Independent Auditors' Report

The Members

Bay Fund Opportunity, LLC and Subsidiaries:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Bay Fund Opportunity, LLC and subsidiaries, which comprise the consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2012, and the related consolidated statements of operations, changes in members' equity, and cash flows for each of the years in the two-year period then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Bay Fund Opportunity, LLC and subsidiaries as of December 2012, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the years in the two-year period then ended, in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

The accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Bay Fund Opportunity, LLC and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2013 and the related statements of operations, changes in members' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended were not audited by us, and accordingly, we do not express an opinion on them.

The Managers may elect from time to time to distribute available cash to the Members in proportion to their percentage interests at the time of distribution.

The limited liability companies (LLCs) within the accompanying consolidated balance sheets will continue in existence until dissolved in accordance with the provisions of their operating agreements and are funded through the equity contributions of their members. As LLCs, except as may otherwise be provided under applicable law, no member shall be bound by, or personally liable for, the expenses, liabilities, or obligations of the individual companies. The members are not obligated to restore capital deficits.

Profit and loss for each fiscal period shall be allocated among the members in proportion to their percentage interests. If any membership interest is transferred or otherwise changed during any fiscal year, profit and loss for that fiscal year, shall be assigned pro rata to each day in the particular period of that fiscal year to which such item is attributable and shall be allocated to the members based upon their respective percentage interest at the close of that day. Gain or loss of the Company realized in connection with a sale or other disposition of any of the assets of the Company shall be allocated solely to the parties owning membership interests as of the date that sale or other disposition occurs.

NOTE 2—SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION—The Company consolidates entities in which it holds a greater than 50% voting interest and real estate entities that are deemed variable interest entities (VIEs) in which the Company was determined to be the primary beneficiary. The Company accounts for investments over which it has significant influence but not a controlling financial interest using the equity method of accounting.

VARIABLE INTEREST ENTITIES—The VIEs (Marina Cove and Shores) lease, manage, operate, improve, finance and sell real estate property. Management determined that the Company is the primary beneficiary of the VIEs by determining the Company has (i) the power to direct the activities that most significantly impact the VIE's economic performance and (ii) the right to receive benefits or the obligation to absorb losses which could potentially be significant to the VIE based on the terms of the VIE's operating agreement. Activities that most significantly impact the VIE's performance include selling real estate.

USE OF ESTIMATES—The preparation of the accompanying financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and the underlying assumptions affect the amounts of assets and liabilities reported, and reported amounts of income and expenses. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, which management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Such estimates and assumptions are adjusted when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. Changes in those estimates resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the financial statements in future periods.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS—Cash and cash equivalents include highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less. Periodically, the Company maintains cash balances in various bank accounts in excess of federally insured limits. To date, no losses have been experienced related to such amounts. The Company places cash with quality financial institutions and does not believe there is a significant concentration of credit risk.

REAL ESTATE ASSETS—Real estate is carried at depreciated cost, less impairment, if any. Depreciation on buildings and improvements has been provided for in the accompanying financial statements using the straight-line method based on estimated useful lives of 40 years for building and improvements and five to ten years for fixtures and equipment. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred, and costs of renewals or betterments are capitalized and depreciated at the appropriate rates.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2013 (unaudited), 2012 and 2011

IMPAIRMENT OF LONG-LIVED ASSETS—In accordance with Financial Standards Accounting Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 360, Property, Plant, and Equipment, for long lived assets, the asset or asset group is reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. If indications of impairment exist, the Company will evaluate the property by comparing the carrying amount of the asset or asset group to the estimated future undiscounted cash flows of the property. Estimated future cash flows include estimated costs to develop the property whether these costs would be recognized as an expense or capitalized in future periods. Future interest costs that are necessary to develop the property, and therefore capitalizable, are also included. If impairment exists, an impairment loss will be recognized based on the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the fair value of the asset or asset group. For the years ended December 31, 2013 (unaudited), 2012, and 2011, there were no impairments recorded.

CONCENTRATION OF RISK—The Company's real estate is concentrated in California. Adverse conditions in the sector or geographic location would likely result in a material decline in the value of the Company's investments.

NONCONTROLLING INTERESTS—Noncontrolling interests in the financial statements reflect the interests of noncontrolling members in Marina Cove and Shores.

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE—Accounts receivable primarily consist of amounts due for rental and operating expense payments in accordance with tenants' lease agreements.

REVENUE RECOGNITION—Rental revenue related to multifamily investments is recognized on the straight-line basis over the terms of the lease.

DEFERRED FINANCING COSTS, NET—Financing costs incurred in obtaining long-term debt are capitalized and amortized over the term of the related debt on a straight-line basis.

INCOME TAXES—As a limited liability company, the members elected for the Company to be a pass-through entity for income tax purposes; therefore, the Company's taxable income or loss is allocated to members in accordance with their respective ownership, and no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the financial statements. Management has evaluated the Company's tax positions and concluded that the Company had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements in order to comply with the provisions of ASC 740, Income Taxes. The Company is not subject to income tax examinations by U.S. federal, state or local tax authorities for years before 2010.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2013, 2012, and 2011 (unaudited)

NOTE 1—ORGANIZATION

Kennedy Wilson Real Estate Fund IV, L.P. (the Partnership), a Delaware limited partnership, was formed on January 28, 2011. The Agreement of Limited Partnership of the Partnership (Partnership Agreement) was executed on May 13, 2011. The general partner of the Partnership is Kennedy Wilson Property Services IV, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (the General Partner), and the special limited partner is Kennedy Wilson Property Special Equity IV, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the Special Limited Partner). The Partnership Agreement was amended and restated on January 1, 2013 to allow for the creation of a parallel fund structure to enable foreign investors to co-invest with the Partnership. On March 20, 2013, Kennedy Wilson Real Estate Fund IV (IP), L.P. (the Investment Partnership) was created and Kennedy Wilson REF IV AG, LLC (the Aggregator), was formed for the purpose of aggregating the investments of the Partnership. On July 16, 2013 the Partnership contributed 100% of its net assets to the Aggregator in exchange for an 85.02% ownership interest in the Aggregator and was equalized by the investors of the Investment Partnership who afterwards owned 14.98% of the Aggregator. The contribution of net assets from the Partnership to the Aggregator and the admittance/equalization of the Investment Partnership were done as prescribed in the Partnership's amended and restated agreement of limited partnership. Per the agreement, any admitted limited partner shall be (a) treated as having been a party to the agreement and any such increased capital commitment shall be treated as having been made, as if they had been invested from day 1 of the Partnership for all purposes, (b) required to bear and contribute its portion of the management fee from day 1 of the Partnership, other Partnership expenses from day 1 and all organizational expenses whenever incurred, and (c) unless otherwise determined by the General Partner, required to pay to the Partnership an additional amount calculated at 10% per annum (determined as of the date of such limited partner's admittance to the Partnership or increase in capital commitment (with respect to the increase in capital commitment), as applicable, on each portion of its capital contribution (including, as applicable, to fund management fees) from the date such portion of such capital contribution would have been made if such Partner had been admitted as a Partner for its full capital commitment on day 1. The Partnership's investment objective has remained unchanged and continues to be to acquire office, multifamily and other real estate investments, including real estate loans and condominiums through its ownership in the Aggregator. In accordance with this objective, the Partnership may form joint ventures with appropriate strategic co-investors or invest in real estate related financings, such as first trust deeds. Partnership investments will generally involve real estate located in the western United States and Hawaii. Under the terms of the Partnership Agreement, the Partnership shall continue until the eighth anniversary of the effective date of May 13, 2011 and may be extended for an additional one-year period by the General Partner in its discretion, and for an additional one-year period by the General Partner with the prior consent of the limited partners with a majority of aggregate commitments.

NOTE 2—SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

USE OF ESTIMATES—The preparation of the accompanying financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and the underlying assumptions affect the amounts of assets and liabilities reported, and reported amounts of revenues and expenses. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, which management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Such estimates and assumptions are adjusted when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. Changes in those estimates resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the financial statements in future periods.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS—The Partnership considers its investment in a money market account to be a cash equivalent.

The Partnership maintains its cash in federally insured banking institutions. The account balances at these institutions periodically exceed the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's (FDIC) insurance coverage, and as a result, there is a concentration of credit risk related to amounts in excess of FDIC's insurance coverage. To mitigate this risk, the Partnership places its cash with quality financial institutions.

FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT—Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or would be paid to transfer a liability (the exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

Table of Contents

KENNEDY WILSON REAL ESTATE FUND IV, L.P.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2013, 2012, and 2011 (unaudited)

A three-level hierarchy was established for fair value measurements that distinguishes between market participant assumptions developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity (observable inputs) and the reporting entity's own assumptions about market participant assumptions developed based on the best information available in the circumstances (unobservable inputs). The hierarchy level assigned to each of the Partnership's investments is based on the assessment of the transparency and reliability of the inputs used in the valuation of such investment at the measurement date. The three hierarchy levels are defined as follows:

Level 1 - Valuations based on unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2 - Valuations based on observable inputs (other than Level 1 prices), such as quoted prices for similar assets and quoted prices in markets that are not active.

Level 3 - Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement, and involve management judgment.

The availability of valuation techniques and observable inputs can vary from investment to investment. To the extent that valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Those estimated values do not necessarily represent the amounts that may be ultimately realized due to the occurrence of future circumstances that cannot be reasonably determined. Because of the inherent uncertainty of valuation, those estimated values may be materially higher or lower than the values that would have been used had a ready market for the investments existed. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised by the General Partner in determining fair value is greatest for investments classified as Level 3. In certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

Fair value is a market-based measure considered from the perspective of a market participant rather than an entity-specific measure. Therefore, even when market assumptions are not readily available, the General Partner's own assumptions are set to reflect those that market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability at the measurement date. The General Partner uses prices and inputs that it believes are current as of the measurement date.

VALUATION OF INVESTMENTS—The Partnership's investments in real estate assets are stated at fair value using the income and market approaches. For the Limited Liability Companies (LLC) in which the Partnership has a partial ownership interest, the LLC's investments in real estate are also stated at fair value using the income and market approaches. The income approach requires the General Partner to estimate the projected operating cash flows of the real estate on an asset-by-asset basis, apply a capitalization (cap) rate to the reversion year's cash flows and discount the cash flows with a risk-adjusted rate for the respective holding periods. The market approach requires the General Partner to identify transactions for similar assets, if any, and apply asset specific adjustments for items such as location, physical condition and other pertinent factors which would impact fair value. The Partnership's investments in notes and loan pool participations are stated at fair value based on a comparison of the yield that would be required in a current transaction, taking into consideration the risk of the underlying collateral and the credit risk of the borrower to the current yield of similar fixed income securities.

The accuracy of estimating fair value for Level 3 investments cannot be determined with precision, cannot be substantiated by comparison to quoted prices in active markets, and may not be realized in a current sale or immediate settlement of the asset or liability. Additionally, there are inherent uncertainties in any fair value measurement technique, and changes in the underlying assumptions used, including discount rates, liquidity risks, and estimates of future cash flows, could significantly affect the fair value measurement amounts.

The Partnership's investments in real estate and real estate related assets and real estate related fixed income securities are accounted for on a closing-date basis.

CONCENTRATION OF RISK—Substantially all of the Partnership's investments are concentrated in real estate related investments in California, Oregon, and Hawaii. Adverse conditions in the sector or geographic locations would likely result in material declines in the value of the Partnership's investments.

REVENUE RECOGNITION—Dividend income from investments in real estate and real estate related entities is recorded when a disbursement has been approved and declared from the underlying investments of the Partnership. Undistributed earnings from real estate and real estate related entities are considered by the General Partner in estimating the fair value of these investments. The Partnership also records its proportionate share of the Aggregator's income, expenses, realized and unrealized gain (losses) after July 16, 2013 (date of equalization).

INCOME TAXES—The Partnership is not subject to federal or state income taxes, and accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements. The partners are required to report their proportional share of income, gains, loss, credit, or deduction on their respective tax returns.

The Partnership is required to determine whether a tax position is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement, which could result in the Partnership recording a tax liability that would reduce net assets. Based on its analysis, the Partnership has determined that there are no tax benefits that would have a material impact on the Partnership's financial position or results of operations. The tax year 2011 (year of inception) is the earliest year that remains open to examination by the taxing jurisdictions to which the Partnership is subject.

NOTE 3—FAIR VALUE OF INVESTMENTS

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2013, 2012, and 2011 (unaudited)

The net change in unrealized appreciation on investments that use Level 3 inputs still held as of December 31, 2012 was $13,294,030.

The following table presents the classification of the Partnership's fair value measurements as of December 31, 2011 (unaudited):

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Interests in real estate assets	$—	$—	$61,407,239	$61,407,239
	$—	$—	$61,407,239	$61,407,239

The following table presents changes in Level 3 investments for the period from January 28, 2011 (inception) through December 31, 2011 (unaudited):

	January 28, 2011	Purchases	Sales	Realized gains (losses)	Unrealized appreciation (depreciation)	December 31, 2011
Interests in real estate assets	$—	$59,385,870	$—	$—	$2,021,369	$61,407,239
	$—	$59,385,870	$—	$—	$2,021,369	$61,407,239

The net change in unrealized appreciation on investments that use Level 3 inputs still held as of December 31, 2011 was $2,021,369 (unaudited).

Since inception, all investments have been classified as Level 3 investments and there have been no transfers between other levels of the hierarchy.

In estimating fair value of investments in real estate assets, the Partnership considers significant inputs such as capitalization and discount rates. The table below describes the range of inputs used as of December 31, 2013, 2012, and 2011 (unaudited):

	Cap rate		Discount rate
	Min	Max	Min	Max
Multifamily	5.75	% 7.00	% 8.50	% 9.25	%
Office	6.00	7.50	7.50	9.75
Retail	8.00	8.00	9.00	12.00

Valuing real estate related assets and indebtedness, the Partnership considers significant inputs such as the term of the debt, value of collateral, current loan-to-value ratios, market interest rates and spreads, and credit quality of investment entities. The credit spreads used by the Partnership for these types of investments range from 1.75% to 7.90%.

The accuracy of estimating fair value for investments utilizing unobservable inputs cannot be determined with precision, cannot be substantiated by comparison to quoted prices in active markets, and may not be realized in a current sale of immediate settlement of the asset or liability. Additionally, there are inherent uncertainties in any fair value measurement technique, and changes in the underlying assumptions used, including cap rates, discount rates, liquidity risks, and estimates of future cash flows, could significantly affect the fair value measurement amounts.

NOTE 4—RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

MANAGEMENT FEE—During the period which commenced on May 13, 2011 and expires on the earlier of the third anniversary of such date or when all of the commitments of the nonaffiliated limited partners have been invested (the Investment Period), the Partnership shall pay the General Partner a management fee equal to 1.50% per annum of the invested capital contributed by the nonaffiliated limited partners and 1.00% per annum of the difference between the aggregate capital commitments of the nonaffiliated limited partners and the invested capital contributed by the nonaffiliated limited partners. After the Investment Period expires, the Partnership shall pay the General Partner a management fee equal to 1.50% per annum of the invested capital contributed by the nonaffiliated limited partners.

The Partnership incurred $2,731,850 and $1,720,041 in management fees for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012 respectively, and $691,195 (unaudited) in management fees for the period from January 28, 2011

Notes to Financial Statements

(inception) through December 31, 2011. The Partnership's proportionate share of the Aggregator's management fee is $2,035,256 for the period from July 16, 2013 (date of equalization) through December 31, 2013.

The management fee shall be reduced, in any calendar quarter, by the nonaffiliated limited partners' percentage of any organizational expenses that the Partnership pays in excess of $1,000,000. In the event that the amount of fee reduction exceeds the management fee for such quarterly period, such excess shall be carried forward to reduce the management fee payable in following quarterly periods. There have been no reductions for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, and the period from January 28, 2011 (inception) through December 31, 2011 (unaudited).

ORGANIZATION EXPENSE—The Partnership shall pay or reimburse the General Partner for up to $1 million of organizational expenses incurred on behalf of the Partnership. Organization expenses in excess of $1 million will reduce the management fee paid to the General Partner. The Partnership incurred organization costs of $115,294 and $409,387 for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012 respectively, and $590,613 (unaudited) for the period from January 28, 2011 (inception) through December 31, 2011.

NOTE 5—PARTNERS' CAPITAL

CONTRIBUTIONS—The total committed capital of the Partnership is $257,368,421 as of December 31, 2013, of which $179,925,970 or 69.91% has been called, and $156,578,947 as of December 31, 2012 of which $131,347,622 or 83.89% had been called.

The General Partner is authorized to call additional capital in its sole discretion when additional capital is required to acquire investments, provide working capital, establish reserves, or pay expenses, costs, losses, or liabilities of the Partnership. However, only nonaffiliated limited partners are required to fund management fees or excess organization costs as described above. No limited partner shall be required to make any additional capital contributions in excess of its capital commitment. Any portion of a limited partner's capital commitment that has not been called by the General Partner within the period ending three years from the effective date of May 13, 2011 may not be drawn to fund new commitments for investments. However, the partners shall remain obligated to make capital contributions throughout the duration of the Partnership in order to fund commitments for new investments in existence at the end of the Investment Period, to pay for management fees and other partnership expenses, to fund requirements of existing investments in an aggregate amount not to exceed 15% of the aggregate commitments, or to pay continuing obligations of the Partnership under any line of credit or permitted indebtedness.

The General Partner may cause the Partnership to return to the partners any portion of a capital contribution that is not invested in an investment or used to pay partnership expenses, that is a contribution for bridge financing that is recouped by the Partnership within twelve months, or is invested in a portion of an investment sold to either an executive fund or related parallel fund. All such returned capital contributions shall be returned to the partners in proportion to the cash contribution made by each partner and shall be treated as not having been called or funded.

DISTRIBUTIONS—Distributions of net cash flow shall initially be made to the partners based on the percentage of their aggregate investment contributions to the aggregate investment contributions made by all partners. The initial amount apportioned to the limited partners shall be distributed to the limited partners and the Special Limited Partner as follows:

- (i) First, 100% to limited partners until the limited partners have received cumulative distributions equal to the sum of their aggregate contributions for investments and partnership costs;
- (ii) Second, 100% to limited partners until the unpaid preferred return of ten percent (10%), compounded annually, due to the limited partners is reduced to zero,
- (iii) Third, 50% to the Special Limited Partner and 50% to the limited partners to the extent necessary so that the aggregate distributions to the Special Limited Partner equal 20% of the cumulative amount of distributions made to limited partners pursuant to (ii) and (iv), and
- (iv) Thereafter, 20% to the Special Limited partner and 80% to the limited partners.

Notwithstanding the above, the General Partner shall have authority to make distributions to the Special Limited Partner in an amount equal to the tax liability on its carried interest. Such distributions shall be treated as advances of distributions to the Special Limited Partner and shall reduce future distributions due to the Special Limited Partner.

ALLOCATION OF PARTNERSHIP INCOME AND LOSSES—The allocation of Partnership income and loss will generally follow the allocation of distributions.

NOTE 6—FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

The Internal Rate of Return (IRR) of the limited partners of the Partnership, net of all fees and profit allocations to the Special Limited Partner, is 11.14% and 11.16% at December 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively, and 3.47% (unaudited) from inception through December 31, 2011.

The IRR was computed based on the actual dates of the cash inflows (capital contributions), outflows (cash distributions), and the ending net assets at the end of the period (residual value) of the limited partners' capital accounts as of December 31, 2013, 2012, and 2011 (unaudited).

Ratio to average limited partners' capital:
Net investment income (loss)	(0.63)%	0.47	%	(2.98)%
Total expenses	4.21	%	3.68	%	4.81	%
Incentive allocation	0.38	%	1.37	%	—	%
Total expenses and incentive allocation	4.59	%	5.05	%	4.81	%

The net investment income and total expense ratios (including incentive allocation) are calculated for the limited partners taken as a whole. The computation of such ratios, based on the amount of net investment income, expenses, and incentive allocation assessed to an individual investor, may vary from these ratios based on the timing of capital transactions. The above ratios are computed based upon the weighted average limited partners' capital of the Partnership as measured at the end of each monthly accounting period for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, and the period from inception through December 31, 2011 (unaudited).

Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2013 , 2012 (unaudited), and 2011 (unaudited)

NOTE 1—ORGANIZATION

One Baxter Way, LP (the Partnership), a Delaware limited partnership, is 45.52% owned by KW Property Fund I, L.P., 45.52% owned by KW Property Fund II, L.P (Fund II), and 8.96% owned by K-W Properties, which is wholly owned by Kennedy-Wilson Holdings, Inc. (Kennedy Wilson).

The Partnership was organized in September 2007 to invest in and fully own the property known as The Oaks (the Property). The Property is an office building totaling approximately 354,000 rentable square feet (unaudited), located in Westlake Village, California.

Available cash is distributed to the partners in proportion to their percentage interests at the time of distribution. Profit and loss for each fiscal period shall be allocated among the partners in proportion to their percentage interests, in accordance with the limited partnership agreement.

The term of the Partnership extends until the date all Partnership investments have been liquidated, the Partnership is dissolved, or at any time there are no Limited Partners.

NOTE 2—SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

REVENUE RECOGNITION—Rental revenue from tenants is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term when collectability is reasonably assured and the tenant has taken possession or controls the physical use of the leased asset.

Tenant recoveries related to the reimbursement of real estate taxes, insurance, repairs and maintenance, and other operating expenses are recognized as revenue in the period the applicable expenses are incurred. The reimbursements are recognized and presented gross, since the Partnership is generally the primary obligor with respect to purchasing goods and services from third-party suppliers, has discretion in selecting the supplier, and bears the associated credit risk.

USE OF ESTIMATES—The preparation of the accompanying financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and the underlying assumptions affect the amounts of assets and liabilities reported, and the reported amounts of income and expenses. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, which management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Such estimates and assumptions are adjusted when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. Changes in those estimates resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the financial statements in future periods.

