PROXY STATEMENT

2009 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

ADVENTRX Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the Company) is furnishing this Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy card in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board) for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on June 3, 2009, at 9:00 a.m. local time, at the Company's offices, 6725 Mesa Ridge Road, Suite 100, San Diego, California, USA 92121, and at any adjournments or postponements thereof (the Annual Meeting). These materials are being mailed to stockholders on or about April 30, 2009.

Only holders of record of the Company's common stock as of the close of business on April 20, 2009 (the Record Date) are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Stockholders who hold shares of the Company in street name may vote at the Annual Meeting only if they hold a valid proxy from their broker. As of the Record Date, there were 90,252,572 shares of common stock outstanding.

A majority of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting must be present in person or by proxy in order for there to be a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Stockholders of record who are present at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy and who abstain from voting, including brokers holding customers' shares of record who cause abstentions to be recorded at the Annual Meeting, will be included in the number of stockholders present at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present.

Each stockholder of record is entitled to one vote at the Annual Meeting for each share of common stock held by such stockholder on the Record Date. Stockholders do not have cumulative voting rights. Stockholders may vote their shares by using the proxy card enclosed with this Proxy Statement. All proxy cards received by the Company that are properly signed and have not been revoked will be voted in accordance with the instructions contained in the proxy cards. If a signed proxy card is received which does not specify a vote or an abstention, the shares represented by that proxy card will be voted for the nominees to the Board listed on the proxy card and in this Proxy Statement and for the ratification of the appointment of J.H. Cohn LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2009. The Company is not aware, as of the date hereof, of any matters to be voted upon at the Annual Meeting other than those stated in this Proxy Statement and the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. If any other matters are properly brought before the Annual Meeting, the enclosed proxy card gives discretionary authority to the persons named as proxies to vote the shares represented by the proxy card in their discretion.

Under the Company's bylaws, if a quorum exists at the Annual Meeting, the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting with respect to each director nominee is required for the election of each director nominee. A properly executed proxy marked "withhold authority to vote" with respect to the election of one or more directors will not be voted with respect to the director or directors indicated, although it will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required to approve the ratification of the appointment of J.H. Cohn LLP. A properly executed proxy marked "Abstain" with respect to such matter will not be voted, although it will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum. Accordingly, a withhold of authority or an abstention will have the effect of a negative vote.

Table of Contents

For shares held in street name through a broker or other nominee, the broker or nominee may not be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to some of the matters to be acted upon. Thus, if stockholders do not give their broker or other nominee specific instructions, their shares may not be voted on those matters for which specific instructions are required and their shares will not be counted in determining the number of shares necessary for approval. Shares represented by such broker non-votes will, however, be counted in determining whether there is a quorum.

A stockholder of record may revoke a proxy at any time before it is voted at the Annual Meeting by (a) delivering a proxy revocation or another duly executed proxy bearing a later date to ADVENTRX Pharmaceuticals, Attn: Secretary, 6725 Mesa Ridge Road, Suite 100, San Diego, CA 92121 or (b) attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the Annual Meeting will not revoke a proxy unless the stockholder actually votes in person at the Annual Meeting.

The proxy card accompanying this Proxy Statement is solicited by the Board. The Company will pay all of the costs of soliciting proxies. In addition to solicitation by mail, officers, directors and employees of the Company may solicit proxies personally, or by telephone, without receiving additional compensation. Although the Company has not yet done so, it may retain a firm to assist in the solicitation of proxies in connection with the Annual Meeting. The Company would pay such firm, if any, customary fees, expected to be no more than $15,000, plus expenses. The Company, if requested, will also reimburse brokers, banks and other fiduciaries who hold shares for beneficial owners for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with forwarding these materials to the beneficial owners.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

During 2008, the Board met seventeen times, the audit committee met seven times and action was taken by unanimous written consent once, the compensation committee met seven times, the nominating and governance committee met three times and action was taken by unanimous written consent once and the research and development committee met three times. During 2008, each member of the Board nominated for re-election attended 75% or more of the aggregate of (i) the total number of Board meetings held during the period of such member s service and (ii) the total number of meetings of committees on which such member served, during the period of such member s service, except that Dr. Goldberg attended five, or approximately 71%, of the total number of audit committee meetings held during 2008. The Company encourages all directors to attend its annual Stockholder meetings. Messrs. Bagnall, Levine and Lief attended the Company s 2008 annual meeting of stockholders.

Director Independence

The Board has determined that Dr. Denner, Dr. Goldberg, Mr. Lief, Dr. Pykett and Dr. Rowinsky are independent under the rules of the NYSE Amex (formerly, the American Stock Exchange). Before his employment by the Company in April 2008, Mr. Bagnall was also independent under the rules of the NYSE Amex. Under applicable rules of the NYSE Amex and the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), the existence of certain transactions above certain thresholds between a director and the Company are required to be disclosed and preclude a finding by the Board that the director is independent. In addition to transactions required to be disclosed under these NYSE Amex and SEC rules, in making its independence determination with respect to Dr. Denner, the Board considered Dr. Denner s position with entities affiliated with Mr. Icahn and such entities (a) ownership position in the Company and (b) rights under that certain Rights Agreement, dated July 27, 2005, as amended (the Rights Agreement), pursuant to which such entities, along with others, are, among other things, entitled to participate in future sales by the Company of additional securities and cause the Board to nominate a Board nominee selected by them. After considering these relationships and transactions, the Board concluded that they did not interfere with Dr. Denner s ability to exercise independent judgment in carrying out his responsibilities as a member of the Board.

Board Committees

The Board currently has standing audit, compensation and nominating and governance committees. In February 2008, the Board created a research and development committee.

Audit Committee. The audit committee currently consists of Mr. Lief (chair), Dr. Goldberg and Dr. Pykett. During 2008 until his employment by the Company in April 2008, Mr. Bagnall served as a member and chair of the audit committee. The Board has determined that all members of the audit committee are independent directors and meet the eligibility standards for audit committee service under the rules of the NYSE Amex. The Board has determined that Mr. Lief qualifies as an audit committee financial expert as defined by the rules of the SEC. The purpose of the audit committee is to oversee the accounting and financial reporting processes of the Company and audits of its financial statements. The responsibilities of the audit committee include appointing and providing for the compensation of the independent accountants to conduct the annual audit of the Company s accounts, reviewing the scope and results of the independent audits, reviewing and evaluating internal accounting policies, and approving all professional services to be provided to the Company by its independent accountants. The audit committee is governed by a written charter approved by the Board.

Table of Contents

Compensation Committee. The compensation committee currently consists of Dr. Goldberg (chair), Dr. Denner and Mr. Lief. During 2008 until May 2008, Dr. Pykett served as a member of the compensation committee. The Board has determined that all members of the compensation committee are independent directors under the rules of the NYSE Amex. The compensation committee administers the Company's benefit plans, reviews, approves and administers all compensation arrangements for executives, and establishes and reviews general policies relating to the compensation and benefits of the Company's executives and other personnel. The compensation committee meets several times a year and consults with independent compensation consultants, as it deems appropriate, to review, analyze and set compensation packages for the Company's executives. The compensation committee is governed by a written charter approved by the Board.

Under its charter, the compensation committee has authority to determine the amount and form of compensation paid to the Company's chief executive officer, and to take such action, and to direct the Company to take such action, as is necessary and advisable to compensate the Company's chief executive officer in a manner consistent with its determinations, and shall deliberate and vote on all such actions outside the presence of the Company's chief executive officer. In accordance with its charter, the compensation committee will review at least annually the performance of the Company's chief executive officer, including in light of any goals and objectives established for such performance, and in light of such review determine his or her compensation.

