

Section 1 - Conflict Minerals Disclosure

Item 1.01. Conflict Minerals Disclosure and Report

(a) Conflict minerals are necessary to the functionality or production of certain of the products manufactured by the registrant or contracted by the registrant to be manufactured and are required to be reported in the calendar year covered by this specialized disclosure report. Registrant does not purchase the conflict minerals directly from smelters or mines and as a result registrant conducted in good faith a reasonable country of origin inquiry with its suppliers and undertook due diligence measures reasonably designed to determine whether any of the conflict minerals originated in the Democratic Republic of the Congo or an adjoining country or are from recycled or scrap sources.

(b) Based on its reasonable country of origin inquiry and due diligence measures, the registrant determined that its necessary conflict minerals used in certain of the products manufactured by the registrant or contracted by the registrant to be manufactured did or may have originated in the Democratic Republic of the Congo or an adjoining country and that they may not be from recycled or scrap sources. The registrant exercised due diligence on the source and chain of custody of such conflict minerals that conforms to the nationally or internationally recognized due diligence framework as set forth in the OECD Due Diligence Guidance for Responsible Supply Chains of Minerals from Conflict-Affected and High-Risk Areas. The reasonable country of origin inquiry and due diligence measures that registrant undertook included requesting all relevant first-tier suppliers to complete the RMI Conflict Minerals Reporting Template (CMRT) which can be found at <http://www.responsiblemineralsinitiative.org>, reviewing the information and smelter data provided by relevant first-tier suppliers, and comparing smelters and refiners identified by the supply chain to the RMAP Conformant Smelters list which can be found at <http://www.responsiblemineralsinitiative.org>.