CASH—Cash includes highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less. Periodically, the Partnership maintains cash balances in various bank accounts in excess of federally insured limits. To date, no losses have been experienced related to such amounts. The Partnership places cash with quality financial institutions and does not believe there is a significant concentration of credit risk.

REAL ESTATE ASSETS—The fair value of real estate acquired was allocated to the acquired tangible assets, consisting primarily of land and buildings and improvements, and to the identified acquired intangible assets, which comprise in-place leases, above-market leases and below-market leases.

The fair value of real estate was determined by valuing the property as if it were vacant, which was then allocated to land and buildings and improvements, based on management's determination of the relative fair values of these assets. The value of the acquired in-place leases was determined by calculating the present value of the cash flows provided by the leases, net of related incremental expenses over the estimated lease-up period. The fair value determination was made using Level 3 inputs.

Real estate assets are carried at depreciated cost. Depreciation on buildings and improvements has been provided for in the accompanying financial statements using the straight-line method based on estimated useful lives of 40 years for building and improvements and over the lease life for tenant improvements. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred, and costs of renewals or betterments are capitalized and depreciated at the appropriate rates.

ONE BAXTER WAY, LP

(A Delaware Limited Partnership)

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2013 , 2012 (unaudited), and 2011 (unaudited)

IMPAIRMENT OF LONG-LIVED ASSETS—In accordance with FASB ASC Topic 360, Property, Plant, and Equipment, the asset or asset group is reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. If indications of impairment exist, the Partnership will evaluate the project by comparing the carrying amount of the asset or asset group to the estimated future undiscounted cash flows of the project. If impairment exists, an impairment loss will be recognized based on the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the fair value of the asset or asset group. For the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012 (unaudited) there were no impairments recorded. For the year ended December 31, 2011, an impairment loss of $12,476,401 was recorded (unaudited) as the carrying amount of the Property exceeds the fair value.

CONCENTRATION OF RISK—The Partnership's real estate is located in California. Adverse conditions in the sector or geographic location would likely result in a material decline in the value of the Partnership's investment.

DEFERRED FINANCING COSTS, NET—Financing costs incurred in obtaining long-term debt are capitalized and amortized over the term of the related debt on a straight-line basis, which approximates the effective interest method.

INCOME TAXES—As a limited partnership, the partners elected for the Partnership to be a pass-through entity for income tax purposes; therefore, the Partnership's taxable income or loss is allocated to partners in accordance with their respective ownership, and no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the financial statements. Management has evaluated the Partnership's tax positions and concluded that the Partnership had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements in order to comply with the provisions of FASB ASC Topic 740, Income Taxes.

FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS —The Partnership follows the provisions of FASB ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (ASC Topic 820), for fair value measurements of financial assets and financial liabilities and for fair value measurements of nonfinancial items that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a recurring or nonrecurring basis. ASC Topic 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or would be paid to transfer a liability (the exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

A three-level hierarchy was established for fair value measurements that distinguishes between market participant assumptions developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity (observable inputs) and the reporting entity's own assumptions about market participant assumptions developed based on the best information available in the circumstances (unobservable inputs). The three hierarchy levels are defined as follows: Level 1 - Valuations based on unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2 - Valuations based on observable inputs (other than Level 1 prices), such as quoted prices for similar assets and quoted prices in markets that are not active.

Level 3 - Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement, and involve management judgment.

For certain financial instruments, including cash, tenant receivables, escrows and deposits, prepaid expenses, accounts payable and accrued expenses, prepaid rent, and tenant deposits, recorded amounts approximate fair value due to the relatively short-term nature of these instruments.

The Partnership has no assets or liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring or nonrecurring basis in the financial statements as of December 31, 2013 and 2012 (unaudited). As of December 31, 2011, level 3 inputs were used to fair value the land and building and determine the impairment charge recorded.

NOTE 3—REAL ESTATE ACQUISITION

The fair value of the Property was allocated to the acquired tangible assets, consisting primarily of land and building and improvements, and to the identified acquired intangible assets, which comprises of in-place leases, in accordance with Business Combinations ASC Subtopic 805-10. Acquisition related costs were expensed as incurred.

Upon the purchase in 2007, the fair value of real estate was determined by valuing the Property as if it were vacant, which was then allocated to land and building and improvements, based on management's determination of the relative fair value of the asset. The value of the acquired in-place leases was determined by calculating the present value of the cash flows provided by the leases, net of related incremental expenses over the estimated lease-up period. As of December 31, 2013 no amount of intangible asset is capitalized and subject to amortization related to leases that were in-place upon acquisition in 2007. As of December 31, 2012 (unaudited), $283,010 of intangible assets is capitalized and subject to amortization related to leases that were in-place upon acquisition in 2007.

(A Delaware Limited Partnership)

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2013 , 2012 (unaudited), and 2011 (unaudited)

NOTE 4—MORTGAGES PAYABLE

In November 2011, the mortgage loan which is secured by the property, was refinanced. The mortgage loan was settled for less than its contractual obligation, which resulted in $6,230,192 of debt forgiveness and recorded as income on the accompanying statements of operations for the year ended December 31, 2011.

In September 2012, the mortgage loan which is secured by the Property, was refinanced. The mortgage loan bears an interest rate of LIBOR + 2.0% and mature on October 1, 2017.

The fair value of the mortgage loan as of December 31, 2013 was $63,526,785. The fair value was estimated based on the quoted market prices for the same or similar issues for debt of the same remaining maturities. Based on its nature, the fair value of the mortgage loan was determined using Level 2 inputs, as defined in note 2. The fair value amount does not necessarily represent the amount that would be required to satisfy the debt obligation.

As of December 31, 2013, the future cash principal payments on the mortgage payable are as follows:

2014	$600,000
2015	2,400,000
2016	2,400,000
2017	58,100,000
	$63,500,000

The mortgage loan covenants require that the Property maintain a Debt Service Coverage Ratio of not less than 1.15 to 1.00. As of December 31, 2013, the Property was in compliance with this covenant.

NOTE 5—MINIMUM FUTURE LEASE RENTALS

As of December 31, 2013, the minimum future cash rents receivable under non-cancellable operating leases in each of the next five years and thereafter are as follows:

2014	$11,437,431
2015	9,375,041
2016	9,656,292
2017	9,945,981
2018	7,683,556
Thereafter	1,715,758
	$49,814,059

Contractual rents are normally increased over the term of the lease. Depending on local market factors, increases may be structured as a fixed percentage increase for each year of the lease or as an increase based on the Consumer Price Index. Also, concessions in the form of free rent may sometimes be provided. Such determinable changes in contractual rents are recognized on a straight line basis over the life of the lease.

In addition to base rent, most tenants are assessed monthly for their proportionate share of estimated net increases in property operating costs and real property taxes. Such expense reimbursements are typically amounts in excess of the tenant's share of expenses attributable to a base year stipulated in the lease.

The Members

KW Funds - 303 North Glenoaks, LLC and KW Funds - 6100 Wilshire, LLC:

We have audited the accompanying combined financial statements of KW Funds - 303 North Glenoaks, LLC (a Delaware limited liability company) and KW Funds - 6100 Wilshire, LLC, which comprise the combined balance sheet as of December 31, 2013, and the related combined statements of operations, members' capital, and cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2013, and the related notes to the combined financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these combined financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of combined financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the combined financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the combined financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the combined financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the combined financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the combined financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the combined financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Notes to the Combined Financial Statements
December 31, 2013 and 2012 (unaudited) and 2011 (unaudited)

NOTE 1—ORGANIZATION

KW Funds—303 North Glenoaks, LLC (Glenoaks), a Delaware limited liability company, is 50% owned by KW Property Fund II, L.P. (Fund II) and 50% owned by KW Property Fund III, L.P. (Fund III). Glenoaks was organized in March 2008 to invest in and fully own the property known as 303 North Glenoaks (the Glenoaks Property). This property is an office building totaling approximately 176,000 rentable square feet, located in Burbank, California. KW Funds—6100 Wilshire, LLC (6100 Wilshire), a Delaware limited liability company, is 85.71% owned by KW Property Fund II, L.P. and 14.29% owned by KW Property Fund III, L.P. 6100 Wilshire was organized in June 2008 to invest in and fully own the property known as 6100 Wilshire (the Wilshire Property). This property is an office building totaling approximately 214,000 rentable square feet, located in Los Angeles, California.

The combination of Glenoaks and 6100 Wilshire is collectively referred to as "the Companies". The Companies are presented on a combined basis, as they are held under common ownership by Fund II and Fund III. The Glenoaks Property and the Wilshire Property are collectively referred to as "the Properties".

Available cash is distributed to the members in proportion to their percentage interests at the time of distribution. Profit and loss for each fiscal period shall be allocated among the members in proportion to their percentage interests. The limited liability companies (LLC's) will continue in existence until dissolved in accordance with the provisions of their operating agreement and are funded through the equity contributions of their members. As LLC's, except as may otherwise be provided under applicable law, no member shall be bound by, or personally liable for, the expenses, liabilities, or obligations of the individual companies. The members are not obligated to restore capital deficits.

NOTE 2—SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

REVENUE RECOGNITION—Rental revenue from tenants is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term when collectability is reasonably assured and the tenant has taken possession or controls the physical use of the leased asset.

Operating expense recoveries related to the reimbursement of real estate taxes, insurance, repairs and maintenance, and other operating expenses are recognized as revenue in the period the applicable expenses are incurred. The reimbursements are recognized and presented gross, since the Companies are generally the primary obligor with respect to purchasing goods and services from third-party suppliers, has discretion in selecting the supplier, and bears the associated credit risk.

Other revenue is primarily comprised of parking income. The total amount of parking income for the year ended December 31, 2013, 2012, and 2011 was $1,060,495, $888,790 (unaudited), and $749,905 (unaudited), respectively.

USE OF ESTIMATES—The preparation of the accompanying financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and the underlying assumptions affect the amounts of assets and liabilities reported, and the reported amounts of income and expenses. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, which management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Such estimates and assumptions are adjusted when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. Changes in those estimates resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the financial statements in future periods.

CASH—Cash includes highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less. Periodically, the Companies maintain cash balances in various bank accounts in excess of federally insured limits. To date, no losses have been experienced related to such amounts. The Companies place cash with quality financial institutions and do not believe there is a significant concentration of credit risk.

REAL ESTATE ASSETS—Real estate assets are carried at depreciated cost. Depreciation on buildings and improvements has been provided for in the accompanying financial statements using the straight-line method based on estimated useful lives of 40 years for buildings and the related lease life for tenant improvements. The amortization of intangible assets associated with in-place leases has been provided for in the accompanying financial statements using the straight-line method based on the weighted-average remaining lease lives. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred, and costs of renewals or betterments are capitalized and depreciated at the appropriate rates.

December 31, 2013 and 2012 (unaudited) and 2011 (unaudited)

IMPAIRMENT OF LONG-LIVED ASSETS—In accordance with accounting guidance for long-lived assets, the properties are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. If indications of impairment exist, the Companies will evaluate the properties by comparing the carrying amount of the properties to the estimated future undiscounted cash flows of the properties. If impairment exists, an impairment loss will be recognized based on the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the fair value of the properties. For the periods ended December 31, 2013, 2012 (unaudited), and 2011 (unaudited), there were no impairments recorded.

CONCENTRATION OF RISK—The Companies' real estate is located in California. Adverse conditions in the sector or geographic location would likely result in a material decline in the value of the Companies investment.

DEFERRED FINANCING COSTS, NET—Financing costs incurred in obtaining long-term debt are capitalized and amortized over the term of the related debt on a straight-line basis.

INCOME TAXES—As LLC's, the members elected for the Companies to be pass-through entities for income tax purposes; therefore, the Companies' taxable income or loss is allocated to members in accordance with their respective ownership, and no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the combined financial statements. Management has evaluated the Companies tax positions and concluded that the Companies have taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the combined financial statements in order to comply with the provisions of this guidance.

FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS—The Companies follow the provisions of FASB ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, for fair value measurements of financial assets and financial liabilities and for fair value measurements of nonfinancial items that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the combined financial statements on a recurring or nonrecurring basis. ASC Topic 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or would be paid to transfer a liability (the exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

A three-level hierarchy was established for fair value measurements that distinguishes between market participant assumptions developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity (observable inputs) and the reporting entity's own assumptions about market participant assumptions developed based on the best information available in the circumstances (unobservable inputs). The three hierarchy levels are defined as follows:
Level 1 - Valuations based on unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2 - Valuations based on observable inputs (other than Level 1 prices), such as quoted prices for similar assets and quoted prices in markets that are not active.

Level 3 - Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement, and involve management judgment.

For certain financial instruments, including cash, tenant receivables, escrows and deposits, prepaid expenses, accounts payable and accrued expenses, prepaid rent, and tenant deposits, recorded amounts approximate fair value due to the relatively short-term nature of these instruments.

The Companies have no assets or liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring or nonrecurring basis in the financial statements as of December 31, 2013 and 2012 (unaudited).

NOTE 3—REAL ESTATE ACQUISITION

The fair value of the Properties was allocated to the acquired tangible assets, consisting primarily of land and buildings, and to the identified acquired intangible assets, which comprise in-place leases, above-market leases and below-market leases, in accordance with Business Combinations ASC Subtopic 805-10. Acquisition related costs were expensed as incurred.

Upon their respective purchases in 2008, the fair value of real estate was determined by valuing the Properties as if they were vacant, which was then allocated to land and buildings and improvements, based on management's determination of the relative fair values of these assets. The value of the acquired in-place leases was determined by calculating the present value of the cash flows provided by the leases, net of related incremental expenses over the estimated lease-up period. As of December 31, 2013 and 2012 (unaudited), no amount of intangible assets is capitalized and subject to amortization related to leases that were in-place upon acquisition in 2008.

NOTE 4—MORTGAGES PAYABLE

The Properties have mortgage loans payable to third-party financial institutions, which are secured by the Glenoaks Property and the Wilshire Property. The mortgages bear an interest rate of LIBOR + 4.0% and mature on October 31, 2014. The loans are subject to a repayment fee of $911,198 that is due at the time the loans are repaid. An accrual for this obligation is recorded in accounts payable and accrued expenses in the accompanying combined balance sheets as of December 31, 2013 and 2012 (unaudited). The Companies intend to extend the terms of these mortgages in 2014. During 2013, the Companies repaid off $16,550,000 of mortgage loan payable using funds received from contributions from Members. This second mortgage on the combined Properties bore interest at a rate of 11.0%. The fair value of the debt as of December 31, 2013 and 2012 was $71,841,609 and $89,462,726 (unaudited), respectively. The fair value was estimated based on the quoted market prices for the same or similar issues for debt of the same remaining maturities as well as the credit quality of the Companies. Although the Companies have determined that the majority of the inputs used to value the mortgage fall within Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy, the assessment of the Companies' credit quality associated with the valuation utilized Level 3 inputs. However, the Companies assessed the significance of the impact of the Level 3 inputs on the overall valuation of the liability and determined that it is not significant to the overall valuation of the mortgage. As a result, the Companies have determined that its mortgage payable valuation in its entirety be classified in Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy, as defined in note 2. The fair value amount does not necessarily represent the amount that would be required to satisfy the debt obligation.

NOTE 5 - TENANT CONCENTRATIONS

The top two tenants accounted for approximately $1.9 million and $1.4 million, or 17.1% and 12.8%, respectively, of the Companies combined rental income for the year ended December 31, 2013. No other tenant comprised more than 10% of the Companies' combined rental income for the year ended December 31, 2013.

NOTE 6—MINIMUM FUTURE LEASE RENTALS

The following is a schedule of future minimum rents to be received under noncancellable operating leases as of December 31, 2013:

2014	$9,949,898
2015	8,014,866
2016	5,422,778
2017	4,054,895
2018	2,732,324
Thereafter	3,107,726
Total	$33,282,487

Contractual rents are normally increased over the term of the lease. Depending on local market factors, increases may be structured as a fixed percentage increase for each year of the lease or as an increase based on the Consumer Price Index. Also, concessions in the form of free rent may sometimes be provided. Such determinable changes in contractual rents are recognized on a straight line basis over the life of the lease.

In addition to base rent, most tenants are assessed monthly for their proportionate share of estimated net increases in property operating costs and real property taxes. Such expense reimbursements are typically amounts in excess of the tenant's share of expenses attributable to a base year stipulated in the lease.

NOTE 7—TRANSACTIONS WITH THE AFFILIATES

Affiliates receive leasing commissions, a management fee, a construction management fee, reimbursements for certain billed management and administrative related costs.

NOTE 8—COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Liabilities for loss contingencies arising from claims, assessments, litigation, fines, and penalties and other sources are recorded when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount can be reasonably estimated. Legal costs incurred in connection with loss contingencies are expensed as incurred. Currently, the Companies do not have any material commitments or contingencies.

BAY AREA SMART GROWTH FUND II, LLC

(A Delaware Limited Liability Company)

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2013 (unaudited), 2012, and 2011

NOTE 1—ORGANIZATION

Bay Area Smart Growth Fund II, LLC, a Delaware Limited Liability Company (the Company) was formed by and among KW BASGF II Manager, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (Managing Member); Pacific National Bank, Far East National Bank, First Bank, Union Bank, United Commercial Bank, US Bank National Association, Washington Mutual Community Development, Inc. and Mechanics Bank (collectively, the Nonmanaging Members); and Bay Area Council, a California nonprofit corporation (Special Member); collectively, the Members. The Company was formed upon the filing of the Company's Certificate of Formation in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware on February 5, 2007. The term of the Company initially extends to August 31, 2016 and can be extended to facilitate the realization of investments.

The Company was formed to invest in retail, office, commercial and industrial projects, and in multi-family housing projects. The purposes of the Company are to achieve double bottom line fund returns (i.e., produce a risk-adjusted market rate of return for members while generating positive economic, social and environmental benefits for the neighborhoods that are within the San Francisco Bay Area region, the Double Bottom Line).

The Managing Member of the Company is an affiliate of Kennedy-Wilson, Inc. (KWI). It is anticipated that the Company will form and be the sole member of separate limited liability companies to purchase real estate interests. Cumulative capital contributions and commitments were as follows as of December 31, 2013 and 2012:

	2013 (unaudited)	2012
KW BASGF II Manager, LLC	$ 14,312,483	$ 14,312,483
Far East National Bank	3,000,000	3,000,000
First Bank	1,000,000	1,000,000
Union Bank	2,624,967	2,624,967
East West Bank (formerly United Commercial Bank)	3,000,000	3,000,000
US Bank National Association	1,312,221	1,312,221
Mechanics Bank	1,000,000	1,000,000
	$ 26,249,671	$ 26,249,671

During 2010, the original members, United Commercial Bank and Pacific National Bank, were taken over by East West Bank and US Bank, respectively. Due to an agreement between US Bank and FDIC, Pacific National Bank's investment in the Company was transferred to FDIC. During 2012, the interests of FDIC (as Receiver for Pacific National Bank) and JP Morgan Chase (formerly Washington Mutual Community Development, Inc.) were transferred to KW BASG II Manager, LLC.

Distributions of investment proceeds to the Members are calculated and made with respect to each investment made by the Company generally as follows:

a) First to the Members pro rata in proportion to, and to the extent of, the amount necessary so that each Member has received on a cumulative basis an amount equal to 100% of such Members invested capital with respect to such investment.

b) Then, to the Members pro rata in proportion to and to the extent of the amount necessary so that each such Member has received on a cumulative basis an amount equal to a preferred rate of return on the Member's Capital with respect to such investment at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum compounded annually.

c) Then, pari passu 79% to the Managing Member, 8.316% to the Special Member, and 12.684% to Members in proportion to capital contributions until such time as the Managing Member has received 19% of the amounts distributed to the Members pursuant to paragraph (b) above and this paragraph (c), and the Special Member has received 2% of the amounts distributed to the Members pursuant to paragraph (b) above and this paragraph (c).

d) Thereafter, pari passu 79% to all Members in proportion to capital contributions, 19% to the Managing Member, and 2% to the Special Member.

Any other cash or other property received by the Company shall be allocated among, and distributed to, the Members in a manner determined by the Managing Member to be fair and equitable to the Members and as nearly as practicable to the provisions above.

BAY AREA SMART GROWTH FUND II, LLC

(A Delaware Limited Liability Company)

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2013 (unaudited), 2012, and 2011

The Members have agreed to allocate income and loss for financial reporting purposes in a manner which they believe reflects the Members' respective economic interests in the total reported Members' capital of the Company as of and for each year ended December 31.

NOTE 2—SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

MANAGEMENT ESTIMATES—The preparation of the accompanying financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and the underlying assumptions affect the amounts of assets and liabilities reported, and the reported amounts of income and expenses. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, which management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Such estimates and assumptions are adjusted when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. Changes in those estimates resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the financial statements in future periods.

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION—The Company consolidates entities in which it holds a greater than 50% voting interest, or when certain conditions are met for variable interest entities. The Company has no involvement with variable interest entities. The Company accounts for investments over which it has significant influence but not a controlling financial interest using the equity method of accounting.

ORGANIZATION OF LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANIES—The limited liability companies (LLCs) within the accompanying financial statements will continue in existence until dissolved in accordance with the provisions of their operating agreements and are funded through the equity contributions of the members. As LLCs, except as may otherwise be provided under applicable law, no member shall be bound by, or personally liable for, the expenses, liabilities, or obligations of the individual companies. The members are not obligated to restore capital deficits.

INVESTMENTS IN UNCONSOLIDATED REAL ESTATE ENTITIES—In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 323, Investment —Equity Method and Joint Ventures, unconsolidated equity method investments are initially recorded at cost and subsequently are adjusted for the Company's share of the venture's earnings or losses and cash distributions.

