Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Upon completion of the separation discussed in Item 7.01 below, ConocoPhillips CEO Jim Mulva intends to retire.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On July 14, 2011, ConocoPhillips (the Company) announced that its board of directors has approved pursuing the separation of the Company's Refining & Marketing and Exploration & Production businesses into two stand-alone, publicly traded corporations via a tax-free spin of the Refining and Marketing business to the Company's shareholders. The separation is subject to market conditions, customary regulatory approvals, the receipt of an affirmative IRS ruling, the execution of separation and intercompany agreements and final board approval, and is expected to be completed in the first half of 2012. A copy of the press release regarding the proposed spin-off is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

A conference call and webcast at which the planned spin-off was discussed was held on July 14, 2011, at 8:30 a.m. eastern time. A copy of the presentation from that meeting is furnished as Exhibit 99.2 hereto and incorporated herein by reference. A copy of the presentation and a transcript of the conference call will also be available for a limited time on the ConocoPhillips IR website, www.conocophillips.com/investor.

The information in Item 7.01 is being furnished, not filed. Accordingly, the information in this Item 7.01 will not be incorporated by reference into any registration statement filed by ConocoPhillips under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, unless specifically identified therein as being incorporated therein by reference. The furnishing of the information in this report is not intended to, and does not, constitute a determination or admission by ConocoPhillips that (i) the information in this report is material or complete or (ii) investors should consider this information before making an investment decision with respect to any security of ConocoPhillips or any of its affiliates.
