Note 4. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company had $72.2 million and $192.6 million of cash equivalents at June 30, 2012 and December 31, 2011, respectively, which were primarily investments in money market funds. The Company has categorized its cash equivalents as a Level 1 financial asset, measured at fair value based on quoted prices in active markets of identical assets. The fair value of the Company's forward currency contracts as of June 30, 2012 and December 31, 2011 was not significant. The fair value of the Company's long-term debt is approximately $261.0 million based upon Level 2 inputs at June 30, 2012. The Company does not have any other significant financial assets or liabilities that are measured at fair value.

Note 5. Foreign Currency Exchange Rate Risk

The gains and losses related to outstanding derivative instruments recorded in other income are offset by the reciprocal gains and losses from the underlying assets or liabilities which originally gave rise to the exposure. The net amount of these gains and losses for the three and six months ended June 30, 2012 were a loss of $1.4 million and a gain of $0.3 million, respectively. The net amount of these gains and losses for the three and six months ended June 30, 2011 were a loss of less than $0.1 million and a loss of $4.5 million, respectively.

The zero-cost collar option hedges are designed to protect the Company as the US Dollar strengthens, but also provide the Company with some flexibility if the US Dollar weakens. Interest is payable on the Notes semiannually in arrears on March 1 and September 1, which commenced March 1, 2012. The proceeds from the Notes are being used for general corporate purposes, which may include working capital and capital expenditure needs, business acquisitions and repurchases of the Company's common stock.

Note 14. Shareholders' Equity

The following table summarizes the common stock and additional paid-in capital activity during the six months ended June 30, 2012 (in thousands):

During the six months ended June 30, 2012, the Company repurchased 4.0 million shares of the Company's common stock under the February 2011 repurchase authorization by the Company's Board of Directors pursuant to which the Company is authorized to repurchase up to 20.0 million shares of the Company's outstanding common stock. This authorization expires in February 2013.

On February 9, 2011, the Company's Board of Directors adopted a dividend policy under which the Company intends to pay quarterly cash dividends on its common stock. Accordingly, a dividend of $0.07 per share of outstanding common stock was paid on June 8, 2012 to shareholders of record as of the close of business on May 21, 2012. The total cash payments for dividends in the six months ended June 30, 2012 were $21.5 million.

Note 15. Contingencies

The Company and its subsidiary, Indigo Systems Corporation (now known as FLIR Commercial Systems, Inc.) (together, the "FLIR Parties"), were named in a lawsuit filed by Raytheon Company ("Raytheon") on March 2, 2007, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas. Raytheon's complaint, as amended, asserted claims for tortious interference, patent infringement, trade secret misappropriation, unfair competition, breach of contract and fraudulent concealment. The FLIR Parties filed an answer to the complaint on September 2, 2008, in which they denied all material allegations. On August 31, 2009, the court entered an order granting the FLIR Parties' motion for summary judgment on Raytheon's trade secret misappropriation claim based on the FLIR Parties' statute of limitations defense. Raytheon abandoned all of its other claims except its claims relating to four patents (the "Patent Claims"). On August 11, 2010, the FLIR Parties and Raytheon entered into an agreement in principle to resolve the remaining Patent Claims, which resulted in a payment of $3 million by the FLIR Parties to Raytheon and entitles the FLIR Parties to certain license rights in the patents that were the subject of the Patent Claims. The parties appealed certain rulings of the District Court to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit which on August 1, 2012, reversed the judgment of the District Court and remanded the case for further proceedings consistent with the appellate court's opinion. The Company intends to vigorously defend itself in this matter and is unable to estimate the amount or range of potential loss, if any, which might result if the outcome in this matter is unfavorable.

Note 16. Income Taxes

As of June 30, 2012, the Company had approximately $29.9 million of net unrecognized tax benefits of which $18.1 million would affect the Company's effective tax rate if recognized. The Company anticipates a portion of its net unrecognized tax benefits will be recognized within 12 months as the result of settlements or effective settlements with various tax authorities, the closure of certain audits and the lapse of the applicable statute of limitations. The Company classifies interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions as income tax expense. As of June 30, 2012, the Company had approximately $2.4 million of net accrued interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions.