The compensation committee has authority to determine the amount and form of compensation paid to the Company's executives, employees, consultants and advisors and to review the performance of such persons in order to determine appropriate compensation. The compensation committee has authority to take such action, and to direct the Company to take such action, as is necessary and advisable to compensate such persons and to implement such policies and practices in a manner consistent with its determinations. The Committee may delegate its authority on these matters with regard to non-executive employees of the Company to officers and other appropriate supervisory personnel of the Company, subject to applicable law and regulations.

Except with respect to its responsibilities regarding setting compensation for the Company's chief executive officer and the Company's other executives, the compensation committee may delegate its authority to individual members of the compensation committee or other members of the Board. In addition, to the extent permitted by applicable law and regulations, the compensation committee may delegate to one or more officers of the Company (or other appropriate supervisory personnel) the authority to grant stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock units and performance units to employees (who are not officers or members of the Board) of the Company or of any subsidiary of the Company; provided, however that (a) the number of shares of the Company's common stock underlying such options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock units and performance units are consistent with guidelines previously approved by the compensation committee; (b) the per-share exercise or purchase price of such awards equals the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant; and (c) the vesting and other terms that apply to such awards are the same terms as apply under the Company's standard form of agreement under the applicable equity compensation plan, provided that such officer(s) may, in such officer(s)' discretion, grant awards that are fully vested on the date of grant of the award or grant awards with more restrictive vesting requirements.

Historically, including in 2008, the Company's chief executive officer reviewed and assessed the performance of the other executive officers for the preceding year in the first quarter of each year and subsequently made recommendations to the compensation committee regarding the amount and form of those officers' compensation packages for the current year. The compensation committee generally gives substantial deference to the chief executive officer's recommendations because the members of that committee generally believe the chief executive officer is in the best position to evaluate the other executive officers' past performance and anticipated contributions. From September 2004 until the end of his employment relationship with the Company in October 2008, the Company's chief executive was Mr. Levine. During the first quarter of 2008, Mr. Levine evaluated the 2007 performance of the Company's other executive officers and, based on those officers' individual performance and anticipated contributions and the Company's 2007 performance and 2008 goals and projections, made recommendations as to 2008 compensation for those executive officers to the compensation committee. The compensation committee took Mr. Levine's recommendations into consideration, according them substantial deference, in setting the executive officers' 2008 compensation.

Table of Contents

In February 2007, the compensation committee retained Frederic W. Cook & Co., Inc., a nationally-recognized compensation consulting firm, to provide an independent evaluation of the Company's compensation practices. The compensation committee retained responsibility and authority over the scope of services provided by F.W. Cook and F.W. Cook reported and was responsible to the compensation committee. In connection with retaining F.W. Cook, the compensation committee charged F.W. Cook with, among other things, conducting a competitive assessment of the Company's executive compensation practices, in particular those applicable to the chief executive officer, which included assisting the compensation committee in identifying a peer group of companies against which to evaluate the competitiveness of the Company's executive compensation packages. In February 2007, F.W. Cook completed its analysis of the chief executive officer's compensation and, in May 2007, completed its analysis of the other executive officers' compensation. Other than reviewing with the compensation committee the results of its analysis and providing corresponding written reports, the compensation committee generally did not involve F.W. Cook in its 2007 compensation determinations. In connection with determining 2008 executive compensation, the compensation committee reviewed and evaluated the information previously provided by F.W. Cook and contacted F.W. Cook with certain specific questions, but otherwise did not involve F.W. Cook in its 2008 compensation determinations.

Nominating and Governance Committee. The nominating and governance committee currently consists of Dr. Pykett (chair) and Dr. Rowinsky, each of whom the Board has determined is an independent director under the rules of the NYSE Amex. During 2008 and until May 2008, Dr. Goldberg and Mr. Lief served on the nominating and governance committee. The nominating and governance committee's responsibilities include recommending to the Board nominees for possible election to the Board and providing oversight with respect to corporate governance and succession planning matters. The nominating and governance committee is governed by a written charter approved by the Board.

Research and Development Committee. Currently, the sole member and chair of the research and development committee is Dr. Rowinsky. The research and development committee assists the Board in evaluating the Company's basic scientific and manufacturing research, clinical development and regulatory affairs and the allocation of the Company's resources.

Charters for the Board's audit, compensation and nominating and governance committees, as well as the Company's corporate governance guidelines, are posted on the Company's corporate website at: www.adventrx.com.

DIRECTOR NOMINATIONS

Criteria for Board Membership. In selecting candidates for appointment or re-election to the Board, the nominating and governance committee considers the appropriate balance of experience, skills and characteristics required of the Board, and seeks to insure that at least a majority of the directors are independent under the rules of the NYSE Amex, and that members of the audit committee meet the financial literacy and sophistication requirements under the rules of the NYSE Amex (including that at least one of them qualifies as an audit committee financial expert under the rules of the SEC). Nominees for director are selected on the basis of their depth and breadth of experience, wisdom, integrity, ability to make independent analytical inquiries, understanding of the Company's business environment, willingness to devote adequate time to Board duties, the interplay of the nominee's experience and skills with those of other directors and the extent to which the nominee would be a desirable addition to the Board and any committees of the Board.

Stockholder Nominees. Other than under the Rights Agreement, the Company has never received a proposal from a stockholder of the Company to nominate a director. The nominating and governance committee will consider qualified candidates for director suggested by stockholders applying the criteria located above under the caption

Criteria for Board Membership. Any such nominations must be submitted to the nominating and governance committee c/o the secretary of the Company and must include the following information: a statement that the writer is a stockholder of the Company and is proposing a candidate for consideration by the nominating and governance committee; the name, age, business address and residence address of the nominee; a statement of the nominee's business and educational experience; the principal occupation or employment of the nominee; the class and number of shares of the Company that are beneficially owned by the nominee; a detailed description of all relationships, arrangements or understandings between the proposing stockholder and the nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nominations are to be made by the stockholder; a detailed description of all relationships, arrangements or understandings between the nominee and any service-provider, supplier or competitor of the Company; information regarding each of the criteria located above under the caption

Criteria for Board Membership in sufficient detail to allow the nominating and governance committee to evaluate the nominee; and a statement from the nominee that the nominee is willing to be considered and willing to serve as a director if nominated and elected. The proposing stockholder must also include the following information with respect to such stockholder: the name and address, as they appear on the Company's books, and the class and number of shares of the Company that are beneficially owned. In addition, the Company's bylaws contain provisions which address the process by which a stockholder may nominate an individual to stand for election to the Board at any annual meeting of stockholders. Such nominations may be made only if the stockholder has given timely written notice to the secretary of the Company containing the information required by the Company's bylaws. To be timely, such notice must be received at the Company's principal executive offices not earlier than the 120th day, nor later than the close of business on the 90th day, prior to the first anniversary of the date of the preceding year's annual meeting as first specified in the Company's notice of meeting (without regard to any postponements or adjournments of such meeting after such notice was first sent), except that if no annual meeting was held in the previous year or the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days earlier or later than such anniversary date, such notice must be received not earlier than the 120th day prior to the date of such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to the date of such annual meeting or the 10th day following the date on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by the Company.

Process for Identifying and Evaluating Nominees. The Board, with advice from the chair of the nominating and governance committee, believes the Company is well-served by its current directors. In the ordinary course, absent special circumstances or a material change in the criteria for Board membership, the nominating and governance committee will re-nominate incumbent directors who continue to be qualified for Board service and are willing to continue as directors. If an incumbent director is not standing for re-election, or if a vacancy on the Board occurs between annual stockholder meetings and the Board determines to fill such vacancy, the nominating and governance committee will seek out potential candidates for Board appointment who meet the criteria for selection as a nominee and have the specific qualities or skills being sought. Director candidates will be selected based on input from members of the Board, senior management of the Company and, if the nominating and governance committee deems appropriate, a third-party search firm. The nominating and governance committee will evaluate each candidate's qualifications and check relevant references; in addition, such candidates will be interviewed by at least one member of the nominating and governance committee. Based on this input, the nominating and governance committee will evaluate which of the prospective candidates is qualified to serve as a director and whether the nominating and governance committee should recommend to the Board that this candidate be appointed to fill a current vacancy on the Board, or presented for the approval of the stockholders, as appropriate.