In accordance with the guidance, the allocation of profit and losses should be analyzed to determine how an increase or decrease in net assets (determined in conformity with GAAP) will affect cash payments to the investor over the life of the entity and on its liquidation. Because certain agreements contain preferences with regard to cash flows from operations, capital events and/or liquidation, the Company reflects its share of profits and losses by determining the difference between its “claim on the investee's book value” at the end and the beginning of the period. This claim is calculated as the amount that the Company would receive (or be obligated to pay) if the investee were to liquidate all of its assets at recorded amounts determined in accordance with GAAP and distribute the resulting cash to creditors and investors in accordance with their respective priorities. This method is commonly referred to as the hypothetical liquidation at book value method.

Costs incurred in connection with the acquisition of investments in unconsolidated real estate entities are capitalized as part of the Company's basis in the investments in the entities. The Company amortizes any excess of the carrying value of its investments over the book value of the underlying equity over the estimated useful lives of the underlying operating property, which represents the assets to which the excess is most clearly related.

On a periodic basis, the Company assesses whether there are any indicators that the value of its investments may be impaired. An investment is impaired only if management's estimate of the value of the investment is less than the carrying value of the investments, and such decline in value is deemed to be other-than-temporary. To the extent impairment has occurred, the loss shall be measured as the excess of the carrying amount of the investment over the estimated fair value of the investment. The Company's estimates of estimated fair value for each investment are based on a number of assumptions that are subject to economic and market uncertainties including, among others, demand for space, competition for tenants, changes in market rental rates and operating costs of the property. As these factors are difficult to predict and are subject to future events that may alter these assumptions, the values estimated by the Company in its impairment analysis may not be realized. During the year ended December 31, 2011, the Company recognized a loss on the transfer of a portion of its interest in the Bay Fund Opportunity, LLC of $2,359,686 (see note 3). As of December 31, 2013 (unaudited) and 2012, the Company determined there was no impairment related to the investments in unconsolidated real estate entities.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS—Cash and cash equivalents include highly liquid investments purchased with a maturity of three months or less. Periodically, the Company maintains cash balances in various bank accounts in excess of federally insured limits. To date, no losses have been experienced related to such amounts. The Company places cash with quality financial institutions and does not believe there is a significant concentration of credit risk.

INCOME TAX MATTERS—As a limited liability company, the members elected for the Company to be a pass through entity for income tax purposes; therefore, the Company's taxable income or loss is allocated to members in accordance with their respective ownership, and no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the financial statements.

Management has evaluated the Company's tax positions and concluded that the Company had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements in order to comply with the provisions of this guidance. The Company is not subject to income tax examinations by U.S. federal, state or local tax authorities for years before 2010 (unaudited).

CONCENTRATION OF RISK—The Partnership's real estate is located in California. Adverse conditions in the sector or geographic location would likely result in a material decline in the value of the Partnership's investment.

NOTE 3—INVESTMENTS IN UNCONSOLIDATED REAL ESTATE ENTITIES

During 2008, the Company acquired a member's interest in the following unconsolidated real estate entities: 300 California Partners, LLC (300 California) and Marina Shores and Marina Cove. The Company acquired its interests in these entities in May 2008 and June 2008, respectively.

300 California is a venture between the Company and two other members affiliated through common management and a common investor. 300 California owns and leases an office building located in San Francisco, California. 300 California had a mortgage note payable that had a balance of $37,537,646 (unaudited) at its original maturity date in August 2010 and at December 31, 2010. This loan was extended to November 14, 2013 with a required $2,000,000 paydown made January 14, 2011 and a required $3,000,000 letter of credit also provided January 14, 2011. The $2,000,000 paydown was funded by a short-term loan from Kennedy-Wilson Holdings, Inc., an affiliate of the Managing Member to the property. This short-term loan was paid off from capital contributions from the investors in 2011. The maturity date of the mortgage note has been extended to November 15, 2015. As part of the modification 300 California is required to make principal payments of $1,500,000 (unaudited) on September 1, 2014 and December 1, 2014 and monthly payments of $273,000 (unaudited) from January 1, 2015 to November 1, 2015 (unaudited). The latest modification also allowed for the release of the $3,000,000 (unaudited) letter of credit that was provided on January 14, 2011 and increased the total guaranteed principal amount from the Members to $8,884,000 (unaudited). The mortgages bear an interest rate of three month LIBOR + 2.75% (unaudited). Management will use a combination of additional capital from investors and the Partnership's existing cash balances to make these pay downs as required. Marina Shores and Marina Cove each separately own a multifamily housing complex, both of which are located in Richmond, California, and are in close proximity to one another. Marina Shores and Marina Cove are under common management and ownership. On May 4, 2011, the Company sold 24.07% of its interest in Bay Fund Opportunity, LLC for $7,000,000 to an affiliate of the Managing Member, reducing the Company's interest from 55.83% to 31.76%. The transfer of interest resulted in a realized loss on disposition of $2,359,686, which is shown on the 2011 statement of operations as a net realized loss on disposition of investment in unconsolidated real estate entity. On December 2, 2011, the mortgage notes payable secured by Marina Cove and Marina Shores were extended to June 26, 2013 with a required principal paydown of $6,358,937, which was funded by capital contributions from other investors in Bay Fund Opportunity, LLC. These capital contributions reduced the Company's interest from 31.76% to 25.96%. On March 28, 2013, management of the Company refinanced the existing mortgages with new mortgages that totaled $48,400,000 (unaudited) and $9,368,173 (unaudited) of additional capital contributions from the members of the joint venture. The new mortgages bear an interest rate of three month LIBOR + 2.5% (unaudited) and mature on May 1, 2018 (unaudited).

The following presents summarized financial information of the unconsolidated real estate entities as of and for the year ended December 31, 2013 (unaudited):

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly in all material respects, the financial position of KWF Real Estate Venture X, L.P. and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2013, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2013 in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

KWF REAL ESTATE VENTURE X, L.P.
(A Delaware Limited Partnership)
AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2013 and 2012

(1) Organization

KWF Real Estate Venture X, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (the Partnership) was formed by and between KWF Manager X, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company as the general partner (the General Partner), K-W Properties, a California corporation, as a limited partner (the KW Limited Partner), and Odyssey Reinsurance Company (the FF Limited Partner), a Connecticut corporation, as a limited partner. Collectively, the KW Limited Partner and the FF Limited Partner are referred to as the Limited Partners.

The Partnership was formed upon the filing of the Certificate of Limited Partnership with the office of the Secretary of the State of Delaware on November 13, 2012. The term of the Partnership extends until the earlier of (i) eight years after November 13, 2012, the date of the Limited Partnership Agreement of KWF Real Estate Venture X, L.P. (the Limited Partnership Agreement) or (ii) the date the partnership investment has been liquidated, the Partnership is dissolved, or at any time, there are no limited partners.

The business of the Partnership is to acquire, hold, manage, finance, and dispose of a real estate investment pursuant to the initial business plan in the Limited Partnership Agreement as amended thereafter by the Partners. The initial business plan provided for the acquisition of two mortgage loans in the principal amount of €120,000,000 and secured by the State Street Building, an office building totaling 174,653 rentable square feet, located in Dublin, Ireland, and adjoining 3.4-acre parcel (the Partnership Investment) through a wholly owned subsidiary of the Partnership, KW State Street, LLC. The consideration for these loans was €106,000,000. On April 16, 2013, KW State Street, LLC foreclosed on the two mortgage loans resulting in the ownership of the underlying real estate that had been used as collateral for the two loans.

Initial capital contributions were €28,000,000 by the KW Limited Partner and €28,000,000 by the FF Limited Partner. Requests for capital contributions may be made by the General Partner and used to satisfy obligations pursuant to the Partnership Investment, including follow-on investments in the Partnership Investment, and to pay partnership expenses. Capital contributions made by the FF Limited Partner may not exceed €28,000,000 in the aggregate unless the General Partner has obtained the prior written consent of the FF Limited Partner. In the event that the FF Limited Partner elects not to make capital contributions above €28,000,000, the KW Limited Partner may provide additional funding to the Partnership in the form of a demand loan bearing interest at the greater of 10% per annum or the Citibank N.A. prime rate.

Subject to the prior payment of principal and interest on any demand loans made to the Partnership by any Limited Partner, distributions shall be apportioned between the Limited Partners in proportion to their percentage interests of 50% to the KW Limited Partner and 50% to the FF Limited Partner. The amount apportioned to each Limited Partner shall be distributed to the Limited Partner and the General Partner at the end of the Partnership or at such point that the final internal rate of return can be estimated with reasonable certainty in the following order of priority:

- (i) First, one hundred percent (100%) to such Limited Partner until such Limited Partner has received a fifteen percent (15%) per annum internal rate of return, compounded annually;
- (ii) Second, eighty percent (80%) to such Limited Partner and twenty percent (20%) to the General Partner until such Limited Partner has received a twenty five percent (25%) per annum internal rate of return, compounded annually;
- (iii) Thereafter, sixty percent (60%) to such Limited Partner and forty percent (40%) to the General Partner.

Profit and loss for each fiscal period shall generally be allocated among the partners in a manner to cause their capital account balances to equal the amounts of distributions that would be made if the Partnership were dissolved assuming its assets sold for their respective carrying values and its liabilities satisfied in accordance with their terms.

During the period, the Partnership set up a tax-exempt structure for its Irish investments through a Qualifying Investor Alternative Investment Fund (KW Real Estate plc, the "QIAIF"). As part of this structure, the QIAIF acquired the total share capital from the Partnership's two wholly owned subsidiaries, KWF SS Real Estate Limited and KWF SS Real Britton Limited.

 Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Partnership and its wholly owned subsidiaries, KW State Street, LLC, KWF SS Real Estate Limited, KWF SS Real Britton Limited, and KW Irish Real Estate Fund IV (collectively, the Partnership). All significant intercompany items have been eliminated in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

(b) Use of Estimates

The preparation of the accompanying consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and the underlying assumptions affect the amounts of assets and liabilities reported, and the reported amounts of income and expenses. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, which management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Such estimates and assumptions are adjusted when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. Changes in those estimates resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the consolidated financial statements in future periods.

(c) Real Estate Assets

On April 16, 2013, the Partnership foreclosed on the notes receivable resulting in the ownership of the underlying real estate that had been used as collateral for the loan. The Partnership has no further recourse against the borrower. In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 310-30-40-40-2, Loans and Debt Securities Acquired with Deteriorated Credit Quality, when a loan reverts to real estate, it should be recorded at fair value, and a gain or loss recorded on the conversion date when there is a difference between the book value of the loan and the fair value of the collateral. Upon review at the date of conversion, management determined that the fair value of the real estate was €132,140,000. After costs to foreclose of €2,211,571 were considered, a gain of €23,006,833 was recorded for the real estate.

The fair value of the real estate acquired was allocated to the acquired tangible assets, consisting primarily of land and buildings and improvements, and to the identified acquired intangible assets, which comprise in-place leases and above-market leases.

The fair value of real estate was determined by valuing the property as if it were vacant, which was then allocated to land and buildings and improvements, based on management's determination of the relative fair values of these assets. The value of the acquired in-place leases was determined by calculating the present value of cash flows provided by the leases, net of related incremental expenses over the estimated lease-up period.

The following supplemental information summarizes the fair value of the assets acquired:

Real estate assets:
Land	€22,900,000
Building and improvements	85,228,000
Intangible assets:
In-place leases	10,452,000
Above-market leases	13,560,000
Fair value of assets acquired	€132,140,000

Real estate assets are carried at depreciated cost, less impairment if any. Depreciation on buildings and improvements has been provided for in the accompanying consolidated financial statements using the straight-line method based on estimated useful lives of 40 years. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred and costs of renewals or betterments are capitalized and depreciated at the appropriate rates.

The purchase price of acquired properties is allocated to land, buildings and intangible lease values based on their respective fair value in accordance with ASC Subtopic 805-10, Business Combinations. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

(d) Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

Long lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable in accordance with FASB ASC 360 10, Impairment of Long Lived Assets. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated undiscounted future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized in the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the fair value of the asset less costs to sell. Assets to be disposed of would be separately presented in the consolidated balance sheet and reported at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value less costs to sell, and are no longer depreciated. The assets and liabilities of a disposal group classified as held for sale would be presented separately in the appropriate asset and liability sections of the consolidated balance sheet. For the period ended December 31, 2013, there were no impairments recorded.

(e) Cash

Cash includes highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less. Periodically throughout the period from November 13, 2012 (inception) through December 31, 2013, cash balances in various bank accounts exceeded the insured limits. To date, no losses have been experienced related to such amounts. The Partnership places cash with quality financial institutions and does not believe there is a significant concentration of credit risk.

(f) Investments in Notes Receivable Acquired for Ownership of Underlying Collateral

Interest income from investments in notes receivable acquired at a discount and for ownership of the underlying collateral is recognized under the provisions of ASC 310-30 Loans and Debt Securities Acquired with Deteriorated Credit Quality. No income is accrued during the foreclosure process even though it accrues contractually. However, any interest income realized is recognized to the extent that it is received in cash during the foreclosure process.

(g) Deferred Financing Fees

All direct costs incurred in connection with obtaining long-term debt are capitalized and amortized over the term of the related debt on a straight line basis, which approximates the effective interest method.

(h) Income Taxes

As a limited Partnership, no provision is made in the accompanying consolidated financial statements for partnership income tax liabilities, because such taxes are the responsibility of the individual partners. However, the Partnership owns and consolidates certain corporate subsidiaries, which have income tax liabilities in respect of the international jurisdiction in which they operate, and these amounts are reflected in the consolidated financial statements. No future tax charge is expected due to the tax-exempt structure introduced during the year ended December 31, 2013 (refer to note 1).

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. This process requires management to estimate the current tax exposure as well as assess temporary differences between the accounting and tax treatment of assets and liabilities, including items such as accruals and allowances not currently deductible for tax purposes. Management's judgments, assumptions, and estimates relative to the current provision for income tax take into account current tax laws and interpretations of same.

The Partnership is required to determine whether a tax position is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon settlement, which could result in the Partnership recording a tax liability that would reduce net assets. Based on their analysis, the Partnership has determined that there are no tax benefits that would have a material impact on the Partnership's financial position or results of operations. The tax years 2012 (year of inception) and 2013 remain open to examination by the taxing jurisdictions to which the Partnership is subject, being Ireland.

KWF REAL ESTATE VENTURE X, L.P.

(A Delaware Limited Partnership)

AND SUBSIDIARIES

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2013 and 2012

(i) Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable due from tenants are recorded at the contractual amount as determined by the lease agreements, and do not bear interest. The allowance for doubtful accounts is the Partnership's best estimate of the amount of probable credit losses in the Partnership's existing accounts receivable. The Partnership determines the allowance based on historical experience and specific item identification, which is reviewed on a quarterly basis. Account balances are charged off against the allowance after all means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote.

(j) Revenue Recognition

Rental revenue from tenants is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term when collectability is reasonably assured and the tenant has taken possession or controls the physical use of the leased asset.

(k) Concentration of Risk

The Partnership Investment is located in Ireland. Adverse conditions in the sector or geographic location would likely result in a material decline in the value of the Partnership Investment.

(l) Fair Value Measurements

The Partnership follows the provisions of FASB ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, for fair value measurements of financial assets and financial liabilities and for fair value measurements of nonfinancial items that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the consolidated financial statements on a recurring or nonrecurring basis. ASC Topic 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or would be paid to transfer a liability (the exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

A three-level hierarchy was established for fair value measurements that distinguishes between market participant assumptions developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity (observable inputs) and the reporting entity's own assumptions about market participant assumptions developed based on the best information available in the circumstances (unobservable inputs). The three hierarchy levels are defined as follows:

Level 1 - Valuations based on unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2 - Valuations based on observable inputs (other than Level 1 prices), such as quoted prices for similar assets and quoted prices in markets that are not active.

Level 3 - Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement, and involve management judgment.

For certain financial instruments, including cash, restricted cash, accounts receivable, prepaid expenses, prepaid rent and accounts payable, accrued expenses, income tax payable and other liabilities, recorded amounts approximate fair value due to the relatively short-term nature of these instruments.

During 2013, the Partnership foreclosed on its loan collateral and obtained the underlying asset. This building and accompanying land have been measured at fair value in accordance with the accounting policy outlined in (c) above.

(m) Derivative Financial Instruments

The Partnership recognizes all derivative financial instruments as either assets or liabilities in the balance sheet at their respective fair values. For derivative financial instruments that are not designated as a hedging instrument, the Partnership records changes in fair value in the consolidated statement of operations in the period they occur.

(3) Fair Value Measurements

On December 11, 2012, in order to manage fluctuations in interest rates, the Partnership entered into an interest rate cap contract to hedge EURIBOR, which is used to determine the underlying interest rate for the mortgage loan payable described in note 4.

The interest rate cap is valued based on the net present value of expected future cash flows as determined by the counterparty. The Partnership determined that based on an evaluation of the significance of each of the inputs used to value this instrument that it is considered level 2 in its entirety.

The fair value of the derivative financial instrument held as of December 31, 2013 was €440,192 and €421,027 (unaudited) as of December 31, 2012. The interest rate cap contract does not qualify as designated hedging instrument under ASC Topic 815, Derivatives and Hedging, and accordingly, the Partnership recognized a gain of €19,165 for the year ended December 31, 2013, and a loss of €133,973 (unaudited) for the period from November 13, 2012 through December 31, 2012, on this contract.

(4) Mortgage Loan Payable

On December 21, 2012, the Partnership's subsidiaries, KW State Street, LLC and KWF SS Real Estate Limited obtained a mortgage loan collateralized by the Partnership Investment with a principal of €54,000,000. As of December 31, 2013, the outstanding balance of the mortgage was €52,785,000 and it bears interest of three-month EURIBOR plus 4.5%, resulting in an interest rate of 4.78%. The mortgage matures on December 13, 2017 and requires principal and interest payments on every January 21, April 21, July 21, and October 21 through maturity, with the first payment having been paid on April 21, 2013. Future principal repayments on this loan are as follows:

2014	€1,620,000
2015	1,620,000
2016	1,620,000
2017	47,925,000
	€52,785,000

(5) Minimum Future Lease Rentals

As of December 31, 2013, the minimum future rents receivable under non-cancellable operating leases are as follows:

2014	€6,788,800
2015	6,788,800
2016	6,788,800
2017	6,788,800
2018	6,788,800
Thereafter	61,099,200
	€95,043,200

(6) In-Place Lease Valuation

The fair value of real estate acquired was allocated to the acquired tangible assets, consisting primarily of land and buildings, and to the identified acquired intangible assets, which comprise in-place leases and above-market leases.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2013 and 2012

The fair value of real estate was determined by valuing the property as if it were vacant, which was then allocated to land and building, based on management's determination of the relative fair values of these assets. The value of the acquired in-place leases was determined by calculating the present value of the cash flows provided by the in-place leases, net of related incremental expenses over the estimated lease-up period. The value of the acquired in-place leases and above-market lease asset was €10,452,000 and €13,560,000, respectively, at the date of acquisition. The value of the acquired in-place leases and above-market lease intangibles is amortized over 174 months, the remaining term of the lease. For the period ended December 31, 2013, the amortization expense related to in-place leases and above-market leases was €504,220 and €654,152 respectively.

As of December 31, 2013, the annual amortization expense of in place-leases and above-market leases for each of the next five years and thereafter is as follows:

	In-Place Leases	Above-Market Leases
2014	€771,160	€1,000,467
2015	771,160	1,000,467
2016	771,160	1,000,467
2017	771,160	1,000,467
2018	771,160	1,000,467
Thereafter	6,091,980	7,903,513
	€9,947,780	€12,905,848

(7) Transactions with Affiliates

The Limited Partnership Agreement provides that the General Partner be paid an acquisition fee of 0.5% of the gross purchase price of the Partnership Investment payable in full at the close of the acquisition. Additionally, the Partnership shall pay the General Partner, a management fee in an amount equal to 1% of capital invested by the FF Limited Partner exclusive of capital contributions for such management fees. This management fee is payable semiannually in arrears through capital contributions made by the FF Limited Partner. The Partnership incurred a €530,000 (unaudited) acquisition fee during the period from November 13, 2012 (inception) through December 31, 2012 that is included in the cost of the notes receivable on the accompanying consolidated balance sheet. The Partnership also incurred €272,536 and €24,737 (unaudited) of management fees for the year ended December 31, 2013 and for the period from November 13, 2012 (inception) through December 31, 2012, respectively.

During the period from November 13, 2012 (inception) through December 31, 2012, the Partnership received a short-term interest free advance in the amount of €2,250,000 from Kennedy-Wilson Holdings, Inc., an affiliate of the General Partner and the KW Limited Partner, in order to establish a post-closing reserve with the mortgage lender. At December 31, 2012, the balance of this note payable was €2,250,000 and is included in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet as other liabilities. The note payable to the affiliate was paid off in full on April 25, 2013.

(8) Commitments and Contingencies

Liabilities for loss contingencies arising from claims, assessments, litigation, fines, and penalties and other sources are recorded when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount can be reasonably estimated. Legal costs incurred in connection with loss contingencies are expensed as incurred. Currently, the Partnership does not have any material commitments or contingencies.

(9) Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated all subsequent events occurring after the date of the balance sheet through March 28, 2014, the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued, to determine whether any subsequent events necessitated adjustment to or disclosure in the consolidated financial statements. No other events were identified that necessitated adjustment or disclosure.

