with a salary or benefit reduction program of general application at executive's level); (v) we require executive to be based more than 50 miles from his present office location, except for required travel consistent with executive's business travel obligations; or (vi) we fail to obtain the assumption of the agreement by any successor or assignee of Lantronix. The following table presents the calculation of potential payments upon Mr. Chase's termination or change in control assuming that such event had occurred on June 30, 2008:

Table of Contents

Compensation and Benefits
Base Salary	540,000	360,000
Bonus (1)	375,000	250,000
Acceleration of Vesting of Stock Options (2)	57,600
Benefits (3)	16,980	16,980
(1) Cash incentive bonus per employment agreement.
(2) The amount shown as the value of each option represents the fair value of that option estimated by using the Black-Scholes option pricing model, in accordance with the provisions of SFAS 123R, multiplied by the assumed number of option shares vesting on an accelerated basis on June 30, 2008.
(3) Represents the aggregate value of the continuation of certain employee benefits after the date of termination. For the purposes of this calculation, expected costs have not been adjusted for any actuarial assumptions related to mortality, likelihood that the executives will find other employment, or discount rates for determining present value.

Reagan Y. Sakai Chief Financial Officer and Secretary. In June 2007, we entered into a severance agreement with Mr. Sakai. If a change in control occurs, and either (i) we terminate Mr. Sakai without cause or (ii) Mr. Sakai resigns with good reason, we will continue to pay him his then current base salary in regular payroll installments and continue certain of his employee benefits for one year after his termination date. We will also pay Mr. Sakai a cash bonus equal to the highest amount of bonus incentive cash compensation paid to Mr. Sakai for services in any past one-year period (if any) or 100% of the Mr. Sakai's target bonus (if any) approved by the Board of Directors. In addition, upon such a termination event, Mr. Sakai's outstanding unvested stock options will immediately vest and his options will remain exercisable for 24 months from the date of termination (but not beyond the expiration of their respective maximum terms).

If we terminate Mr. Sakai without cause we will continue to pay him his then current base salary in regular payroll installments and continue certain of his employee benefits for nine months after his termination date. We will also pay Mr. Sakai a prorated cash bonus based on the percentage of the current bonus period during which Mr. Sakai was included in the bonus plan and the actual bonus pool amount for the position granted by the Company's Board of Directors for the current bonus period. In addition, upon such a termination event, Mr. Sakai's vested options will remain exercisable for 18 months from the date of termination (but not beyond the expiration of their respective maximum terms).

Under Mr. Sakai's agreement, cause is generally defined as (i) executive's commission of a felony or misdemeanor or his possession, use or sale of a controlled substance (other than the use or possession of legally prescribed medication used for their prescribed purpose); (ii) executive's significant neglect, or materially inadequate performance of, his duties as an employee of Lantronix; (iii) executive's breach of a fiduciary duty to us or our shareholders; (iv) executive's willful breach of duty in the course of his employment; (v) executive's material violation of our personnel or business policies; (vi) executive's willful misconduct; (vii) executive's death; or (viii) executive's disability. For purposes of the agreement, executive shall be considered disabled if executive has been physically or mentally unable to perform his essential job duties hereunder for (x) a continuous period of at least 120 days or (y) a total of 150 days during any 180 day period, and executive has not recovered and returned to the full time performance of his duties within 30 days after written notice is given to executive by us following such 120 day period or 180 day period, as the case may be.

OTHER INFORMATION

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, requires our executive officers, directors and beneficial owners of more than 10% of our common stock to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC. Copies of these filings must be furnished to us. Based solely on our review of these reports and written representations from our executive officers and directors, the following Section 16(a) filing requirements were not met during fiscal year 2008: director Howard T. Slayen failed to file one Form 4 reporting six purchases of stock (in 2002) and two director option grants (in November 2002 and November 2007) and 5% Stockholder TL Investment GmbH failed to file a Form 3 as a 5% Stockholder and one Form 4 reporting seven purchases of stock (March 4, 2008 through April 14, 2008).

Policies and Procedures with Respect to Related Party Transactions

Our Board of Directors is committed to upholding the highest legal and ethical conduct in fulfilling its responsibilities and recognizes that related party transactions can present a heightened risk of potential or actual conflicts of interest.

Table of Contents

Our Audit Committee charter requires that members of the Audit Committee, all of whom are independent directors, review and approve all related party transactions. Current SEC rules define a related party transaction to include any transaction, arrangement or relationship in which we are a participant and in which any of the following persons has or will have a direct or indirect interest:

an executive officer, director or director nominee;

any person who is known to be the beneficial owner of more than 5% of our common stock;

any person who is an immediate family member (as defined under Item 404 of Regulation S-K) of an executive officer, director or director nominee or beneficial owner of more than 5% of our common stock; and any firm, corporation or other entity in which any of the foregoing persons is employed or is a partner or principal or in a similar position or in which such person, together with any other of the foregoing persons, has a 5% or greater beneficial ownership interest.

