NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

We prepare our unaudited interim consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("GAAP"). We consistently applied the accounting policies described in our 2015 Annual Report on Form 10-K ("2015 Form 10-K") in preparing these unaudited financial statements. In our opinion, the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments of a normal recurring nature that are necessary for a fair statement of the results for the interim periods presented. Results for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of results for a full year. You should read these unaudited interim consolidated financial statements in conjunction with our consolidated financial statements contained in our 2015 Form 10-K. When used in this report, the terms "Avon," "Company," "we" or "us" mean Avon Products, Inc.

For interim consolidated financial statement purposes we provide for accruals under our various employee benefit plans for each quarter based on one quarter of the estimated annual expense. In addition, our tax provision is determined using an estimate of our consolidated annual effective tax rate, adjusted in the current period for discrete tax items including:

- the effects of significant, unusual or extraordinary pretax and tax items, if any;
- withholding taxes associated with current period cash repatriations; and
- the impact of loss-making subsidiaries for which we cannot recognize a tax benefit and subsidiaries that reduce the reliability of the estimated annual consolidated effective tax rate.

Venezuela

Venezuela's restrictive foreign exchange control regulations and our Venezuelan operations' increasingly limited access to U.S. dollars have resulted in an other-than-temporary lack of exchangeability between the Venezuelan bolivar and the U.S. dollar, and have restricted our Venezuelan operations' ability to pay dividends and settle intercompany obligations. The severe currency controls imposed by the Venezuelan government have significantly limited our ability to realize the benefits from earnings of our Venezuelan operations and access the resulting liquidity provided by those earnings. We expect that this other-than-temporary lack of exchangeability will continue for the foreseeable future, and as a result, we concluded that, effective March 31, 2016, we did not meet the accounting criteria of control in order to continue consolidating our Venezuelan operations and, as a result, will account for our Venezuelan operations using the cost method of accounting. As a result, our Consolidated Balance Sheet no longer includes the assets and liabilities of our Venezuelan operations and, in the first quarter of 2016, we recorded a loss of approximately $120 in other expense, net. The loss was comprised of $39 in net assets of the Venezuelan business and $81 in accumulated foreign currency translation adjustments within accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) (shareholders' deficit) ("AOCI") associated with foreign currency changes before Venezuela was accounted for as a highly inflationary economy. The net assets of the Venezuelan business were comprised of inventories of $24, property, plant & equipment of $15, non-current assets of $11, cash of $5, accounts receivable of $4, and accounts payable and accruals of $20.

In February 2015, the Venezuelan government announced the creation of a new foreign exchange system referred to as the SIMADI exchange ("SIMADI"). SIMADI began operating on February 12, 2015. There were multiple legal mechanisms in Venezuela to exchange currency. As SIMADI represented the rate which better reflected the economics of Avon Venezuela's business activity, in comparison to the other available exchange rates, we concluded that we should utilize the SIMADI exchange rate to remeasure our Venezuelan operations effective February 12, 2015. As a result of the change to the SIMADI rate, which caused the recognition of a devaluation of approximately 70% as compared to the exchange rate we had used previously, we recorded an after-tax benefit of approximately $3 (a benefit of approximately $4 in other expense, net, and a loss of approximately $1 in income taxes) in the first quarter of 2015, primarily reflecting the write-down of net monetary assets. In addition, as a result of using the historical U.S. dollar cost basis of non-monetary assets, such as inventories, these assets continued to be remeasured, following the change to the SIMADI rate, at the applicable rate at the time of their acquisition. The remeasurement of non-monetary assets at the historical U.S. dollar cost basis caused a disproportionate expense as these assets were consumed in operations, negatively impacting operating profit and net income by approximately $5 during the three months ended March 31, 2015. Also as a result of the change to the SIMADI rate, we determined that an adjustment of approximately $11 to cost of sales was needed to reflect certain non-monetary assets, primarily inventories, at their net realizable value, which was recorded in the first quarter of 2015.

In addition, at February 12, 2015, we reviewed Avon Venezuela's long-lived assets to determine whether the carrying amount of the assets was recoverable. Based on our expected cash flows associated with the asset group, we determined that the carrying amount of the assets, carried at their historical U.S. dollar cost basis, was not recoverable. As such, an impairment charge of approximately $90 to selling, general and administrative expenses was needed to reflect the write-down of the long-lived assets to their estimated fair value of $15.7, which was recorded in the first quarter of 2015. The fair value of Avon Venezuela's long-lived assets was determined using both market and cost valuation approaches. The valuation analysis performed required several estimates, including market conditions and inflation rates.

Accounting Standards Implemented

In April 2015, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2015-03, Interest-Imputation of Interest: Simplifying the Presentation of Debt Issuance Costs, which requires that debt issuance costs to be presented in the balance sheet as a direct reduction from the associated debt liability rather than as an asset. We adopted this standard for the first fiscal quarter of 2016 and applied it retrospectively to all periods presented. Accordingly, $9.1 million of debt issuance costs are reflected within long-term debt as of December 31, 2015. These costs were previously recorded within other assets.

Accounting Standards to be Implemented

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases, which requires all assets and liabilities arising from leases to be recognized in the statement of financial position. This standard is effective as of January 1, 2019. We are currently evaluating the effect that adopting this new accounting guidance will have on our consolidated financial statements.

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, issued as a new Topic, Accounting Standards Codification Topic 606. The core principle of the guidance is that a Company should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. In August 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-14, Deferral of the Effective Date, which resulted in the standard being effective beginning in 2018, with early adoption permitted in the beginning of 2017. This standard can be adopted either retrospectively or as a cumulative-effect adjustment as of the date of adoption. We are currently evaluating the effect that adopting this new accounting guidance will have on our consolidated financial statements.

2. LOSS PER SHARE AND SHARE REPURCHASES

We compute loss per share ("EPS") using the two-class method, which is a loss allocation formula that determines loss per share for common stock and participating securities. Our participating securities are our grants of restricted stock and restricted stock units, which contain non-forfeitable rights to dividend equivalents to the extent any dividends are declared and paid on our common stock. We compute basic EPS by dividing net income (loss) allocated to common shareholders by the weighted-average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted EPS is calculated to give effect to all potentially dilutive common shares that were outstanding during the period.

Amounts in the table above may not necessarily sum due to rounding.

During the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015, we did not include stock options to purchase 11.0 million shares and 15.5 million shares, respectively, of Avon common stock in the calculation of diluted EPS as we had a net loss attributable to Avon. The inclusion of these shares would decrease the net loss per share, and therefore, their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

For the three months ended March 31, 2016, it is more dilutive to assume the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock is not converted into common stock and therefore the weighted-average outstanding shares outstanding was not adjusted by the as-if converted Series C Convertible Preferred Stock because the effect would decrease the net loss per share, and therefore, their inclusion would be anti-dilutive. If the as-if converted Series C Convertible Preferred Stock had been dilutive, approximately 87.1 million additional shares would have been included in the diluted weighted average number of shares outstanding for the three months ended March 31, 2016. See Note 7, Series C Convertible Preferred Stock.

We purchased approximately .9 million shares of Avon common stock for $3.5 during the first three months of 2016, as compared to approximately .2 million shares of Avon common stock for $1.9 during the first three months of 2015, through acquisition of stock from employees in connection with tax payments upon vesting of restricted stock units.

3. DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

On December 17, 2015, the Company entered into definitive agreements with affiliates controlled by Cerberus Capital Management, L.P. ("Cerberus"). The agreements include an investment agreement providing for a $435 investment by Cleveland Apple Investor L.P. (f/k/a Cleveland Apple Investor LLC) ("Cerberus Investor") (an affiliate of Cerberus) in Company through the purchase of perpetual convertible preferred stock (see Note 7, Series C Convertible Preferred Stock) and a separation and investment agreement providing for the separation of the Company's North America business, which represented the Company's operations in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico, from the Company into New Avon LLC ("New Avon") a privately-held company that is majority-owned and managed by Cleveland NA Investor LLC ("Cerberus NA") (an affiliate of Cerberus). These transactions closed on March 1, 2016. Cerberus NA contributed $170 of cash into New Avon in exchange for 80.1% of its ownership interests. The Company contributed the North America business, certain pension and postretirement liabilities and $100 of cash into New Avon in exchange for a 19.9% ownership interest of New Avon. The Company received $4 of cash from New Avon at closing as part of an estimate of a customary working capital adjustment which is expected to be finalized later in 2016.

During the fourth quarter of 2015, the Company recorded an estimated loss on sale of discontinued operations of approximately $340 before tax (approximately $340 after tax) as the carrying value exceeded the estimated fair value less costs to sell. During the first quarter of 2016, the Company recognized an additional loss on sale of $15 before tax ($5 after tax). The loss on sale represented the net assets contributed into New Avon, including certain pension and postretirement benefit plan liabilities and amounts in AOCI associated with the North America business, which were primarily unrecognized losses associated with our U.S. defined benefit pension plan, and costs to sell, as compared to the implied value of our ownership interests in New Avon which was $43. The ultimate loss on sale will be dependent on the finalization of the amount of pension and postretirement benefit plan liabilities contributed to New Avon and the finalization of customary working capital settlement.

New Avon entered into a perpetual, irrevocable royalty-free licensing agreement with the Company for the use of the Avon brand and certain other intellectual property. Avon and New Avon also entered into a transition services agreement which covers, among other things, information technology, financial services and human resources, as well as other commercial agreements, including for research and development and product supply. In addition, the Company subleases office space to New Avon. See Note 4, Related Party Transactions.

The Company accounts for its ownership interests in New Avon using the equity method of accounting, which results in the Company recognizing its proportionate share of New Avon's income or loss. The Company's proportionate share of the post-separation losses of New Avon was $3.9 during the first quarter of 2016 and was recorded within other expense, net.

The major classes of financial statement components comprising the loss on discontinued operations, net of tax for North America are shown below:

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2016	2015
Total Revenue	$135.2	$242.1
Cost of Sales	53.2	95.5
Selling, general and administrative expenses	87.8	151.3
Operating loss	(5.8)	(4.7)

Loss from discontinued operations, before tax	(20.1)	(5.9)
Income taxes	10.5	2.1
Loss from discontinued operations, net of tax	$(9.6)	$(3.8)

4. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

As discussed in Note 3, the Company has entered into a transition services agreement to provide certain services to New Avon, as well as a sublease for office space. In addition, New Avon is performing certain services for the Company under a similar transition service agreement. As a result of these agreements, the Company recorded $3.9 as a reduction of selling, general and administrative expenses associated with the agreements during the first quarter of 2016.

The Company also supplies product to New Avon as part of these transition services. The Company recorded revenues of $3.7 and gross profit of $0.5 associated with this supply arrangement.