Board Nominees for the 2009 Annual Meeting. Each of the nominees listed in this Proxy Statement are current directors standing for re-election. Dr. Rowinsky, who was first appointed to the Board in February 2008 and is standing for re-election at the Annual Meeting, was recommended as a nominee by Dr. Denner.

Pursuant to the Rights Agreement, the Company is required to cause the Board to nominate a Board nominee (the Purchaser Designee) selected by the Purchasers who at the time own a majority of the Purchased Shares. Dr. Denner is the current Purchaser Designee. Purchasers, as defined in the Rights Agreement, refers to those entities that purchased common stock and warrants of the Company in a private transaction in July 2005. Purchased Shares, as defined in the Rights Agreement, refers to those shares of common stock outstanding and issuable upon exercise of warrants issued to the Purchasers in connection with July 2005 transaction. The Purchasers' right to select a Purchaser Designee for nomination to the Board shall terminate upon the earlier of (i) July 27, 2012, (ii) the date that the Purchasers' aggregate holdings of Purchased Shares (either of record or beneficially) is, as a result of sales or other dispositions thereof, equal to less than 50% of the aggregate number of shares purchased by the Purchasers in connection with the July 2005 transaction, and (iii) at the time of a change of control of the Company.

Pursuant to that certain Second Amendment to Rights Agreement, dated February 25, 2008 (the Second Amendment), the Rights Agreement was amended to allow the Board to increase the authorized number of directors from six to seven if the vacancy created by such action was filled by a majority of the Board directors then in office, which majority must include the Purchaser Designee (as defined in the Rights Agreement), if any; provided that, if at any time there are seven members of the Board and one of such members is removed, resigns, retires or dies and the Purchaser Designee, if any, does not approve a successor, the Company will do those things reasonably necessary and within its control to, as soon as reasonably practicable after the effective date of such removal, resignation, retirement or death, set the authorized number of Board directors at six. The Second Amendment confirmed that Dr. Denner, and not Dr. Rowinsky, is the Purchaser Designee. Following the resignation of Evan M. Levine as a member of the Board in December 2008, the Board set the authorized number of directors constituting the Board at six.

Table of ContentsCERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The Company has incorporated into its written review and approval policies certain procedures designed to ensure that any proposed transaction in which the Company would be a participant and in which any of the Company's directors, executive officers, holders of more than 5% of its common stock, or any member of the immediate family of any of the foregoing would have a direct or indirect material interest is reviewed by individuals within the Company (including its general counsel) familiar with the requirements of Item 404 of Regulation S-K promulgated by the SEC. If any such proposed transaction would require disclosure pursuant to Item 404(a), it will be presented to the audit committee for review and, if appropriate, approval.

Since January 1, 2007, there has not been, nor currently are there proposed, any transactions or series of similar transactions in which the Company was or is to be a participant and the amount involved exceeds or will exceed the lesser of $120,000 or 1% of the average of the Company's total assets at December 31, 2007 and 2008, and in which any director, executive officer, holder of more than 5% of the Company's common stock or any member of the immediate family of any of the foregoing persons had or will have a direct or indirect material interest, other than the transactions described below.

Separation Arrangements with Former President and Chief Medical Officer

Dr. James Merritt was employed by the Company from September 2006 to January 2008 as its President and Chief Medical Officer. Dr. Merritt was a named executive officer of the Company for fiscal year 2007. In February 2008, the Company entered into a letter agreement regarding terms of separation with Dr. Merritt. The terms of Dr. Merritt's employment separation, as provided in the letter agreement, are substantially identical to those set forth in his offer letter, dated September 7, 2006, and in the stock option agreement relating to the stock option to purchase up to 300,000 shares of the Company's common stock granted to him in September 2006 in connection with the commencement of his employment, both of which have been previously filed with the SEC, except that the Company agreed to extend the exercise period of that option from June 29, 2008 to December 31, 2008.

As set forth in the letter agreement regarding terms of separation, in exchange for a mutual release, beginning in February 2008, the Company paid Dr. Merritt an aggregate of $181,250, which was equal to six months of Dr. Merritt's base salary in effect at the time of termination, less applicable state and federal payroll deductions, in substantially equal installments in accordance with the Company's standard payroll practices over 13 pay periods. In addition, the Company paid Dr. Merritt $16,038, less applicable state and federal payroll deductions, which the Company and Dr. Merritt agreed satisfied in full the Company's obligation to pay all costs that the Company would otherwise have incurred to maintain Dr. Merritt's health, welfare and retirement benefits if Dr. Merritt had continued for six continuous months after Dr. Merritt's termination date. The Company paid the $16,038 amount in substantially equal installments commencing on and continuing in accordance with the same schedule described above with respect to payment of Dr. Merritt's base salary. Furthermore, the Company accelerated the vesting and extended the time to exercise vested shares under the stock option granted to Dr. Merritt in September 2006 in connection with the commencement of his employment. Under this option, Dr. Merritt was granted the right to purchase up to 300,000 shares of the Company's common stock at a price of $2.86 per share, which right was subject to a vesting schedule. As of Dr. Merritt's termination date, this option was vested as to 100,000 shares and unvested as to 200,000 shares. Pursuant to the letter agreement regarding terms of separation, the Company accelerated vesting as to 31,249 of the unvested shares, which resulted in this option being vested as to a total of 131,249 shares, and extended the time for Dr. Merritt to exercise the vested shares under this option to Noon (Pacific time) on December 31, 2008. Dr. Merritt did not exercise the option by December 31, 2008 and, accordingly, it terminated. The closing market price of the Company's common stock on December 31, 2008 was $0.08 per share, while the exercise price of the option was $2.86 per share. In addition, at the time of his separation from the Company, Dr. Merritt held another option that was vested as to 8,334 shares. Pursuant to its terms, this option expired, unexercised, on April 28, 2008. The closing market price of the Company's common stock on April 28, 2008 was $0.52 per share, while the exercise price of this option was $2.75 per share.

Under the letter agreement regarding terms of separation, Dr. Merritt represented that he had returned to the Company all of its property and data that had been in his possession or control and acknowledged that he is bound by an agreement with the Company regarding the use and confidentiality of the Company's confidential information.

vesting period. For more information, including the assumptions made in calculating the FAS 123R value of the option awards, see Note 8 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 27, 2009 and Note 9 of the Consolidated Financial Statements contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 17, 2008.

Table of ContentsNarrative Disclosure to Summary Compensation TableEmployment and Severance Arrangements with Currently Employed Named Executive Officers

Each of Mr. Culley's and Mr. Keran's employment with the Company is at-will and, as of December 31, 2008, the Company had no obligation to pay such officer any severance or other benefits, other than as may be required by law, in connection with a termination of employment. In January 2009, the Company entered into Retention and Incentive Agreements with each of Mr. Culley and Mr. Keran, the provisions of which require severance payments to Mr. Culley and Mr. Keran in the event of an involuntary termination of employment before September 30, 2009. In addition, at the same time, the Company granted, under its 2008 Omnibus Incentive Plan, to each of Mr. Culley and Mr. Keran an award of restricted stock units that represents the right to receive 1,200,000 and 850,000 shares, respectively, of the Company's common stock. These units will vest immediately prior to a strategic transaction. The Employment Agreements and restricted stock units awards are primarily intended to reinforce and encourage these officers' continued employment with and dedication to the Company without distraction from the possibility of involuntary termination or a change in control and related events and circumstances.