Independent Auditor's Report

The Partners

KWF Real Estate Venture XII, L.P.:

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of KWF Real Estate Venture XII, L.P. and its subsidiaries (the Partnership), which comprise the consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2013 and the related consolidated statements of operations, partners' capital, and cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2013, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of KWF Real Estate Venture XII, L.P. and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2013 and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2013 in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

KWF REAL ESTATE VENTURE XII, L.P.
(A Delaware Limited Partnership)
AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2013 and 2012

(1) Organization

KWF Real Estate Venture XII, L.P., formally KW Forth, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (the Partnership) was formed by and between KWF Manager XII, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company as the general partner (the General Partner) and KWF Manager XII, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, as a limited partner (the KW Limited Partner). On January 3, 2013, the Limited Partnership Agreement of KWF Real Estate Venture XII, L.P. (the Limited Partnership Agreement) was amended to admit Odyssey Reinsurance Company, a Connecticut Corporation, and Newline Corporate Name Limited, a UK company, (collectively, the FF Limited Partner) as limited partners. Collectively, the KW Limited Partner and the FF Limited Partner are referred to as the Limited Partners.

The Partnership was formed upon the filing of the Certificate of Limited Partnership with the office of the Secretary of the State of Delaware on December 3, 2012. The term of the Partnership extends until the earlier of (i) eight years after January 3, 2013, the date of the Limited Partnership Agreement or (ii) the date the Partnership Investment has been liquidated, the Partnership is dissolved, or at any time, there are no limited partners.

The business of the Partnership is to acquire, hold, manage, finance, and dispose of the Partnership Investment pursuant to the initial business plan in the Limited Partnership Agreement as amended thereafter by the Partners. During December 2012 and April 2013, Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch (“Deutsche Bank”), acquired a secured loan portfolio, consisting of first mortgage secured loans and related interest rate swaps (collectively, the Portfolio). The Portfolio, which is secured by commercial real estate located throughout the United Kingdom, was divided into Pools A, B, and C. The Partnership entered into sub-participation agreements with Deutsche Bank to acquire a 10% participation interest in the Pool A Loans and the Pool C Loans. In addition, the Partnership acquired the Pool B Loans from Deutsche Bank through its wholly-owned subsidiary, KW Real Estate I Limited (the Partnership Subsidiary), which is an Irish Company.

Initial capital contributions of the Limited Partners were as follows:

Limited Partner	Amount of Initial Capital Contribution	Unit Percentage
KWF Manager XII, LLC	£27,500,000	50.00%
Odyssey Reinsurance Company	7,500,000	13.64%
Newline Corporate Limited	20,000,000	36.36%
	£55,000,000	100.00%

Requests for capital contributions may be made by the General Partner and used to satisfy obligations pursuant to existing partnership investments or approved follow-on investments, and to pay management fees and partnership expenses. Capital contributions made by the FF Limited Partner may not exceed £37,000,000 in the aggregate unless the General Partner has obtained the prior written consent of the FF Limited Partner. In the event that the FF Limited Partner elects not to make capital contributions above £37,000,000, the KW Limited Partner may provide additional funding to the Partnership in the form of a demand loan bearing interest at the greater of 10% per annum or the Citibank N.A. prime rate.

Subject to the prior payment of principal and interest on any demand loans made to the Partnership by any Limited Partner; distributions shall be apportioned between the Limited Partners in proportion to their percentage interests of 50% to the KW Limited Partner and 50% to the FF Limited Partner. The amount related to the Pool A Loans and the Pool C Loans and apportioned to each Limited Partner shall be distributed equally. The amount related to the Pool B Loans and apportioned to each Limited Partner shall be distributed to the Limited Partner and the General Partner at the end of the Partnership or at such point that the final internal rate of return can be estimated with reasonable certainty in the following order of priority:

- i. First, one hundred percent (100%) to such Limited Partner until such Limited Partner has received a fifteen percent (15%) per annum internal rate of return, compounded annually;
- ii. Second, eighty percent (80%) to such Limited Partner and twenty percent (20%) to the General Partner until such Limited Partner has received a twenty five percent (25%) per annum internal rate of return, compounded annually;

AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2013 and 2012

iii. Thereafter, sixty percent (60%) to such Limited Partner and forty percent (40%) to the General Partner.

Profit and loss for each fiscal period shall generally be allocated among the partners in a manner to cause their capital account balances to equal the amounts of distributions that would be made if the Partnership were dissolved assuming its assets sold for their respective carrying values and its liabilities satisfied in accordance with their terms.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Partnership and its wholly-owned subsidiaries: KW Real Estate I Limited, KW UK Rock Limited, Thornfield Properties (Bury) Limited, Thornfield Properties Bury Lease Limited, and KW West Regent Street Limited (collectively, the Partnership). All significant intercompany items have been eliminated in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

(b) Use of Estimates

The preparation of the accompanying consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and the underlying assumptions affect the amounts of assets and liabilities reported, and the reported amounts of income and expenses. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, which management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Such estimates and assumptions are adjusted when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. Changes in those estimates resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the consolidated financial statements in future periods.

(c) Real Estate Assets

On September 26, 2013, and December 11, 2013, the Partnership Subsidiary foreclosed on the two notes receivable resulting in the ownership of the underlying real estate, which had been used as collateral for the loans. The underlying real estate includes The Rock, a shopping mall with 107 residential units located in Bury, England, and 2 West Regent Street, an office building located in Glasgow, Scotland. The Partnership Subsidiary has no further recourse against the borrowers. In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 310-30-40-40-2, Loans and Debt Securities Acquired with Deteriorated Credit Quality, when a loan reverts to real estate, it should be recorded at fair value, and a gain or loss recorded on the conversion date when there is a difference between the book value of the loan and the fair value of the collateral. Upon review at the date of conversion, management determined that the fair value of the real estate was £116,017,000. After costs to foreclose of £1,248,766 were considered, a gain of £26,498,795 was recorded for the real estate.

The fair value of the real estate acquired was allocated to the acquired tangible assets, consisting primarily of land and buildings and improvements, and to the identified acquired intangible assets, which comprise in-place leases, and above-market and below-market leases.

The fair value of real estate was determined by valuing the property as if it were vacant, which was then allocated to land and buildings and improvements, based on management's determination of the relative fair value of these assets. The value of the acquired in-place leases was determined by calculating the present value of the cash flows provided by the leases, net of related incremental expenses over the estimated lease-up period.

The following supplemental information summarizes the fair value of the assets acquired:

KWF REAL ESTATE VENTURE XII, L.P.
(A Delaware Limited Partnership)
AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2013 and 2012

Real estate assets:

Land	£5,000,000
Building and improvements	80,881,000

Intangible assets:

In-place leases	£29,735,000
Above-market leases	2,524,000
Below-market leases	(2,123,000)
Fair value of assets acquired	£116,017,000

Real estate assets are carried at depreciated cost, less impairment if any. Depreciation on buildings and improvements has been provided for in the accompanying consolidated financial statements using the straight-line method based on estimated useful lives of 40 years. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred and costs of renewals or betterments are capitalized and depreciated at the appropriate rates.

The purchase price of acquired properties is allocated to land, buildings and intangible lease values based on their respective fair value in accordance with ASC Subtopic 805-10, Business Combinations. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

(d) Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable in accordance with FASB ASC 360 10, Impairment of Long Lived Assets. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated undiscounted future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized in the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the fair value of the asset less costs to sell. Assets to be disposed of would be separately presented in the consolidated balance sheet and reported at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value less costs to sell, and are no longer depreciated. The assets and liabilities of a disposal group classified as held for sale would be presented separately in the appropriate asset and liability sections of the consolidated balance sheet. For the period ended December 31, 2013, there were no impairments recorded.

(e) Cash

Cash includes highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less. Periodically throughout the period from December 3, 2012 (inception) through December 31, 2013, cash balances in various bank accounts exceeded the insured limits. To date, no losses have been experienced related to such amounts. The Partnership places cash with quality financial institutions and does not believe there is a significant concentration of credit risk.

(f) Deposits in Escrow

Deposits in escrow are held in solicitors' client accounts in favor of the Partnership in order to facilitate closings of the Partnership Investment and to pay closing and administrative costs.

(g) Investments in Notes Receivable Acquired for Ownership of Underlying Collateral

Interest income from investments in notes receivable acquired at a discount and for ownership of the underlying collateral is recognized under the provisions of ASC 310-30 Loans and Debt Securities Acquired with Deteriorated Credit Quality. No income is accrued during the foreclosure process even though it accrues contractually. However, any interest income realized is recognized to the extent that it is received in cash during the foreclosure process.

(h) Investment in Loan Pool Participation

Participation interest income from investment in loan pool participation is recognized on a level yield basis under the provisions of Loans and Debt Securities Acquired with Deteriorated Credit Quality ASC Subtopic 310-30, where a level yield model is utilized to determine a yield rate which, based upon projected future cash flows, accretes interest income over the estimated holding period. When the future cash flows of a note cannot reasonably be estimated, cash payments are applied to the cost basis of the note until it is fully recovered before any interest income is recognized.

KWF REAL ESTATE VENTURE XII, L.P.
(A Delaware Limited Partnership)
AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2013 and 2012

In accordance with this guidance, projected future cash flows to be received by the Partnership are accreted on a level yield basis using the investment made to capitalize the Partnership initial net investment amount. On a periodic basis, the Partnership will re-evaluate the projected future cash flows to be received by the Partnership and make adjustments to the level yield accretion as necessary.

(i)Deferred Financing Fees

All direct costs incurred in connection with obtaining long-term debt are capitalized and amortized over the term of the related debt on a straight line basis, which approximates the effective interest method.

(j)Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable due from tenants are recorded at the contractual amount as determined by the lease agreements, and do not bear interest. The allowance for doubtful accounts is the Partnership's best estimate of the amount of probable credit losses in the Partnership's existing accounts receivable. The Partnership determines the allowance based on historical experience and specific item identification, which is reviewed on a quarterly basis. Account balances are charged off against the allowance after all means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote.

(k)Revenue Recognition

Rental revenue from tenants is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term when collectability is reasonably assured and the tenant has taken possession or controls the physical use of the leased asset.

(l)Income Taxes

As a limited Partnership, no provision is made in the accompanying financial statements for partnership income tax liabilities, because such taxes are the responsibility of the individual partners. However, the Partnership owns and consolidates certain corporate subsidiaries, which have income tax liabilities in respect of the international jurisdiction in which they operate, and these amounts are reflected in the consolidated financial statements.

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. This process requires management to estimate the current tax exposure as well as assess temporary differences between the accounting and tax treatment of assets and liabilities, including items such as accruals and allowances not currently deductible for tax purposes. Management's judgments, assumptions, and estimates relative to the current provision for income tax take into account current tax laws and interpretations of same.

The Partnership is required to determine whether a tax position is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon settlement, which could result in the Partnership recording a tax liability that would reduce net assets. Based on their analysis, the Partnership has determined that there are no tax benefits that would have a material impact on the Partnership's financial position or results of operations. The tax years 2012 (year of inception) and 2013 remain open to examination by the taxing jurisdictions to which the Partnership is subject, being the United Kingdom, Jersey and Ireland.

(m)Concentration of Risk

The Partnership real estate is located in the United Kingdom. Adverse conditions in the sector or geographic location would likely result in a material decline in the value of the Partnership real estate.

(n)Fair Value Measurements

The Partnership follows the provisions of FASB ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, for fair value measurements of financial assets and financial liabilities and for fair value measurements of nonfinancial items that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the consolidated financial statements on a recurring or nonrecurring basis. ASC

Topic 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or would be paid to transfer a liability (the exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

A three-level hierarchy was established for fair value measurements that distinguishes between market participant assumptions developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity (observable inputs)

KWF REAL ESTATE VENTURE XII, L.P.
(A Delaware Limited Partnership)
AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2013 and 2012

and the reporting entity's own assumptions about market participant assumptions developed based on the best information available in the circumstances (unobservable inputs). The three hierarchy levels are defined as follows: Level 1 - Valuations based on unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2 - Valuations based on observable inputs (other than Level 1 prices), such as quoted prices for similar assets and quoted prices in markets that are not active.

Level 3 - Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement, and involve management judgment.

For certain financial instruments, including cash, escrows and deposits, prepaid expenses, accounts payable and accrued expenses, recorded amounts approximate fair value due to the relatively short-term nature of these instruments.

During 2013, the partnership foreclosed on certain of its loan collateral and obtained the underlying assets. These buildings and accompanying land have been measured at fair value in accordance with the accounting policy outlined in (c) above.

(o) Derivative Financial Instruments

The Partnership recognizes all derivative financial instruments as either assets or liabilities in the balance sheet at their respective fair values. For derivative instruments that are not designated as a hedging instrument, the Partnership records changes in fair value in the consolidated statements of operations in the period they occur.

(3) Notes Receivable

During December 2012 (Close #1) and April 2013 (Close #2), the Partnership acquired the Pool B Loans, consisting of four secured mortgage loans and related interest rate swap, from Deutsche Bank through its wholly-owned subsidiary, KW Real Estate I Limited, an Irish Section 110 Company. The Pool B Loans were acquired for a net purchase price of approximately £121.1 million and had an unpaid principal balance of approximately £382.1 million. The loans are secured by five office and retail properties located in England and Scotland. During the year ended December 31, 2013, two loans were foreclosed on resulting in the ownership of The Rock and 2 West Regent Street, described under Real Estate Assets above. One loan was sold, resulting in cash receipts of £23.1 million. As of December 31, 2013, the Pool B Loans, which have a projected final resolution date of March 2014, has one loan remaining with total projected recoveries of £13.5 million.

(4) Investment in Loan Pool Participation

During December 2012 (Close #1) and April 2013 (Close #2), the Partnership acquired a 10% participation interest from Deutsche Bank in a secured loan portfolio, consisting of 37 secured mortgage loans and related interest rate swaps. The portfolio, which is secured by 108 office, retail, logistics, and other properties located throughout the United Kingdom, was divided into Pools A and C. The portfolio was acquired from two European banks for a net purchase price of approximately £236.2 million and had an unpaid principal balance of approximately £388.7 million. During the period from December 3, 2013 (inception) to December 31, 2013, 27 loans were fully resolved, resulting in the total cash collections of £239.5 million. As of December 31, 2013, the Pool A Loans and the Pool C Loans, which have a projected final resolution date of March 2015, has 10 loans remaining with total projected recoveries of £39.1 million.

In accordance with the Sub-Participation Agreements for the Pool A Loans and the Pool C Loans, on each monthly distribution date, available remittances from the loans in the portfolio are distributed as follows:

U.S. operations	£2,537,813
UK operations	23,457,874

Tax Rate Reconciliation

The income tax benefit attributable to income from continuing operations was £697,876 for the year ended December 31, 2013, and differed from the amounts computed by applying the United Kingdom income tax rate of 23.25% to pretax income from continuing operations as a result of the following:

	2013
Computed "expected" tax expense	£(6,025,983)
Increase (reduction) in income taxes resulting from:
Change in valuation allowance due to a change in judgment about the realizability of deferred tax assets	501,422
Reduction in income resulting from net income not taxable	6,332,528
Net expenses not deductible	(110,091)
Total tax benefit	£697,876

Significant Components of Deferred Taxes

The tax effects of temporary differences that give rise to significant portions of the deferred tax assets at December 31, 2013 are presented below.

	2013	On Acquisition
Deferred tax assets:
Net operating loss carryforwards	£9,911,423	£9,911,423
Real estate and associated intangibles	41,060,838	40,864,384
Total gross deferred tax assets	50,972,261	50,775,807
Less valuation allowance	(50,274,385) (50,775,807
Net deferred tax assets	£697,876	£—

The valuation allowance for deferred tax assets as of January 1, 2013 was nil. The net change in the total valuation allowance was an increase of £50.3 million in 2013, due to the allowance attributed to the acquired deferred tax assets during the year less the partial release of same during the year. The valuation allowance at December 31, 2013 was primarily related to net operating loss carryforwards of £49.6 million and other temporary differences that, in the judgment of management, are not more-likely-than-not to be realized. The net operating loss carryforwards may be carried forward indefinitely as there is no expiration date for these losses. In assessing the realizability of deferred tax assets, management considers whether it is more-likely-than-not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible and the ultimate sale of the associated assets. Management considers projected future taxable income in making this assessment. In order to fully realize the deferred tax asset relating to the Net operating loss carryforwards, the Partnership will need to generate future taxable income of approximately £2,507,110. Based upon the level of historical taxable income and projections for future taxable income over the periods in which the deferred tax assets are deductible, management believes it is more-likely-than-not that the Partnership will realize the benefits of these deductible differences, net of the existing valuation allowances at December 31, 2013. The amount of the deferred tax asset considered realizable, however, could be reduced in the near term if estimates of future taxable income during the carryforward period are reduced.

AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(7) In-Place Lease Valuation

The fair value of real estate acquired was allocated to the acquired tangible assets, consisting primarily of land and buildings, and to the identified acquired intangible assets, which comprise in-place leases, and above-market and below-market leases.

The fair value of real estate was determined by valuing the property as if it were vacant, which was then allocated to land and buildings, based on management's determination of the relative fair values of these assets. The value of the acquired in-place leases was determined by calculating the present value of the cash flows provided by the in-place leases, net of related incremental expenses over the estimated lease-up period. The value of the acquired in-place leases, above-market lease asset and below-market lease liability at the date of acquisition are as follows:

In-Place Leases	Above-Market Leases	Below-Market Leases
£29,735,000	£2,524,000	£(2,123,000)

The value of the acquired in-place leases, above-market lease and below-market lease intangibles is amortized on weighted average over 131 months, the remaining term of these leases. For the year ended December 31, 2013, the amortization expense (benefit) related to in-place leases, above-market leases, and below-market leases was £602,096, £47,995, and (£47,438) respectively.

As of December 31, 2013, the annual amortization expense (benefit) of in place-leases, above-market leases, and below-market leases for each of the next five years and thereafter are as follows:

	In-Place Leases	Above-Market Leases	Below-Market Leases
2014	£2,718,364	£233,516	£(190,119)
2015	2,718,364	233,516	(190,119)
2016	2,718,364	233,516	190,119
2017	2,718,364	233,516	(190,119)
2018	2,718,364	233,516	(190,119)
Thereafter	15,541,084	1,308,425	(1,124,967)
	£29,132,904	£2,476,005	£(2,075,562)

(8) Fair Value Measurements

On December 21, 2012, in order to manage fluctuations in interest rates, the Partnership entered into an interest rate cap contract to hedge LIBOR, which is used to determine the underlying interest rate for the mortgage payable described in note 10.

The interest rate cap is valued based on the net present value of expected future cash flows as determined by the counterparty. The Partnership determined that based on an evaluation of the significance of each of the inputs used to value this instrument that it is considered level 2 in its entirety.

The fair value of the derivative financial instrument held as of December 31, 2013 was £79,854 and was included in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet in other assets. The interest rate cap contract does not qualify as designated hedging instrument under ASC Topic 815, Derivatives and Hedging, and accordingly the Partnership recognized a loss of £16,975 for the year ended December 31, 2013 and £35,171 (unaudited) for the period from December 3, 2012 through December 31, 2012 on this contract.

Future principal repayments on this loan are as follows:

2014	£—
2015	4,689,288
	£4,689,288

(10) Mortgage Loan Payable

Upon the foreclosure on the two notes receivable, the Partnership Subsidiary refinanced £56,661,856 of the above referenced Note Payable (£48,723,935 on September 26, 2013 and £7,937,921 on December 11, 2013) with a new mortgage loan with a maximum principal balance of £58,481,856, which is collateralized by the underlying real estate that had been used as collateral for the two notes the Partnership foreclosed on. As of December 31, 2013, the outstanding balance of the mortgage was £56,587,280 and it bears interest of three-month LIBOR plus 5% (5.52% at December 31, 2013). The mortgage matures on December 20, 2015 and requires principal and interest payments on January 15, April 15, July 15 and October 15 in each year through maturity with the first payment paid on October 15, 2013. Future principal repayments on this loan are as follows:

2014	£1,536,724

Additionally, the Partnership shall pay the General Partner, a management fee in an amount equal to 1% of capital invested by the FF Limited Partner exclusive of capital contributions for such management fees. This management fee is payable semiannually in arrears through capital contributions made by the FF Limited Partner. The Partnership incurred a £719,179 acquisition fee during the year ended December 31, 2013 that is included in the cost of the notes receivable and investment in loan pool participation on the accompanying consolidated balance sheet. The Partnership also incurred £290,482 of management fees during the period that are included in asset management fees.

Legal costs incurred in connection with loss contingencies are expensed as incurred. Currently, the Partnership does not have any material commitments or contingencies.

(13)Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated all subsequent events occurring after the date of the balance sheet through March 28, 2014, the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued, to determine whether any subsequent events necessitated adjustment to or disclosure in the consolidated financial statements. No other events were identified that necessitated adjustment or disclosure.

All significant intercompany items have been eliminated in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

(b) Use of Estimates

The preparation of the accompanying consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and the underlying assumptions affect the amounts of assets and liabilities reported, and the reported amounts of income and expenses. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, which management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Such estimates and assumptions are adjusted when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. Changes in those estimates resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the consolidated financial statements in future periods.

(c) Real Estate Assets

During the year ended December 31, 2013, the Company, through its four subsidiaries: Ostrich Limited, Darter Limited, Finfoot Limited, and Hamerkop Limited acquired a portfolio of 29 commercial real estate assets located throughout England and Scotland for £62,750,000. The fair value of the real estate acquired was allocated to the acquired tangible assets consisting primarily of land, buildings and improvements, and to the identified acquired intangible assets, which comprise in-place leases, above-market leases, and below-market leases.

The fair value of the real estate was determined by valuing the property as if it were vacant, which was then allocated to land, buildings and improvements based on management's determination of the relative fair values of these assets.

The value of the acquired in-place leases was determined by calculating the present value of the cash flows provided by the leases, net of related incremental expenses over the estimated lease-up period.