The Company also issued standby letters of credit to the lessors of certain equipment, a lease for which was transferred to New Avon in connection with the separation of the business. The Company recorded a liability of $2.1 for the estimated value of such standby letters of credit. The recognition of the liability was included in the estimated loss on sale of the North America business in loss from discontinued operations, net of tax.

See Note 7, Series C Convertible Preferred Stock, for discussion of preferred shares issued to Cerberus Investor.

⁽¹⁾ Includes $4.4 and $8.9 of U.S. pension in 2016 and 2015, respectively, and immaterial amounts of the postretirement benefit plans (related to the U.S.) in 2016 and 2015, which are included in discontinued operations. Amounts associated with the pension and postretirement benefit plans in Canada and the postretirement benefit plan in Puerto Rico, which are included in discontinued operations, have been excluded from all amounts in the table above. As part of the separation of the North America business, we transferred an initial estimate of $499.6 of pension liabilities under the U.S. defined benefit pension plan associated with current and former employees of the North America business and certain other former Avon employees, along with $358.0 of assets held by the U.S. defined benefit pension plan, to a defined benefit pension plan sponsored by New Avon. We also transferred an initial estimate of $60.4 of other postretirement liabilities (namely, retiree medical and supplemental pension liabilities) in respect of such employees and former employees. See Note 3, Discontinued Operations. We continue to retain certain U.S. pension and other postretirement liabilities primarily associated with employees who are actively employed by Avon outside of the North America business.

As of March 31, 2016, we made approximately $25 and $5 of contributions to the U.S. and non-U.S. defined benefit pension and postretirement benefit plans, respectively. During the remainder of 2016, we anticipate contributing approximately $1 and $15 to $20 to fund our U.S. and non-U.S. defined benefit pension and postretirement benefit plans, respectively.

7. SERIES C CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK

On March 1, 2016, we issued and sold to Cerberus Investor 435,000 shares of newly issued Series C Preferred Stock for an aggregate purchase price of $435.0 pursuant to an Investment Agreement, dated as of December 17, 2015, between the Company and Cerberus Investor. In connection with the issuance of the Series C Preferred Stock, the Company incurred direct and incremental expenses of $8.7, comprised of financial advisory fees and legal expenses, which reduced the carrying value of the Series C Preferred Stock. The Series C Preferred Stock has accrued dividends daily since March 1, 2016 at a rate of 1.25% per quarter, and as of March 31, 2016, had accrued unpaid dividends of $1.8. There were no cash dividends declared in the quarter ended March 31, 2016.

Dividend Rights. The Series C Preferred Stock ranks senior to the shares of our common stock with respect to dividend rights and rights on the distribution of assets on any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of our affairs. The Series C Preferred Stock has a liquidation preference of $1,000 per share, representing an aggregate liquidation preference of $435.0 upon issuance. Holders of Series C Preferred Stock are entitled to participate on an as-converted basis in any cash dividends paid to the holders of shares of the Company's common stock. In addition, cumulative preferred dividends accrue daily on the Series C Preferred Stock and are payable at a rate of 1.25% per quarter (net of any dividends on the Company's common stock and subject to increase up to a maximum rate of 5.00% per quarter if the Company breaches certain obligations). Except to the extent not otherwise previously paid by the Company, preferred dividends are payable on the seventh anniversary of the issuance date of the Series C Preferred Stock as and when declared by the Board of Directors and at the end of each quarter thereafter. Accrued and unpaid preferred dividends may be paid, at the Company's option, (i) in cash, (ii) subject to certain conditions, in shares of the Company's common stock or (iii) upon conversion of shares of Series C Preferred Stock, in shares of the Company's non-voting, non-convertible Series D Preferred Stock. Any such shares of Series D Preferred Stock issued would have similar preferential rights.

Conversion Features. Series C Preferred Stock is convertible at the option of the holders at any time into shares of the Company's common stock at an initial conversion price of $5.00 per share, subject to certain anti-dilution adjustments. Prior to receipt of applicable shareholder approval, shares of Series C Preferred Stock are not convertible into more than 19.99% of the number of shares of common stock outstanding immediately prior to the issuance of the Series C Preferred Stock, subject to certain anti-dilution adjustments. As a result of the $1.8 accrued and unpaid dividends as of March 31, 2016, Series C Preferred Stock was convertible into 87,051,524 shares of common stock as of such date. If at any time the volume weighted average price of the common stock exceeds $10.00 per share (subject to certain anti-dilution adjustments) for a period of 30 consecutive trading days, the Company may cause all of the Series C Preferred Stock to be converted into shares of common stock based on the then applicable conversion price.

Voting Rights. Holders of Series C Preferred Stock are entitled to vote generally with the holders of common stock on an as-converted basis. Holders of Series C Preferred Stock will also be entitled to a separate class vote with respect to (i) the election of up to three directors to the Board of Directors, subject to maintaining certain levels of beneficial ownership of Series C Preferred Stock and/or common stock, (ii) amendments to the Company's organizational documents that have an adverse effect on the Series C Preferred Stock, (iii) issuances by the Company of securities that are senior to, or equal in priority with, the Series C Preferred Stock or (iv) the delisting of the Company's common stock, other than in connection with a change of control event.

Change of Control Put. Upon certain change of control events involving the Company, holders of Series C Preferred Stock can require the Company to repurchase the Series C Preferred Stock for an amount equal to the greater of (i) an amount in cash equal to 100% of the liquidation preference thereof plus all accrued but unpaid dividends or (ii) the consideration the holders would have received if they had converted their shares of Series C Preferred Stock into common stock immediately prior to the change of control event.

8. CONTINGENCIES

Settlements of FCPA Investigations

As previously reported, we engaged outside counsel to conduct an internal investigation and compliance reviews focused on compliance with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act ("FCPA") and related U.S. and foreign laws in China and additional countries. The internal investigation, which was conducted under the oversight of our Audit Committee, began in June 2008 and along with the compliance reviews, was completed in 2014.

Following our voluntary reporting of the internal investigation to both the U.S. Department of Justice (the "DOJ") and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and our subsequent cooperation with those agencies, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the "USDC") approved in December 2014 a deferred prosecution agreement ("DPA") entered into between the Company and the DOJ related to charges of violations of the books and records and internal controls provisions of the FCPA. In addition, Avon Products (China) Co. Ltd., a subsidiary of the Company operating in China, pleaded guilty to conspiring to violate the books and records provision of the FCPA and was sentenced by the USDC to pay a $68 fine. The SEC also filed a complaint against the Company charging violations of the books and records and internal controls provisions of the FCPA and the Consent which was approved in a judgment entered by the USDC in January 2015, and included $67 in disgorgement and prejudgment interest. The DPA, the above-mentioned guilty plea and the Consent resolved the SEC's and the DOJ's investigations of the Company's compliance with the FCPA and related U.S. laws in China and additional countries. The fine was paid in December 2014 and the payment to the SEC was made in January 2015. Under the DPA, the DOJ will defer criminal prosecution of the Company for a term of three years. If the Company remains in compliance with the DPA during its term, the charges against the Company will be dismissed with prejudice. Under the DPA, the Company also represented that it has implemented and agreed that it will continue to implement a compliance and ethics program designed to prevent and detect violations of the FCPA and other applicable anti-corruption laws throughout its operations.

Under the DPA and the Consent, among other things, the Company agreed to have a compliance monitor (the "monitor"). During July 2015, the Company engaged a monitor, who had been approved by the DOJ and SEC. With the approval of the

AVON PRODUCTS, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

DOJ and the SEC, the monitor can be replaced by the Company after 18 months, if the Company agrees to undertake self-reporting obligations for the remainder of the monitoring period. The monitoring period is scheduled to expire in July 2018. There can be no assurance as to whether or when the DOJ and the SEC will approve replacing the monitor with the Company's self-reporting. If the DOJ determines that the Company has knowingly violated the DPA, the DOJ may commence prosecution or extend the term of the DPA, including the monitoring provisions described above, for up to one year.

The monitor is assessing and monitoring the Company's compliance with the terms of the DPA and the Consent by evaluating, among other things, the Company's internal accounting controls, recordkeeping and financial reporting policies and procedures. The monitor has recommended some changes to our policies and procedures that we are in the process of adopting, and may make additional recommendations that we must adopt unless they are unduly burdensome or otherwise inadvisable, in which case we may propose alternatives, which the DOJ and the SEC may or may not accept. In addition, operating under the oversight of the monitor may result in additional time and attention on these matters by members of our management, which may divert their time from the operation of our business. Assuming the monitor is replaced by a self-reporting period, the Company's self-reporting obligations may be costly or time-consuming.

While the costs have not been significant to date, we currently cannot estimate the costs that we are likely to incur in connection with ongoing compliance with the DPA and the Consent, including the monitorship, the costs, if applicable, of self-reporting, and the costs of implementing the changes, if any, to our policies and procedures required by the monitor. These costs could be significant.

Litigation Matters

In July and August 2010, derivative actions were filed in state court against certain present or former officers and/or directors of the Company (Carol J. Parker, derivatively on behalf of Avon Products, Inc. v. W. Don Cornwell, et al. and Avon Products, Inc. as nominal defendant (filed in the New York Supreme Court, Nassau County, Index No. 600570/2010); Lynne Schwartz, derivatively on behalf of Avon Products, Inc. v. Andrea Jung, et al. and Avon Products, Inc. as nominal defendant (filed in the New York Supreme Court, New York County, Index No. 651304/2010)). On November 22, 2013, a derivative action was filed in federal court against certain present or former officers and/or directors of the Company and following the federal court's dismissal, an additional action was subsequently filed in New York state court on May 1, 2015 (Sylvia Pritika, derivatively on behalf of Avon Products, Inc. v. Andrea Jung, et al. and Avon Products, Inc. as nominal defendant (filed in the New York Supreme Court, New York County, Index No. 651479/2015)). The claims asserted in one or more of these actions include alleged breach of fiduciary duty, abuse of control, waste of corporate assets, and unjust enrichment, relating to the Company's compliance with the FCPA, including the adequacy of the Company's internal controls. The relief sought against the individual defendants in one or more of these derivative actions include certain declaratory and equitable relief, restitution, damages, exemplary damages and interest. The Company is a nominal defendant, and no relief is sought against the Company itself. On April 28, 2015, an action was filed to seek enforcement of demands for the inspection of certain of the Company's books and records (Belle Cohen v. Avon Products, Inc. (filed in the New York Supreme Court, New York County, Index No. 651418/2015)). The parties have reached agreements to settle the derivative and books and records actions. The terms of settlement include certain corporate governance measures as well as releases of claims. The Company accrued approximately $4 as of June 30, 2015 with respect to these matters, which the Company expects will be paid by insurance. Settlement is conditioned upon court approval of the proposed resolution of the derivative actions. On March 30, 2016, the court granted preliminary approval of the settlement and scheduled a hearing to consider final approval for June 30, 2016. In the event that the court does not approve the settlement of the derivative actions, or that the agreements are otherwise terminated before becoming final, we are unable to predict the outcome of these matters.