The division is comprised of two operating segments: Thermal Vision and Measurement and Raymarine. The Thermal Vision and Measurement segment provides advanced thermal imaging solutions for emerging commercial and industrial markets that enable people to see at night or through adverse weather conditions and to capture, measure, and analyze temperature data. The Raymarine segment provides electronics for the maritime market and is a leading global provider of fully integrated “stem to stern” networked electronic systems for boats of all sizes.

Government Systems Division

The Government Systems division designs, manufactures, and markets advanced imaging and detection systems for government markets where high performance is required. The division is comprised of three operating segments: Surveillance, Detection, and Integrated Systems. The Surveillance segment provides enhanced imaging and recognition solutions to a wide variety of military, law enforcement, public safety, and other government customers around the world for the protection of borders, troops, and public welfare. The Detection segment produces sensor instruments that detect and identify chemical, biological, radiological, nuclear, and explosives (“CBRNE”) threats for military force protection, homeland security, and commercial applications. The Integrated Systems segment develops platform solutions for combating sophisticated security threats and incorporates multiple sensor systems in order to deliver actionable intelligence for wide area surveillance, intrusion detection, and facility security.

On July 19, 2012, the Company's Board of Directors declared a quarterly dividend of $0.07 per share on its common stock, payable on September 7, 2012, to shareholders of record as of the close of business on August 20, 2012. The total cash payment of this dividend will be approximately $10.6 million.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Forward-Looking Statements

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q (the "Report"), including "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in Part I, Item 2, contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 regarding future events and the future results of FLIR Systems, Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries ("FLIR" or the "Company") that are based on management's current expectations, estimates, projections, and assumptions about the Company's business. Words such as "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "believes," "sees," "estimates" and variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecasted in such forward-looking statements due to numerous factors including, but not limited to, those discussed in the "Risk Factors" section of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in Part I, Item 2, and elsewhere in this Report as well as those discussed from time to time in the Company's other Securities and Exchange Commission filings and reports. In addition, such statements could be affected by general industry and market conditions. Such forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this Report or, in the case of any document incorporated by reference, the date of that document, and we do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this Report, or for changes made to this document by wire services or Internet service providers. If we update or correct one or more forward-looking statements, investors and others should not conclude that we will make additional updates or corrections with respect to other forward-looking statements.

Results of Operations

The following discussion of operating results provides an overview of our operations by addressing key elements in our Consolidated Statements of Income. The "Segment Operating Results" section that follows describes the contributions of each of our business segments to our consolidated revenue and earnings from operations. Given the nature of our business, we believe revenue and earnings from operations (including operating margin percentage) are most relevant to an understanding of our performance at a segment level as revenue levels are the most significant indicators of business conditions for each of the respective segments and earnings from operations reflect our ability to manage each of our segments as revenue levels change. Additionally, at the segment level we disclose backlog, which represents orders received for products or services for which a sales agreement is in place and delivery is expected within twelve months.

Revenue. Consolidated revenue for the three months ended June 30, 2012 decreased by 13.6 percent, from $391.6 million in the second quarter of 2011 to $338.3 million in the second quarter of 2012. Consolidated revenue for the six months ended June 30, 2012 decreased by 10.5 percent, from $767.5 million in the first six months of 2011 to $686.7 million in the first six months of 2012. Each of our operating segments reported decreases in year over year revenues for both the three and six month periods primarily due to continued reductions in demand for our products from the US Government and Middle East government agencies and weaker world-wide economic conditions.

The timing of orders, scheduling of backlog and fluctuations in demand in various regions of the world can give rise to quarter-to-quarter and year-over-year fluctuations in the mix of revenue. Consequently, year-over-year comparisons for any given quarter may not be indicative of comparisons using longer time periods. While we currently expect total annual revenue for 2012 to be between 3 percent to 9 percent lower than 2011 revenue, unexpected changes in economic conditions from key customer markets or other major unanticipated events may cause total revenue, and the mix of revenue between our segments, to vary from quarter to quarter during the year.