AND SUBSIDIARIES

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2013 and 2012

The following supplemental information summarizes the fair value of the assets acquired:

Real estate assets:

Land	£ 19,478,000
Building and improvements	23,448,000

Intangible assets:

In-place leases	£ 18,347,000
Above-market leases	2,441,000
Below-market leases	(964,000)
Fair value of assets acquired	£ 62,750,000

Real estate assets are carried at depreciated cost, less impairment if any. Depreciation on buildings and improvements has been provided for in the accompanying consolidated financial statements using the straight-line method based on estimated useful lives of 40 years. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred and costs of renewals or betterments are capitalized and depreciated at the appropriate rates.

The purchase price of acquired properties is allocated to land, buildings and intangible lease values based on their respective fair value in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Subtopic 805-10, Business Combinations. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

(d)Real Estate Assets Held-for-Sale

In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) ASC 360-10, Disposal of Long-Lived Assets, a long-lived asset is classified as an asset held for disposition when it meets certain requirements, which include, among other criteria, the approval of the sale of the asset, the marketing of the asset for sale and the expectation by the Company that the sale will likely occur within the next 12 months. Upon classification of an asset as held for disposition, depreciation of the asset is ceased, the operating results of the asset are included in discontinued operations and the net book value of the asset is included on the consolidated balance sheet as real estate assets held-for-sale.

(e)Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

Long lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable in accordance with FASB ASC 360 10, Impairment of Long Lived Assets. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated undiscounted future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized in the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the fair value of the asset less costs to sell. Assets to be disposed of would be separately presented in the consolidated balance sheet and reported at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value less costs to sell, and are no longer depreciated. The assets and liabilities of a disposal group classified as held for sale would be presented separately in the appropriate asset and liability sections of the consolidated balance sheet. For the period ended December 31, 2013, there were no impairments recorded.

(f)Cash

Cash includes highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less. Periodically throughout the year ended December 31, 2013, cash balances in various bank accounts exceeded the insured limits. To date, no losses have been experienced related to such amounts. The Company places cash with quality financial institutions and does not believe there is a significant concentration of credit risk.

(g)Restricted Cash

Restricted cash includes balances held in a sinking fund, which is set aside for tenant improvements.

(h) Deposits in Escrow

Deposits in escrow are held in solicitors' client accounts in favor of the Company in order to facilitate closings of the Company Investment and to pay closing and administrative costs.

(i) Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable due from tenants are recorded at the contractual amount as determined by the lease agreements, and do not bear interest. The allowance for doubtful accounts is the Company's best estimate of the amount of probable credit losses in the Company's existing accounts receivable. The Company determines the allowance based on historical experience and specific item identification, which is reviewed on a quarterly basis. Account balances are charged off against the allowance after all means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote.

(j) Revenue Recognition

Rental revenue from tenants is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term when collectability is reasonably assured and the tenant has taken possession or controls the physical use of the leased asset.

(k) Discontinued Operations

Real estate classified as held-for-sale on the consolidated balance sheet include only those real estate assets available for immediate sale in their present condition and for which management believes that it is probable that a sale of the real estate asset will be completed within one year.

Real estate held-for-sale are carried at the lower of cost or fair value less estimated selling costs. No depreciation expense is recognized on real estate held-for-sale once they have been classified as such. The operating results of real estate assets designated as held-for-sale are included in discontinued operations in the consolidated statement of operations. In addition, all gains and losses from real estate sold are also included in discontinued operations.

(l) Income Taxes

The Company owns and consolidates certain subsidiaries, which have income tax liabilities in respect of the international jurisdiction in which they operate, and these amounts are reflected in the consolidated financial statements.

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. This process requires management to estimate the current tax exposure as well as assess temporary differences between the accounting and tax treatment of assets and liabilities, including items such as accruals and allowances not currently deductible for tax purposes. Management's judgments, assumptions, and estimates relative to the current provision for income tax take into account current tax laws and interpretations of same.

The Company is required to determine whether a tax position is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon settlement, which could result in the Company recording a tax liability that would reduce net assets. Based on their analysis, the Company has determined that there are no tax benefits that would have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations. The tax years 2012 (year of inception) and 2013 remain open to examination by the taxing jurisdictions to which the Company is subject, being the United Kingdom and Jersey.

(m) Concentration of Risk

The Company Investment is located throughout the United Kingdom. Adverse conditions in the sector or geographic location would likely result in a material decline in the value of the Company Investment.

(n) Fair Value Measurements

The Company follows the provisions of FASB ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, for fair value measurements of financial assets and financial liabilities and for fair value measurements of nonfinancial items that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the consolidated financial statements on a recurring or nonrecurring basis. ASC Topic 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or would be paid to transfer a liability (the exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

AND SUBSIDIARIES

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2013 and 2012

A three-level hierarchy was established for fair value measurements that distinguishes between market participant assumptions developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity (observable inputs) and the reporting entity's own assumptions about market participant assumptions developed based on the best information available in the circumstances (unobservable inputs). The three hierarchy levels are defined as follows:

Level 1 - Valuations based on unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2 - Valuations based on observable inputs (other than Level 1 prices), such as quoted prices for similar assets and quoted prices in markets that are not active.

Level 3 - Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement, and involve management judgment.

For certain financial instruments, including cash, restricted cash, deposits in escrow, accounts receivable, accrued expenses, VAT payable, prepaid rent, tenant deposits, income tax payable, and other liabilities, recorded amounts approximate fair value due to the relatively short-term nature of these instruments.

(3) Minimum Future Lease Rentals

As of December 31, 2013, the minimum future cash rents receivable under non-cancellable operating leases for each of the next five years and thereafter are as follows:

2014	£3,401,144
2015	2,222,913
2016	1,604,079
2017	1,536,858
2018	1,502,287
Thereafter	4,362,622
	£14,629,903

(4) In-Place Lease Valuation

The fair value of real estate acquired was allocated to the acquired tangible assets consisting primarily of land and buildings, and to the identified acquired intangible assets, which comprise in-place leases, above-market leases, and below-market leases.

The fair value of real estate was determined by valuing the property as if it were vacant, which was the allocated to land and buildings based on managements' determination of the relative fair values of these assets. The value of the acquired in-place leases was determined by calculating the present value of the cash flows provided by the in-place leases, net of related incremental expenses over the estimated lease up period. The value of the acquired in-place leases, above-market lease asset, and below-market lease liability at the date of acquisition are as follows:

£18,347,000	£2,441,000	£(964,000)

The value of the acquired in-place leases, above-market lease, and below-market lease intangibles is amortized on weighted average over 57 months, the remaining term of these leases. For the year ended December 31, 2013, the amortization expense (benefit) related to in-place leases, above-market leases, and below-market leases was as follows:

 Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
 December 31, 2013

Profit and loss for each fiscal period shall generally be allocated among the partners in a manner to cause their capital account balances to equal the amounts of distributions that would be made if the Partnership were dissolved assuming its assets sold for their respective carrying values and its liabilities satisfied in accordance with their terms.

During the period, the Partnership set up a tax-exempt structure for its Irish investment through a Qualifying Investor Alternative Investment Fund (KW Real Estate plc, the "QIAIF"). As part of this structure, the QIAIF acquired the total share capital from the Partnership's wholly owned subsidiary, KW Real Estate IV Limited.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Partnership and its wholly owned subsidiaries, KW Real Estate IV Limited and KW Irish Real Estate Fund V (collectively, the Partnership). All significant intercompany items have been eliminated in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

(b) Use of Estimates

The preparation of the accompanying consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and the underlying assumptions affect the amounts of assets and liabilities reported, and the reported amounts of income and expenses. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, which management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Such estimates and assumptions are adjusted when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. Changes in those estimates resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the consolidated financial statements in future periods.

(c) Real Estate Assets

The fair value of the real estate acquired was allocated to the acquired tangible assets, consisting primarily of land and buildings and improvements, and to the identified acquired intangible assets, which comprise in-place leases and below-market leases.

The fair value of real estate was determined by valuing the property as if it were vacant, which was then allocated to land and buildings and improvements, based on management's determination of the relative fair values of these assets. The value of the acquired in-place leases was determined by calculating the present value of cash flows provided by the leases, net of related incremental expenses over the estimated lease-up period.

The following supplemental information summarizes the fair value of the assets acquired:

Real estate assets:

Land	€17,860,000
Building and improvements	64,529,000

Intangible assets:

In-place leases	€258,000
Below-market leases	(147,000)
Fair value of assets acquired	€82,500,000

Real estate assets are carried at depreciated cost, less impairment if any. Depreciation on buildings and improvements has been provided for in the accompanying consolidated financial statements using the straight-line method based on estimated useful lives of 40 years. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred and costs of renewals or betterments are capitalized and depreciated at the appropriate rates.

KWF REAL ESTATE VENTURE XIII, L.P.
(A Delaware Limited Partnership)
AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2013

The purchase price of acquired properties is allocated to land, buildings and intangible lease values based on their respective fair value in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Subtopic 805-10, Business Combinations. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

(d) Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

Long lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable in accordance with FASB ASC 360 10, Impairment of Long Lived Assets. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated undiscounted future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized in the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the fair value of the asset less costs to sell. For the period ended December 31, 2013 there were no impairments recorded. Assets to be disposed of would be separately presented in the consolidated balance sheet and reported at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value less costs to sell, and are no longer depreciated. The assets and liabilities of a disposal group classified as held for sale would be presented separately in the appropriate asset and liability sections of the consolidated balance sheet.

(e) Cash

Cash includes highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less. Periodically throughout the period from June 12, 2013 (inception) through December 31, 2013, cash balances in various bank accounts exceeded insured limits. To date, no losses have been experienced related to such amounts. The Partnership places cash with quality financial institutions and does not believe there is a significant concentration of credit risk.

(f) Deferred Financing Fees

All direct costs incurred in connection with obtaining long-term debt are capitalized and amortized over the term of the related debt on a straight line basis, which approximates the effective interest method.

(g) Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable due from tenants are recorded at the contractual amount as determined by the lease agreements, and do not bear interest. The allowance for doubtful accounts is the Partnership's best estimate of the amount of probable credit losses in the Partnership's existing accounts receivable. The Partnership determines the allowance based on historical experience and specific item identification, which is reviewed on a quarterly basis. Account balances are charged off against the allowance after all means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote.

(h) Revenue Recognition

Rental revenue from tenants is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term when collectability is reasonably assured and the tenant has taken possession or controls the physical use of the leased asset.

(i) Income Taxes

As a limited Partnership, no provision is made in the accompanying financial statements for partnership income tax liabilities, because such taxes are the responsibility of the individual partners. However, the Partnership owns and consolidates certain corporate subsidiaries, which have income tax liabilities in respect of the international jurisdiction in which they operate, and these amounts are reflected in the consolidated financial statements. No future tax change is expected due to the tax-exempt structure introduced during the period (refer to note 1).

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. This process requires management to estimate the current tax exposure as well as assess temporary differences between the accounting and tax treatment of assets and liabilities, including items such as accruals and allowances not currently deductible for tax purposes. Management's judgments, assumptions, and estimates relative to the current provision for income tax take into account current tax laws and interpretations of same.

KWF REAL ESTATE VENTURE XIII, L.P.
(A Delaware Limited Partnership)
AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2013

The Partnership is required to determine whether a tax position is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon settlement, which could result in the Partnership recording a tax liability that would reduce net assets. Based on their analysis, the Partnership has determined that there are no tax benefits that would have a material impact on the Partnership's financial position or results of operations. The tax year 2013 (year of inception) remains open to examination by the taxing jurisdictions to which the Partnership is subject, being Ireland.

(j) Concentration of Risk

The Partnership Investment is located in Ireland. Adverse conditions in the sector or geographic location would likely result in a material decline in the value of the Partnership Investment.

(k) Fair Value Measurements

The Partnership follows the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, for fair value measurements of financial assets and financial liabilities and for fair value measurements of nonfinancial items that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the consolidated financial statements on a recurring or nonrecurring basis. ASC Topic 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or would be paid to transfer a liability (the exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

A three-level hierarchy was established for fair value measurements that distinguishes between market participant assumptions developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity (observable inputs) and the reporting entity's own assumptions about market participant assumptions developed based on the best information available in the circumstances (unobservable inputs). The three hierarchy levels are defined as follows:

Level 1 - Valuations based on unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2 - Valuations based on observable inputs (other than Level 1 prices), such as quoted prices for similar assets and quoted prices in markets that are not active.

Level 3 - Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement, and involve management judgment.

For certain financial instruments, including cash, accounts receivable, other assets, prepaid rent, tenant deposits, accrued interest, accounts payable, and accrued expenses, recorded amounts approximate fair value due to the relatively short-term nature of these instruments.

(l) Derivative Financial Instruments

The Partnership recognizes all derivative financial instruments as either assets or liabilities in the balance sheet at their respective fair values. For derivative financial instruments that are not designated as a hedging instrument, the Partnership records changes in fair value in the consolidated statement of operations in the period they occur

(3) Fair Value Measurements

On September 23, 2013, in order to manage fluctuations in interest rates, the Partnership entered into an interest rate cap contract to hedge EURIBOR, which is used to determine the underlying interest rate for the mortgage loan payable described in note 6.

The interest rate cap is valued based on the net present value of expected future cash flows as determined by the counterparty. The Partnership determined that based on an evaluation of the significance of each of the inputs used to value this instrument that it is considered level 2 in its entirety.

The fair value of the derivative financial instrument held as of December 31, 2013 was €524,448. The interest rate cap contract does not qualify as designated hedging instrument under ASC Topic 815, Derivatives and Hedging, and accordingly, the Partnership recognized a loss of €273,178 on this contract.

(4) Minimum Future Lease Rentals

All leases may be cancelled with a one-month notice.

(5) In-Place Lease Valuation

The fair value of real estate acquired was allocated to the acquired tangible assets, consisting primarily of land and buildings, and to the identified acquired intangible assets, which comprise in-place leases and below-market leases. The fair value of real estate was determined by valuing the property as if it were vacant, which was then allocated to land and building, based on management's determination of the relative fair values of these assets. The value of the acquired in-place leases was determined by calculating the present value of the cash flows provided by the in-place leases, net of related incremental expenses over the estimated lease-up period. The value of the acquired in-place leases and below-market lease liability was €258,000 and (€147,000), respectively, at the date of acquisition. The value of the acquired in-place leases and below-market lease intangibles was amortized over six months, the weighted average remaining term of these leases. For the period ended December 31, 2013, the amortization expense (benefit) related to in-place leases and below-market leases was €258,000 and (€147,000) respectively.

(6) Mortgage Loan Payable

On September 6, 2013, the Partnership obtained a mortgage loan from Barclays Bank Plc, collateralized by the Partnership Investment with a principal of €46,000,000. As of December 31, 2013, the outstanding balance of the mortgage remained at €46,000,000 and it bears interest of three-month EURIBOR plus 4% (4.225% at December 31, 2013). The mortgage matures on September 6, 2018 and requires principal and interest payments on every April 6, July 6, October 6, and January 6 through maturity with the first payment due to be paid on October 6, 2014. Future principal repayments on this loan are as follows:

2014	€125,000
2015	562,500
2016	750,000
2017	812,500
2018	43,750,000
	€46,000,000

(7) Transactions with Affiliates

The Limited Partnership Agreement provides that the General Partner be paid an acquisition fee of 0.5% of the gross purchase price of the Partnership Investment payable in full at the close of the acquisition. Additionally, the Partnership shall pay Kennedy Wilson Europe Limited, an affiliate of the KW Limited Partner, an asset management fee in an amount equal to 1% of capital invested in the Partnership Investment. This asset management fee is payable semi-annually in arrears. The Partnership incurred a €412,500 acquisition fee during the period from June 12, 2013 (inception) through December 31, 2013 that is included in the acquisition-related costs. The Partnership also incurred €367,027 of asset management fees during the period that are included in the asset management fees.

(8) Commitments and Contingencies

Liabilities for loss contingencies arising from claims, assessments, litigation, fines, and penalties and other sources are recorded when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount can be reasonably estimated. Legal costs incurred in connection with loss contingencies are expensed as incurred. Currently, the Partnership does not have any material commitments or contingencies.

(9) Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated all subsequent events occurring after the date of the balance sheet through March 28, 2014, the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued, to determine whether any subsequent events necessitated adjustment to or disclosure in the consolidated financial statements. No other events were identified that necessitated adjustment or disclosure.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Profit and loss for each fiscal period shall generally be allocated among the shareholders in a manner to cause their capital account balances to equal the amounts of distributions that would be made if the Company were dissolved assuming its assets sold for their respective carrying values and its liabilities satisfied in accordance with their terms.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its nine wholly-owned Jersey incorporated subsidiaries (the Jersey PropCos): County Square Property Limited, Bootle Strand Property Limited, Durham Gate Property Limited, Haymarket Property Limited, Town Square Property Limited, Oldham Spindles Property Limited, Swansgate Property Limited, Rivergate Property 1 Limited, and Rivergate Property 2 Limited (collectively, the Company). All significant intercompany items have been eliminated in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

(b) Use of Estimates

The preparation of the accompanying consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and the underlying assumptions affect the amounts of assets and liabilities reported, and the reported amounts of income and expenses. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, which management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Such estimates and assumptions are adjusted when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. Changes in those estimates resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the consolidated financial statements in future periods.

(c) Real Estate Assets

The fair value of the real estate acquired was allocated to the acquired tangible assets consisting primarily of land, buildings and improvements, and to the identified acquired intangible assets, which comprise in-place leases, above-market leases, and below-market leases.

The fair value of the real estate was determined by valuing the property as if it were vacant, which was then allocated to land, buildings and improvements based on management's determination of the relative fair value of these assets. The value of the acquired in-place leases was determined by calculating the present value of cash flows provided by the leases, net of related incremental expenses over the estimated lease-up period.

The following supplemental information summarizes the fair value of the assets acquired:

Real estate assets:

Land	£27,500,003
Building and improvements	133,120,997

Intangible assets:

In-place leases	£74,792,000
Above-market leases	19,701,000
Below-market leases	(5,114,000)
Fair value of assets acquired	£250,000,000

Real estate assets are carried at depreciated cost, less impairment if any. Depreciation on buildings and improvements has been provided for in the accompanying consolidated financial statements using the straight-line method based on estimated useful lives of 40 years. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred and costs of renewals or betterments are capitalized and depreciated at the appropriate rates.

KWVF PANTHER HOLDCO LIMITED

(A Jersey Company)

AND SUBSIDIARIES

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2013

The purchase price of acquired properties is allocated to land, buildings and intangible lease values based on their respective fair value in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Subtopic 805-10, Business Combinations. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

(d) Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) ASC 360 10, Impairment of Long Lived Assets. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated undiscounted future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized in the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the fair value of the asset less costs to sell. Assets to be disposed of would be separately presented in the consolidated balance sheet and reported at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value less costs to sell, and are no longer depreciated. The assets and liabilities of a disposal group classified as held for sale would be presented separately in the appropriate asset and liability sections of the consolidated balance sheet. For the period from June 14, 2013 (inception) through December 31, 2013, there were no impairments recorded.

(e) Cash

Cash includes highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less. Periodically throughout the period from June 14, 2013 (inception) through December 31, 2013, cash balances in various bank accounts exceeded the insured limits. To date, no losses have been experienced related to such amounts. The Company places cash with quality financial institutions and does not believe there is a significant concentration of credit risk.

(f) Restricted Cash

Restricted cash includes reserves to pay closing costs and balances held in a sinking fund, which is set aside for tenant improvements.

(g) Deferred Financing Fees

All direct costs incurred in connection with obtaining long-term debt are capitalized and amortized over the term of the related debt on a straight line basis, which approximates the effective interest method.

(h) Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable due from tenants are recorded at the contractual amount as determined by the lease agreements, and do not bear interest. The allowance for doubtful accounts is the Company's best estimate of the amount of probable credit losses in the Company's existing accounts receivable. The Company determines the allowance based on historical experience and specific item identification, which is reviewed on a quarterly basis. Account balances are charged off against the allowance after all means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote.

(i) Revenue Recognition

Rental revenue from tenants is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term when collectability is reasonably assured and the tenant has taken possession or controls the physical use of the leased asset.

(j) Income Taxes

The Company owns and consolidates certain subsidiaries, which have income tax liabilities in respect of the international jurisdiction in which they operate, and these amounts are reflected in the consolidated financial statements.

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. This process requires management to estimate the current tax exposure as well as assess temporary differences between the accounting and tax treatment of assets and liabilities, including items such as accruals and allowances not currently deductible for tax purposes. Management's judgments, assumptions, and estimates relative to the current provision for income tax take into account current tax laws and interpretations of same.

The Company is required to determine whether a tax position is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon settlement, which could result in the Company recording a tax liability that would reduce net assets. Based on their analysis, the Company has determined that there are no tax benefits that would have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations. The tax year 2013 (year of inception) remains open to examination by the taxing jurisdictions, to which the Company is subject, being the United Kingdom and Jersey.

(k) Concentration of Risk

The Company Investment is located throughout the United Kingdom. Adverse conditions in the sector or geographic location would likely result in a material decline in the value of the Company Investment.

(l) Fair Value Measurements

The Company follows the provisions of FASB ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, for fair value measurements of financial assets and financial liabilities and for fair value measurements of nonfinancial items that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the consolidated financial statements on a recurring or nonrecurring basis. ASC Topic 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or would be paid to transfer a liability (the exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

A three-level hierarchy was established for fair value measurements that distinguishes between market participant assumptions developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity (observable inputs) and the reporting entity's own assumptions about market participant assumptions developed based on the best information available in the circumstances (unobservable inputs). The three hierarchy levels are defined as follows:

Level 1 - Valuations based on unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2 - Valuations based on observable inputs (other than Level 1 prices), such as quoted prices for similar assets and quoted prices in markets that are not active.

Level 3 - Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement, and involve management judgment.

For certain financial instruments, including cash, restricted cash, accounts receivable, accrued expenses, accrued service charge, prepaid rent, VAT payable, accrued interest, income tax payable, and other liabilities, recorded amounts approximate fair value due to the relatively short-term nature of these instruments.