On July 6, 2011, a purported shareholder's class action complaint (City of Brockton Retirement System v. Avon Products, Inc., et al., No. 11-CIV-4665) was filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against the Company and certain present or former officers and/or directors of the Company. On September 29, 2011, the Court appointed LBBW Asset Management Investmentgesellschaft mbH and SGSS Deutschland Kapitalanlagegesellschaft mbH as lead plaintiffs and Motley Rice LLC as lead counsel. Lead plaintiffs filed an amended complaint, and the defendants moved to dismiss the amended complaint on June 14, 2012. On September 29, 2014, the Court granted the defendants' motion to dismiss and also granted the plaintiffs leave to amend their complaint. On October 24, 2014, plaintiffs filed their second amended complaint on behalf of a purported class consisting of all persons or entities who purchased or otherwise acquired shares of Avon's common stock from July 31, 2006 through and including October 26, 2011. The second amended complaint names as defendants the Company and two individuals and asserts violations of Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Exchange Act based on allegedly false or misleading statements and omissions with respect to, among other things, the Company's compliance with the FCPA, including the adequacy of the Company's internal controls. Plaintiffs seek compensatory damages and declaratory, injunctive, and other equitable relief. Defendants moved to dismiss the Second Amended Complaint on November 21, 2014. The parties have reached an agreement on a settlement of this class action. The terms of settlement include releases by members of the class of claims against the Company and the individual defendants and payment of $62. Under the terms of the settlement, approximately $60 of the settlement was paid by the Company's insurers and approximately $2 was paid by the Company (which represented the remaining deductible under the Company's applicable insurance policy) into escrow. On August 21, 2015, the court granted preliminary approval of the settlement, and on December 1, 2015 the court held a hearing to consider final approval of the settlement and expressed an intent to grant final approval. However, the court has not yet entered a final judgment approving the settlement. If the settlement is not approved by the court, or is otherwise terminated before it is finalized, the Company will be unable to predict the outcome of this matter. Furthermore, in that event, it is reasonably possible that the Company may incur a loss in connection with this matter, which the Company is unable to reasonably estimate.

Between December 23, 2014 and March 12, 2015, two purported class actions were filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York -- Poovathur v. Avon Products, Inc., et al. (No. 14-CV-10083) and McCoy et al. v. Avon Products, Inc., et al. (No. 15-CV-01828) asserting claims under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA") against the Company, the Plan's administrator, benefits board and investment committee, and certain individuals alleged to have served as Plan fiduciaries. On April 8, 2015, the Court consolidated the two actions and recaptioned the consolidated case as In re 2014 Avon Products, Inc. ERISA Litigation, (No. 14-CV-10083). On May 8, 2015, plaintiffs filed a consolidated complaint, asserting claims for alleged breach of fiduciary duty and failure to monitor under ERISA on behalf of a purported class of participants in and beneficiaries of the Plan who invested in and/or held shares of the Avon Common Stock Fund between July 31, 2006 and May 1, 2014 and between December 14, 2011 and the present. Plaintiffs seek, inter alia, certain monetary relief, damages, and declaratory, injunctive and other equitable relief. On July 9, 2015, Defendants moved to dismiss the consolidated complaint. The parties have reached an agreement on a settlement of this class action. The terms of settlement include releases by members of the class of claims against the Company and the individual defendants and payment of approximately $6. Under the terms of the settlement, approximately $5 of the settlement will be paid by the Company's insurer and approximately $1 will be paid by the Company (which represents the remaining deductible under the Company's applicable insurance policy). Certain documentation relating to the settlement has not yet been finalized, and the settlement is subject to court approval. If the settlement is not approved by the court, or is otherwise terminated before it is finalized, the Company will be unable to predict the outcome of this matter. Furthermore, in that event, it is reasonably possible that the Company may incur a loss in connection with this matter, which the Company is unable to reasonably estimate.

Under some circumstances, any losses incurred in connection with adverse outcomes in the litigation matters described above could be material.

Brazilian Tax Matters

In 2002, our Brazilian subsidiary received an excise tax (IPI) assessment from the Brazilian tax authorities for alleged tax deficiencies during the years 1997-1998. In December 2012, additional assessments were received for the year 2008 with respect to excise tax (IPI) and taxes charged on gross receipts (PIS and COFINS). In the second quarter of 2014, the PIS and COFINS assessments were officially closed in favor of Avon Brazil. The 2002 and the 2012 IPI assessments assert that the establishment in 1995 of separate manufacturing and distribution companies in Brazil was done without a valid business purpose and that Avon Brazil did not observe minimum pricing rules to define the taxable basis of excise tax. The structure adopted in 1995 is comparable to that used by many other companies in Brazil. We believe that our Brazilian corporate structure is appropriate, both operationally and legally, and that the 2002 and 2012 IPI assessments are unfounded.

These matters are being vigorously contested. In January 2013, we filed a protest seeking a first administrative level review with respect to the 2012 IPI assessment. In July 2013, the 2012 IPI assessment was upheld at the first administrative level and we have appealed this decision to the second administrative level. The 2012 IPI assessment totals approximately $280, including penalties and accrued interest. In October 2010, the 2002 IPI assessment was upheld at the first administrative level at an amount reduced to approximately $25 from approximately $59, including penalties and accrued interest. We appealed this decision to the second administrative level, which ruled in favor of Avon in March 2015 and canceled the 2002 IPI assessment. The 2002 IPI assessment remains subject to appeal by the government.

In the event that the 2002 or 2012 IPI assessments are upheld at the last administrative level, it may be necessary for us to provide security to pursue further appeals, which, depending on the circumstances, may result in a charge to earnings. It is not possible to reasonably estimate the likelihood or potential amount of assessments that may be issued for subsequent periods (tax years up through 2010 are closed by statute). However, other similar IPI assessments involving different periods (1998-2001) have been canceled and officially closed in our favor by the second administrative level. We believe that the likelihood that the 2002 IPI assessment will be upheld on any further appeal is remote and the likelihood that the 2012 IPI assessment will be upheld is reasonably possible. As stated above, we believe that the 2002 and 2012 IPI assessments are unfounded.

Other Matters

Various other lawsuits and claims, arising in the ordinary course of business or related to businesses previously sold, are pending or threatened against Avon. In management's opinion, based on its review of the information available at this time, the total cost of resolving such other contingencies at March 31, 2016, is not expected to have a material adverse effect on our consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

10. SEGMENT INFORMATION

We determine segment profit by deducting the related costs and expenses from segment revenue. In order to ensure comparability between periods, segment profit includes an allocation of global marketing expenses based on actual revenues. Segment profit excludes global expenses other than marketing, costs to implement ("CTI") restructuring initiative (see Note 12, Restructuring Initiatives), certain significant asset impairment charges, charges related to the devaluations of Venezuela

12. RESTRUCTURING INITIATIVES

Transformation Plan

In January 2016, we announced a transformation plan (the "Transformation Plan"), which includes cost reduction efforts to continue to improve our cost structure and to enable us to reinvest in growth. As a result of this plan, we have targeted pre-tax annualized cost savings of approximately $350 after three years, with an estimated $200 from supply chain reductions and an estimated $150 from other cost reductions, which are expected to be achieved through restructuring actions, as well as other cost-savings strategies that will not result in restructuring charges. We plan to reinvest a portion of these cost savings in growth initiatives, including media, social selling and information technology systems that will help us modernize our business. We initiated the Transformation Plan in order to enable us to achieve our long-term goals of double-digit operating margin and mid single-digit constant-dollar revenue growth. As part of the Transformation Plan, we identified certain actions, that we believe will reduce ongoing costs, primarily consisting of global headcount reductions relating to operating model changes. These operating model changes include streamlining of our corporate functions to align with the current and future needs of the business and an information technology infrastructure outsourcing initiative.

As a result of these restructuring actions approved-to-date, we have recorded total costs to implement these restructuring initiatives of $69.9 before taxes, of which $47.5 was recorded in the first three months of 2016, in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. The additional charges not yet incurred associated with the restructuring actions approved to-date of approximately $15 to $25 before taxes are expected to be recorded primarily in 2016. At this time we are unable to quantify the total costs to implement these restructuring initiatives that will be incurred through the time the Transformation Plan is fully implemented. In connection with the restructuring actions approved to-date associated with the Transformation Plan, we expect to realize annualized savings of approximately $80 to $90 (before tax). We expect to realize approximately $25 of savings in 2016 and are expected to achieve the significant majority of the annualized savings beginning in 2017. The annualized savings represent the net reduction of expenses that will no longer be incurred by Avon.

Restructuring Charges - Three Months Ended March 31, 2016

During the three months ended March 31, 2016, we recorded costs to implement of $47.5 related to the Transformation Plan, in selling, general and administrative expenses, in the Consolidated Statement of Operations.

The costs consisted of the following:

AVON PRODUCTS, INC.
 NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
 (U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

net charge of $47.1 primarily for employee-related costs, including severance benefits; and implementation costs of $.4 primarily related to professional service fees.

The majority of cash payments, if applicable, associated with these charges are expected to be made during 2016. The liability balance for the Transformation Plan, which primarily consists of employee-related costs, for these various restructuring initiatives as of March 31, 2016 is as follows:

	Total
Balance at 12/31/2015	$21.4
2016 charges	53.5
Adjustments	(6.4)
Cash payments	(3.2)
Foreign exchange	.4
Balance at March 31, 2016	$65.7

Employee-related charges, net of adjustments, of initiatives under the Transformation Plan along with the estimated charges expected to be incurred on approved initiatives under the plan, by reportable business segment were as follows:

	South Latin America	North Latin America	Europe, Middle East & Africa	Asia Pacific	Corporate	Total
2015	$ —	$ —	$ —	$ —	$ 21.4	$21.4
First quarter 2016	12.1	3.3	21.9	4.7	5.1	47.1
Charges incurred to date	12.1	3.3	21.9	4.7	26.5	68.5
Estimated charges to be incurred on approved initiatives	.4	—	—	2.6	7.4	10.4
Total expected charges on approved initiatives	$ 12.5	$ 3.3	$ 21.9	$ 7.3	$ 33.9	$78.9

As noted previously, we expect our total costs to implement restructuring to be approximately $85 to $95 before taxes under the Transformation Plan. The amounts shown in the tables above as charges recorded to-date relate to initiatives that have been approved and recorded in the financial statements as the costs are probable and estimable. The amounts shown in the tables above as total expected charges on approved initiatives represent charges recorded to-date plus charges yet to be recorded for approved initiatives as the relevant accounting criteria for recording an expense have not yet been met. In addition to the charges included in the tables above, we have incurred and will continue to incur other costs to implement restructuring initiatives such as professional services fees and accelerated depreciation.

