Item 8.01 Other Events

As previously announced, Wesbanco, Inc. (“WesBanco”) and ESB Financial Corporation (“ESB”) entered into a definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), dated as of October 29, 2014, providing for the merger of ESB with and into WesBanco with WesBanco surviving (the “Proposed Merger”). WesBanco and ESB recently became aware of two putative class action complaints filed by purported shareholders of ESB relating to the Proposed Merger.

The State Court Complaint

On November 21, 2014, Randall Kress, a purported shareholder of ESB, filed a putative shareholder derivative and class action complaint in the Court of Common Pleas of Lawrence County, Pennsylvania (the “State Court Complaint”) naming ESB Bank, ESB’s board of directors (the “Director Defendants”) and WesBanco as defendants, and ESB as a nominal defendant (collectively, the “State Court Defendants”). The case is captioned and numbered Randall Kress v. ESB Bank, Case No. 11185/14 CA. The State Court Complaint makes various allegations against the State Court Defendants relating to the Proposed Merger, including that the Director Defendants breached their fiduciary duties to ESB’s shareholders and ESB by approving the Proposed Merger and that ESB and WesBanco aided and abetted those alleged breaches. The State Court Complaint generally seeks an injunction barring the State Court Defendants from consummating the Proposed Merger. To the extent that the Proposed Merger is completed before the court enters judgment, the State Court Complaint alternatively seeks rescission of the Merger or rescissory damages, an accounting for all damages suffered as a result of the alleged breaches of fiduciary duty, and an award of the costs incurred in prosecuting the case, including attorneys’ fees and costs.

The State Court Complaint has not yet been served on any of the State Court Defendants.

The Federal Court Complaint

On December 15, 2014, James Elliott, a purported shareholder of ESB, filed a putative class action complaint in the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania (the “Federal Court Complaint”) naming as defendants ESB, the Director Defendants and WesBanco (collectively, the “Federal Court Defendants”). The case is captioned and numbered James Elliott vs. ESB Financial, Inc., et al., Case No. 2:14-cv-01689-MRH. The Federal Court Complaint makes various allegations against the Federal Court Defendants relating to the Proposed Merger, including that the Registration Statement on Form S-4 filed on November 20, 2014 in connection with the Proposed Merger omits certain information allegedly necessary for ESB’s shareholders to make an informed vote on the Proposed Merger, that the Director Defendants breached their fiduciary duties to ESB’s shareholders in approving the Proposed Merger, and that ESB and WesBanco aided and abetted those alleged breaches. The Federal Court Complaint generally seeks an injunction barring the Federal Court Defendants from consummating the Proposed Merger. To the extent that the Proposed Merger is completed before the court enters judgment, the Federal Court Complaint alternatively seeks rescission of the Merger or rescissory damages, an accounting for all resulting losses and damages suffered as a result of the alleged breaches of fiduciary duty, and an award of the costs and expenses incurred in prosecuting the case, including attorneys’ fees and costs.

The Federal Court Defendants have accepted service of the Federal Court Complaint.

WesBanco and ESB believe the allegations in the State Court Complaint and the Federal Court Complaint are without merit and intend to defend vigorously against those allegations.
