Southwestern Energy Company is a holding company with seven wholly owned subsidiaries. The wholly owned subsidiaries of the holding company are Arkansas Western Gas Company, a gas utility; SEECO, Inc., an Arkansas based gas exploration and production company; Southwestern Energy Production Company (formerly Arkansas Western Production Company), an oil and gas exploration and production company with offices in Texas and Arkansas; Diamond "M" Production Company, a Texas based oil and gas exploration and production company; Southwestern Energy Services Company, an Oklahoma based gas marketing company; Southwestern Energy Pipeline Company, a corporation that owns a minority interest in the NOARK Pipeline System Limited Partnership (NOARK), which indirectly owns an interstate natural gas pipeline in Arkansas and Oklahoma; and A. -2-

AWG's northwest Arkansas gas utility system gathers its gas supply in Arkansas from the Arkoma Basin where it also provides distribution service to communities in that area, including the towns of Ozark and Clarksville. AWG's transmission and distribution lines extend north and supply communities in the northwest part of the state, including the towns of Fayetteville, Springdale and Rogers. AWG's service area also extends to the east to the Harrison and Mountain Home areas. This eastern section of the AWG system receives a portion of its gas supply from a lateral line off of the Ozark Pipeline System. Through its division, Associated Natural Gas Company (Associated), AWG provides distribution of natural gas to communities in northeast Arkansas. Major communities served in northeast Arkansas include Blytheville, Piggott and Osceola. The Associated distribution system also served the "bootheel" area in southeast Missouri prior to the sale of its Missouri assets on May 31, 2000, including the communities of Sikeston, New Madrid and Caruthersville, and extended north to the Jackson area. In addition, prior to May 31, 2000, Associated provided service to Butler, Missouri, near the state's western border, and Kirksville, Missouri, near the state's northern border, through connections off of interstate pipelines in those areas. The Company previously served approximately 48,000 customers in Missouri.