Additional Restructuring Charges 2015

As a result of the then-current economic environment, including the impact of foreign currency movements and inflation on our expenses, and in an effort to continue to improve our cost structure, we identified certain actions during 2015 that we believe would reduce ongoing costs. These actions primarily consisted of global headcount reductions.

As a result of these restructuring actions, we recorded a net benefit of $0.5 before taxes, during the first three months of 2016 in selling, general and administrative expenses, in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. There are no material remaining costs for restructuring actions approved-to-date. In connection with these restructuring actions, we realized annualized savings of approximately $30 before taxes. We began to realize savings in the second quarter of 2015 and achieved the annualized savings beginning in the third quarter of 2015. The annualized savings represent the net reduction of expenses that will no longer be incurred by Avon.

Restructuring Charges – Three Months Ended March 31, 2016

The costs to implement recorded during the three months ended March 31, 2016 consisted of a benefit of $.5 for employee-related costs due to severance benefits.

charge of $25.0 for employee-related costs due to severance benefits; and implementation costs of $1.9 primarily for professional service fees associated with Corporate and Asia Pacific. In addition to the charges included in the tables above, we have incurred other costs to implement restructuring initiatives such as professional services fees.

Other Restructuring Initiatives

During the three months ended March 31, 2016, we recorded a net benefit of $.2 in selling, general and administrative expenses, in the Consolidated Statements of Operations, associated with the restructuring programs launched in 2005 and 2009 and the restructuring initiatives launched in 2012 (the "Other Restructuring Initiatives" and "$400M Cost Savings Initiative"), which are substantially complete. During the three months ended March 31, 2015, we recorded a net charge of $.3 in selling, general and administrative expenses, in the Consolidated Statements of Operations, associated with the Other Restructuring Initiatives. The liability balance associated with the Other Restructuring Initiatives, which primarily consists of employee-related costs and contract termination costs, as of March 31, 2016 is not material.

14. FAIR VALUE

Assets and Liabilities Recorded at Fair Value

The fair value measurement provisions required by GAAP establish a fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value into three broad levels as follows:

Level 1 - Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 - Inputs, other than the quoted prices in active markets, that are observable either directly or indirectly.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs based on our own assumptions.

Assets and Liabilities Recorded at Fair Value on a Recurring Basis

The following table presents the fair value hierarchy for those assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of March 31, 2016:

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Our financial instruments include cash and cash equivalents, available-for-sale securities, short-term investments, accounts receivable, loans receivable, debt maturing within one year, accounts payable, long-term debt and foreign exchange forwards contracts. The carrying value for cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and short-term investments approximate fair value because of the short-term nature of these instruments.

The net asset (liability) amounts recorded in the balance sheet (carrying amount) and the estimated fair values of our remaining financial instruments at March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, respectively, consisted of the following:

	March 31, 2016		December 31, 2015
	Carrying Amount	Fair Value	Carrying Amount	Fair Value
Available-for-sale securities	$2.8	$ 2.8	$ 2.8	$ 2.8
Debt maturing within one year ⁽¹⁾	(69.0)	(69.0)	(55.2)	(55.2)
Long-term debt ⁽¹⁾	(2,145.0)	(1,690.9)	2,150.5	(1,622.7)
Foreign exchange forward contracts	(.1)	(.1)	.1	.1

(1) The carrying value of debt maturing within one year and long-term debt is presented net of debt issuance costs and includes any related discount or premium and unamortized deferred gains on terminated interest-rate swap agreements, as applicable.

The methods and assumptions used to estimate fair value are as follows:

Available-for-sale securities - The fair values of these investments were the quoted market prices for issues listed on securities exchanges.

Debt maturing within one year and long-term debt - The fair values of our debt and other financing were determined using Level 2 inputs based on indicative market prices.

Foreign exchange forward contracts - The fair values of forward contracts were estimated based on quoted forward foreign exchange prices at the reporting date.

15. DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS AND HEDGING ACTIVITIES

We operate globally, with manufacturing and distribution facilities in various countries around the world. We may reduce our exposure to fluctuations in the fair value and cash flows associated with changes in interest rates and foreign exchange rates by creating offsetting positions, including through the use of derivative financial instruments. If we use foreign currency-rate sensitive and interest-rate sensitive instruments to hedge a certain portion of our existing and forecasted transactions, we would expect that any gain or loss in value of the hedge instruments generally would be offset by decreases or increases in the value of the underlying forecasted transactions. As of March 31, 2016, we do not have any interest-rate swap agreements.

We do not enter into derivative financial instruments for trading or speculative purposes, nor are we a party to leveraged derivatives. The master agreements governing our derivative contracts generally contain standard provisions that could trigger early termination of the contracts in certain circumstances, including if we were to merge with another entity and the creditworthiness of the surviving entity were to be "materially weaker" than that of Avon prior to the merger.

Derivatives are recognized on the Consolidated Balance Sheets at their fair values. The following table presents the fair value of derivative instruments outstanding at March 31, 2016:

	Asset Balance Sheet Classification	Fair Value	Liability Balance Sheet Classification	Fair Value
Derivatives not designated as hedges:
Foreign exchange forward contracts	Prepaid expenses and other	$ 1.4	Accounts payable	$ 1.5
Total derivatives not designated as hedges		$ 1.4		$ 1.5
Total derivatives		$ 1.4		$ 1.5

The following table presents the fair value of derivative instruments outstanding at December 31, 2015:

	Asset Balance Sheet Classification	Fair Value	Liability Balance Sheet Classification	Fair Value
Derivatives not designated as hedges:
Foreign exchange forward contracts	Prepaid expenses and other	$ 1.2	Accounts payable	$ 1.1
Total derivatives not designated as hedges		$ 1.2		$ 1.1
Total derivatives		$ 1.2		$ 1.1

Interest Rate Risk

A portion of our borrowings is subject to interest rate risk. In the past we have used interest-rate swap agreements, which effectively converted the fixed rate on long-term debt to a floating interest rate, to manage our interest rate exposure. The agreements were designated as fair value hedges. At times, we may de-designate the hedging relationship of a receive-fixed/pay-variable interest-rate swap agreement. In these cases, we enter into receive-variable/pay-fixed interest-rate swap agreements that are designated to offset the gain or loss on the de-designated contract. As of March 31, 2016, we do not have any interest-rate swap agreements. Approximately 3% and approximately 2% of our debt portfolio at March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, respectively, was exposed to floating interest rates.

In January 2013, we terminated eight of our interest-rate swap agreements previously designated as fair value hedges, with notional amounts totaling $1,000. As of the interest-rate swap agreements' termination date, the aggregate favorable adjustment to the carrying value (deferred gain) of our debt was $90.4, which is being amortized as a reduction to interest expense over the remaining term of the underlying debt obligations. For the three months ended

March 31, 2016, the net impact of the gain amortization was $3.7. For the three months ended March 31, 2015, the net impact of the gain amortization was $3.7. The interest-rate swap agreements were terminated in order to improve our capital structure, including increasing our ratio of fixed-rate debt. At March 31, 2016, the unamortized deferred gain associated with the January 2013 interest-rate swap termination was $31.7, and was classified within long-term debt in the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

In March 2012, we terminated two of our interest-rate swap agreements previously designated as fair value hedges, with notional amounts totaling $350. As of the interest-rate swap agreements' termination date, the aggregate favorable adjustment to the carrying value (deferred gain) of our debt was $46.1, which is being amortized as a reduction to interest expense over the remaining term of the underlying debt obligations through March 2019. For the three months ended March 31, 2016, the net impact of the gain amortization was $1.7. For the three months ended March 31, 2015, the net impact of the gain amortization was $1.6. The interest-rate swap agreements were terminated in order to increase our ratio of fixed-rate debt. At March 31, 2016, the unamortized deferred gain associated with the March 2012 interest-rate swap termination was $21.1, and was classified within long-term debt in the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Foreign Currency Risk

We may use foreign exchange forward contracts to manage a portion of our foreign currency exchange rate exposures. At March 31, 2016, we had outstanding foreign exchange forward contracts with notional amounts totaling approximately $104.7 for various currencies.

We may use foreign exchange forward contracts to manage foreign currency exposure of certain intercompany loans. These contracts are not designated as hedges. The change in fair value of these contracts is immediately recognized in earnings and substantially offsets the foreign currency impact recognized in earnings relating to the associated intercompany loans. During the three months ended March 31, 2016, we recorded a loss of $2.3 in other expense, net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations related to these undesignated foreign exchange forward contracts. Also during the three months ended March 31, 2016, we recorded a gain of $.8 related to the associated intercompany loans, caused by changes in foreign currency exchange rates. During the three months ended March 31, 2015, we recorded a loss of $8.0 in other expense, net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations related to these undesignated foreign exchange forward contracts. During the three months ended March 31, 2015, we recorded a gain of $8.7 related to the associated intercompany loans, caused by changes in foreign currency exchange rates.

16. DEBT

Revolving Credit Facility

In June 2015, the Company and Avon International Operations, Inc., a wholly-owned domestic subsidiary of the Company ("AIO"), entered into a new five-year $400.0 senior secured revolving credit facility (the "2015 facility"). Borrowings under the 2015 facility bear interest, at our option, at a rate per annum equal to LIBOR plus 250 basis points or a floating base rate plus 150 basis points, in each case subject to adjustment based upon a leverage-based pricing grid. As of March 31, 2016, there were no amounts outstanding under the 2015 facility.

All obligations of AIO under the 2015 facility are (i) unconditionally guaranteed by each material domestic restricted subsidiary of the Company (other than AIO, the borrower), in each case, subject to certain exceptions and (ii) guaranteed on a limited recourse basis by the Company. The obligations of AIO and the guarantors are secured by first priority liens on and security interest in substantially all of the assets of AIO and the subsidiary guarantors and by certain assets of the Company, in each case, subject to certain exceptions.

The 2015 facility will terminate in June 2020; provided, however, that it shall terminate on the 91st day prior to the maturity of the 2018 Notes (as defined below), the 4.20% Notes (as defined below), the 2019 Notes (as defined below) and the 4.60% Notes (as defined below), if on such 91st day, the applicable notes are not redeemed, repaid, discharged, defeased or otherwise refinanced in full.

The 2015 facility contains affirmative and negative covenants, which are customary for secured financings of this type, as well as financial covenants (interest coverage and total leverage ratios). As of March 31, 2016, we were in compliance with our interest coverage and total leverage ratios under the 2015 facility. The amount of the facility available to be drawn down on is reduced by any standby letters of credit granted by AIO. AIO has issued approximately $40.0 of standby letters of credit. As of March 31, 2016, based on then applicable interest rates, the entire amount of the remaining 2015 facility, which is approximately $360.0, could have been drawn down without violating any covenant.

