ITEM 8.01 Other Events.

In connection with the filing of a registration statement on Form S-3 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission), Discovery Communications, Inc. (Discovery or the Company) is filing this Current Report on Form 8-K to revise portions of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008 filed with the Commission on February 26, 2009 (the 2008 Form 10-K) to reflect, for all periods presented, the retrospective adoption, effective January 1, 2009, of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statement No. 160, Non-controlling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements, an Amendment of ARB No. 51 (FAS 160) and Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) Issue No. 07-1, Accounting for Collaborative Arrangements (EITF 07-1).

FAS 160 establishes accounting and reporting standards for the non-controlling interest in a subsidiary, commonly referred to as minority interest. Among other matters, FAS 160 requires that non-controlling interests be reported within the equity section of the balance sheet and that the amounts of consolidated net income or loss and consolidated comprehensive income or loss attributable to the parent company and the non-controlling interests are clearly presented separately in the consolidated financial statements. Also, pursuant to FAS 160, where appropriate, losses will be allocated to non-controlling interests even when that allocation may result in a deficit equity balance. While the accounting provisions of FAS 160 are being applied prospectively beginning January 1, 2009, the presentation and disclosure requirements have been applied retrospectively. Upon adoption of FAS 160, the Company reclassified minority interests in its consolidated balance sheet from other noncurrent liabilities to the equity section. Additionally, the Company changed the way non-controlling interests are presented within the consolidated statement of operations such that the statement of operations reflects results attributable to both the Company's interests and non-controlling interests. The results attributable to the Company's interests did not change upon the adoption of FAS 160.

EITF 07-1 defines collaborative arrangements and establishes accounting and reporting requirements for transactions between participants in the arrangement and third parties. A collaborative arrangement is defined as a contractual arrangement that involves a joint operating activity, such as an agreement to co-produce and distribute programming with another media company. The provisions of EITF 07-1 are being applied retrospectively to all collaborative arrangements in place as of the effective date. Upon adoption of EITF 07-1, the Company included additional disclosures regarding its accounting policy for and amounts attributable to collaborative arrangements. The Company's accounting for collaborative arrangements did not change upon the adoption of EITF 07-1.

The adoption of FAS 160 and EITF 07-1 were previously reflected in the Company's most recent Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2009 filed with the Commission on May 4, 2009 (the March 2009 Form 10-Q).

This Form 8-K is also being filed by Discovery to include a note in the Company's March 2009 Form 10-Q and the 2008 Form 10-K with condensed consolidating financial information reflecting the consolidation of Discovery with Discovery Communications, LLC (DCL), Discovery Communications Holding, LLC (DCH) (DCL and DCH are 100% owned subsidiaries of the Company), and the direct and indirect non-guarantor subsidiaries of Discovery as of March 31, 2009, December 31, 2008 and 2007, for the three months ended March 31, 2009 and 2008, and for each year in the three-year period ended December 31, 2008. This condensed consolidating financial information is being provided in connection with the shelf registration of certain fully and unconditionally guaranteed debt securities.

The following section of the March 2009 Form 10-Q is being filed to include condensed consolidating financial information (such section is filed as an Exhibit hereto and hereby incorporated by reference herein):

Part I Item 1. Financial Statements.

The following sections of the 2008 Form 10-K are being filed to reflect the retrospective adoption of FAS 160 and EITF 07-1, to include condensed consolidating financial information and certain additional disclosures (such sections are filed as Exhibits hereto and hereby incorporated by reference herein):

Part II Item 6. Selected Financial Data.

Part II Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Part II Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data.

The Company has included the entire text of the affected sections. No sections of the 2008 Form 10-K or the March 2009 Form 10-Q other than those identified above are being revised by this filing. Information in the 2008 Form 10-K is generally stated as of December 31, 2008 and this filing does not reflect any subsequent information or events other than the adoption of the accounting pronouncements and the addition of the condensed consolidating financial information described above. Similarly, information in the March 2009 Form 10-Q is generally stated as of March 31, 2009 and this filing does not reflect any subsequent information or events other than the addition of the condensed consolidating financial information described above. Without limitation of the foregoing, this filing does not purport to update the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations contained in the 2008 Form 10-K or the March 2009 Form 10-Q for any information, uncertainties, transactions, risks, events or trends occurring, or known to management. More current information is included in the Company's other filings with the Commission. This Current Report on Form 8-K should be read in conjunction with the 2008 Form 10-K, the March 2009 Form 10-Q and the Company's other filings. Other filings contain important information regarding events, developments and updates to certain expectations of the Company that have occurred since the filing of the 2008 Form 10-K and the March 2009 Form 10-Q.
