Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

Kemper Corporation (“Kemper”) executed new individual agreements with each of its executive officers that would provide benefits in the event of a change in control of the Company (“Severance Agreements”), and simultaneously terminated the existing Severance Agreements in effect with certain of the officers (“Prior Agreements”), effective December 1, 2016. The new Severance Agreements include the following material changes from the Prior Agreements:

- “Annual Bonus” definition added (includes the higher of prior-year annual bonus or the following percentages of base salary: CEO: 150%; Other Executive Officers: 110%);

- “Annualized Compensation” definition revised to include “Annual Bonus” in addition to base salary;

- “Just Cause” definition revised;

- Addition of a mandatory release agreement as an exhibit to be executed prior to receipt of benefits under the Severance Agreement;

- Addition of restrictive covenants;

- Expansion of “Severance Payment” to include a pro-rata payout of current-year annual bonus;

- Replaced health insurance continuation at active-employee cost for 36 months (for CEO) or 24 months (for other executive officers) with the right to receive a lump-sum payment equal to the amount that the COBRA rate would exceed the active employee rate for the officer's coverage for the same 36 or 24 month period, whether or not the officer elects continuation coverage under COBRA; and

- Addition of a mandatory arbitration clause.