International sales accounted for 55.1 percent and 49.9 percent of total revenue for the quarters ended June 30, 2012 and 2011, respectively and 48.9 percent for both the six months ended June 30, 2012 and 2011. The increase in international revenue as a percentage of the total for the three months ended June 30, 2012 compared to the same period in 2011 was primarily the result of lower revenues from US Government customers. Of the $53.3 million decrease in total revenue for the period, $36.0 million, or 67.6 percent, was related to lower revenues from US Government customers. The proportion of our international revenue compared to total revenue will fluctuate from quarter to quarter due to normal variation in order activity across various regions as well as specific factors that may affect one region and not another, but overall we anticipate that revenue from international sales will continue to comprise a significant percentage of total revenue.

Cost of goods sold. Cost of goods sold for the three and six months ended June 30, 2012 was $168.3 million and $334.0 million, respectively, compared to cost of goods sold for the three and six months ended June 30, 2011 of $186.1 million and $365.6 million, respectively. The year over year decreases in cost of goods sold primarily relate to the lower year over year revenues. In the three and six months ended June 30, 2012, costs of goods sold included restructuring charges of $3.4 million primarily for force reductions in our Thermal Vision and Measurement and Detection segments. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2011, costs of goods sold included charges of $3.6 million and $7.3 million, respectively, for the amortization of fair value adjustments on inventory acquired through the acquisition of ICx Technologies in 2010. Gross profit. Gross profit for the quarter ended June 30, 2012 was $170.0 million compared to $205.4 million for the same quarter last year. Gross profit for the six months ended June 30, 2012 was $352.8 million compared to $401.9 million for the same period of 2011. The decrease in gross profit was due to the lower revenue year over year. Gross margin, defined as gross profit divided by revenue, decreased from 52.5 percent in the second quarter of 2011 to 50.3 percent in the second quarter of 2012, and from 52.4 percent in the first six months of 2011 to 51.4 percent in the first six months of 2012. The decrease in gross margin was primarily due to the product mix and lower factory costs absorption in our Thermal Vision and Measurement segment and restructuring costs in the 2012 periods partially offset by the elimination of 2011 amortization expenses related to fair value adjustments on inventory acquired through the acquisition of ICx Technologies in 2010.

Research and development expenses. Research and development expenses for the second quarter of 2012 totaled $37.5 million, compared to $39.5 million in the second quarter of 2011. Research and development expenses for the first six months of 2012 and 2011 were $74.1 million and $77.1 million, respectively. While research and development expenses declined on an absolute dollar basis for the 2012 periods compared to 2011, as a percentage of revenue, research and development expenses increased to 11.1 percent and 10.8 percent for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2012, respectively, compared to 10.1 percent and 10.0 percent for the three and six months ended June 30, 2011, respectively. Research and development expenses are expected to remain at the upper end of our anticipated long-term research and development spending relative to sales due to the current sluggish revenue environment. Over the five annual periods through December 31, 2011, our annual research and development expenses have varied between 8.0 and 9.5 percent of revenue.

Selling, general and administrative expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses were $71.8 million for the quarter ended June 30, 2012, compared to $124.1 million for the quarter ended June 30, 2011. Selling, general and administrative expenses for the first six months of 2012 and 2011 were $149.7 million and $206.7 million, respectively. The decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses for the second quarter of 2012 was attributable to a $39.0 million litigation settlement incurred in 2011, decreased spending in each of our business segments, including lower expenses as a result of cost reduction efforts taken in the third quarter of 2011, and lower corporate legal expenses, partially offset by restructuring costs of approximately $3.4 million incurred in the second quarter of 2012. Selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenue were 21.2 percent and 31.7 percent for the quarters ended June 30, 2012 and 2011, respectively and 21.8 percent and 26.9 percent for the six months ended June 30, 2012 and 2011, respectively. Over the past five years, our annual selling, general and administrative expenses have varied between 19.2 and 23.8 percent of revenue.

Interest expense. Interest expense for the second quarter and first six months of 2012 was $2.8 million and $5.8 million, respectively, compared to $0.4 million and $0.8 million for the same periods of 2011. The increase in interest expense for the second quarter of 2012 was due to interest expense associated with the $250 million aggregate principal amount of 3.750% senior unsecured notes due September 1, 2016 issued in August 2011.