Pursuant to the Retention and Incentive Agreements, if, as applicable, Mr. Culley's or Mr. Keran's employment with the Company terminates as a result of an involuntary termination and he delivers (and does not revoke) a general release of claims, he will receive a lump-sum cash severance payment, less applicable withholdings, equal to nine months of his then-current annual base salary multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days between his termination date and September 30, 2009 and the denominator of which is 365. These agreements are intended to be binding upon any successor to the Company or to all or substantially all of the Company's business and/or assets. For purposes of these agreements, "involuntary termination" means, without Mr. Culley's or Mr. Keran's, as applicable, express written consent, a significant reduction of or removal from his current duties, position or responsibilities, a material reduction of his base salary or in the kind or level of employee benefits (including cash and stock bonus plans) to which he is entitled which results in a material adverse change to his employment relationship or a relocation to a facility or location that increases his one-way commute by more than 50 miles, any termination of employment which is not for cause or any material breach of the agreements by the Company, including the failure of a successor to assume the Company's obligations thereunder. For purposes of these agreements, "cause" means any act of personal dishonesty taken by the employee in connection with his responsibilities as an employee which is intended to result in substantial personal enrichment, the employee's conviction of a felony that the board of directors reasonably believes has had or will have a material detrimental effect on the Company's reputation or business, a willful act by the employee that constitutes misconduct and is injurious to the Company, or continued willful violations by the employee of his obligations to the Company after delivery to him of a written demand for performance that describes the basis for the Company's belief that he has not substantially performed his duties.

Pursuant to a notice of grant of restricted stock units and the related restricted stock units agreement, the Company issued under its 2008 Omnibus Incentive Plan to Mr. Culley and Mr. Keran 1,200,000 and 850,000, respectively, restricted stock units. Each restricted stock unit represents the right to receive one share of the Company's common stock upon vesting and settlement of the restricted stock unit. Provided Mr. Culley's and Mr. Keran's services to the Company have not terminated beforehand, 100% of the restricted stock units shall vest immediately prior to the consummation of a strategic transaction. Settlement of the vested restricted stock units will occur at the same time as vesting unless a sale by Mr. Culley or Mr. Keran of the shares issuable upon settlement of the restricted stock units would violate any insider trading policy of the Company, any federal, state or foreign law or any contractual obligation to which Mr. Culley or Mr. Keran is subject (such as a lock-up or market stand-off agreement), in which case settlement of the restricted stock units shall be deferred until the first to occur of (a) the next business day on which a sale of the shares by Mr. Culley or Mr. Keran would not violate such insider trading policy or contractual obligation and (b) the latest date possible that such settlement can be deferred without becoming subject to Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code. If the Company does not consummate a strategic transaction, none of the restricted stock units shall vest and the Company shall automatically reacquire all of the restricted stock units upon termination of Mr. Culley's or Mr. Keran's services to the Company without any payment therefor. For purposes of the restricted stock units, "strategic transaction" generally means a transaction or series of related transactions constituting a change of control of the Company or a subsidiary of the Company or a sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of its assets or the grant of an exclusive license of the Company's intellectual property related to ANX-514 to make, use or sell products in the United States for the treatment of cancer by intravenous administration of formulations consisting of emulsified products.

In addition, as of December 31, 2008, the Company had accrued vacation benefits liability for Mr. Culley in the amount of $48,461 and for Mr. Keran in the amount of $30,166. If their employment with the Company had ended on December 31, 2008, they would have been entitled to payment of those amounts.

It is the Company's policy that, at the beginning of their employment, all employees sign the Company's standard confidential information, non-solicitation and invention assignment agreement for employees. Under the current version of this agreement, employees agree that, during the period of the employee's service to the Company and for one year thereafter, the employee will not (a) solicit any employee or consultant of the Company to leave the employ of or terminate any relationship with the Company or (b) solicit the business of any client or customer of the Company using its confidential information. Each of Mr. Culley and Mr. Keran executed such an agreement in connection with the commencement of his employment with the Company.

2008 Stock Option Grants

On March 31, 2008, the compensation committee granted stock option awards to certain non-CEO executives, including a stock option to purchase 200,000 shares to each of Messrs. Culley and Keran and Dr. Robbins. The compensation committee did not grant any stock option awards to Mr. Levine (the reasons for which are described under "Compensation Programs and Process" Elements of Compensation in the Company's proxy statement filed with the SEC on April 16, 2008) or Mr. Bagnall, who was then a non-employee director of the Company (see "Employment and Separation Arrangements with Mr. Bagnall" below regarding an option granted to him in April 2008 in connection with commencement of his employment). The March 2008 stock options were granted under the Company's 2005 Equity Incentive Plan, have a term of 10 years, and vest and become exercisable as to one-fifth of the shares subject to the option on each of January 1, 2009, January 1, 2010, January 1, 2011, January 1, 2012 and January 1, 2013. The vesting schedule was recommended by Mr. Levine, then the Company's chief executive officer, and, after substantial discussion, approved by the compensation committee. The per share exercise price of these options is $0.54, which was the closing price, as reported by the NYSE Amex, of the Company's common stock on March 31, 2008. None of these options currently are in-the-money.

The Company structured the number of shares underlying and the vesting schedule of the March 2008 stock options primarily to retain and incentivize the Company's executives, and not primarily as a form of compensation or to recognize individual or corporate performance in 2007. In particular, the Company did not view these awards as typical annual option grants. The compensation committee's goal in determining the size of these stock option awards was to emphasize unity and cohesion within the Company's executive ranks. The compensation committee intended for the Company's non-CEO executives to share equally in the Company's future success and, accordingly, granted similarly situated executives comparably sized stock option awards.

The compensation committee granted these awards to retain and properly incentive the individuals capable of maximizing the potential of the Company's assets. Without a substantial opportunity to participate in the Company's future success, the Company was concerned that it would be unable to retain key executives. In addition, the 5-year, cliff-based vesting schedule of the March 2008 stock options was structured to provide substantial retentive value.

2007 Bonus to Mr. Levine

In March 2008, the Company evaluated its executives' 2007 compensation and performance and, consistent with past practice, no cash bonuses for any of the Company's non-CEO executives were approved by the compensation committee. However, the compensation committee awarded Mr. Levine a discretionary cash bonus of $200,000.

Table of Contents

Mr. Levine's 2007 bonus was not based on achievement of the corporate objectives previously established by the compensation committee. Following the Company's announcement in October 2007 regarding the results of the Company's phase 2b clinical trial of ANX-510, several of corporate objectives previously established by the compensation committee became irrelevant or undesirable and the compensation committee did not subsequently revise those objectives. Mr. Levine's 2007 bonus was awarded in part in recognition of his 2007 performance, but also to compensate him in lieu of the Company not granting him any stock option awards (the reasons for which are more fully described under "Compensation Programs and Process - Elements of Compensation" in the Company's proxy statement filed with the SEC on April 16, 2008). Despite the Company's October 2007 announcement regarding the results of its phase 2b clinical trial of ANX-510 and the resulting decline in its stock price, 2007 was marked with several positive achievements for the Company. Furthermore, the compensation committee determined that Mr. Levine's performance in 2007 was exceptional in light of prevailing conditions and that he displayed the leadership and perseverance in the face of adversity that the Company seeks in its executives and wishes to reward. In approving Mr. Levine's 2007 bonus, the compensation committee was sensitive to the perception that it was rewarding Mr. Levine when the Company's stockholders and stock price have suffered. To rebuild value, however, the compensation committee believed it was critical that it retain and properly incentivize Mr. Levine because of the unique qualities that he possesses, as well as to provide continuity to its operations. Based on the Company's successes in 2007 and Mr. Levine's leadership following the Company's October 2007 clinical trial results announcement, as well as the Company not granting Mr. Levine any equity awards since 2003, the compensation committee determined that a cash bonus reflecting 80% of Mr. Levine's target award was appropriate.

