Section 1 - Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Agreement and Plan of Merger

On July 24, 2018, Summit Financial Group, Inc., a West Virginia corporation ("Summit"), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") with Peoples Bankshares, Inc., a West Virginia corporation ("Peoples"). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Peoples will merge (the "Merger") with and into a limited liability company and wholly-owned subsidiary of Summit's wholly-owned banking subsidiary, Summit Community Bank, Inc., a West Virginia banking corporation ("Summit Community"), formed solely for the purpose of consummating the Merger ("Merger Sub"), with Merger Sub as the surviving entity in the Merger. Immediately following the Merger, Merger Sub will be liquidated (the "Liquidation") so that Summit Community will own all of the outstanding shares of Peoples' wholly owned banking subsidiary, First Peoples Bank, Inc., a West Virginia banking corporation ("First Peoples"). Immediately following the Liquidation, First Peoples will be merged (the "Bank Merger") with and into Summit Community, with Summit Community surviving as the surviving bank in the Bank Merger. The Merger Agreement was unanimously approved and adopted by the Board of Directors of each of Summit and Peoples.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, including the adjustment described below, at the effective time of the Merger (the "Effective Time"), Peoples shareholders will have the right to receive cash in the amount of $47.00 per share of Peoples common stock (the "Cash Consideration"), par value $1.00 per share ("Peoples Common Stock"), 1.7193 shares of Summit common stock, par value $2.50 per share ("Summit Common Stock"), per share of Peoples Common Stock (the "Stock Consideration" and together with the Cash Consideration, the "Merger Consideration") or a combination of Cash Consideration and Stock Consideration, subject to proration to result in approximately 50% Cash Consideration and 50% Stock Consideration. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, Peoples may make a special cash distribution to its shareholders if a certain shareholders' equity metric exceeds a defined amount. Conversely, if the shareholders' equity metric is less than a defined minimum, the aggregate value of the Merger Consideration shall be reduced one dollar for every dollar by which the shareholders' equity metric is less than the defined minimum.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties from both Summit and Peoples, each with respect to its and its subsidiaries' businesses, and each party has agreed to customary covenants, including, among others, Peoples' covenants relating to (1) the conduct of its business during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time and (2) nonsolicitation of alternative acquisition proposals.

The completion of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including (1) approval of the Merger Agreement, including the Merger, by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum exists consisting of at least a majority of the shares of Peoples Common Stock, (2) authorization for listing on the NASDAQ of the shares of Summit Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, (3) the receipt of required regulatory approvals, including the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the West Virginia Division of Financial Institutions, (4) effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4 for the Summit Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, (5) the absence of any order, injunction or other legal restraint preventing the completion of the Merger or making the completion of the Merger illegal, (6) the delivery of an executed employment agreement with Ronald L. Bowling, (7) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, (8) performance in all material respects by the other party of its obligations under the Merger Agreement, and (9) receipt by such party of an opinion from its respective counsel to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

With respect to Summit, there are additional conditions to closing including (1) that there shall be less than 5.0% of issued and outstanding Peoples Common Stock for which the holders thereof have voted against the approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger and who has properly perfected his or her dissenter's rights of appraisal by following the exact procedure required by the West Virginia Business Corporation Act, as amended.

The Merger Agreement provides certain termination rights for both Summit and Peoples, including, among others, by mutual consent of the parties, by either party upon the failure to obtain the requisite regulatory approvals or by Summit if a requisite regulatory approval contains a burdensome condition on it, by either party if the Merger is not consummated by March 31, 2019, by either party if the other materially breaches a representation or warranty, by either party for Peoples not obtaining the required shareholder vote, and by either party upon the occurrence of a material adverse effect on the other party.

Peoples may also elect to terminate the Merger Agreement if both (1) the ratio, the numerator of which is the average of the daily volume weighted average price per share of Summit Common Stock over the 20 consecutive trading days ending on the trading day immediately prior to the fifth calendar day immediately prior to the Effective Time and the denominator of which is the average of the daily volume weighted average price per share of Summit Common Stock over the 20 consecutive trading days ending on the trading day immediately preceding the date of the Merger Agreement, is less than 0.85 and (2) the difference between (a) the number obtained by dividing (i) the average closing value of the NASDAQ Bank Index (IBIX) over the 20 consecutive trading days ending on the trading day immediately prior to the fifth calendar day immediately prior to the Effective Time by (ii) the average closing value of the NASDAQ Bank Index (IBIX) over the 20 consecutive trading days ending on the trading day immediately preceding the date of the Merger Agreement and (b) the ratio described in clause (1) above, is greater than 0.15. If Peoples elects to terminate under the provision described above, Summit shall have the option to increase the per share stock consideration pursuant to a certain formula described in the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement provides that Peoples will pay a fee of $1,275,000 to Summit if (1) Summit terminates the Merger Agreement because (a) the Peoples board of directors changes its recommendation to its shareholders or fails to include the agreed board recommendation in the proxy statement/prospectus to be filed by Summit, (b) Peoples enters into an acquisition agreement that does not violate the nonsolicitation covenants, or (c) Peoples intentionally or materially breaches its covenant to hold the Peoples shareholder meeting to vote on the Merger Agreement and Merger or the nonsolicitation covenants or (2) Peoples terminates the Merger Agreement because it enters into an acquisition agreement that does not violate the nonsolicitation covenants.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. Unless otherwise provided in the Merger Agreement, the representations, warranties and covenants of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made only for purposes of, and were and are solely for the benefit of the parties to, the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, the representations and warranties may not describe the actual state of affairs at the date they were made or at any other time, and investors should not rely on them as statements of fact. In addition, such representations and warranties (1) will not survive consummation of the Merger, unless otherwise specified therein, and (2) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding Summit or Peoples, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding Summit, Peoples, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses, the Merger Agreement and the Merger that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the registration statement on Form S-4 that will include a proxy statement of Peoples and a prospectus of Summit, as well as in the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q, Forms 8-K and other filings that Summit makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").

financial services companies in Summit's and Peoples' markets could adversely affect operations; and (10) the economy could experience a slowdown that could adversely affect credit quality and loan originations. Additional factors, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements are discussed in Summit's reports (such as Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available on the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>).

The Company and Peoples caution that the foregoing list of factors is not exclusive. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the proposed transaction or other matters attributable to the Company or Peoples or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. The Company and Peoples do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made.