Public Notes

In March 2013, we issued, in a public offering, $500.0 principal amount of 4.60% Notes due March 15, 2020 (the "4.60% Notes"); $500.0 principal amount of 5.00% Notes due March 15, 2023; and $250.0 principal amount of 6.95% Notes due March 15, 2043 (collectively, the "2013 Notes"). Interest on the 2013 Notes is payable semi-annually on March 15 and September 15 of each year.

The indenture governing the 2013 Notes contains interest rate adjustment provisions depending on the long-term credit ratings assigned to the 2013 Notes with S&P and Moody's. As described in the indenture, the interest rates on the 2013 Notes increase by .25% for each one-notch downgrade below investment grade on each of our long-term credit ratings assigned to the 2013 Notes by S&P or Moody's. These adjustments are limited to a total increase of 2% above the respective interest rates in effect on the date of issuance of the 2013 Notes. As a result of the long-term credit rating downgrades by S&P and Moody's in 2014 and 2015, the interest rates on the 2013 Notes increased by a total of 1.75%.

AVON PRODUCTS, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

At March 31, 2016, we also have outstanding $250.0 principal amount of our 5.75% Notes due March 1, 2018 (the "2018 Notes"); $250.0 principal amount of our 4.20% Notes due July 15, 2018 (the "4.20% Notes"); and $350.0 principal amount of our 6.50% Notes due March 1, 2019 (the "2019 Notes"), with interest on each series of these Notes payable semi-annually.

The indentures governing our outstanding notes described above contain certain customary covenants and customary events of default and cross-default provisions. Further, we would be required to make an offer to repurchase all of our outstanding notes described above, with the exception of our 4.20% Notes, at a price equal to 101% of their aggregate principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest in the event of a change in control involving Avon and a corresponding credit ratings downgrade to below investment grade.

Long-Term Credit Ratings

Our long-term credit ratings are Ba2 (Negative Outlook) for corporate family debt, and Ba3 (Negative Outlook) for senior unsecured debt, with Moody's; B (Stable Outlook) with S&P; and B+ (Negative Outlook) with Fitch, which are below investment grade. We do not believe these long-term credit ratings will have a material impact on our near-term liquidity. However, any rating agency reviews could result in a change in outlook or downgrade, which could further limit our access to new financing, particularly short-term financing, reduce our flexibility with respect to working capital needs, affect the market price of some or all of our outstanding debt securities, and likely result in an increase in financing costs, including interest expense under certain of our debt instruments, and less favorable covenants and financial terms under our financing arrangements.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

When used in this report, the terms "Avon," "Company," "we," "our" or "us" mean, unless the context otherwise indicates, Avon Products, Inc. and its majority, wholly owned and controlled subsidiaries.

OVERVIEW

We are a global manufacturer and marketer of beauty and related products. Our business is conducted primarily in the direct-selling channel. During 2015, we had sales operations in 57 countries and territories, and distributed products in 15 more. Effective January 1, 2016, our reportable segments are based on geographic operations in four regions: Europe, Middle East & Africa; South Latin America; North Latin America; and Asia Pacific. Our product categories are Beauty and Fashion & Home. Beauty consists of skincare (which includes personal care), fragrance and color (cosmetics). Fashion & Home consists of fashion jewelry, watches, apparel, footwear, accessories, gift and decorative products, housewares, entertainment and leisure products, children's products and nutritional products. Sales are made to the ultimate consumer principally through direct selling by Representatives, who are independent contractors and not our employees. At December 31, 2015, we had nearly 6 million active Representatives which represents the number of Representatives submitting an order in a sales campaign, totaled for all campaigns during the year and then divided by the number of campaigns. The success of our business is highly dependent on recruiting, retaining and servicing our Representatives. During 2015, all of our consolidated revenue was derived from operations outside of the U.S.

During the three months ended March 31, 2016, revenue declined 16% compared to the prior-year period, primarily due to unfavorable foreign exchange. Constant $ revenue increased 2% over the same period. Constant $ revenue, however, was negatively impacted by an estimated 2 points due to the Industrial Productions Tax ("IPI") on cosmetics in Brazil that went into effect in May of 2015. Constant $ revenue was also negatively impacted by approximately 1 point as a result of the sale of Liz Earle Beauty Co. Limited ("Liz Earle"), which was completed in July of 2015. Sales from the Beauty category decreased 18%, or was relatively unchanged on a Constant $ basis. Sales from the Fashion & Home category decreased 13%, or increased 4% on a Constant $ basis.

Our Constant $ revenue benefited from growth in markets experiencing relatively high inflation (Venezuela and Argentina), which contributed approximately 1 point to our Constant $ revenue growth. Our Constant $ revenue also benefited from growth in Europe, Middle East & Africa, most significantly Russia, and to a lesser extent, in South Africa. In addition, Constant $ revenue benefited from higher average order, partially offset by a 2% decrease in Active Representatives. The decrease in Active Representatives was primarily due to declines in Venezuela and South Latin America, primarily Brazil, partially offset by growth in Europe, Middle East & Africa, most significantly Russia, which was primarily due to sustained momentum in recruitment and retention. Ending Representatives decreased by 1%. The net impact of price and mix increased 6%, driven by increases in South Latin America. The net impact of price and mix was positively impacted by markets experiencing relatively high inflation (Venezuela and Argentina), as these markets benefited from the inflationary impact on pricing. Units sold decreased by 4%, primarily due to declines in units sold in Brazil and Venezuela, partially offset by an increase in the units sold in Russia. The decrease in Ending Representatives was primarily due to the deconsolidation of Venezuela, which had a negative impact of 3 points (due to deconsolidation, the Venezuela Representatives were removed from the reported Ending Representatives at March 31, 2016), partially offset by growth in Europe, Middle East & Africa, most significantly Russia and South Africa. See "Segment Review" of this MD&A for additional information related to changes in revenue by Segment.

During the three months ended March 31, 2016, foreign currency had a significant impact on our financial results. As the U.S. dollar has strengthened relative to currencies of key Avon markets, our revenue and profits have been reduced when translated into U.S. dollars and our margins have been negatively impacted by country mix, as certain of our markets which have historically had higher operating margins experienced significant devaluation of their local currency. In addition, as our sales and costs are often denominated in different currencies, this has created a negative foreign currency transaction impact. Specifically, as compared to the prior-year period, foreign currency has impacted our consolidated financial results as a result of foreign currency transaction losses (classified within cost of sales, and selling, general and administrative expenses), which had an unfavorable impact to Adjusted operating profit of an estimated $70, foreign currency translation, which had an unfavorable impact to Adjusted operating profit of approximately $30, and foreign exchange losses on our working capital (classified within other expense, net), which had an favorable impact of approximately $10 before tax.

Effective March 31, 2016, we deconsolidated our Venezuelan operations. Our operating results for the first quarter of 2016 include the results of our Venezuelan operations; however, we have recorded a charge at March 31, 2016 to write-off balance sheet accounts associated with our Venezuela operations, and going forward, the Venezuela operating results will no longer be included in the Company's consolidated financial statements. As a result of this change in accounting, we recorded a loss of approximately $120 in the first quarter of 2016. The loss was comprised of $39 in net assets of the Venezuelan business and $81 in accumulated foreign currency translation adjustments within AOCI associated with foreign currency movements before Venezuela was accounted for as a highly inflationary economy. See "Venezuela Discussion" of this MD&A for further discussion of our Venezuela operations and Note 1, Accounting Policies, to the consolidated financial statements included herein.

AVON PRODUCTS, INC.

(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

Transformation Plan

In December 2015, we entered into definitive agreements with affiliates of Cerberus Capital Management, L.P. ("Cerberus"), which included a $435 investment in Avon by an affiliate of Cerberus through the purchase of our Series C Preferred Stock and the separation of the North America business from Avon into New Avon LLC ("New Avon"), a privately-held company that is majority-owned and managed by an affiliate of Cerberus. Avon contributed $100 and retained approximately 20% ownership in this new privately-held company. These transactions closed on March 1, 2016. The North America business, which had consisted of the Company's operations in the United States ("U.S."), Canada and Puerto Rico, was previously its own reportable segment and has been presented as discontinued operations for all periods presented. See Note 3, Discontinued Operations, and Note 7, Series C Convertible Preferred Stock, to the consolidated financial statements included herein for more information.

In January 2016, we announced the transformation plan (the "Transformation Plan"), which includes investing in growth, reducing costs in an effort to continue to improve our cost structure and improving our financial resilience. As a result of this plan, we expect to invest $350 into the business over the next three years with an estimated $150 in media and social selling and $200 related to the service model evolution and information technology, which will be aimed at improving the overall Representative experience. These investments will be funded initially from cash on hand, and the continued investment over the three years from the cost savings improvements, as well as benefits from pricing actions. The launch of an improved service model in each country will depend on the existing stage of the technological development of the systems in that market supporting the Representatives. We expect to incrementally invest in media, shifting our media spend more to digital, with the focus of the spending in our top 10 markets. With regards to social selling, we have formed a team focused on social selling, and we expect to begin with a pilot market before a phased implementation.

With respect to cost reductions within our Transformation Plan, we have targeted pre-tax annualized cost savings of approximately $350 after three years. We are targeting an estimated $200 from supply chain reductions by: rationalizing our manufacturing capacity; optimizing the distribution network as the global manufacturing footprint evolves; reducing costs related to transportation, physical warehousing and distribution; and through sourcing opportunities, such as the harmonization of direct material purchases to generate greater scale and purchasing power. We are targeting an estimated $150 from other cost reductions which are expected to be achieved primarily through reductions in headcount.

We have initiated this Transformation Plan in order to enable us to achieve our long-term goals of double-digit operating margin and mid single-digit constant-dollar revenue growth. We are targeting the realization of $70 of these pre-tax cost savings in 2016 and incurred costs to implement restructuring charges of $48 associated with the Transformation Plan in the first quarter of 2016. As part of the Transformation Plan, we will transition, over time, the location of our headquarters to the United Kingdom. For additional details, see Note 12 Restructuring Initiatives, to the consolidated financial statements included herein.

NEW ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

Information relating to new accounting standards is included in Note 1, Accounting Policies, to the consolidated financial statements included herein.

PERFORMANCE METRICS

We have added a definition for our "Change in Ending Representatives" performance metric, as follows:

This metric is based on the total number of Representatives who were eligible to place an order in the last sales campaign in the related period as a result of being on an active roster. To determine the Change in Ending Representatives, this calculation is compared to the same calculation in the corresponding period of the prior year. Change in Ending Representatives may be impacted by a combination of factors such as our requirements to become and/or remain a Representative, our practices regarding minimum order requirements and our practices regarding reinstatement of Representatives. We believe this may be an indicator of future revenue performance.