(m) Derivative Financial Instruments

The Company recognizes all derivative instruments as either assets or liabilities in the balance sheet at their respective fair values. For derivative instruments that are not designated as a hedging instrument, the Company records changes in fair value in consolidated statement of operations in the period they occur.

(3) Fair Value Measurements

On August 29, 2013, in order to manage fluctuations in interest rates, the Company entered into an interest rate cap contract to hedge LIBOR, which is used to determine the underlying interest rate for the mortgage loan payable described in note 6.

The interest rate cap is valued based on the net present value of expected future cash flows as determined by the counterparty. The Company determined that based on an evaluation of the significance of each of the inputs used to value this instrument that it is considered level 2 in its entirety.

The fair value of the derivative financial instrument held as of December 31, 2013 was £1,580,134. The interest rate cap contract does not qualify as designated hedging instrument under ASC Topic 815, Derivatives and Hedging, and accordingly, the Company recognized a loss of £269,866 on this contract.

(4) Minimum Future Lease Rentals

As of December 31, 2013, the minimum future cash rents receivable under non-cancellable operating leases for each of the next five years and thereafter are as follows:

(5) In-Place Lease Valuation

The fair value of real estate acquired was allocated to the acquired tangible assets consisting primarily of land and buildings, and to the identified acquired intangible assets, which comprise in-place leases, above-market leases, and below-market leases.

The fair value of real estate was determined by valuing the property as if it were vacant, which was then allocated to land and buildings based on management's determination of the relative fair values of these assets. The value of the acquired in-place leases was determined by calculating the present value of the cash flows provided by the in-place leases, net of related incremental expenses over the estimated lease-up period. The value of the acquired in-place leases, above-market lease asset, and below-market lease liability at the date of acquisition are as follows:

£74,792,000	£19,701,000	£(5,114,000)

The value of the acquired in-place leases, above-market lease and below-market lease intangibles is amortized on weighted average over 74 months, the remaining term of these leases. For the period from June 14, 2013 (inception) to December 31, 2013, the amortization expense (benefit) related to in-place leases, above-market leases, and below-market leases was as follows:

In-Place Leases	Above-Market Leases	Below-Market Leases
£4,729,962	£1,332,015	£(258,208)

As of December 31, 2013, the annual amortization expense (benefit) of in-place leases, above-market leases, and below-market leases for each of the next five years and thereafter are as follows:

	In-Place Leases	Above-Market Leases	Below-Market Leases
2014	£14,151,115	£3,985,127	£(772,508)

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of KWF Real Estate Venture XV, L.P. as of December 31, 2013 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the period from June 25, 2013 (inception) through December 31, 2013 in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

 Notes to Financial Statements

(1) Organization

KWF Real Estate Venture XV, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (the Partnership) was formed by and between KWF Manager XV, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, as the general partner (the General Partner) and K-W Properties, a California corporation, as a limited partner (the KW Limited Partner). On August 8, 2013, the Limited Partnership Agreement of KWF Real Estate Venture XV, L.P. (the Limited Partnership Agreement) was amended to admit Odyssey Reinsurance Company, a Connecticut corporation, United States Fire Insurance Company, a Delaware corporation, Advent Capital (No.3) Limited, a UK company, and TIG Insurance Company, a California corporation (collectively, the FF Limited Partner) as limited partners. Collectively, the KW Limited Partner and the FF Limited Partner are referred to as the Limited Partners.

The Partnership was formed upon the filing of the Certificate of Limited Partnership with the office of the Secretary of the State of Delaware on June 25, 2013. The term of the Partnership extends until the earlier of (i) eight years after August 8, 2013, the date of the Limited Partnership Agreement or (ii) the date the Partnership Investment has been liquidated, the Partnership is dissolved, or at any time, there are no limited partners.

The business of the Partnership is to acquire, hold, manage, finance, and dispose of the Partnership real estate assets pursuant to the initial business plan in the Limited Partnership Agreement as amended thereafter by the Partners. The initial business plan provided for the acquisition of a portfolio of commercial real estate assets located in Ireland. The Partnership initially invested €59,580,000 in a 50% interest (the Partnership Investment) in a single purpose entity, Cavalli Limited, which through its four wholly owned subsidiaries acquired the portfolio comprising the following 14 commercial real estate assets:

KWF REAL ESTATE VENTURE XV, L.P.

(A Delaware Limited Partnership)

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2013

Requests for capital contributions may be made by the General Partner and used for investments in the Partnership investments and to satisfy obligations pursuant to the existing Partnership investments or approved follow-on investments, and to pay partnership expenses. Capital contributions made by the FF Limited Partner may not exceed €30,000,000 in the aggregate unless the General Partner has obtained the prior written consent of the FF Limited Partner. In the event that the FF Limited Partner elects not to make capital contributions above €30,000,000, the KW Limited Partner may provide additional funding to the Partnership in the form of a demand loan bearing interest at the greater of 10% per annum or the Citibank N.A. prime rate.

Subject to the prior payment of principal and interest on any demand loans made to the Partnership by any Limited Partner; distributions shall be apportioned between the Limited Partners in proportion to their percentage interest of 50% to the KW Limited Partner and 50% to the FF Limited Partner.

Profit and loss for each fiscal period shall generally be allocated among the partners in a manner to cause their capital account balances to equal the amounts of distributions that would be made if the Partnership were dissolved assuming its assets sold for their respective carrying values and its liabilities satisfied in accordance with their terms.

During the period, the Partnership set up a tax-exempt structure for its 14 Irish investments through a Qualifying Investor Alternative Investment Fund (Cavalli Investments plc, the "QIAIF"). As part of this structure, the QIAIF acquired the total share capital of the four wholly owned subsidiaries from Cavalli Limited.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Use of Estimates

The preparation of the accompanying financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and the underlying assumptions affect the amounts of assets and liabilities reported, and the reported amounts of income and expenses. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, which management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Such estimates and assumptions are adjusted when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. Changes in those estimates resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the financial statements in future periods.

(b) Investment in Unconsolidated Real Estate Joint Venture

In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 323 Investment - Equity Method and Joint Ventures, unconsolidated equity method investments are initially recorded at cost and subsequently are adjusted for the Partnership's share of the venture's earnings or losses and cash distributions. In accordance with the guidance, the allocation of profit and losses should be analyzed to determine how an increase or decrease in net assets of the venture (determined in conformity with U.S. GAAP) will affect cash payments to the investor over the life of the venture and on its liquidation. Because certain venture agreements contain preferences with regard to cash flows from operations, capital events and/or liquidation, the Partnership reflects its share of profits and losses by determining the difference between its "claim on the Investee's book value" at the end and the beginning of the period. This claim is calculated based on the amount that the Partnership would receive if the Investee were to liquidate all of its assets at recorded amounts determined in accordance with U.S. GAAP and distribute the resulting cash to creditors and investors in accordance with their respective priorities. This method is commonly referred to as the hypothetical liquidation at book value method.

On a periodic basis, the Partnership assesses whether there are any indicators that the value of its investments in unconsolidated joint ventures may be impaired. An investment is impaired only if management's estimate of the fair value of the investment is less than the carrying value of the investment, and such decline in fair value is deemed to be other than temporary. For the period from June 25, 2013 through December 31, 2013, no adjustments for impairments were made to the investments in unconsolidated real estate joint venture.

(c)Cash

KWF REAL ESTATE VENTURE XV, L.P.

(A Delaware Limited Partnership)

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2013

Cash includes highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less. Periodically throughout the period from June 25, 2013 (inception) through December 31, 2013, cash balances in various bank accounts exceeded the insured limits. To date, no losses have been experienced related to such amounts. The Partnership places cash with quality financial institutions and does not believe there is a significant concentration of credit risk.

(d)Income Taxes

As a limited Partnership, no provision is made in the accompanying financial statements for partnership income tax liabilities, because such taxes are the responsibility of the individual partners.

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. This process requires management to estimate the current tax exposure as well as assess temporary differences between the accounting and tax treatment of assets and liabilities, including items such as accruals and allowances not currently deductible for tax purposes. Management's judgments, assumptions, and estimates relative to the current provision for income tax take into account current tax laws and interpretations of same.

The Partnership is required to determine whether a tax position is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon settlement, which could result in the Partnership recording a tax liability that would reduce net assets. Based on their analysis, the Partnership has determined that there are no tax benefits that would have a material impact on the Partnership's financial position or results of operations. The tax year 2013 (year of inception) remains open to examination by the taxing jurisdictions to which the Partnership is subject, being the U.S.

(e)Concentration of Risk

The Partnership Investment is located in Ireland. Adverse conditions in the sector or geographic location would likely result in a material decline in the value of the Partnership Investment.

(3) Investment in Unconsolidated Real Estate Joint Venture

In August, 2013, the Partnership acquired a 50% interest in Cavalli Limited, a single purpose entity, which through its four wholly owned subsidiaries (Bizet Limited, Trivata Limited, Scarlatti Limited, and Nessun Limited) acquired a portfolio of fourteen commercial real estate assets located in Ireland for the purchase price of €306,000,000. The portfolio was financed by a mortgage loan from Bank of Ireland with a principal of €199,000,000. This loan is secured by the portfolio and bears interest of three-month EURIBOR plus 3.85% (4.07% at December 31, 2013) requires principal and interest payments on every April 25, July 25, October 25, and January 25 through maturity July 22, 2018.

During the period, the Partnership set up a tax-exempt structure for its 14 Irish investments through a Qualifying Investor Alternative Investment Fund (Cavalli Investments plc, the "QIAIF"). As part of this structure, the QIAIF acquired the total share capital of the four wholly owned subsidiaries from Cavalli Limited.

The carrying value of the Partnership Investment as of December 31, 2013 was €50,741,118.

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in the United States of America. An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. KW Residential, LLC and Subsidiaries
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011

NOTE 1—ORGANIZATION

KW Residential, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the Company), was formed in August 2005 to acquire, operate, improve, and dispose of real estate assets. The Company was established with two members (1) Kennedy Wilson Overseas, Inc. and (2) Wachovia KW2, LLC. that held a 35% and 65% membership interest, respectively. In September 2010, KWF Real Estate Venture I, LP acquired the 65% membership interest from Wachovia KW2, LLC. KWF Real Estate Venture I, LP is a Delaware registered limited partnership and is jointly owned by subsidiaries of Kennedy-Wilson Holdings, Inc. (10%) and Fairfax Financial Holdings Limited and affiliates (90%). The Company conducts its business through its Japanese subsidiaries, namely KW Investment Co. Ltd (“KWI”) and KIWI 1, KIWI 2, KIWI 3, KIWI 4, KIWI 5, KIWI 6 and KIWI 7 (the “KIWI Entities”). The Company’s investments include a portfolio of multifamily real estate properties that are held through the KIWI Entities comprising approximately 2,400 units in 50 properties, located primarily in Tokyo and surrounding areas. The Company, through KWI, also provides real estate services in Japan, including asset management and brokerage services to its own portfolio as well as to institutional investors, developers, and financial institutions.

NOTE 2—SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND CONSOLIDATION-The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”) and include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated upon consolidation. In addition, management evaluates the Company’s relationships with other entities to identify whether they are variable interest entities and to assess whether it is the primary beneficiary of such entities. If the determination is made that the Company is the primary beneficiary, then that entity is included in the consolidated financial statements.

One subsidiary uses different fiscal year-end from the Company’s fiscal year-end of December 31. Material differences in intercompany transactions and accounts arising from the use of the different fiscal year-ends are adjusted in consolidation.

REPORTING AND FUNCTIONAL CURRENCIES-The reporting and functional currency of the Company is the U.S. dollar, whereas the functional currency of the Company’s wholly owned subsidiaries is the Japanese yen. The financial statements of the subsidiaries are translated into U.S. dollars by translating assets and liabilities at the closing exchange rate on the balance sheet date with translation adjustments reported directly in members’ equity and income statement items at average exchange rates during the year. Individually material income and expense transactions are translated using the closing exchange rate in effect on the date the transaction is recognized.

USE OF ESTIMATES-The preparation of the accompanying consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Significant items subject to such estimates and assumptions include the useful lives of rental property, valuation of derivative financial instruments, recoverability of deferred tax assets, income tax uncertainties and other contingencies.

REVENUE RECOGNITION-Rental income from residents is recognized on a straight-line basis over the noncancelable lease term, including any rent free months, which typically is two years. Although the rental agreements are cancelable, by tenant, on one-month notice, the rental agreements contain an early termination penalty such that the Company believes that continuation of the rental agreement appears, at inception, reasonably assured. Upfront payments received, such as “key money” are deferred and recognized over the expected lease period.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS-Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and all highly liquid investments purchased with initial maturities of three months or less. The Company maintains cash balances in excess of governmentally insured limits of 10 million yen that is equivalent to $95,000 as of December 31, 2013. Cash and cash equivalents are placed with financial institutions that management believes are of high credit quality.

RESTRICTED CASH-Restricted cash consist of cash and cash equivalents that are restricted as to withdrawal or usage under the terms of certain contractual agreements, and therefore are not included in cash and cash equivalents for purposes of the consolidated balance sheets and statements of cash flows.

During the ordinary course of business, the KIWI Entities set up various trust accounts to manage their cash receipts and disbursements. As part of the trust agreements, these trusts are required to withhold the cash receipts and make the necessary disbursements before any surplus cash is made available to the KIWI Entities after a holding period of 3 months. In addition, these trusts also made disbursements to restricted cash accounts maintained with certain banks to meet the debt and borrowings obligations.

Table of Contents

KW Residential, LLC and Subsidiaries
 Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
 December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011

As of December 31, 2013, these trusts held cash of $ 10,768,859 that are restricted and not available for the KIWI Entities' withdrawal or usage. These restricted cash will be available for their withdrawal or usage gradually over a period not exceeding three months. In addition, as of December 31, 2013, the restricted cash accounts maintained with certain banks had a balance of $3,844,286. Surpluses, if any, arising after meeting the debt and borrowings obligations will be made available for the KIWI Entities' withdrawal or usage.

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE-Accounts receivable due from tenants are recorded at the contractual amount as determined by the lease agreements with tenants and do not bear interest. The allowance for doubtful accounts is management's best estimate of the amount of probable credit losses in the Company's existing accounts receivable. Management determines the allowance based on historical experience. Management reviews its allowance for doubtful accounts on a quarterly basis. Account balances are charged off against the allowance after all means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote.

RENTAL PROPERTY-Land, building and structures, and machinery and equipment are carried at cost. Major maintenance and improvements are capitalized and minor replacements, maintenance and repairs are charged to current operations in the periods incurred. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives of the assets:

Buildings	31 to 46 years
Short-lived structures and others	2 to 19 years
Machinery and equipment	2 to 14 years

Management reviews the Company's rental property for potential impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the rental property may not be recoverable. Recoverability of rental property to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of the rental property, or rental property group, to estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the rental property or rental property group. The determination of undiscounted future cash flows requires significant estimates made by management and considers the most likely expected course of action at the balance sheet date. Subsequent changes in estimated undiscounted cash flows arising from changes in anticipated actions could affect the determination of whether impairment exists. If the carrying amount of the rental property or rental property group exceeds its estimated future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized in the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the estimated fair value of the rental property or rental property group. Rental property to be disposed of are separately presented in the balance sheet and reported at the lower of the carrying amount or estimated fair value less costs to sell, and are no longer depreciated. The assets and liabilities of a disposal group classified as held for sale are presented separately in the appropriate asset and liability sections of the consolidated balance sheet.

During 2013, 2012 and 2011, management performed impairment analysis on several properties due to deemed triggering events. Based on management's analysis, including assumptions about the length of the holding period until disposed, the estimated selling price and the current projected operating performance of the properties, management has concluded that no impairment of rental property existed for the years ended December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011.

INCOME TAXES-Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. The Company presents a foreign currency transaction gain or loss from remeasuring income tax assets and liabilities within income tax (benefit) expense. The Company does not recognize a deferred tax liability for the portion of a difference between the tax basis in the buyer's tax jurisdiction and the related carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements that results from an intercompany transaction. The Company recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not of being sustained. Recognized income tax positions are measured at the largest amount that is greater than 50% likely of being realized. Changes in recognition or measurement are reflected in the period in which the change in judgment occurs. As of December 31, 2013 and 2012, management of the Company believes there are no uncertain tax positions that would have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations. Management of the Company does not expect material changes in uncertain tax positions within next twelve months. As of December 31, 2013, the tax years 2007 through 2013 remain open for potential tax examination. The interest and penalties of back taxes arising from tax examinations are recognized as income tax expense.

FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS-The Company utilizes valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs to the possible extent. The Company determines fair value based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability in the principal or most advantageous market. When considering market participant assumptions in fair value measurements, the following fair value hierarchy distinguishes between observable and unobservable inputs, which are categorized in one of the following levels:

Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in an active market for identical unrestricted assets and liabilities that the reporting entity has the ability to access at the measurement date.

Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability or can be corroborated with observable market data for substantially the entire contractual term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs that reflect the company's own assumptions market participants would also use in the pricing of the asset or liability and are consequently not based on market activity but rather through particular valuation techniques.

See note 4 to the Consolidated Financial Statements

DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND HEDGING ACTIVITIES-The Company recognizes all derivative instruments as either assets or liabilities in the balance sheet at their respective fair values. For derivatives designated in hedging relationships, changes in the fair value are recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income, to the extent the derivative is effective at offsetting the changes in the item being hedged until the hedged item affects earnings.

For all hedging relationships, the Company formally documents the hedging relationship and its risk management objective and strategy for undertaking the hedge, the hedging instrument, the hedged transaction, the nature of the risk being hedged, how the hedging instrument's effectiveness in offsetting the hedged risk will be assessed prospectively and retrospectively, and a description of the method used to measure ineffectiveness. Management also formally assesses, both at the inception of the hedging relationship and on an ongoing basis, whether the derivatives are highly effective in offsetting changes in cash flows of hedged transactions. For derivative instruments that are designated and qualify as part of a cash flow hedging relationship, the effective portion of the gain or loss on the derivative is reported as a component of other comprehensive income and reclassified into earnings in the same period or periods during which the hedged transaction affects earnings. Gains and losses on the derivative representing either hedge ineffectiveness or hedge components excluded from the assessment of effectiveness are recognized in current earnings.

In all situations in which hedge accounting is discontinued and the derivative remains outstanding, the Company continues to carry the derivative at its fair value on the balance sheet and recognizes any subsequent changes in its fair value in earnings. When it is probable that a forecasted transaction will not occur, the Company discontinues hedge accounting and recognizes immediately in earnings gains and losses that were accumulated in other comprehensive income related to the hedging relationship.

For derivative instruments that are not designated as a hedging instrument, the Company records changes in fair value in statements of operations and comprehensive income in the period when they occur.

See note 4 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

DEFERRED FINANCING COSTS-The Company recognizes debt issuance costs on the balance sheet as deferred charges included in other assets and amortizes their balances over the terms of the related debts using the straight-line method which is substantially similar to the effective interest rate method. The Company classifies cash payments for debt issuance costs as a financing activity in the consolidated statements of cash flows.

NOTE 3—RENTAL PROPERTY

The composition of rental property consisted of the following as of December 31:

NOTE 4—FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The Company has financial instruments that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis. The carrying values of the Company's short-term items such as cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, accounts receivable, other assets, accounts payable and accrued expenses, refundable tenant deposits and other liabilities approximate fair value. The fair value of the Company's long-term debt is calculated based on the discount cash flows using risk rates currently available for debt with similar terms and remaining maturities.

The carrying amounts and related estimated fair values of long-term debt as of December 31, 2013 and 2012 as follows:

	December 31,		2012
	Carrying amount	Fair value	Carrying amount	Fair value
Debt and borrowing contract	$276,657,270	$277,109,539	$316,422,361	$320,381,100

The Company previously used interest rate cap instruments to manage fluctuations in interest rates and terminated all the contracts during fiscal year ended December 31, 2012. In order to manage currency fluctuations between the Company's functional currency (U.S. dollar) and its wholly-owned subsidiaries' functional currency (Japanese yen), the Company uses currency options and enters into forward foreign currency contracts to hedge a portion of its net investment in its wholly owned subsidiaries. During fiscal year ended December 31, 2013, the Company received $27,026,235 in proceeds from unwinding various forward foreign currency contracts, which were partially offset by the premium of $1,037,000 paid for the currency options. On February 6, 2013, the Company entered into two forward foreign currency contracts to hedge a portion of its net investment in its wholly owned subsidiaries. The Company's interest rate caps were valued based on the net present value of expected future cash flows as determined by the counter-party and the forward foreign currency contract is valued based on the difference between the contract rate and the forward rate at maturity of the yen applied to the notional value in yen discounted at a market rate for similar risks. The Company has determined that based on an evaluation of the significance of each of the inputs used to value these instruments that they are considered level 2 in their entirety.

The fair values of derivative instruments held as of December 31, 2013 and 2011:

Other than the income tax obligations in Japan as explained below, the Company has no other foreign tax obligations. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, KW Residential, LLC is considered to be a pass-through entity and all applicable U.S. income taxes are the responsibility of the members. In addition, most of the KIWI Entities are exempt from Japanese income taxes based on a permitted structure under Japanese tax legislation. In order to keep the tax-exempt status, the KIWI Entities are required to distribute more than 90 per cent of the entity's taxable income in each fiscal period. The KIWI Entities have an intention to keep the tax-exempt status continuously. Accordingly, the taxes recorded in these financial statements relate to the income taxes of certain Japanese operations taxable in Japan and Japanese withholding taxes in respect of distributions made by the KIWI Entities to the Company. The Company recognizes deferred tax liabilities and the corresponding deferred tax expense for Japanese withholding taxes on undistributed income in the KIWI entities. That deferred tax expense is included in "Deferred - Japanese" in the table

The Company has recognized a valuation allowance against deferred tax assets for tax loss carryforwards for a subsidiary in order to reduce the deferred tax assets to management's estimate of the amount more likely than not to be realized due to the uncertainty of the timing of realization. During 2012, the Company determined to release $1,944,768 of the valuation allowance due to a change in judgment about realizability of the tax loss carryforwards in future years.