Separation Arrangements with Mr. Levine

In October 2008, Mr. Levine's employment relationship with the Company ended and, in December 2008, Mr. Levine resigned from the Board. Mr. Levine formerly served as the Company's Chief Executive Officer and President. In December 2008, the Company entered into a Confidential Separation Agreement and General Release of All Claims regarding terms of separation with Mr. Levine (the "Levine Separation Agreement").

As set forth in the Levine Separation Agreement, in exchange for a mutual release of claims and Mr. Levine's agreement and representations (as more fully described below), the Company agreed to provide a severance payment of $225,000 to Mr. Levine. In addition, the Company agreed to provide a health benefit allowance of $19,870, which Mr. Levine may use, at his discretion, to pay the premiums required to continue his group health care coverage under COBRA or any other health care related expenses. The severance payment and the health benefit allowance were paid in one lump sum, less applicable payroll deductions and required withholdings, in January 2009. In addition, pursuant to the Levine Separation Agreement, the Company agreed to issue 1,000,000 fully-vested shares of its common stock to Mr. Levine, subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions by January 30, 2009, or, if those conditions were not so satisfied, pay Mr. Levine an additional $100,000 in one lump sum, less applicable payroll deductions and required withholdings. In February 2009, because the conditions to the Company's obligation to issue the shares had not been timely satisfied, the Company paid Mr. Levine an additional $100,000 in one lump sum, less applicable payroll deductions and required withholdings. In November 2008, prior to entering into the Levine Separation Agreement, the Company paid Mr. Levine a total of $40,000 in four weekly installments ending in December 2008 in exchange for Mr. Levine's agreement not to sign a Confidential Separation Agreement and General Release of All Claims that was presented to Mr. Levine on October 19, 2008 to allow time for discussions related to the terms of Mr. Levine's separation from the Company and release of claims to continue.

Under the Levine Separation Agreement, Mr. Levine represented that he had returned to the Company all property, data and information belonging to the Company and agreed not to use or disclose to others any confidential or proprietary information of the Company and agreed to comply with his continuing obligations under various agreements and other documents as previously executed by him. In addition, the Company and Mr. Levine each agreed that neither will make any voluntary statements, written or oral, or cause or encourage others to make any such statements, that defame, disparage or in any way criticize the personal and/or business reputation, practices or conduct of, respectively, Mr. Levine, on the one hand, or the Company or its employees, officers and directors, among others, on the other hand. Each of the Company and Mr. Levine also represented that neither had filed any lawsuits, complaints or other accusatory pleadings against the other. Mr. Levine also certified that all transactions in the Company's securities prior to his separation date and reportable under Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 had been reported on Form 4 and agreed to execute and deliver promptly after December 31, 2008 a document certifying that he is not required to file a Form 5 for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008.

Table of ContentsEmployment and Separation Arrangements with Mr. Bagnall

In connection with Mr. Bagnall's employment as the Company's Chief Financial Officer, Executive Vice President and Treasurer, effective as of April 3, 2008, the Company entered into an offer letter agreement with Mr. Bagnall. Pursuant to the terms of the offer letter, Mr. Bagnall's base salary was $350,000 per year and he was entitled to participate in the Company's health and welfare benefits, 401(k) plan and other benefits on the same terms as the Company's other executive officers. In addition, Mr. Bagnall was eligible to participate in the Company's 2008 Incentive Plan, which is discussed under "Executive Officer and Director Compensation - Compensation Discussion and Analysis" in the Company's proxy statement filed with the SEC on April 16, 2008, on the same basis as the Company's other executive officers. In the event of Mr. Bagnall's involuntary termination, the Company agreed to (a) continue to pay Mr. Bagnall's base salary in effect immediately prior to the effective date of such involuntary termination for the number of months equal to the number of full 30-day periods he was a full-time employee of the Company, provided that in no event would such number of months exceed 12 (the "Severance Period"), (b) pay Mr. Bagnall all costs that the Company would otherwise have incurred to maintain his health and similar benefits during the Severance Period, and (c) pay Mr. Bagnall the amount of the matching 401(k) contribution that would have been contributed by the Company based on the amount contributed by Mr. Bagnall in the pay-period immediately prior to the effective date of the involuntary termination. The Company's obligation to make such payments was conditioned upon Mr. Bagnall's execution and delivery of a general release of claims and submission of his resignation as a member of the Board. If Mr. Bagnall failed to execute and deliver the release of claims or subsequently revoked the release, he would not have been entitled to any of the severance payment. If Mr. Bagnall failed to submit his resignation from the Board, he would not have received any severance payment until after the Company's next annual meeting of stockholders for which he was not nominated for election to the Board in the proxy materials related to such meeting. On December 11, 2008, the compensation committee of the Board approved amendments to the offer letter intended to make severance benefits payable to Mr. Bagnall exempt from potential deferred compensation tax penalties.

In addition, on March 31, 2008, the compensation committee of the Board approved a stock option to Mr. Bagnall under the Company's 2005 Equity Incentive Plan to purchase up to 500,000 shares of the Company's common stock, contingent upon the commencement of Mr. Bagnall's employment with the Company. Accordingly, this option was granted on April 3, 2008 with an exercise price of $0.52 per share, which was the closing price of the Company's common stock on April 3, 2008, as reported by the NYSE Amex. The terms of the option provide that it would vest and become exercisable with respect to 100,000 of the underlying shares on each of January 1, 2009, January 1, 2010, January 1, 2011, January 1, 2012 and January 1, 2013, subject to Mr. Bagnall's continuous service (as defined in the Company's 2005 Equity Incentive Plan). However, in the event of Mr. Bagnall's involuntary termination, the option's vesting schedule would accelerate such that (a) an additional 50,000 shares will vest and become exercisable if the effective date of such involuntary termination occurs between January 1 and June 30 of a given calendar year and (b) an additional 100,000 shares will vest and become exercisable if the effective date of such involuntary termination occurs between July 1 and December 31 of a given calendar year, subject to Mr. Bagnall's execution and delivery to the Company of a release of claims and his not revoking such release. In the event of Mr. Bagnall's death, disability or other termination, the option would be exercisable for 90 days following such event, except that in the event of an involuntary termination, the option would be exercisable for 180 days following such termination, subject to Mr. Bagnall's execution and delivery to the Company of a release of claims and his not revoking such release. In addition, in the event of a change of control (as defined in the Company's 2005 Equity Incentive Plan) where Mr. Bagnall was employed by the Company or one of its affiliates as of the closing date of the change of control and the option was not assumed or replaced, the option would accelerate in full. In the event of Mr. Bagnall's involuntary termination before and in connection with a change of control, the option would accelerate in full upon the change of control. Finally, in the event of a change of control where the option is assumed or replaced, (i) 50% of any unvested portion of the option would vest immediately prior to the closing date of the change of control, (ii) the remaining unvested portion of the option would vest ratably by month over the 12-month period beginning on the closing date of the change of control, subject to Mr. Bagnall's continuous service, and (iii) 100% of any remaining unvested portion of the option would vest upon an involuntary termination of Mr. Bagnall that occurs within 12 months of the change of control. Unless terminated earlier pursuant to its terms, the option would expire on April 2, 2018.

