Vale signs new long-term contract with Corus

Rio de Janeiro, October 15, 2008 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (Vale) announces that it has signed a new long-term contract with Corus UK Ltd (Corus) to supply iron ore to its plants in Europe.

Under this long-term contract, which is one of the largest ever signed between a steel company and an iron ore supplier, Vale will supply approximately 63 million metric tons of iron ore to Corus's plants over the next five years. This contract is aligned with Vale's and Corus's desire to further strengthen their relationship that started in 1942, the same year of Vale's foundation. Additionally, it highlights Vale's unique capability as a long-term reliable supplier of high quality iron ore, given its large-scale operations and excellence.

This press release may include declarations that present Vale's expectations in relation to future events or results. All declarations, when based upon future expectations and not on historical facts involve various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such declarations will come to be correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) countries where we operate, mainly Brazil and Canada; (b) global economy; (c) capital markets; (d) iron ore and nickel businesses and their dependence upon the global steel industry, which is cyclical by nature; (e) high degree of global competition in the markets which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may give origin to results different from those forecasted by Vale, please consult the reports filed with the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission (CVM), the Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including the most recent Annual Report Vale Form 20F and 6K forms.
