Item 9. Regulation FD Disclosure.

The following information is included in this document as a result of Expeditors' policy regarding public disclosure of corporate information. Answers to additional inquiries, if any, that comply with this policy are scheduled to become available on October 26, 2001.

SELECTED INQUIRES RECEIVED THROUGH OCTOBER 15, 2001

1. I am an individual investor with a significant investment in Expeditors and analyze your 10Qs and 8Ks on a regular basis. Recently I have experienced difficulty accessing your web site and have had my email returned as undeliverable, therefore have submitted this inquiry via fax. I apologize for any inconvenience.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDITORS INTERNATIONAL OF WASHINGTON INC - Form 8-K

We are the ones who need to apologize for your inconvenience. Thank you, however for persevering and forwarding your question by fax.

The last month has been a time of great uncertainty. As a result, we spent a great deal of time re-evaluating the security of incoming electronic messages into our network. We had an issue arise that highlighted that some of our SPAM filters needed to be upgraded. Our first hint of problems came when a number of employees in one of our major offices on the West Coast began receiving unsolicited pornographic SPAM. Our technicians jumped to the rescue and strengthened our security filters to insure that no more pornographic e-mails could enter our system. In the process of filtering out the pornographers, we also filtered out the investment bankers who submit questions to our investor@expeditors.com investor box. We can assure you that this was inadvertent, because it should go without saying that we hold investment bankers in higher esteem than pornographers. Actually they made the box so secure that no one outside of Expeditors got in.

In our view, fair disclosure means fair disclosure, so in the name of fair disclosure, and having been assured by our technicians that they have re-opened the investor box (again investor@expeditors.com) we are extending our deadline to submit questions until end of business on Tuesday, October 23rd. We suggest that you resubmit any questions you had previously attempted to send since the last 8K filing. We will publish responses to the selected questions on Friday, October 26, 2001.

You, and anyone else who cannot access our web site, or who have no computer, are free to fax in your questions to: Investor Questions (206) 674-3459. If you don't have a fax machine available, you can send your questions to:

Expeditors International of Washington, Inc.
Office of the Chief Financial Officer
Investor Questions
1015 Third Avenue, Suite 1200
Seattle, WA 98104

We will answer your specific question next Friday when we answer those submitted by everyone else.