For purposes of the offer letter and the stock option granted to Mr. Bagnall, an involuntary termination is one that occurs by reason of involuntary dismissal by the Company for any reason other than misconduct (as defined below) or by Mr. Bagnall's voluntary resignation for good reason, which means the occurrence of one of the following events or circumstances without his written consent: (i) a change in position that materially reduces the level of his responsibility, (ii) a material reduction in his base salary, or (iii) relocation by more than 50 miles from his then-primary work location; provided that his resignation shall not be for good reason unless (x) he provides the Company with written notice within 30 days after he first has knowledge of the occurrence or existence of such event or circumstance, (y) the Company fails to correct the circumstance or event so identified within 30 days after receipt of such written notice, and (z) he resigns within 90 days after the date of delivery of the notice. Misconduct means the commission of any act of fraud, embezzlement or dishonesty by Mr. Bagnall, any unauthorized use or disclosure by him of confidential information or trade secrets of the Company (or any parent or subsidiary), or any other intentional misconduct by him adversely affecting the business affairs of the Company (or any parent or subsidiary) in a material manner.

Table of Contents

In December 2008, Mr. Bagnall's employment relationship with the Company ended. In January 2009, the Company entered into a Confidential Separation Agreement and General Release of All Claims regarding terms of separation with Mr. Bagnall (the Bagnall Separation Agreement).

As set forth in the Bagnall Separation Agreement, in exchange for a release of claims and Mr. Bagnall's agreement and representations (as more fully described below), the Company agreed to provide a severance payment of $165,500 to Mr. Bagnall and each of the Company and Mr. Bagnall agreed to enter into a consulting relationship. In addition, the Company agreed to provide a health benefit allowance of $18,352, which Mr. Bagnall may use, at his discretion, to pay the premiums required to continue his group health care coverage under COBRA or any other health care related expenses. The severance payment and the health benefit allowance were paid in one lump sum, less applicable payroll deductions and required withholdings, in January 2009. The severance provisions set forth in the Bagnall Separation Agreement supersede and replace the severance provisions set forth in Mr. Bagnall's offer letter from the Company, which was effective as of April 3, 2008 and amended as of December 11, 2008. Pursuant to the terms of the stock option granted to Mr. Bagnall in April 2008 in connection with the commencement of his employment (as more fully described above), 100,000 shares underlying this option vested and became exercisable immediately prior to Mr. Bagnall's involuntary termination in December 2008. As a result of Mr. Bagnall's remaining on the Board, Mr. Bagnall remained in continuous service and this option will continue to vest until such time as Mr. Bagnall is no longer in continuous service. Stock options held by Mr. Bagnall granted to him as a member of the Board were unaffected by Mr. Bagnall's involuntary termination.

Under the Bagnall Separation Agreement, Mr. Bagnall represented that he returned to the Company all property, data and information belonging to the Company other than is reasonably required by Mr. Bagnall to perform services as a member of the Board or is reasonably related to such services or is needed by Mr. Bagnall to provide services as a consultant to the Company. Mr. Bagnall agreed not to use or disclose to others any confidential or proprietary information of the Company, except, as applicable, in connection with Mr. Bagnall's position as a member of the Board or as a consultant to the Company, in which case such use and disclosure will be governed by such documents, agreements and duties as apply to such positions. Mr. Bagnall further agreed to comply with his continuing obligations under various agreements and other documents as previously executed by him. In addition, Mr. Bagnall agreed that he will not make any voluntary statements, written or oral, or cause or encourage others to make any such statements, that defame, disparage or in any way criticize the personal and/or business reputation, practices or conduct of the Company or its employees, officers and directors, among others. Mr. Bagnall also represented that he had not filed any lawsuits, complaints or other accusatory pleadings against the Company and certified that all transactions in the Company's securities prior to his separation date and reportable under Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 had been reported on Form 4 and agreed to execute and deliver promptly after December 31, 2008 a document certifying that he is not required to file a Form 5 for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008. Finally, Mr. Bagnall agreed, at the end of the consulting period, to extend and reaffirm the promises made by Mr. Bagnall in the Bagnall Separation Agreement, including the release of claims.

In December 2008, the Company and Mr. Bagnall entered into a consulting agreement. Under the consulting agreement, Mr. Bagnall agreed to provide consulting services on an as-needed basis to assist the Company in identifying and evaluating strategic options and to respond to inquiries regarding finance and other matters, and the Company agreed to pay Mr. Bagnall $100 per hour. In February 2009, the Company and Mr. Bagnall amended the consulting agreement to include services related to Mr. Bagnall acting as the Company's interim principal financial and accounting officer, and agreed to pay Mr. Bagnall $250 per hour for services provided after such amendment. Either party may terminate the consulting agreement upon written notice. In 2008, the Company did not pay or accrue any amount with respect to Mr. Bagnall's consulting services. The Company does not expect to pay Mr. Bagnall more than $120,000 under the consulting agreement.

Table of ContentsEmployment and Separation Arrangements with Mr. Hanson

In connection with the commencement of Mr. Hanson's employment in December 2006 as the Company's Chief Financial Officer and a Senior Vice President, the Company entered into an offer letter agreement with Mr. Hanson which provided that in the event of Mr. Hanson's involuntary termination, subject to Mr. Hanson's execution of a mutual release (which included a nondisparagement provision and a covenant not to sue the Company), Mr. Hanson would receive an amount equal to his base salary for the six-month period immediately prior to the effective date of such involuntary termination, payable in six substantially equal installments over the six-month period following such effective date, and the Company would pay in cash all costs the Company would otherwise have incurred to maintain Mr. Hanson's health, welfare and retirement benefits if Mr. Hanson had continued to render services to the Company for six months after such effective date. In addition, the Company granted to Mr. Hanson a stock option to purchase up to 250,000 shares of the Company's common stock, which option would vest and become exercisable monthly over 48 months from the vesting start date except that no shares would vest or become exercisable for the first 12 months and, on the 12-month anniversary of the vesting start date, which was December 20, 2007, 25% of the shares vest and become exercisable. Pursuant to the terms of Mr. Hanson's December 2006 stock option, in the event of Mr. Hanson's involuntary termination, and subject to Mr. Hanson's execution of a general release of claims (which included a nondisparagement provision and a covenant not to sue the Company), that number of shares underlying the stock option would vest and become exercisable, effective immediately prior to the effective date of such involuntary termination, as would have vested and become exercisable had Mr. Hanson remained in continuous service (i.e., the absence of any interruption or termination of services as an employee, director or consultant of the Company, or any subsidiary) for six months following such effective date, and Mr. Hanson would have 180 days following the effective date of such involuntary termination to exercise this stock option. For purposes of this agreement, an involuntary termination meant one that occurred by reason of dismissal for any reason other than misconduct or of voluntary resignation following: (i) a change in position that materially reduced the level of Mr. Hanson's responsibility, (ii) a material reduction in Mr. Hanson's base salary, or (iii) relocation by more than 50 miles; provided that (ii) and (iii) will apply only if Mr. Hanson did not consented to the change or relocation. Misconduct meant the commission of any act of fraud, embezzlement or dishonesty by Mr. Hanson, any unauthorized use or disclosure by Mr. Hanson of confidential information or trade secrets of the Company (or any parent or subsidiary), or any other intentional misconduct by Mr. Hanson adversely affecting the business affairs of the Company (or any parent or subsidiary) in a material manner.

In April 2008, Mr. Hanson's employment relationship with the Company ended. In April 2008, the Company entered into a letter agreement regarding terms of separation with Mr. Hanson. The terms of Mr. Hanson employment separation, as provided in the letter agreement, were substantially identical to those set forth in his offer letter, dated December 13, 2006, and in the stock option agreement relating to the stock option granted to him in December 2006 in connection with the commencement of his employment, both of which are described above and have been previously filed with the SEC.