During 2013, the Company completed a reorganization of certain taxable KIWI Entities. The reorganization included a transfer of all properties owned by the taxable KIWI Entities to tax-exempt KIWI Entities. As a result, all taxable KIWI Entities were liquidated or became dormant. Consequently, the Company set up a full valuation allowance in the amount of $1,434,676 on the deferred tax asset for the tax loss carryforward in a remaining dormant taxable KIWI Entity because the realization of this tax loss carryforward is no longer expected.

During 2013, the Company recognized a $2,278,621 deferred tax benefit from the release of the valuation allowance on tax loss carryforwards at a Tokyo branch, due to a change in Japanese tax law. The new tax law disallows a deduction for certain expenses, resulting in increased expectations of future taxable income. The valuation allowance judgment is based on management's expectations of the amount of future income prior to the expiration of the net operating loss carryforwards. The amount of the deferred tax asset considered realizable, however, could be reduced in the near term if estimates of future taxable income during the carryforward period are reduced.

The Company restated components of 2012 deferred tax assets in the table above, including the "Tax loss carryforwards" line, from $1,323,105 to $4,166,501 with an equal offsetting change in the "Valuation allowance" line, from zero to $2,843,396 for no net impact on net deferred tax assets, in order to reflect the tax loss carryforward at the Tokyo branch as of December 31, 2012. Similarly, the Company restated certain percentages showing in the reconciliation of the effective income tax rate table below in order to reflect the reclassification between “Gain and losses on tax exempted entities” and “Change in valuation allowance” for the years ended 2012 and 2011.

NOTE 1—ORGANIZATION

WH Valle Di Oro 79, LLC (the Company), a California limited liability company, is owned by KW Residential Capital, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (wholly owned by Kennedy-Wilson Holdings, Inc., "KW"), and Williams Communities LLC ("Williams"), a California limited liability company and the managing member of the Company. The Company was formed upon the filing of the Articles of Formation with the California Secretary of State on June 8, 2012. The term of the Company extends until the date that the Company is terminated pursuant to the terms defined in the Company's operating agreement.

The Company was organized to invest in and fully own the property known as Valle Di Oro (the Property). The Property is a development project to construct and sell 79 single family homes, located on approximately 21.5 acres of land in Santa Clarita, California. The purchase price of the property was $3,000,000 and was completed on July 31, 2012. The initial capital contributions were $3,100,000 from KW and $555,556 from Williams. The initial percentage ownership between the members was 85% by KW and 15% by Williams. KW has committed an additional $1,700,000 of capital contributions to be used for the costs and expenses of acquiring, developing, constructing, marketing, and disposing of the Property at the written request of the Company. As of December 31, 2013 and 2012, KW had net unreturned contributions of $1,629,027 and $3,566,361 (unaudited), respectively.

The Company will continue in existence until dissolved in accordance with the provisions of its operating agreement and is funded through the equity contributions of its members. As an LLC, except as may otherwise be provided under applicable law, no member shall be bound by, or personally liable for, the expenses, liabilities, or obligations of the individual company. The members are not obligated to restore capital deficits.

Distributions with respect to the Company's investments shall be initially used to pay the release price under the construction loan (note 4), then used to pay any sales costs and administrative costs which are due and payable or were previously accrued and remain unpaid, and finally any remaining proceeds will be distributed as follows:

- (i) First, 100% to KW and Williams until both have received on a pari passu basis, distributions in an amount equal to a 12% preferred return per annum, compounded quarterly, on their respective capital contributions;
- (ii) Second, 75% to KW and 25% to Williams until KW has received distributions in an amount equal to a 22% internal rate of return and a 140% total return on their respective capital;
- (iii) Third, 50% to KW and 50% to Williams until KW has received distributions in an amount equal to a 22% internal rate of return and a 150% total return on their respective capital;
- (iv) Fourth, 40% to KW and 60% to Williams.

During the year ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, total combined preferred returns earned by KW and Williams totaled $627,103 and $207,877 (unaudited), respectively.

NOTE 2—SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

REVENUE RECOGNITION—During 2013, the Company completed development of common project costs for certain phases of the development and commenced the sale of residential lots within these phases. Residential lots are recorded and profit recognized when a sale is consummated, the buyer's initial and continuing investments are adequate, any receivables are not subject to future subordination, and the usual risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to the buyer.

USE OF ESTIMATES—The preparation of the accompanying financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and the underlying assumptions affect the amounts of assets and liabilities reported, and the reported amounts of income and expenses. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, which management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Such estimates and assumptions are adjusted when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. Changes in those estimates resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the financial statements in future periods.

CASH—Cash includes highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less.

Periodically, the Company maintains cash balances in various bank accounts in excess of federally insured limits. To date, no losses have been experienced related to such amounts. The Company places cash with quality financial institutions and does not believe there is a significant concentration of credit risk.

WH VALLE DI ORO 79, LLC
(A California Limited Liability Company)
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2013 and 2012 (Unaudited)

REAL ESTATE DEVELOPMENT—Real estate development costs are carried at cost less any impairment charges. Real estate development costs include direct and indirect land costs, offsite costs and onsite improvements, as well as carrying charges which are capitalized to the real estate project while the project is under active development. Land and land development costs are accumulated and allocated to individual phases within the project using a method that approximates relative fair value. Selling and other marketing costs are expensed in the period incurred.

INCOME TAXES—As a limited liability company, the members elected for the Company to be a pass-through entity for income tax purposes; therefore, the Company's taxable income or loss is allocated to members in accordance with their respective ownership, and no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the financial statements. Management has evaluated the Company's tax positions and concluded that the Company had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements in order to comply with the provisions of this guidance.

NOTE 3—REAL ESTATE DEVELOPMENT

The Company's Real Estate Development is a short-term project with an anticipated build-out of approximately 3 years. Management's assessment of the recoverability of the development costs contemplates that the Company has the intent and ability to hold and develop the Real Estate Development over the development period. The recoverability assessment requires significant judgments and estimates about the Real Estate Development's future performance. Factors that may affect the Real Estate Development's future performance include general economic climate, competition from other projects, local economic conditions such as unemployment which may impact the Real Estate Project's absorption pace and sales prices, and the availability of financing, all of which could impact the Company's ability to hold and develop the Real Estate Development in the ordinary course of business. Any adverse changes in these and other factors, or a change in the Company's intent or ability to hold the Real Estate Development over the development period, could cause the estimated aggregate future cash flows to be less than the carrying amount, in which case the Real Estate Development would likely be impaired. If management of the Company changes its intent or elects not to hold and develop the Real Estate Development, and instead decides to sell it in its current condition, the fair value achieved in a bulk land sale could be significantly less than the carrying amount. Management evaluates its real estate project for impairment when indicators of impairment are present. An impairment loss is recorded if the undiscounted cash flows estimated to be generated by the real estate development are less than the carrying amount. The amount of the loss is calculated as the difference between the carrying amount and the fair value of the real estate development. As of December 31, 2013, there was no impairment recorded by the Company.

After the sale of each home, there may be certain costs incurred specific to each lot and are reflected in accrued cost to complete on the accompanying balance sheet. As of December 31, 2013, total accrued cost to complete was $296,486.

NOTE 4—CONSTRUCTION LOAN

On March 26, 2013, the Company obtained a construction loan from a third-party financial institution. The loan bears interest at a variable rate of PRIME plus 0.50%, and also contains an interest rate floor of 5.5%. In conjunction with the sale of each home, the Company uses sales proceeds to make principal payments based on an agreed upon amount by the Company and the lender, determined by the type of home sold. The loan matures on March 1, 2016 with the full principal balance and any accrued interest due at maturity. The outstanding principal due for the construction loan totaled $1,172,790 as of December 31, 2013. Interest costs are capitalized in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Boards (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 835-20, Capitalization of Interest.

NOTE 5—TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES

Affiliates are eligible to earn asset management fees, sales commissions fees, and warranty fees. Fees earned by affiliates were as follows for the year ended December 31, 2013 and were capitalized to real estate development. No fees were earned in 2012.

NOTE 6—COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Liabilities for loss contingencies arising from claims, assessments, litigation, fines, and penalties and other sources are recorded when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount can be reasonably estimated. Legal costs incurred in connection with loss contingencies are expensed as incurred. Currently, the Company does not have any material commitments or contingencies.

We follow the policy of monitoring our properties for the presence of hazardous or toxic substances. While there can be no assurance that a material environmental liability does not exist, we are not currently aware of any environmental liability with respect to the properties that would have a material effect on our financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows. Further, we are not aware of any environmental liability or any unasserted claim or assessment with respect to an environmental liability other than our conditional asset retirement obligations that we believe would require additional disclosure or the recording of a loss contingency.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

(A Delaware Limited Liability Company)

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2013 and 2012

NOTE 1—ORGANIZATION

KW Stadium Gateway Partners, LLC (the Company), a Delaware limited liability company, is 50% owned by KW Fund IV - Stadium Gateway, LLC (wholly owned by Kennedy Wilson Real Estate Fund IV, LP) and 50% owned by K-W Properties (Manager and wholly owned by Kennedy-Wilson, Inc.). The Company was formed upon the filing of the Articles of Formation with the Delaware Secretary of State on April 9, 2012. The term of the Company extends until the date that the Company is terminated pursuant to the terms defined in the Company's operating agreement. The Company owns a 100% interest in KW Stadium Gateway, LLC, which was organized to invest in and fully own the property known as Stadium Gateway (the Property). The Property is an office building totaling approximately 273,000 rentable square feet, located in Anaheim, California.

Initial capital contributions to acquire the Property were $3,450,000 from KW Fund IV - Stadium Gateway, LLC and $3,450,000 from K-W Properties, for a total initial investment of $6,900,000. KW Fund IV-Stadium Gateway, LLC and K-W Properties have made additional capital contributions totaling $4,375,000 from inception through December 31, 2013.

The Manager may elect from time to time to distribute available cash to the Members in proportion to their percentage interests at the time of distribution. Profit and loss for each fiscal period shall be allocated among the members in proportion to their percentage interests.

The limited liability companies (LLC) will continue in existence until dissolved in accordance with the provisions of their operating agreement and are funded through the equity contributions of their members. As an LLC, except as may otherwise be provided under applicable law, no member shall be bound by, or personally liable for, the expenses, liabilities, or obligations of the individual companies. The members are not obligated to restore capital deficits.

NOTE 2—SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

REVENUE RECOGNITION—Rental revenue from tenants is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term when collectability is reasonably assured and the tenant has taken possession or controls the physical use of the leased asset.

Tenant recoveries related to the reimbursement of real estate taxes, insurance, repairs and maintenance, and other operating expenses are recognized as revenue in the period the applicable expenses are incurred. The reimbursements are recognized and presented gross, since the Company is generally the primary obligor with respect to purchasing goods and services from third-party suppliers, has discretion in selecting the supplier, and bears the associated credit risk.

USE OF ESTIMATES—The preparation of the accompanying financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and the underlying assumptions affect the amounts of assets and liabilities reported, and the reported amounts of income and expenses. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, which management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Such estimates and assumptions are adjusted when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. Changes in those estimates resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the financial statements in future periods.

CASH—Cash includes highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less. Periodically, the Company maintains cash balances in various bank accounts in excess of federally insured limits. To date, no losses have been experienced related to such amounts. The Company places cash with quality financial institutions and does not believe there is a significant concentration of credit risk.

REAL ESTATE ASSETS—Real estate assets are carried at depreciated cost. Depreciation on buildings and improvements has been provided for in the accompanying financial statements using the straight-line method based on estimated useful lives of 40 years for buildings and the lease life for tenant improvements. Amortization of intangible assets associated with in-place leases has been provided for in the accompanying financial statements using the straight-line method based on the remaining lease lives. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred, and costs of renewals or betterments are capitalized and depreciated at the appropriate rates.

KW STADIUM GATEWAY PARTNERS, LLC

(A Delaware Limited Liability Company)

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2013 and 2012

IMPAIRMENT OF LONG-LIVED ASSETS—In accordance with accounting guidance for long-lived assets, the Property is reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. If indications of impairment exist, the Company will evaluate the Property by comparing the carrying amount of the Property to the estimated future undiscounted cash flows of the Property. If impairment exists, an impairment loss will be recognized based on the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the fair value of the asset or asset group. For the year ended December 31, 2013 and the period from inception through December 31, 2012, there were no impairments recorded.

CONCENTRATION OF RISK—The Company's real estate is located in California. Adverse conditions in the sector or geographic location would likely result in a material decline in the value of the Company's investment.

DEFERRED FINANCING COSTS, NET—Financing costs incurred in obtaining long-term debt are capitalized and amortized over the term of the related debt on a straight-line basis.

INCOME TAXES—As a limited liability company, the members elected for the Company to be a pass-through entity for income tax purposes; therefore, the Company's taxable income or loss is allocated to members in accordance with their respective ownership, and no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the financial statements. Management has evaluated the Company's tax positions and concluded that the Company had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements in order to comply with the provisions of this guidance.

FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS—The Company follows the provisions of FASB ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, for fair value measurements of financial assets and financial liabilities and for fair value measurements of nonfinancial items that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the consolidated financial statements on a recurring or nonrecurring basis. ASC Topic 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or would be paid to transfer a liability (the exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

A three-level hierarchy was established for fair value measurements that distinguishes between market participant assumptions developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity (observable inputs) and the reporting entity's own assumptions about market participant assumptions developed based on the best information available in the circumstances (unobservable inputs). The three hierarchy levels are defined as follows: Level 1 - Valuations based on unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2 - Valuations based on observable inputs (other than Level 1 prices), such as quoted prices for similar assets and quoted prices in markets that are not active.

Level 3 - Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement, and involve management judgment.

For certain financial instruments, including cash, tenant receivables, debt service escrows and deposits, utility deposits, prepaid expenses, accounts payable and accrued expenses, prepaid rent, and tenant deposits, recorded amounts approximate fair value due to the relatively short-term nature of these instruments.

Other than the accounting treatment for the assets and liabilities acquired upon acquisition of the Property, as described in notes 3 and 4, the Company has no assets or liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring or nonrecurring basis in the financial statements as of December 31, 2013.

NOTE 3—REAL ESTATE ACQUISITION

The fair value of the Property upon the acquisition date was allocated to the acquired tangible assets, consisting primarily of land and buildings and improvements, and to the identified acquired intangible assets, which comprise in-place leases, above-market leases and below-market leases, in accordance with Business Combinations ASC Subtopic 805-10. Acquisition related costs are expensed as incurred.

The fair value of real estate was determined by valuing the Property as if it were vacant, which was then allocated to land and buildings and improvements, based on management's determination of the relative fair values of these assets. The value of the acquired in-place leases was determined by calculating the present value of the cash flows provided by the leases, net of related incremental expenses over the estimated lease-up period. The allocation of the Property's value to the relevant financial statement captions is presented in the non-cash section of the statement of cash flows.

KW STADIUM GATEWAY PARTNERS, LLC

(A Delaware Limited Liability Company)

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2013 and 2012

NOTE 4—MORTGAGES PAYABLE

Upon acquisition of the Property, the Company assumed a mortgage loan payable to a third-party financial institution, which is secured by the Property. The outstanding principal due for the mortgage totaled $52,000,000 as of December 31, 2013 and 2012. The mortgage bears a fixed interest rate of 5.66%, matures on February 1, 2016 and requires monthly interest payments through maturity. Aggregate principal payments of $52,000,000 under the mortgage payable are due in 2016.

The Company recorded the mortgage at $53,122,492 upon assumption, representing the fair value of the obligation at that time. The fair value was estimated based on the quoted market prices for the same or similar issues for debt of the same remaining maturities as well as the credit quality of the Company. Although the Company has determined that the majority of the inputs used to value the mortgage fall within Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy, the assessment of the Company's credit quality associated with the valuation utilized Level 3 inputs. However, the Company assessed the significance of the impact of the Level 3 inputs on the overall valuation of the liability and determined that it is not significant to the overall valuation of the mortgage. As a result, the Company has determined that its mortgage loan valuation in its entirety be classified in Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy, as defined in note 2. The fair value amount does not necessarily represent the amount that would be required to satisfy the debt obligation. The fair value of the debt as of December 31, 2013 and 2012 was $53,067,027 and $51,902,688, respectively.

The difference between the carrying value of the debt and the fair value upon assumption is being amortized through maturity. The carrying value of the liability as of December 31, 2013 and 2012 is $52,000,000. The fair value of the debt as of December 31, 2013 was $53,067,027.

NOTE 5 - TENANT CONCENTRATIONS

The top three tenants accounted for approximately $1,639,982, $1,168,181 and $734,568, or 25.5%, 18.2%, and 11.4%, respectively, of the Company's rental income for the year ended December 31, 2013. No other tenant comprised more than 10% of the Company's combined rental income for the year ended December 31, 2013.

NOTE 6—MINIMUM FUTURE LEASE RENTALS

As of December 31, 2013, the minimum future cash rents receivable under non-cancellable operating leases in each of the next five years and thereafter are as follows:

2018	1,680,679
Thereafter	178,247
	$19,659,767

NOTE 7—INTANGIBLE ASSETS

The value of the acquired in-place leases, above-market lease asset, and below-market lease liability was $10,073,000, $1,830,000, and $595,000, respectively, at the date of acquisition.

KW STADIUM GATEWAY PARTNERS, LLC

(A Delaware Limited Liability Company)

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2013 and 2012

The value of the net acquired in-place leases is amortized over 34 months, consistent with the remaining weighted-average term of the in-place leases. The amortization expense related to in-place leases was $3,555,236 and $1,629,483 for the year ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively. Additionally, $435,823 and $199,752 in net amortization expense associated with the above-market lease asset and the below-market lease liability are recorded as a component of rental revenues in the consolidated statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively.

As of December 31, 2013, the annual amortization expense of in place-leases, above-market leases and below-market leases for each of the next five years and thereafter are as follows:

	IPLV	Above Market Leases	Below Market Leases
2014	$3,555,236	$645,753	$(209,930)

As an LLC, except as may otherwise be provided under applicable law, no member shall be bound by, or personally liable for, the expenses, liabilities, or obligations of the individual companies. The members are not obligated to restore capital deficits.

NOTE 2—SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

REVENUE RECOGNITION—Rental revenue from tenants is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term when collectability is reasonably assured and the tenant has taken possession or controls the physical use of the leased asset.

Tenant recoveries related to the reimbursement of real estate taxes, insurance, repairs and maintenance, and other operating expenses are recognized as revenue in the period the applicable expenses are incurred. The reimbursements are recognized and presented gross, since the Company is generally the primary obligor with respect to purchasing goods and services from third-party suppliers, has discretion in selecting the supplier, and bears the associated credit risk.

USE OF ESTIMATES—The preparation of the accompanying financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and the underlying assumptions affect the amounts of assets and liabilities reported, and the reported amounts of income and expenses. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, which management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Such estimates and assumptions are adjusted when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. Changes in those estimates resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the financial statements in future periods.

CASH—Cash includes highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less. Periodically, the Company maintains cash balances in various bank accounts in excess of federally insured limits. To date, no losses have been experienced related to such amounts. The Company places cash with quality financial institutions and does not believe there is a significant concentration of credit risk.

REAL ESTATE ASSETS—Real estate assets are carried at depreciated cost. Depreciation on buildings and improvements has been provided for in the accompanying financial statements using the straight-line method based on estimated useful lives of 40 years for buildings and the lease life for tenant improvements. Amortization of intangible assets associated with in-place leases has been provided for in the accompanying financial statements using the straight-line method based on the remaining lease lives. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred, and costs of renewals or betterments are capitalized and depreciated at the appropriate rates.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2013 and 2012 (Unaudited)

IMPAIRMENT OF LONG-LIVED ASSETS—In accordance with accounting guidance for long-lived assets, the Property is reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. If indications of impairment exist, the Company will evaluate the Property by comparing the carrying amount of the Property to the estimated future undiscounted cash flows of the Property. If impairment exists, an impairment loss will be recognized based on the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the fair value of the asset or asset group. For the year ended December 31, 2013 and the period ended December 31, 2012 (unaudited), there were no impairments recorded.

CONCENTRATION OF RISK—The Company's real estate is located in California. Adverse conditions in the sector or geographic location would likely result in a material decline in the value of the Company's investment.

DEFERRED FINANCING COSTS, NET—Financing costs incurred in obtaining long-term debt are capitalized and amortized over the term of the related debt on a straight-line basis.

INCOME TAXES—As a limited liability company, the members elected for the Company to be a pass-through entity for income tax purposes; therefore, the Company's taxable income or loss is allocated to members in accordance with their respective ownership, and no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the financial statements. Management has evaluated the Company's tax positions and concluded that the Company had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements in order to comply with the provisions of this guidance.

FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS—The Company follows the provisions of FASB ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, for fair value measurements of financial assets and financial liabilities and for fair value measurements of nonfinancial items that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a recurring or nonrecurring basis. ASC Topic 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or would be paid to transfer a liability (the exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

A three-level hierarchy was established for fair value measurements that distinguishes between market participant assumptions developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity (observable inputs) and the reporting entity's own assumptions about market participant assumptions developed based on the best information available in the circumstances (unobservable inputs). The three hierarchy levels are defined as follows: Level 1 - Valuations based on unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2 - Valuations based on observable inputs (other than Level 1 prices), such as quoted prices for similar assets and quoted prices in markets that are not active.

Level 3 - Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement, and involve management judgment.

