Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Edgar Filing: PENN TREATY AMERICAN CORP - Form S-8

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Officers and Directors.

Sections 1741 to 1750 of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, permit indemnification of directors, officers, employees and agents of a corporation under certain conditions and subject to certain limitations.

Under the provisions of Penn Treaty's Amended and Restated Bylaws, as amended, each person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of Penn Treaty shall be indemnified by Penn Treaty against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding (other than an action by or in right of Penn Treaty) if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, Penn Treaty's best interests, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceedings by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, Penn Treaty's best interests and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

In connection with the defense or settlement of a suit brought by or in the right of Penn Treaty, Penn Treaty's bylaws provide that each person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of Penn Treaty shall be indemnified only against expenses, including attorney's fees incurred in the defense or settlement of such suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, Penn Treaty's best interest, except that if such a person is adjudged to be liable in such a suit for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to Penn Treaty, he or she cannot be indemnified unless the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which Penn Treaty registered office is located or any other court in which such action or suit was brought determines that he or she is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses.

Under the provisions of Penn Treaty's bylaws, Penn Treaty's directors shall have no personal liability to Penn Treaty or Penn Treaty's shareholders for monetary damages for any action taken unless they have breached their duty of good faith or duty of loyalty or failed to perform the duties of their offices and/or their breach or failure to perform constitutes self-dealing, willful misconduct or recklessness.

Penn Treaty's bylaws provide that expenses incurred by an officer, director, employee or agent of Penn Treaty in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by Penn Treaty in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by Penn Treaty.

In addition, to the extent that an officer, director, employee or agent of Penn Treaty is successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding brought against him or her by reason of the fact that he or she is Penn Treaty's director, officer, employee or agent, Penn Treaty's bylaws provide that he or she shall be indemnified against expenses, including attorneys' fees actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith.

Item 9. Undertakings

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

- (a) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
 - (i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
 - (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment hereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;
 - (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-3 or Form S-8, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

- (b) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (c) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

Penn Treaty hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of Penn Treaty's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of Penn Treaty pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, Penn Treaty has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by Penn Treaty of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of Penn Treaty in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, Penn Treaty will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-8 and has duly caused this registration statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the City of Allentown, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on August 13, 2002.

Re: Penn Treaty American Corporation 2002 Employee Incentive Stock Option Plan
- Registration Statement on Form S-8

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as counsel to Penn Treaty American Corporation (the "Company") in connection with the registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, of 2,000,000 shares of Penn Treaty's common stock, par value $0.10 per share (the "Shares"), issuable pursuant to awards ("Awards") granted under Penn Treaty's 2002 Employee Incentive Stock Option Plan (the "Plan"). Awards made pursuant to the Plan will consist of grants of options to purchase shares of Penn Treaty's common stock.

In rendering our opinion, we have reviewed the Plan and such certificates, documents, corporate records and other instruments and matters of law as in our judgment are necessary or appropriate to enable us to render the opinion expressed below. In giving this opinion, we are assuming the authenticity of all instruments presented to us as originals, the conformity with the originals of all instruments presented to us as copies and the genuineness of all signatures.

The opinion expressed below is based on the assumption that a Registration Statement on Form S-8 with respect to the Shares will have been filed by Penn Treaty with the Securities and Exchange Commission and will have become effective before any of the Shares are issued, and that persons acquiring the Shares will do so strictly in accordance with the terms of the Plan and will receive a prospectus containing all the information required by Part I of the Registration Statement on Form S-8 before acquiring such Shares.

Based on the foregoing, we are of the opinion that the Shares, when issued pursuant to Awards granted under the Plan (including, where applicable, the payment of any exercise price and the satisfaction of any vesting restrictions) in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof, will be legally issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

This opinion is limited to the matters expressly stated herein. No implied opinion may be inferred to extend this opinion beyond the matters expressly stated herein. We do not undertake to advise you or anyone else of any changes in the opinions expressed herein resulting from changes in law, changes in facts or any other matters that hereafter might occur or be brought to our attention.

This opinion is limited to the Federal law of the United States of America and the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

We consent to the filing of this opinion as Exhibit 5 to the Registration Statement on Form S-8 being filed with respect to the offering of the Shares.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Ballard Spahr Andrews & Ingersoll, LLP