(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS—THE THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 2016 AS COMPARED TO THE THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 2015

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

To supplement our financial results presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States ("GAAP"), we disclose operating results that have been adjusted to exclude the impact of changes due to the translation of foreign currencies into U.S. dollars, including changes in: revenue, operating profit, Adjusted operating profit, operating margin and Adjusted operating margin. We also refer to these adjusted financial measures as Constant $ items, which are Non-GAAP financial measures. We believe these measures provide investors an additional perspective on trends and underlying business results. To exclude the impact of changes due to the translation of foreign currencies into U.S. dollars, we calculate current-year results and prior-year results at a constant exchange rate. Foreign currency impact is determined as the difference between actual growth rates and constant-currency growth rates.

We also present gross margin, selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenue, operating profit, operating margin and effective tax rate on a Non-GAAP basis. We refer to these Non-GAAP financial measures as "Adjusted." We have provided a quantitative reconciliation of the difference between the Non-GAAP financial measures and the financial measures calculated and reported in accordance with GAAP.

The Company uses the Non-GAAP financial measures to evaluate its operating performance and believes that it is meaningful for investors to be made aware of, on a period-to-period basis, the impacts of 1) CTI restructuring initiatives, 2) charges related to the deconsolidation of our Venezuela operations as of March 31, 2016 and the devaluation of Venezuelan currency in February 2015, combined with being designated as a highly inflationary economy ("Venezuelan special items"), and, as it relates to our effective tax rate discussion, 3) an income tax benefit realized in 2016 as a result of tax planning strategies and the non-cash income tax adjustments associated with our deferred tax assets recognized in 2015 ("Special tax items"). The Company believes investors find the Non-GAAP information helpful in understanding the ongoing performance of operations separate from items that may have a disproportionate positive or negative impact on the Company's financial results in any particular period. These Non-GAAP measures should not be considered in isolation, or as a substitute for, or superior to, financial measures calculated in accordance with GAAP.

The Venezuelan special items include the impact on the Consolidated Statements of Operations in 2016 caused by the deconsolidation of our Venezuela operations for which we recorded a loss of approximately $120 in other expense, net. The loss was comprised of $39 in net assets of the Venezuelan business and $81 in accumulated foreign currency translation adjustments within AOCI associated with foreign currency changes before Venezuela was accounted for as a highly inflationary economy. The Venezuelan special items include the impact on the Consolidated Statements of Operations in 2015 caused by the devaluation of Venezuelan currency on monetary assets and liabilities, such as cash, receivables and payables; deferred tax assets and liabilities; and non-monetary assets, such as inventories. For non-monetary assets, the Venezuelan special items include the earnings impact caused by the difference between the historical U.S. dollar cost of the assets at the previous exchange rate and the revised exchange rate. In 2015, the Venezuelan special items also include adjustments of approximately $11, to reflect certain non-monetary assets at their net realizable value. In 2015, the Venezuelan special items also include an impairment charge of approximately $90 to reflect the write-down of the long-lived assets to their estimated fair value. In 2015, the devaluation was caused as a result of moving from the SICAD II exchange rate of approximately 50 to the SIMADI exchange rate of approximately 170.

In addition, the effective tax rate discussion includes Special tax items, including the impact during 2016 on income taxes in the Consolidated Statements of Operations due to an income tax benefit of $29 recognized as the result of the implementation of foreign tax planning strategies. The Special tax items also include the impact during 2015 on the provision for income taxes in the Consolidated Statements of Operations due to a non-cash income tax charge with an additional valuation allowance, to reduce our U.S. deferred tax assets to an amount that was "more likely than not" to be realized. This valuation allowance was due to the continued strengthening of the U.S. dollar against currencies of some of our key markets.

See Note 12, Restructuring Initiatives to the consolidated financial statements included herein, and "Venezuela Discussion" below for more information on these items.

(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

Three Months Ended March 31, 2016

Revenue

During the three months ended March 31, 2016, revenue declined 16% compared to the prior-year period, primarily due to unfavorable foreign exchange. Constant $ revenue increased 2%. Constant $ revenue was negatively impacted by an estimated 2 points due to the IPI tax on cosmetics in Brazil that went into effect in May of 2015. Constant $ revenue was also negatively impacted by approximately 1 point as a result of the sale of Liz Earle, which was completed in July of 2015. Our Constant $ revenue benefited from growth in markets experiencing relatively high inflation (Venezuela and Argentina), which contributed approximately 1 point to our Constant $ revenue growth. Our Constant $ revenue also benefited from growth in Europe, Middle East & Africa, most significantly Russia and South Africa. The decrease in Active Representatives was primarily due to declines in Venezuela and South Latin America, primarily Brazil, partially offset by growth in Europe, Middle East & Africa, most significantly Russia, which was primarily due to sustained momentum in recruitment and retention. The net impact of price and mix increased 6%, driven by increases in South Latin America. The net impact of price and mix was positively impacted by markets experiencing relatively high inflation (Venezuela and Argentina), as these markets benefited from the inflationary impact on pricing. Units sold decreased by 4%, primarily due to declines in units sold in Brazil and Venezuela, partially offset by an increase in the units sold in Russia. Ending Representatives decreased by 1%. The decrease in Ending Representatives was primarily due to the deconsolidation of Venezuela (due to deconsolidation, the Venezuela Representatives were removed from the reported Ending Representatives at March 31, 2016), which had a negative impact of 3 points, partially offset by growth in Europe, Middle East & Africa, most significantly Russia and South Africa.

On a category basis, our net sales and associated growth rates were as follows:

Operating Margin

Operating margin increased 270 basis points, while Adjusted operating margin decreased 230 basis points, compared to the same period of 2015. The increase in operating margin and decrease in Adjusted operating margin are discussed further below in "Gross Margin" and "Selling, General and Administrative Expenses."

Gross Margin

Gross margin and Adjusted gross margin decreased 30 basis points and 130 basis points, respectively, compared to the same period of 2015. The gross margin comparison was impacted in the prior year by the devaluation of the Venezuelan currency in conjunction with highly inflationary accounting, as approximately $15 was recognized in the prior-year period associated with carrying certain non-monetary assets at the historical U.S. dollar cost following a devaluation. See "Venezuela Discussion" in this MD&A for a further discussion of our Venezuela operations.

The decrease of 130 basis points in Adjusted gross margin was primarily due to the following:

a decrease of approximately 420 basis points due to the unfavorable impact of foreign currency transaction losses and foreign currency translation;

This item was partially offset by the following:

AVON PRODUCTS, INC.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

- an increase of 170 basis points due to the favorable net impact of mix and pricing, which includes the realization of price increases in markets experiencing relatively high inflation (Venezuela and Argentina); and
- a increase of approximately 150 basis points due to lower supply chain costs, primarily from lower material costs in Europe, Middle East & Africa and South Latin America.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenue decreased 300 basis points and Adjusted selling, general, and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenue increased 100 basis points, respectively, compared to the same period of 2015.

The increase of 100 basis points in Adjusted selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenue was primarily due to the following:

- an increase of approximately 140 basis points due to the unfavorable impact of foreign currency translation and foreign currency transaction losses;
- an increase of 70 basis points as a result of the IPI tax law on cosmetics in Brazil, which reduced revenue as we did not raise the prices paid by Representatives to the same extent as the IPI tax; and
- an increase of 40 basis points from higher Representative, sales leader and field expense;
- an increase of 40 basis points from higher bad debt expense, primarily in Brazil; and various other insignificant items that increased selling, general and administrative expenses and Adjusted selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenue.

These items were partially offset by the following:

- a decrease of 190 basis points primarily due to the impact of our Constant $ revenue growth with respect to our fixed expenses. In addition, lower fixed expenses, primarily resulting from our costs savings initiatives, mainly reductions in headcount, were largely offset by the inflationary impact on our expenses; and
- a decrease of 60 basis points from lower advertising expense, primarily in Europe, Middle East & Africa.

Other Expense

Interest expense increased by approximately $5 compared to the prior-year period, primarily due to the increase in the interest rates on the 2013 Notes (defined below) as a result of the long-term credit rating downgrade, partially offset by lower outstanding debt balances.

Interest income decreased by approximately $1 compared to the prior-year period.

Other expense, net, increased by approximately $119 compared to the prior-year period, primarily due to the year-on-year impact the Venezuelan special items as we recorded a loss of approximately $120 in the first quarter of 2016 as compared to a benefit of approximately $4 in the first quarter of 2015. In addition, other expense, net was positively impacted by lower losses on foreign exchange compared to the prior-year period. See "Venezuela Discussion" in this MD&A for further discussion of our Venezuela operations.

Effective Tax Rate

The effective tax rate in 2016 was impacted by the deconsolidation of our Venezuelan operations discussed further within "Venezuela Discussion" in this MD&A and a benefit of approximately $29 as a result of the implementation of foreign tax planning strategies. The effective tax rate in 2015 was negatively impacted by an additional valuation allowance for deferred tax assets of approximately $31 in the U.S., which was due to the strengthening of the U.S. dollar against currencies of some of our key markets and its associated effect on our tax planning strategies.

The Adjusted effective tax rates in 2016 and 2015 were negatively impacted by the country mix of earnings and the inability to recognize additional deferred tax assets in various jurisdictions related to our current-year operating results.

Discontinued Operations

Loss from discontinued operations, net of tax was $10 compared to a loss of $4 for 2015. During the first quarter of 2016, we recorded a charge of approximately $15 before tax ($5 after tax) associated with the sale of the North America business which closed on March 1, 2016. See Note 3, Discontinued Operations, to the consolidated financial statements included herein for more information.

Impact of Foreign Currency

During the first quarter of 2016, foreign currency had a significant impact on our financial results. Specifically, as compared to the prior-year period, foreign currency has impacted our consolidated financial results as a result of: foreign currency transaction losses (classified within cost of sales, and selling, general and administrative expenses), which had an unfavorable impact to Adjusted operating profit of an estimated $70, or approximately 440 basis points to Adjusted operating margin; foreign currency translation, which had an unfavorable impact to Adjusted operating profit of approximately $30, or approximately 120 basis points to Adjusted operating margin; and foreign exchange losses on our working capital (classified within other expense, net), which had an favorable impact of approximately $10 before tax.