As set forth in the letter agreement regarding terms of separation, in exchange for a mutual release, beginning in April 2008, the Company paid Mr. Hanson an aggregate of $125,000, which was equal to six months of Mr. Hanson base salary in effect at the time of termination, less applicable payroll deductions and required withholdings, in substantially equal installments in accordance with the Company's standard payroll practices over 13 pay periods. In addition, the Company paid Mr. Hanson $20,997, less applicable payroll deductions and required withholdings, which the Company and Mr. Hanson agreed satisfied in full the Company's obligation to pay all costs that the Company would otherwise have incurred to maintain Mr. Hanson's health, welfare and retirement benefits if Mr. Hanson had continued for six continuous months after Mr. Hanson's termination date. The Company paid the $20,997 amount in substantially equal installments commencing on and continuing in accordance with the same schedule described above with respect to payment of Mr. Hanson's base salary. Furthermore, the Company accelerated the vesting and extended the time to exercise vested shares under the stock option granted to Mr. Hanson in December 2006 in connection with the commencement of his employment. Under this option, Mr. Hanson was granted the right to purchase up to 250,000 shares of the Company's common stock at a price of $2.57 per share, which right was subject to a vesting schedule. As of Mr. Hanson's termination date, this option was vested as to 78,125 shares and unvested as to 171,875 shares. Pursuant to the letter agreement regarding terms of separation, the Company accelerated vesting as to 31,250 of the unvested shares, which resulted in this option being vested as to a total of 109,375 shares, and extended the time for Mr. Hanson to exercise the vested shares under this option through September 29, 2008. Mr. Hanson did not exercise the option by September 29, 2008 and, accordingly, it terminated on that date. The closing market price of the Company's common stock on September 29, 2008 was $0.18 per share, while the exercise price of the option was $2.57 per share.

Under the letter agreement regarding terms of separation, Mr. Hanson represented that he had returned to the Company all of its property and data that had been in his possession or control and acknowledged that he will continue to be bound an agreement with the Company regarding the use and confidentiality of the Company's confidential information and, in particular, that he will hold all of the Company's confidential information in confidence and not directly or indirectly use any aspect of such confidential information. Mr. Hanson also agreed not to make any voluntary statements, written or oral, or cause or encourage others to make any such statements that defame or disparage the Company and, among others, its officers and directors.

In addition, in April 2008, the Company and Mr. Hanson entered into a consulting agreement and related confidential information and invention assignment agreement. Under the consulting agreement, Mr. Hanson agreed to provide consulting services on an as-needed basis and the Company agreed to pay Mr. Hanson (a) for the first ten hours in a particular calendar month, $250 per hour and (b) for any time beyond ten hours in a particular calendar month, $150 per hour. Either party may terminate the consulting agreement upon written notice, except that Mr. Hanson could not terminate the consulting agreement, other than for the Company's failure to pay Mr. Hanson as set forth in the consulting agreement, prior to December 31, 2008. The Company does not expect to require Mr. Hanson's consulting services during 2009.

Table of ContentsEmployment and Separation Arrangements with Dr. Robbins

Under the terms of an offer letter, dated March 5, 2003, the Company agreed to pay Dr. Robbins a bonus, payable in stock options, equal to 5% of all government grants received by the Company. In addition, the Company agreed to pay Dr. Robbins a bonus, payable in stock options, equal to 5% of capital received by the Company that is a direct result of Dr. Robbins' introduction. The Company never issued any stock options to Dr. Robbins as a result of these provisions. In October 2008, Dr. Robbins' employment relationship with the Company ended. Dr. Robbins formerly served as the Company's Chief Scientific Officer and a Senior Vice President. In December 2008, the Company entered into a Confidential Separation Agreement and General Release of All Claims regarding terms of separation with Dr. Robbins (the Robbins Separation Agreement).

As set forth in the Robbins Separation Agreement, in exchange for a release of claims and Dr. Robbins' agreement to provide certain transition assistance and Dr. Robbins' other agreements and representations (as more fully described below), the Company agreed to provide a severance payment of $123,615 to Dr. Robbins. In addition, the Company agreed to provide a health benefit allowance of $8,309, which Dr. Robbins may use, at her discretion, to pay the premiums required to continue her group health care coverage under COBRA or any other health care related expenses. The Company agreed to pay the severance payment and the health benefit allowance in eleven substantially equal installments over a period of five and one-half months, less applicable payroll deductions and required withholdings, beginning in December 2008, conditioned upon Dr. Robbins' making herself available as needed during that period to answer business-related questions by telephone or in person as deemed reasonably necessary by the Company. At the time of her separation from the Company, Dr. Robbins held vested options to purchase up to 495,312 shares. Pursuant to their terms, these options expired, unexercised, on December 30, 2008 and January 12, 2009. The closing market price of the Company's common stock on December 30, 2008 was $0.07 per share, while the exercise price of the option that expired on December 30, 2008 was $0.50 per share. The closing market price of the Company's common stock on January 12, 2009 was $0.12 per share, while the exercise prices of the options that expired on January 12, 2009 were $2.30 per share, $2.75 per share and $4.75 per share.

Under the Robbins Separation Agreement, Dr. Robbins represented that she had returned to the Company all property, data and information belonging to the Company and agreed not to use or disclose to others any confidential or proprietary information of the Company and agreed to comply with her continuing obligations under various agreements and other documents as previously executed by her. In addition, she agreed to make herself available, as needed, without any additional compensation, to answer business-related questions by telephone or in person as deemed reasonably necessary by the Company and that she will not make any voluntary statements, written or oral, or cause or encourage others to make any such statements, that defame, disparage or in any way criticize the personal and/or business reputation, practices or conduct of the Company or its employees, officers and directors, among others. Dr. Robbins also represented that she had not filed any lawsuits, complaints or other accusatory pleadings against the Company and certified that all transactions in the Company's securities prior to her separation date and reportable under Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 had been reported on Form 4 and agreed to execute and deliver promptly after December 31, 2008 a document certifying that she is not required to file a Form 5 for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008.

Acceleration of Vesting of Outstanding Stock Options

Stock options granted under the Company's 2005 Equity Incentive Plan typically are evidenced by the Company's standard stock option agreement. The Company may elect to incorporate into its standard stock option agreement one or more alternatives regarding the effect of a change in control on the underlying option, including its vesting and exercisability. The Company has not granted any stock options to any of the Named Executive Officers currently employed by the Company under its 2008 Omnibus Incentive Plan.

The Company generally provides in stock option agreements (actually entered into with recipients of stock option awards) that the option will accelerate in full in the event of an acquisition constituting a change of control (as such terms are defined in the Company's standard form of stock option agreement) if the recipient remains employed by the Company as of the closing date of such acquisition and the option is not assumed or replaced by the successor or acquiring entity or the entity in control of such successor or acquiring entity. Otherwise, the option will not accelerate in the event of such an acquisition. All of the stock option agreements governing the outstanding, unvested options held by the Named Executive Officers contain this acceleration provision.

Table of Contents

In addition, the Company has incorporated into certain stock option agreements for options granted in and after August 2006 a provision providing that, if following a change of control in which an option is assumed as described above, in the event of the recipient's involuntary termination within a period of time, not to exceed 24 months, after the closing date of such change of control, the vesting of the assumed option will be accelerated such that the option will vest as of the effective date of such involuntary termination with respect to all shares that would have vested during such period. For purposes of the stock option agreements, an involuntary termination is a termination of employment that occurs by reason of dismissal for any reason other than misconduct or of voluntary resignation following: (i) a change in position that materially reduces the level of the employee's responsibility, (ii) a material reduction in the employee's base salary, or (iii) relocation by more than 50 miles; provided that (ii) and (iii) will apply only if the employee has not consented to the change or relocation.