Income taxes. The income tax provision of $15.7 million for the three months ended June 30, 2012, represents a quarterly effective tax rate of 27.0 percent, which is consistent with the first quarter. We expect the annual effective tax rate for the full year of 2012 to be 26 percent to 28 percent. The effective tax rate is lower than the US Federal tax rate of 35 percent because of the mix of lower foreign jurisdiction tax rates and the effect of federal, foreign and state tax credits.

Revenue for the three and six months ended June 30, 2012 decreased by 13.5 percent and 3.7 percent, respectively, compared to the same periods of 2011 primarily due to lower revenues from the cores and components product line and products for the predictive maintenance and building markets. The revenue decline was experienced in all geographies due to world-wide economic weaknesses and lower demand from cores and components customers in the United States. The decline in earnings from operations for both the three months and six months ended June 30, 2012 compared to the same periods in 2011 was primarily due to the flow through of lower revenues combined with the adverse impact of changes in product mix, lower absorption of factory costs and the incurrence of approximately $3.2 million of restructuring costs in the second quarter of 2012. Backlog at June 30, 2012 was essentially flat compared to June 30, 2011; however, backlog increased by $20 million during the three months ended June 30, 2012.

Raymarine

Raymarine operating results are as follows (in millions):

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	June 30, 2012	2011	June 30, 2012	2011
Revenue	$47.2	$50.2	$93.8	$100.7

Operating margin	12.1	% 14.4	% 10.2	% 14.5	%
Backlog, end of period			6	7

Revenue for the three and six months ended June 30, 2012 decreased by 6.0 percent and 6.9 percent, respectively, compared to the same periods of 2011, primarily due to lower revenue in Europe markets partially offset by higher sales in the United States. The decrease in earnings from operations for the three months ended June 30, 2012 compared to the same period in the prior year was primarily due to the reduced sales and approximately $1.4 million of restructuring costs incurred in the second quarter of 2012; for the six month period ended June 30, 2012, the decrease in earnings was primarily due to the reduced sales, the second quarter restructuring costs, expenses incurred in the first quarter of 2012 related to changes made in our European sales organization and costs associated with a building move.

Surveillance

Surveillance operating results are as follows (in millions):

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	June 30, 2012	2011	June 30, 2012	2011
Revenue	$119.5	$141.5	$234.1	$291.3
Earnings from operations	40.8	46.5	75.7	97.8
Operating margin	34.2	% 32.8	% 32.3	% 33.6	%
Backlog, end of period			249	254

Revenue for the three and six months ended June 30, 2012 decreased by 15.5 percent and 19.6 percent, respectively, compared to the same periods of 2011, primarily due to decreases in revenue from US government customers and Middle Eastern government customers. The decline in revenues and the change in product mix of the segment, partially offset by a decrease in operating expenses, resulted in the decline in earnings from operations for both the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2012, compared to the same periods in 2011.

Detection

Detection operating results are as follows (in millions):

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	June 30,		June 30,
	2012	2011	2012	2011
Revenue	$15.7	$17.2	$35.1	$35.1
Loss from operations	(1.8)	(3.0)	(0.3)	(6.9)
Operating margin	(11.2)%	(17.5)%	(0.9)%	(19.6)%
Backlog, end of period			23	22

Revenue for three months ended June 30, 2012 decreased by 8.8 percent compared to the same period of 2011, primarily due to lower research and development contract revenues, partially offset by a slight increase in product revenues. The loss from operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2011 included the amortization of fair value adjustments on inventory of $2.1 million and $4.2 million, respectively. The elimination of the inventory adjustment and lower operating expenses partially offset by restructuring costs of approximately $2.2 million incurred in the second quarter of 2012, were the main factors contributing to the lower year over year loss from operations and the improved operating margins.