Venezuela Discussion

Avon Venezuela operates in the direct-selling channel offering Beauty and Fashion & Home products. Avon Venezuela has a manufacturing facility that produces the Beauty products that it sells. Avon Venezuela imports many of its Fashion & Home products and raw materials and components needed to manufacture its Beauty products. Currency restrictions enacted by the Venezuelan government since 2003 have impacted the ability of Avon Venezuela to obtain foreign currency to pay for imported products. Since 2010, we have been accounting for our operations in Venezuela under accounting guidance associated with highly inflationary economies. Under U.S. GAAP, the financial statements of a foreign entity operating in a highly inflationary economy are required to be remeasured as if the functional currency is the company's reporting currency, the U.S. dollar. This generally results in translation adjustments, caused by changes in the exchange rate, being reported in earnings currently for monetary assets (e.g., cash, accounts receivable) and liabilities (e.g., accounts payable, accrued expenses) and requires that different procedures be used to translate non-monetary assets (e.g., inventories, fixed assets). Non-monetary assets and liabilities are remeasured at the historical U.S. dollar cost basis. This diverges significantly from the application of accounting rules prior to designation as highly inflationary accounting, where such gains and losses would have been recognized only in other comprehensive income (shareholders' deficit).

Venezuela's restrictive foreign exchange control regulations and our Venezuelan operations' increasingly limited access to U.S. dollars have resulted in an other-than-temporary lack of exchangeability between the Venezuelan bolivar and the U.S. dollar, and have restricted our Venezuelan operations' ability to pay dividends and settle intercompany obligations. The severe currency controls imposed by the Venezuelan government have significantly limited our ability to realize the benefits from earnings of our Venezuelan operations and access the resulting liquidity provided by those earnings. We expect that this other-than-temporary lack of exchangeability will continue for the foreseeable future, and as a result, we concluded that, effective March 31, 2016, we did not meet the accounting criteria of control in order to continue consolidating our Venezuelan operations and, as a result, will account for our Venezuelan operations using the cost method of accounting. During the first three months of 2016, Avon Venezuela represented approximately 1% of Avon's consolidated revenue and approximately 5% of Avon's consolidated Adjusted operating profit.

Effective March 31, 2016, we began accounting for our Venezuelan operations using the cost method of accounting and as a result our Consolidated Balance Sheet no longer includes the assets and liabilities of our Venezuelan operations. In future periods, under the cost method of accounting, we will no longer include the results of our Venezuelan operations in our

AVON PRODUCTS, INC.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

Consolidated Financial Statements and will include income relating to our Venezuelan operations only to the extent that we receive cash for dividends or royalties remitted by Avon Venezuela. As a result of this change in accounting, in the first quarter of 2016 we recorded a loss of approximately $120 in other expense, net. The loss was comprised of $39 in net assets of the Venezuelan business and $81 in accumulated foreign currency translation adjustments within AOCI associated with foreign currency movements before Venezuela was accounted for as a highly inflationary economy. The net assets of the Venezuelan business were comprised of inventories of $24, property, plant and equipment of $15, non-current assets of $11, cash of $5, accounts receivable of $4, and accounts payable and accruals of $20.

In February 2015, the Venezuelan government announced that a new foreign exchange system was created, referred to as the SIMADI exchange ("SIMADI"). SIMADI began operating on February 12, 2015. There were multiple legal mechanisms in Venezuela to exchange currency. As SIMADI represented the rate which better reflected the economics of Avon Venezuela's business activity, in comparison to the other available exchange rates, we concluded that we should utilize the SIMADI exchange rate to remeasure our Venezuelan operations effective February 12, 2015. As a result of the change to the SIMADI rate, which caused the devaluation of approximately 70% as compared to the exchange rate we had used previously, we recorded an after-tax benefit of approximately $3 (a benefit of approximately $4 in other expense, net, and a loss of approximately $1 in income taxes) in the first quarter of 2015, primarily reflecting the write-down of net monetary assets.

Additionally, certain non-monetary assets were carried at their historical U.S. dollar cost subsequent to the devaluation. Therefore, these costs impacted the income statement during 2015 at a disproportionate rate as they were not devalued based on the new exchange rates, but were expensed at their historical U.S. dollar value. As a result of using the historical U.S. dollar cost basis of non-monetary assets, such as inventories, these assets continued to be remeasured, following the change to the SIMADI rate, at the applicable rate at the time of their acquisition. As a result, we determined that an adjustment of approximately $11 to cost of sales was needed to reflect certain non-monetary assets at their net realizable value, which was recorded in the first quarter of 2015. We recognized an additional negative impact of approximately $5 to operating profit and net income relating to these non-monetary assets in the first quarter of 2015.

In addition, at February 12, 2015, we reviewed Avon Venezuela's long-lived assets to determine whether the carrying amount of the assets was recoverable. Based on our expected cash flows associated with the asset group, we determined that the carrying amount of the assets, carried at their historical U.S. dollar cost basis, was not recoverable. As such, an impairment charge of approximately $90 to selling, general and administrative expenses was needed to reflect the write-down of the long-lived assets to estimated fair value of approximately $16, which was recorded in the first quarter of 2015.

Segment Review

We determine segment profit by deducting the related costs and expenses from segment revenue. In order to ensure comparability between periods, segment profit includes an allocation of global marketing expenses based on actual revenues. Segment profit excludes global expenses other than marketing, costs to implement ("CTI") restructuring initiatives, certain significant asset impairment charges, charges related to the devaluations of Venezuela currency, and other items, which are not allocated to a particular segment, if applicable. This is consistent with the manner in which we assess our performance and allocate resources. See Note 10 to the consolidated Financial statements for a reconciliation of segment profit to operating profit.

Total revenue decreased 2% compared to the prior-year period, primarily due to the unfavorable impact from foreign exchange, most significantly the strengthening of the U.S. dollar relative to the Russian ruble and South African Rand. On a Constant $ basis, revenue grew 11%, primarily driven by Eastern Europe and South Africa. The increase in Active Representatives drove the region's Constant $ revenue growth, while average order also increased. The increase in Ending Representatives was driven primarily by growth in Russia and South Africa, partially offset by a decline in the United Kingdom.

In Russia, revenue increased 5%, which was unfavorably impacted by foreign exchange. On a Constant $ basis, Russia's revenue grew 25%, primarily due to an increase in Active Representatives, which continued to benefit from sustained momentum in recruiting and retention, and higher average order, which was driven by pricing. In the United Kingdom, revenue declined 3%, which was unfavorably impacted by foreign exchange. On a Constant $ basis, the United Kingdom's revenue grew 4%, primarily due to an increase in average order which was partially offset by a decrease in Active Representatives. The increase in the United Kingdom's average order was primarily the result of strength in Fashion & Home. While we continue to work on stabilizing field health in the United Kingdom, we expect quarterly revenue growth rates to be inconsistent in this market. In South Africa, revenue declined 8%, which was unfavorably impacted by foreign exchange. On a Constant $ basis, South Africa's revenue grew 24%, due to an increase in Active Representatives and higher average order.

Segment margin increased 1.2 points, or 1.9 points on a Constant $ basis, primarily as a result of:

a net benefit of 2.3 points primarily due to the Constant $ revenue growth with respect to our fixed expenses;

 a decline of 1.7 points due to lower gross margin caused primarily by an estimated 5 points from the unfavorable impact of currency transaction losses. This was partially offset by a benefit of 1.5 points due to lower supply chain costs, including benefits from lower material costs and cost savings initiatives. The net impact of mix and pricing also benefited gross margin by approximately 1.4 points which was primarily driven by Eastern Europe.

Total revenue decreased 28% compared to the prior-year period, due to the unfavorable impact from foreign exchange which was primarily driven by the strengthening of the U.S. dollar relative to most currencies in this segment. On a Constant $ basis, revenue declined 2%. An IPI tax law on cosmetics in Brazil went into effect in May of 2015 and has caused an estimated 4 points negative impact on the region's Constant $ revenue growth. The region's Constant $ revenue growth was also negatively impacted by an estimated 1 point from additional state taxes in Brazil that were implemented in late 2015. The region's Constant $ revenue benefited from higher average order, which was partially offset by a decrease in Active Representatives. The region's Constant $ revenue and higher average order benefited from relatively high inflation in Argentina, as this market's results were impacted by the inflationary impact on pricing. The decrease in Ending Representatives was primarily driven by declines in Brazil. Revenue in Brazil decreased 33%, unfavorably impacted by foreign exchange, or decreased 7% on a Constant $ basis. Revenue in Argentina decreased 26%, unfavorably impacted by foreign exchange. On a Constant $ basis, Argentina's revenue grew 23% which was primarily due to higher average order, partially offset by a decrease in Active Representatives. Argentina contributed approximately 3 points to the regions Constant $ revenue growth.

Brazil's Constant $ revenue decline of 7% was negatively impacted by an estimated 8 points due to the impact of the IPI tax discussed above. The negative impact of the IPI tax and a decrease in Active Representatives was partially offset by higher average order. Revenue in Brazil was also negatively impacted by an estimated 3 points from the additional state taxes discussed above. On a Constant $ basis, Brazil's sales from Beauty products also decreased 10%, negatively impacted by the IPI tax. The IPI tax also negatively impacted Brazil's Beauty units, as we increased prices to partially offset the new tax. On a Constant $ basis, Brazil's sales from Fashion & Home products decreased 5%. Brazil continues to be impacted by a difficult economic environment.

Segment margin decreased 6.1 points, or 5.9 points on a Constant $ basis, primarily as a result of:

a decline of 2.5 points as a result of the IPI tax law on cosmetics in Brazil, which are a reduction of revenue and we have not raised the prices paid by Representatives to the same extent as the IPI tax;

a decline of 1.5 points from higher bad debt expense, primarily due to the macroeconomic environment in Brazil and Argentina; and a decline of 2.0 points from gross margin caused by an estimated 6 points from the unfavorable impact of currency transaction losses, partially offset by approximately 2.5 points from the favorable net impact of mix and pricing and 1.7 points from lower supply chain costs. The favorable net impact of mix and pricing includes the realization of price increases ahead of inflation in Argentina. Supply chain costs benefit primarily as a result of lower material costs.

Argentina Discussion

In 2011, the Argentine government introduced restrictive foreign currency exchange controls. In December 2015, the Argentine government began the process of removing foreign currency exchange controls and, beginning in the first quarter of 2016, Avon Argentina has been able to adequately access foreign currencies, including the U.S. dollar, in order to pay a substantial portion of its non-functional currency obligations.

North Latin America consists largely of the Mexico business. On a Constant $ basis, revenue increased 2%. The region's Constant $ revenue benefited from higher average order, which was partially offset by a decrease in Active Representatives. Revenue in Mexico decreased 15%, unfavorably impacted by foreign exchange. On a Constant $ basis, Mexico's revenue grew 2%, primarily due to higher average order due to strength in Fashion & Home, partially offset by a decrease in Active Representatives. Mexico's Active Representatives and average order measures were both impacted by efforts to improve order quality by increasing minimum order requirements.

Active Representatives decline was impacted by a reduction in the number of sale campaigns in the Philippines. The decrease in Ending Representatives was driven by declines in most markets, partially offset by an increase in the Philippines. Revenue in the Philippines decreased 6%, but was relatively unchanged on a Constant $ basis. The timing of the Easter holiday negatively impacted revenue in the Philippines. We expect the Philippines to return to a mid-single digit revenue growth rate in the second quarter.