For certain financial instruments, including cash, tenant receivables, escrows and deposits, prepaid expenses, accounts payable and accrued expenses, prepaid rent, and tenant deposits, recorded amounts approximate fair value due to the relatively short-term nature of these instruments.

Other than the accounting treatment for the assets and liabilities acquired upon acquisition of the Property, as described in notes 3 and 4, the Company has no assets or liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring or nonrecurring basis in the financial statements as of December 31, 2013 and 2012.

NOTE 3—REAL ESTATE ACQUISITION

The fair value of the Property upon the acquisition date was allocated to the acquired tangible assets, consisting primarily of land and buildings and improvements, and to the identified acquired intangible assets, which comprise in-place leases, above-market leases and below-market leases, in accordance with Business Combinations ASC Subtopic 805-10. Acquisition related costs are expensed as incurred.

The fair value of real estate was determined by valuing the Property as if it were vacant, which was then allocated to land and buildings and improvements, based on management's determination of the relative fair values of these assets. The value of the acquired in-place leases was determined by calculating the present value of the cash flows provided by the leases, net of related incremental expenses over the estimated lease-up period. The allocation of the Property's value to the relevant financial statement captions is presented in the non-cash section of the statement of cash flows.

NOTE 4—MORTGAGES PAYABLE

Upon acquisition of the Property, the Company assumed a mortgage loan payable to a third-party financial institution, which is secured by the Property. The mortgage bears a fixed interest rate of 5.51%, matures on June 1, 2015 and requires monthly interest and principal payments through maturity.

The Company recorded the mortgage at $13,889,195 upon assumption, representing the fair value of the obligation at that time. The fair value was estimated based on the quoted market prices for the same or similar issues for debt of the same remaining maturities as well as the credit quality of the Company. Although the Company has determined that the majority of the inputs used to value the mortgage fall within Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy, the assessment of the Company's credit quality associated with the valuation utilized Level 3 inputs. However, the Company assessed the significance of the impact of the Level 3 inputs on the overall valuation of the liability and determined that it is not significant to the overall valuation of the mortgage. As a result, the Company has determined that its derivative valuation in its entirety be classified in Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy, as defined in note. The fair value amount does not necessarily represent the amount that would be required to satisfy the debt obligation.

The difference between the carrying value of the mortgage and the fair value upon assumption is being amortized through maturity. The carrying value of the liability as of December 31, 2013 and 2012 was $13,795,009 and $14,040,141 (unaudited), respectively. The fair value of the debt as of December 31, 2013 was $13,705,405.

Aggregate principal payments due under the mortgage loan subsequent to December 31, 2013 is as follows:

2014	$238,244
2015	13,556,765
Aggregate principal payments	$13,795,009
Unamortized debt discount	(82,777)
Mortgage loan payable	$13,712,232

The Company is required to fund taxes, insurance and capital expenditures into a reserve account on a monthly basis. The amounts in reserve as of December 31, 2013 and 2012 for taxes and insurance were $48,609 and 46,820, respectively and are included on the balance sheet. The amounts in reserve as of December 31, 2013 and 2012 for capital expenditures were $518,752 and $504,988, respectively, and are included on the balance sheet as capital escrow deposits.

NOTE 5 - TENANT CONCENTRATIONS

The top four tenants accounted for approximately $204,184, $121,296, $101,629, and $89,260 or 33.51%, 19.91%, 16.68%, and 14.65% , respectively, of the Company's combined rental income for the year ended December 31, 2013. No other tenant comprised more than 10% of the Company's combined rental income for the year ended December 31, 2013.

NOTE 6—MINIMUM FUTURE LEASE RENTALS

There are five lease agreements in place with tenants to lease space at the Property. As of December 31, 2013, the minimum future cash rents receivable under non-cancellable operating leases in each of the next five years and thereafter are as follows:

2014	$565,481
2015	534,694
2016	315,658
2017	209,102
2018	52,879
Thereafter	—
	$1,677,814

NOTE 7—INTANGIBLE ASSETS

The value of the acquired in-place leases, above-market lease asset, and below-market lease liability was $784,000, $16,000, and $52,000, respectively, at the date of acquisition.

Additionally, the net amortization revenue in the amount of $18,772 associated with the above-market lease asset and the below-market lease liability is recorded as a component of rental revenues in the statement of operations. For the period from inception through December 31, 2012, no amortization expense was recorded.

For 2014, the annual amortization expense of in place-leases scheduled is $374,964, and the net amortization revenue of above-market leases and below-market leases scheduled is $17,228.

NOTE 8—TRANSACTIONS WITH THE AFFILIATES

NOTE 1—ORGANIZATION

KWI AMERICA MULTIFAMILY, LLC— KWI America Multifamily, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the Company), was formed on November 6, 2006. The Company is engaged in the acquisition, operation, improvement, and future disposition of an apartment portfolio consisting of two apartment buildings known as the City Heights Apartments and the Heights on West Campus Apartments (each a Property), (together the Properties). The Company had two members: (1) KW America Multifamily Manager, LLC (KWAMM), a California limited liability company, and (2) KW/WDC America Member, LLC (WDC) a Delaware limited liability company.

KWAMM is the manager of the Company and is responsible for the day to day operations of the Company and was comprised of two members: (1) K-W Properties (KWP), a California corporation and (2) KW/WDC Portfolio Executives LLC (EXEC), a California limited liability company.

On June 25, 2010, KWP acquired 100% of the EXEC interests in the KWAMM. Simultaneously, the Company acquired 100% of the WDC member interest in the Properties and the WDC member withdrew from the Properties. This resulted in KWP being the sole member of the Company and the Company being the sole member of the Properties.

On June 25, 2010 Chadwick Reserve LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (Chadwick) was admitted to the Company as a member and joint manager.

KWP contributed capital in the amount of $6,845,077 (unaudited) on June 25, 2010 and has a 51% membership interest in the Company. Chadwick contributed capital in the amount of $6,576,643 (unaudited) and has a 49% membership interest in the Company. In accordance with the Company's amended and restated limited liability agreement, distributions are made to members in proportion to their capital contributions until those capital contributions have been reduced to zero, and in proportion to their percentage interest thereafter.

As a result of the ownership changes described above, push down accounting was applied to the transaction.

Accordingly, the assets of the Company were revalued based on the restated equity at the time of the transaction.

Kennedy-Wilson Holdings, Inc. (KWH), an affiliate of KWP, has guaranteed certain exceptions to the nonrecourse liability of the mortgage loan.

The limited liability companies (LLCs) within the accompanying combined balance sheets will continue to operate until dissolved in accordance with the provisions of their operating agreements and are funded through the equity contributions of their members. As LLCs, except as may otherwise be provided under applicable law, no member shall be bound by, or personally liable for, the expenses, liabilities, or obligations of the individual companies. The members are not obligated to resolve capital deficits.

KW SV INVESTMENT WEST COAST, LLC—KW SV Investment West Coast, LLC (KWSV), a Delaware limited liability company was formed on September 29, 2010, by and among KWP, KW SV Executives LLC, a California limited liability company, and RECP/UP SV, LP a Delaware limited partnership, (collectively the SV Members). The term of KWSV extends until the date KWSV is dissolved or liquidated by terms defined in its operating agreement. SV Investment Group Partners, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the SV Property Owner) was formed for the purpose of acquiring, owning, and operating the condominium project known as Santee Village located at 738 S. Los Angeles Street, 746 S. Los Angeles Street and 743 Santee Street, Los Angeles, California. The sole member of the SV Property Owner is SV Investment Group Partners Manager, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, whose two members are SV Investment West Coast Partners, LLC (SV West), a Delaware limited liability company and SV Investment East Coast Partners, LLC (SV East), a Delaware limited liability company. KWSV was organized to acquire and own a 100% membership interest in and act as the managing member of SV West. The initial capital contribution from the members was $2,523,172 (unaudited). Each member may be required to make additional capital contributions to satisfy funding requirements of SW West under the circumstances and at the time described in the SV Property Owner's operating agreement. Remedies are available to the contributing members in the event a member does not make an additional capital contribution as required, including adjustment of the initial percentage interests.

The limited liability company agreement requires that cash distributions be made to the members pari passu in proportion to their percentage interests at the time of the distribution.

Profit and loss for each fiscal period shall be allocated among the members in proportion to their respective percentage interests.

The limited liability companies (LLCs) within the accompanying combined financial statements will continue to operate until dissolved in accordance with the provisions of their operating agreements and are funded through the equity contributions

NOTE 2—SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements of KWI America Multifamily, LLC and KW SV Investment West Coast, LLC have been presented on a combined basis because the entities are under common management. All intercompany transactions have been eliminated in combination.

PRINCIPLES OF COMBINATION—The combined financial statements include the consolidated accounts of the Company with its wholly owned subsidiaries and KW SV Investment West Coast, LLC. All significant intercompany items have been eliminated in the accompanying combined financial statements.

The Company indirectly owns its real estate through the following wholly owned subsidiaries:

KW/WDC WESTERMORELAND, LLC—KW/WDC Westmoreland, LLC (Westmoreland) was formed on February 21, 2007, with the Company as sole member. Westmoreland acquired the 687-unit multifamily apartment project known as the City Heights Apartments (City Heights) and other improvements located in Los Angeles, California.

KW/WDC WEST CAMPUS, LLC—KW/WDC West Campus (West Campus) was formed on March 28, 2007, with the Company as sole member. West Campus acquired the real property known as the Heights on West Campus Apartments, a 401-unit apartment complex located in Federal Way, Washington.

The Company shall be perpetual, unless otherwise terminated by terms defined in the Company's operating agreement.

REAL ESTATE—The City Heights property was acquired on February 22, 2007 for $121,671,007 (unaudited), including capitalized acquisition costs of $1,652,801 (unaudited).

The West Campus property was acquired on March 29, 2007 for $47,272,824 (unaudited), including capitalized acquisition costs of $754,618 (unaudited).

The fair value of real estate acquired was allocated to the acquired tangible assets, consisting primarily of land and building, and to the fair value of the identified acquired intangible assets, which comprise in-place lease value.

The fair value of real estate was determined by valuing the property as if it were vacant, which was then allocated to land and building, based on management's determination of the relative fair values of these assets. The fair value of the acquired in-place lease value was determined by calculating the present value of the cash flows provided by the leases, net of related incremental expenses over the estimated lease-up period.

Land, buildings, building improvements, and equipment are carried at cost. The buildings are depreciated over 39 years, building improvements are depreciated over 10 years, and equipment is depreciated over 5 years on a straight-line basis. The acquired in-place lease value is amortized over one year.

INVESTMENTS IN UNCONSOLIDATED REAL ESTATE JOINT VENTURES—In accordance with FASB ASC 323 Investment - Equity Method and Joint Ventures, unconsolidated equity method investments are initially recorded at cost and are subsequently adjusted for KWSV's share of the venture's earnings or losses and cash distributions. In accordance with the guidance, the allocation of profit and losses should be analyzed to determine how an increase or decrease in net assets of the SV Property Owner (determined in conformity with U.S. GAAP) will affect cash payments to the member over the life of the SV Property Owner and on its liquidation. Because certain property owner agreements contain preferences with regard to cash flows from operations, capital events and/or liquidation, KWSV reflects its share of profits and losses by determining the difference between its "claim on the Investee's book value" at the end and the beginning of the period. This claim is calculated based on the amount that KWSV would receive if the Investee were to liquidate all of its assets at recorded amounts determined in accordance with U.S. GAAP and distribute the resulting cash to creditors and investors in accordance with their respective priorities. This method is commonly referred to as the hypothetical liquidation at book value method.

On a periodic basis, KWSV shall assess whether there are any indicators that the value of its investment in unconsolidated joint venture may be impaired. An investment is impaired only if management's estimate of the value of the investment is less than the carrying value of the investment, and such decline in value is deemed other than temporary. As of December 31, 2013, no adjustments for impairment were made to the KWSV's investment in unconsolidated real estate joint venture.

IMPAIRMENT OF LONG LIVED ASSETS—Long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable in accordance with Impairment of Long-

Lived Assets ASC Subtopic 360-10. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated undiscounted future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized in the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the fair value of the asset. Assets to be disposed of would be separately presented in the balance sheet and reported at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value less costs to sell, and are no longer depreciated. The assets and liabilities of a disposal group classified as held for sale would be presented separately in the appropriate asset and liability sections of the balance sheet.

CASH—The Entities maintains their cash in federally insured banking institutions. The account balances at these institutions periodically exceed the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's (FDIC) insurance coverage and, as a result, there is a concentration of credit risk related to amounts in excess of FDIC insurance coverage. To mitigate this risk, the Entities place their cash with quality financial institutions.

REPAIR AND REPLACEMENT DEPOSITS AND REAL ESTATE TAXES AND INSURANCE HELD IN ESCROW—Deposits in escrow are typically funds held by a mortgage lender that are restricted in use for payment of real estate taxes, property insurance, and certain capital expenditures. Funds in tax and insurance escrows are used to pay real estate taxes and insurance premiums directly to the taxing authorities and insurance agencies, respectively. Funds in capital expenditure escrows are generally disbursed as reimbursement to the borrower upon submission of satisfactory evidence that the related capital expenditures are incurred as anticipated. These escrow deposits are refundable to the borrower upon repayment of the mortgage loan.

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE—Accounts receivable due from tenants are recorded at the contractual amount as determined by the lease agreements, and do not bear interest. The allowance for doubtful accounts is the Entities' best estimate of the amount of probable credit losses in the Entities' existing accounts receivable. The Entities determine the allowance based on historical experience and specific item identification, which is reviewed on a quarterly basis. Account balances are charged off against the allowance after all means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote.

INCOME TAXES—No provision has been made in the accompanying combined financial statements for federal or state income taxes, as any such taxes related to the revenues and expenses of the Entities are the responsibility of the members.

The Entities are required to determine whether a tax position is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement, which could result in the Entities recording a tax liability that would reduce net assets. Based on their analysis, the Entities have determined that there are no tax benefits that would have a material impact on the Entities' financial position or results of operations.

USE OF ESTIMATES—The preparation of the accompanying combined financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and the underlying assumptions affect the amounts of assets and liabilities reported, and reported amounts of revenues and expenses. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from these estimates. Changes in those estimates resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the financial statements in future periods.

NOTE 3—INVESTMENTS IN UNCONSOLIDATED REAL ESTATE JOINT VENTURES

During October 2010, KWSV, through its wholly owned subsidiary, SV West, acquired a 30% interest in SV Investment Group Partners Manager, LLC, which in turn owns 100% of SV Investment Group Partners, LLC, a single-purpose entity that invested in the condominium project located in Los Angeles, California, known as Santee Village. This real estate investment consisted of 167 condominium units and 18,694 square feet of retail space. The investment was financed by a loan payable to German American Capital Corporation in the principal amount of $26,500,000 (unaudited). The loan accrued interest at the greater of 7.0% or 6.0% above the one-month LIBOR and required monthly interest-only payments and principal payments made upon the closing of condominium units. In September 2011, the loan was fully paid from the net sales proceeds of condominium units sales. As of December 31, 2013, there were no unsold retail spaces.

The net carrying value of the KWSV's investment in this joint venture was $65,803 (unaudited) and $215,458 (unaudited) as of December 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively.

The following presents summarized financial information of this unconsolidated real estate joint venture, SV Investment Group Partners, LLC, as of December 31, 2013, 2012, and 2011.

Legal costs incurred in connection with loss contingencies are expensed as incurred. Currently, the Company and KWSV do not have any material commitments or contingencies.

The City Heights property contains asbestos that was installed when the property was built in the 1960s. If removed, the asbestos will require special treatment due to its hazardous nature. This establishes an obligation as the property owner will be required to remediate this at some point in the future. Remediation by management will only be required if they demolish the building or do substantial renovations that will involve removal of the asbestos.

(A Delaware Limited Partnership) AND SUBSIDIARY
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2013, 2012, and 2011

NOTE 1—ORGANIZATION

KWF Real Estate Venture VI, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (the Partnership) was formed by and between KWF Manager VI, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company as general partner (the General Partner); and TIG Insurance Company, a California corporation, and Odyssey Reinsurance Corporation, a Connecticut corporation, as limited partners (the Limited Partners). The Partnership was formed upon the filing of the Certificate of Limited Partnership in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware on October 5, 2011. The term of the Partnership extends until the date all Partnership investments have been liquidated, the Partnership is dissolved, or at any time there are no Limited Partners.

The business of the Partnership shall be to acquire, hold, manage, and dispose of investments, with a focus on acquiring participation interests in the pool of loans, swaps, and other transactions held by or in favor of KW UK Loan Partners Limited, an Irish Section 110 Company (the 110 Company). Such investments shall be made through a wholly owned subsidiary of the Partnership, KW EU Loan Partners I, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the Partnership Subsidiary). Investments shall be made pursuant to the Amended and Restated Participation Agreement dated December 5, 2011 (Participation Agreement) by and among the 110 Company; Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch; JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A.; the Partnership Subsidiary; Odyssey Reinsurance Company, a Connecticut corporation; KW Loan Partners V, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company; and Burlington Loan Management Limited, a limited liability company incorporated in the Republic of Ireland. This Participation Agreement replaced an earlier agreement dated as of October 21, 2011.

In the event that (i) the Partnership Subsidiary receives a future advance notice pursuant to the Participation Agreement, (ii) a buy/sell procedure is initiated pursuant to the Participation Agreement, or (iii) the General Partner makes a request for capital contributions to pay partnership expenses, then the General Partner shall notify the Limited Partners of such event, and the General and Limited Partners shall make payments of additional capital in immediately available funds within five (5) business days. However, the General Partner may not make a request for capital contributions from the Limited Partners to the extent that capital contributions made by the Limited Partners exceed $75,000,000 in the aggregate, unless the General Partner has obtained the prior written consent of the Limited Partners. Initial capital contributions made on October 14, 2011, the date of the Limited Partnership Agreement of KWF Real Estate Venture VI, LP, were $67,500,000 by KWF Manager VI, LLC, $36,500,000 by TIG Insurance Company, and $31,000,000 by Odyssey Reinsurance Corporation.

The Partnership invested in a 25% participation interest in loans held by the 110 Company.

Profit and loss for each fiscal period shall generally be allocated among the partners in a manner to cause their capital account balances to equal the amounts of distributions that would be made if the Partnership were dissolved, its assets sold for their respective carrying values, and its liabilities satisfied in accordance with their terms, and all remaining amounts distributed. Distributions shall be made on a pari passu basis to the General Partner and the Limited Partners in accordance with their respective percentage interests.

NOTE 2—SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES

BASIS OF CONSOLIDATION—The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Partnership and its wholly owned subsidiary. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in the consolidation.

INVESTMENT IN LOAN POOL PARTICIPATION—Participation interest income from the investment in the loan pool participation is recognized on a level yield basis under the provisions of Loans and Debt Securities Acquired with Deteriorated Credit Quality Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Subtopic 310-30, where a level yield model is utilized to determine a yield rate which, based upon projected future cash flows, accretes interest income over the estimated holding period. When the future cash flows of a note cannot reasonably be estimated, cash payments are applied to the cost basis of the note until it is fully recovered before any interest income is recognized.

In accordance with this guidance, projected future cash flows to be received by the Partnership through the Partnership Subsidiary are accreted on a level yield basis using the investment made to capitalize KW EU Loan Partners I, LLC as the initial net investment amount. On a periodic basis, the Partnership will reevaluate the projected future cash flows to be received by the Partnership and make adjustments to the level yield accretion as necessary.

OPERATING CURRENCY—The functional currency of the Partnership is the U.S. dollar. The functional currency of the 110 Company is the British pound sterling. The financial transactions related to the participation interests held by the 110 Company are translated into U.S. dollars by translating assets and liabilities at the closing exchange rate on the balance sheet date with translation adjustments reported directly in partners' capital and income statement items at average exchange rates during the year. Individually material income and expense transactions are translated using the closing exchange rate in effect on the date the transaction is recognized.

INCOME TAXES—As a limited partnership, the Partnership is a pass-through entity for income tax purposes; therefore, the Partnership's taxable income or loss is allocated to partners in accordance with their respective ownership, and no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the consolidated financial statements.

Management has evaluated the Partnership's tax positions and concluded that the Partnership has taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the consolidated financial statements in order to comply with the provisions of ASC 740-10 Income Taxes-Overall.

CASH—Periodically throughout the period from October 5, 2011 (inception) through December 31, 2013, balances in various bank accounts exceeded federally insured limits. To date, no losses have been experienced related to such amounts. The Partnership places cash with quality financial institutions and does not believe there is a significant concentration of credit risk.

ESCROW DEPOSITS—An escrow deposit account is maintained pursuant to the Second Amended and Restated Loan Agreement dated December 22, 2011 with CBRE Loan Servicing Limited as administrative agent (Loan Agreement) for the loan payable that is funded from remittances from the loan participation in excess of current debt service requirements until such time that this reserve reaches a balance equal to one quarterly period's debt service.

NOTE 3—INVESTMENT IN LOAN POOL PARTICIPATION

During October 2011 (Tranche #1) and December 2011 (Tranche #2), the Partnership acquired a 25% participation interest in a pool of 24 loans from a European bank (the Pool). The collateral upon inception was geographically located as follows: London, England (62%), the Midlands region of England (9%), Manchester, England (6%), the South East region of England (5%), and the North region (4%). The remaining 14% of the loans were located in other areas of England, Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland. The collateral was comprised of 39% office buildings, 26% retail properties, 25% multifamily properties, 9% industrial properties, and 1% land. On December 22, 2011, six of the loans were sold for £236,870,666 or $371,515,059 and the proceeds distributed to the participants. The Partnership's share of the proceeds from the sale was £59,217,667 or $92,878,765. During the year ended December 31, 2012, nine loans were fully resolved, resulting in total cash collections of £379,588,346 or $601,533,652. During the year ended December 31, 2013, eight loans were fully resolved, resulting in total cash collections of £422,476,026 or $661,103,160.