Integrated Systems

Integrated Systems operating results are as follows (in millions):

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	June 30,		June 30,
	2012	2011	2012	2011
Revenue	$13.3	$17.8	$25.4	$30.6
Earnings (loss) from operations	0.3	0.2	(0.1)	(0.2)
Operating margin	2.5 %	0.9 %	(0.3)%	(0.6)%
Backlog, end of period			62	46

Revenue for the three and six months ended June 30, 2012 decreased by 25.6 percent and 16.8 percent, respectively, compared to the same periods of 2011, primarily due to a large program contract that was recognized in the second quarter of 2011. Backlog at June 30, 2012 reflects an increase of approximately $16 million compared to both June 30, 2011 and March 31, 2012 due to several large program contracts booked in the second quarter of 2012.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

At June 30, 2012, we had a total of $429.8 million in cash and cash equivalents, $238.1 million of which was in the United States and $191.7 million at our foreign subsidiaries, compared to $263.6 million in the United States and $177.2 million at our foreign subsidiaries at December 31, 2011. The increase in cash and cash equivalents was primarily due to cash provided from operations and cash proceeds from our stock-based compensation programs, partially offset by $90.2 million spent for the repurchase of 4.0 million shares of our common stock, capital expenditures of $26.4 million, and dividends paid of $21.5 million during the period.

Cash provided by operating activities totaled $126.2 million for the six months ended June 30, 2012 primarily due to net earnings, adjusted for non-cash charges for depreciation and amortization and stock-based compensation, and net collections of our accounts receivable, partially offset by net increases in other working capital components.

On February 8, 2011, we signed a Credit Agreement (“Credit Agreement”) with Bank of America, N.A., U.S. Bank National Association, JPMorgan Chase Bank N.A. and other Lenders. The Credit Agreement provides for a $200 million, five-year revolving line of credit. We have the right, subject to certain conditions including approval of additional commitments by qualified lenders, to increase the line of credit by an additional $150 million until October 8, 2016. The Credit Agreement allows us and certain designated subsidiaries to borrow in US dollars, euro, Swedish Kronor, pound sterling and other agreed upon currencies. The Credit Agreement requires us to pay a commitment fee on the amount of unused credit at a rate, based on the Company's leverage ratio, which ranges from 0.25 percent to 0.40 percent. The Credit Agreement contains two financial covenants that require the maintenance of certain leverage ratios with which we were in compliance at June 30, 2012. The five-year revolving line of credit available under the Credit Agreement is not secured by any of our assets.

At June 30, 2012, we had no amounts outstanding under the Credit Agreement and the commitment fee on the amount of unused credit was 0.25 percent. We had $10.1 million of letters of credit outstanding at June 30, 2012, which reduced the total available credit under the Credit Agreement.

On August 19, 2011, we issued $250 million aggregate principal amount of our 3.750% senior unsecured notes due September 1, 2016 (the "Notes"). The net proceeds from the issuance of the Notes were approximately $247.7 million, after deducting underwriting discounts and offering expenses, which are being amortized over a period of five years. Interest is payable on the Notes semiannually in arrears on March 1 and September 1, which commenced March 1, 2012. The proceeds from the Notes are being used for general corporate purposes, which may include working capital and capital expenditure needs, business acquisitions and repurchases of our common stock.

A Swedish subsidiary has a 30 million Swedish Kronor (approximately $4.3 million) line of credit. At June 30, 2012, the Company had no amounts outstanding on this line of credit. The 30 million Swedish Kronor line of credit is secured primarily by accounts receivable and inventories of the Sweden subsidiary and is subject to automatic renewal on an annual basis.

Cash used by financing activities of $105.6 million for the six months ended June 30, 2012 primarily related to the repurchase of 4.0 million shares of our common stock and the payment of dividends, partially offset by cash provided from our stock-based compensation plans.

On February 9, 2011, our Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of up to 20.0 million shares of our outstanding common stock. As of June 30, 2012, there were approximately 9.9 million shares still authorized for repurchase under this authorization, which expires on February 9, 2013.

We believe that our existing cash combined with the cash we expect to generate from operating activities and our available credit facilities and financing available from other sources will be sufficient to meet our cash requirements for the foreseeable future. We do not have any significant capital commitments for the current year nor are we aware of any significant events or conditions that are likely to have a material impact on our liquidity.