- a benefit of 1.0 point due to lower advertising spend, primarily in China.

We are evaluating strategic alternatives for China.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Our principal sources of funds historically have been cash flows from operations, public offerings of notes, bank financings, issuance of commercial paper, borrowings under lines of credit and a private placement of notes. At March 31, 2016, we had cash and cash equivalents totaling approximately $754. We believe that our sources of funding will be sufficient to satisfy our currently anticipated cash requirements through at least the next twelve months. For more information with respect to currency restrictions, see "Segment Review - South Latin America" and "Venezuela Discussion" in this MD&A above, and "Risk Factors - We are subject to financial risks related to our international operations, including exposure to foreign currency fluctuations and the impact of foreign currency restrictions" contained in our 2015 Form 10-K.

We may seek to repurchase our equity or to retire our outstanding debt in open market purchases, privately negotiated transactions, through derivative instruments or otherwise. Repurchases of equity and debt may be funded by the incurrence of additional debt or the issuance of equity (including shares of preferred stock) or convertible securities and will depend on prevailing market conditions, our liquidity requirements, contractual restrictions and other factors, and the amounts involved may be material. We may also elect to incur additional debt or issue equity (including shares of preferred stock) or convertible securities to finance ongoing operations or to meet our other liquidity needs. Any issuances of equity (including shares of preferred stock) or convertible securities could have a dilutive effect on the ownership interest of our current shareholders and may adversely impact earnings per share in future periods. Our credit ratings were downgraded in 2015, which may impact our ability to access such transactions on favorable terms, if at all. For more information, see "Risk Factors - Our credit ratings were downgraded in 2015, which could limit our access to financing, affect the market price of our financing and increase financing costs. A further downgrade in our credit ratings may adversely affect our access to liquidity," "Risk Factors - Our indebtedness could adversely affect us by reducing our flexibility to respond to changing business and economic conditions," and "Risk Factors - A general economic downturn, a recession globally or in one or more of our geographic regions or markets or sudden disruption in business conditions or other challenges may adversely affect our business, our access to liquidity and capital, and our credit ratings" contained in our 2015 Form 10-K.

Our liquidity could also be negatively impacted by restructuring initiatives, dividends, capital expenditures, acquisitions, and certain contingencies, including any legal or regulatory settlements, described more fully in Note 8, Contingencies, to the consolidated financial statements included herein. See our Cautionary Statement for purposes of the "Safe Harbor" Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 contained in this report.

Cash Flows

Net Cash Used by Operating Activities

Net cash used by operating activities during the first three months of 2016 was approximately $191, as compared to net cash used of approximately $178 during the first three months of 2015. The approximate $13 increase to net cash used by operating activities was primarily due to lower cash-related earnings, which were impacted by the unfavorable impact of foreign currency, the contribution to the U.S. pension plan in 2016 of $20, which did not occur in 2015, and higher purchases of inventory. These items were partially offset by the $67 payment to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the FCPA settlement in 2015, which did not occur in 2016.

Net Cash Used by Investing Activities

AVON PRODUCTS, INC.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

Net cash used by investing activities during the first three months of 2016 was approximately $25, as compared to net cash used of approximately $23 during the first three months of 2015.

Net Cash Provided by Financing Activities

Net cash provided by continuing financing activities during the first three months of 2016 was approximately $472 higher than during the first three months of 2015 primarily due to the net proceeds from the sale of Series C Preferred Stock and the suspension of our dividend. See Note 7, Series C Convertible Preferred Shares, to the consolidated financial statements included herein for more information.

We have not declared a quarterly dividend for the first three months of 2016, compared to a quarterly dividend of $.06 per share for the first three months of 2015.

Capital Resources

Revolving Credit Facility

In June 2015, the Company and Avon International Operations, Inc., a wholly-owned domestic subsidiary of the Company ("AIO"), entered into a new five-year $400.0 senior secured revolving credit facility (the "2015 facility"). Borrowings under the 2015 facility bear interest, at our option, at a rate per annum equal to LIBOR plus 250 basis points or a floating base rate plus 150 basis points, in each case subject to adjustment based upon a leverage-based pricing grid. As of March 31, 2016, there were no amounts outstanding under the 2015 facility.

All obligations of AIO under the 2015 facility are (i) unconditionally guaranteed by each material domestic restricted subsidiary of the Company (other than AIO, the borrower), in each case, subject to certain exceptions and (ii) guaranteed on a limited recourse basis by the Company. The obligations of AIO and the guarantors are secured by first priority liens on and security interest in substantially all of the assets of AIO and the subsidiary guarantors and by certain assets of the Company, in each case, subject to certain exceptions.

The 2015 facility will terminate in June 2020; provided, however, that it shall terminate on the 91st day prior to the maturity of the 2018 Notes (as defined below), the 4.20% Notes (as defined below), the 2019 Notes (as defined below) and the 4.60% Notes (as defined below), if on such 91st day, the applicable notes are not redeemed, repaid, discharged, defeased or otherwise refinanced in full.

The 2015 facility contains affirmative and negative covenants, which are customary for secured financings of this type, as well as financial covenants (interest coverage and total leverage ratios). As of March 31, 2016, we were in compliance with our interest coverage and total leverage ratios under the 2015 facility. The amount of the facility available to be drawn down on is reduced by any standby letters of credit granted by AIO. AIO has issued approximately $40 of standby letters of credit. As of March 31, 2016, based on then applicable interest rates, the entire amount of the remaining 2015 facility, which is approximately $360, could have been drawn down without violating any covenant. A continued decline in our business results (including the impact of any adverse foreign exchange movements and significant restructuring charges) may further reduce our borrowing capacity under the 2015 facility or cause us to be non-compliant with our interest coverage and total leverage ratios. If we were to be non-compliant with our interest coverage or total leverage ratio, we would no longer have access to our 2015 facility and our credit ratings may be downgraded. As of March 31, 2016, there were no amounts outstanding under the 2015 facility.

Public Notes

In March 2013, we issued, in a public offering, $500.0 principal amount of 4.60% Notes due March 15, 2020 (the "4.60% Notes"); $500.0 principal amount of 5.00% Notes due March 15, 2023; and $250.0 principal amount of 6.95% Notes due March 15, 2043 (collectively, the "2013 Notes"). Interest on the 2013 Notes is payable semi-annually on March 15 and September 15 of each year.

The indenture governing the 2013 Notes contains interest rate adjustment provisions depending on the long-term credit ratings assigned to the 2013 Notes with S&P and Moody's. As described in the indenture, the interest rates on the 2013 Notes increase by .25% for each one-notch downgrade below investment grade on each of our long-term credit ratings assigned to the 2013 Notes by S&P or Moody's. These adjustments are limited to a total increase of 2% above the respective interest rates in effect on the date of issuance of the 2013 Notes. As a result of the long-term credit rating downgrades by S&P and Moody's in 2014 and 2015, the interest rates on the 2013 Notes increased by a total of 1.75%.

At March 31, 2016, we also have outstanding $250.0 principal amount of our 5.75% Notes due March 1, 2018 (the "2018 Notes"); $250.0 principal amount of our 4.20% Notes due July 15, 2018 (the "4.20% Notes"); and $350.0 principal amount of our 6.50% Notes due March 1, 2019 (the "2019 Notes"), with interest on each series of these Notes payable semi-annually.

AVON PRODUCTS, INC.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

The indentures governing our outstanding notes described above contain certain customary covenants and customary events of default and cross-default provisions. Further, we would be required to make an offer to repurchase all of our outstanding notes described above, with the exception of our 4.20% Notes, at a price equal to 101% of their aggregate principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest in the event of a change in control involving Avon and a corresponding credit ratings downgrade to below investment grade.

Series C Preferred Stock

On March 1, 2016, we issued and sold to Cerberus Investor 435,000 shares of newly issued Series C Preferred Stock for an aggregate purchase price of $435.0. Cumulative preferred dividends accrue daily on the Series C Preferred Stock and are payable at a rate of 1.25% per quarter (net of any dividends on the Company's common stock and subject to increase up to a maximum rate of 5.00% per quarter if the Company breaches certain obligations). Except to the extent not otherwise previously paid by the Company, preferred dividends are payable on the seventh anniversary of the issuance date of the Series C Preferred Stock as and when declared by the Board of Directors and at the end of each quarter thereafter. For a description of additional terms of the Series C Preferred Stock, including the change of control put, see Note 7, Series C Convertible Preferred Stock, to the consolidated financial statements included herein.

Long-Term Credit Ratings

Our long-term credit ratings are Ba2 (Negative Outlook) for corporate family debt, and Ba3 (Negative Outlook) for senior unsecured debt, with Moody's; B (Stable Outlook) with S&P; and B+ (Negative Outlook) with Fitch, which are below investment grade. We do not believe these long-term credit ratings will have a material impact on our near-term liquidity. However, any rating agency reviews could result in a change in outlook or downgrade, which could further limit our access to new financing, particularly short-term financing, reduce our flexibility with respect to working capital needs, affect the market price of some or all of our outstanding debt securities, and likely result in an increase in financing costs, including interest expense under certain of our debt instruments, and less favorable covenants and financial terms under our financing arrangements. For more information, see "Risk Factors - A general economic downturn, a recession globally or in one or more of our geographic regions or markets, such as Russia, or sudden disruption in business conditions or other challenges may adversely affect our business, our access to liquidity and capital, and our credit ratings," "Risk Factors - Our credit ratings were downgraded in 2014, which could limit our access to financing, affect the market price of our financing and increase financing costs. A further downgrade in our credit ratings may adversely affect our access to liquidity, and our working capital," and "Risk Factors - Our indebtedness could adversely affect us by reducing our flexibility to respond to changing business and economic conditions" contained in our 2015 Form 10-K.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT STRATEGIES

Interest Rate Risk

In the past we have used interest-rate swaps to manage our interest rate exposure. The interest-rate swaps were used to either convert our fixed rate borrowing to a variable interest rate or to unwind an existing variable interest-rate swap on a fixed rate borrowing. As of March 31, 2016, we do not have any interest-rate swap agreements. Approximately 3% and approximately 2% of our debt portfolio at March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, respectively, was exposed to floating interest rates.

Foreign Currency Risk

We conduct business globally, with operations in various locations around the world. Over the past three years, all of our consolidated revenue was derived from operations of subsidiaries outside of the U.S.. The functional currency for most of our foreign operations is their local currency. We may reduce our exposure to fluctuations in cash flows associated with changes in foreign exchange rates by creating offsetting positions, including through the use of derivative financial instruments.

Based on the evaluation we conducted, our management has concluded that no such changes have occurred.