In addition, the Audit Committee is responsible for reviewing and investigating any matters pertaining to the integrity of management, including conflicts of interest and adherence to our Standards of Business Conduct. Under our Standards of Business Conduct, directors, officers and all other members of the workforce are expected to avoid any relationship, influence or activity that would cause or even appear to cause a conflict of interest. All directors must recuse themselves from any discussion or decision affecting their personal, business or professional interests.

All related party transactions shall be disclosed in our applicable filings with the SEC as required under SEC rules.

Related Party Transactions

One international customer, transtec AG, which is a related party due to common ownership by Bernhard Bruscha, our largest stockholder and former Chairman of our Board of Directors, accounted for approximately 2% of our net revenues for both the 2008 and 2007 fiscal years.

Thomas W. Burton, a former director on the Board of Directors, currently has an outstanding loan from us pursuant to a non-recourse promissory note, dated April 16, 2001, with a current aggregate principal amount owed to us of $94,000 as of June 30, 2008. The note bears an interest rate of 5.19% per annum, compounded annually. Mr. Burton executed the note for a loan from us for Mr. Burton to pay income tax liabilities he incurred as a result of various exercises of stock options to purchase our common stock. No amounts were paid by Mr. Burton during 2008 fiscal year.

Indemnification and Insurance

Our Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws provide that we shall indemnify our directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law. We have also entered into indemnification agreements with our officers and directors containing provisions that may require us, among other things, to indemnify our officers and directors against liabilities that may arise by virtue of their status or service as directors or officers and to advance their expenses incurred as a result of any proceeding against them as to which they could be indemnified. We are currently involved in litigation under which indemnification claims might be made.

Stockholder Proposals

Requirements for Stockholder Proposals to be Considered for Inclusion in our 2009 Proxy Materials. Stockholders may submit proposals appropriate for stockholder action at meetings of our stockholders in accordance with Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act. For such a proposal to be included in our proxy materials relating to the 2009 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, all applicable requirements of Rule 14a-8 must be satisfied and such proposals must be received by us no later than July 2, 2009, which is the one-year anniversary of 120 days prior to the mailing date of this year's proxy materials (expected to be October 30, 2008). Such proposals should be delivered to the attention of our Secretary at Lantronix, Inc., 15353 Barranca Parkway, Irvine, California 92618, and we encourage you to send a copy via e-mail to CorporateSecretary@lantronix.com. The submission of a stockholder proposal does not guarantee that it will be included in our 2009 Proxy Statement.

Bylaw Requirements for Stockholder Proposals to be Brought Before the Annual Meeting. Our bylaws provide that, except in the case of proposals made in accordance with Rule 14a-8, for stockholder nominations to the Board of Directors or other proposals to be considered at an annual meeting, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary at our Corporate Headquarters not less than 60 nor more than 120 days prior to the date of the 2009 Annual Meeting. Note, however, that if we provide less than 70 days notice or prior public disclosure to stockholders of the date of the 2009 Annual Meeting, any stockholder proposal or nomination not submitted pursuant to Rule 14a-8 must be submitted to us not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which notice of the date of the meeting was mailed or public disclosure was made. For example, if we provide public disclosure on September 18, 2009, of the date of our 2009 Annual Meeting on November 17, 2009, any such proposal or nomination will be considered untimely if submitted to us after September 28, 2009. As described in our Bylaws, the stockholder submission must include certain specified information concerning the proposal or nominee, as the case may be, and information as to the stockholder's ownership of our common stock. We will not entertain any proposals or nominations at the annual meeting that do not meet these requirements. If a stockholder complies with the requirements of the notice provisions for stockholder nominations and other proposals as set forth in the bylaws, we may not exercise our discretionary voting authority under proxies that we hold unless we conclude in our proxy statement a brief description of the matter and how we intend to exercise our discretion to vote on such matter. To make a submission or to request a copy of our Bylaws, stockholders should contact our Secretary via e-mail at CorporateSecretary@lantronix.com, or by mail to Attention: Corporate Secretary, Lantronix, Inc., 15353 Barranca Parkway, Irvine, CA 92618. We strongly encourage stockholders to seek advice from knowledgeable counsel before submitting a proposal or nomination.

The Board of Directors knows of no other matters to be presented for stockholder action at the meeting. However, if other matters do properly come before the meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof, the Board of Directors intends that the persons named in the proxies will vote upon such matters in accordance with their best judgment.