Misconduct means the commission of any act of fraud, embezzlement or dishonesty by the employee, any unauthorized use or disclosure by the employee of confidential information or trade secrets of the Company (or any parent or subsidiary), or any other intentional misconduct by the employee adversely affecting the business affairs of the Company (or any parent or subsidiary) in a material manner. All of the stock option agreements governing the options granted to the Named Executive Officers in January 2007 contain this double trigger acceleration provision. The Company anticipates continuing to include this or a similar double trigger acceleration provision in most stock option awards made in the future.

As of December 31, 2008, none of the Named Executive Officers had any in-the-money unvested stock options. The value at December 31, 2008 of the acceleration provisions described above is based on the spread between the exercise price of option shares that would accelerate under the acceleration scenarios described above and the market value of these shares as of December 31, 2008. The market value of these shares is based on the closing market price of the Company's common stock on December 31, 2008, which was $0.08 per share. None of the outstanding, unvested options held by the Named Executive Officers has an exercise price of less than $0.08 per share. Accordingly, none of the Named Executive Officers would have realized any value as a result of the acceleration provisions described above had any of the acceleration scenarios occurred on December 31, 2008.

Table of ContentsTax-Qualified Defined Contribution Plan

The Company has a defined contribution savings plan pursuant to Section 401(k) of the IRC. The plan is for the benefit of all full-time employees and permits voluntary contributions by qualifying employees of up to 100% of eligible compensation, subject to Internal Revenue Service-imposed maximum limits. Until January 1, 2008, the Company was required to make matching contributions in the amount of 100% of employee contributions up to 3% of eligible compensation and 50% of employee contributions between 3% and 5% of eligible compensation. Effective January 1, 2008, the plan was amended to require the Company to make matching contributions equal to 100% of employee contributions up to 6% of eligible compensation, limited by the IRS-imposed maximum. The Company incurred total expenses of approximately $218,150 and $118,000 in employer matching contributions in 2008 and 2007, respectively.

Compensation of Directors

Directors who are employees of the Company do not receive any additional compensation for their services as directors. The Company's non-employee directors are compensated as described below.

Retainer and Meeting Fees

During 2008, the Company paid its non-employee directors quarterly cash retainers and Board and committee meeting fees. The amounts of the quarterly retainers vary depending on the non-employee director's role on the Board and its committees, as set forth in the table below:

Quarterly Retainers	Chairperson	Member
Board of Directors	$ 6,250	$ 2,500
Audit Committee	$ 5,000	$ 2,500
Compensation Committee	$ 2,500	$ 1,250
Nominating and Governance Committee	$ 2,500	$ 1,250
Research and Development Committee	$ 2,500	$ 1,250

In addition to the quarterly retainers, the Company pays the following per meeting fees with respect to each meeting of the Board or any committee of the Board with a duration of more than 15 minutes, other than (i) the first four meetings of the Board held during each calendar year, (ii) the first four meetings of the audit committee held during each calendar year, (iii) the first two meetings of the compensation committee held during each calendar year and (iv) the first meeting of the nominating and governance committee held during each calendar year:

$1,000 to each director for each such meeting attended in person; and

$500 to each director for each such meeting attended via telephone conference call.

In addition to the quarterly retainer and meeting fees, the Company reimburses its non-employee directors for travel and other reasonable out-of-pocket expenses related to attendance at Board and committee meetings.

Equity Compensation

Pursuant to the terms of the Company's 2005 Equity Incentive Plan, each non-employee director was automatically granted a nonstatutory option to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock at the first meeting of the Board following each annual meeting of stockholders, provided that such non-employee director had served on the Board for at least the preceding six months. The exercise price per share of each automatically granted option was equal to 105% of the per-share fair market value of the Company's common stock on the grant date. Each such option became exercisable as to 1/12th of the shares underlying the option at the end of each calendar month after its date of grant, provided that the director remains in continuous service. The options expire no later than ten years after the date of grant. In May 2008, the Company's stockholders approved the Company's 2008 Omnibus Incentive Plan. Following adoption of the Company's 2008 Omnibus Incentive Plan, no additional awards (including the automatic options to the Company's non-employee directors described above) have been or will be made under the Company's 2005 Equity Incentive Plan; however, the 2005 Equity Incentive Plan will continue to govern any outstanding awards (including the automatic options to the Company's non-employee directors described above) previously granted under the 2005 Equity Incentive Plan.

Table of Contents

Awards under the Company's 2008 Omnibus Incentive Plan are at the discretion of the Board or the compensation committee of the Board. Unlike the 2005 Equity Incentive Plan, the 2008 Omnibus Incentive Plan does not provide for automatic awards to the Company's directors. However, the Company currently intends to grant annual nonstatutory options to its non-employee directors on terms substantially similar to the terms of the automatic annual options granted to the non-employee directors under the 2005 Equity Incentive Plan, except that the exercise price per share of these options would be equal to 100% of the per-share fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant.

In February 2008, the Board approved an option to purchase up to of 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock to each of Drs. Rowinsky and Denner. The Board granted an option to Dr. Rowinsky in connection with his appointment to the Board in February 2008 and granted an option to Dr. Denner in acknowledgment that it had not granted Dr. Denner an option in connection with his appointment to the Board in October 2006. Each option will vest and become exercisable in 12 equal monthly installments beginning on, for Dr. Rowinsky, February 25, 2008, and, for Dr. Denner, February 28, 2008, and will expire on March 23, 2018. The grants of these options were contingent upon the Company's receipt of a waiver under the Rights Agreement of restrictions relating to equity awards to directors and employees of the Company. The Company received the waiver on March 24, 2008 and, accordingly, the options were granted with an exercise price of $0.48 per share, which was the closing price of the Company's common stock on March 24, 2008, as reported by the NYSE Amex. If Dr. Rowinsky's or Dr. Denner's service to the Company terminates for any reason, the options will be exercisable, to the extent then vested, during the three-year period after the date of such termination, but in no event after March 23, 2018.

In May 2008, the Board approved an option to purchase up to 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock to each non-employee member of the Board. Each option will vest and become exercisable in 12 equal monthly installments beginning on May 28, 2008 and will expire on June 29, 2018. To comply with the requirements of the NYSE Amex regarding the listing of additional securities and applicable securities laws, the Board authorized these options to be granted as of a date that would give the Company a reasonable time to apply for and receive approval to list the additional shares with the NYSE Amex and to prepare and file a registration statement on Form S-8 covering awards under the Company's 2008 Omnibus Incentive Plan. Accordingly, the Board approved a grant date of June 30, 2008 for these options and the options were granted with an exercise price of $0.37 per share, which was the closing price of the Company's common stock on June 30, 2008. If any of the non-employee director's service to the Company terminates for any reason, the options will be exercisable, to the extent then vested, during the three-year period after the date of such termination, but in no event after June 29, 2018.

(2) Values for option awards have been computed in accordance with FAS 123R, which requires that the Company recognizes as compensation expense the value (excluding the effect of assumed forfeiture rates) of the options granted to the directors over the requisite service period, which is typically the vesting period. AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

Under the guidance of a written charter adopted by the Board, the purpose of the audit committee is to oversee the accounting and financial reporting processes of the Company and audits of its financial statements and the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting, if applicable. The responsibilities of the audit committee include appointing and providing for the compensation of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. Each of the members of the audit committee meets the independence and qualification requirements of the NYSE Amex.

Management has primary responsibility for the system of internal controls and the financial reporting process. The independent registered public accounting firm has the responsibility to express an opinion on the financial statements based on an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

In this context and in connection with the audited financial statements contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008, the audit committee:
