Corporate Governance

General: The Board believes that good corporate governance is important so that the Company is managed for the long-term benefit of its Shareholders. The Board at least annually reviews its corporate governance practices and policies as set forth in its Corporate Governance Guidelines, Code of Ethics and various Committee charters, each of which is regularly updated.

You can access our Corporate Governance Guidelines, Code of Ethics and charters for each of our three Board Committees in the Investor Relations People and Governance section of our website at www.championhomes.com, or by writing to:

John J. Collins, Jr.
Secretary
Champion Enterprises, Inc.
2701 Cambridge Court, Suite 300
Auburn Hills, Michigan 48326

Nomination of Directors: The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, in accordance with its charter and the Board's governance principles, seeks to select a Board that is, as a whole, strong in its collective knowledge and diversity of skills and experience concerning accounting and finance, management and leadership, vision and strategy, business operations, business judgment, risk assessment, industry knowledge, and corporate governance. When reviewing a potential candidate, the Committee looks specifically at the candidate's qualifications in light of the needs of the Board and the Company at that time given the then current mix of director attributes.

In considering whether to recommend any candidate for inclusion as a Director nominee, the Committee will apply the criteria set forth in the Corporate Governance Guidelines and in applicable Committee charters. These criteria include the candidate's character and integrity, business acumen, experience inside and outside of the business community, personal commitment, diligence, conflicts of interest and the ability to act in the balanced, best interests of the Shareholders as a whole rather than special interest groups or constituencies. In addition, the Company strives to have all Directors, other than the Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer, be independent as that term is defined in NYSE rules.

The Committee will consider nominations submitted by Shareholders. To recommend a Director nominee, a Shareholder should write to the Company's Secretary at the above address. To be considered by the Committee for nomination and inclusion in the Company's Proxy Statement for its 2007

Annual Meeting of Shareholders, a recommendation for a Director must be received by the Company's Secretary no later than November 3, 2006. Any recommendation must include (i) the name and address of the candidate, (ii) a brief biographical description, including his or her occupation for at least the last five years, and a statement of the qualifications of the candidate, taking into account the qualification requirements summarized above, and (iii) the candidate's signed consent to be named in the Proxy Statement and to serve as a Director if elected. The Committee may seek additional biographical and background information from any candidate. This information must be received on a timely basis to be considered by the Committee.

The process followed by the Committee to identify and evaluate candidates includes requests to Board members and others for recommendations, use of a search firm or outside consultant, meetings from time to time to evaluate biographical information and background material relating to potential candidates, and interviews of selected candidates by members of the Committee and the Board. Assuming the appropriate biographical and background material is provided for candidates submitted by Shareholders, the Committee will evaluate those candidates by following substantially the same process, and applying substantially the same criteria, as for candidates submitted by Board members. All Director nominees recommended for election by the Shareholders at the 2006 Annual Meeting are current members of the Board. Mr. Weiss and Mr. Madden were recommended to the Directors for consideration to fill new positions on Champion's Board by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Committee did not receive any nominations from Shareholders for the 2006 Annual Meeting.

Director Independence:

The Board has determined that all Director nominees for election at the 2006 Annual Meeting, other than the Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, are independent in that such nominees have no material relationship with the Company either directly or indirectly or as a partner, shareholder or affiliate of an organization that has a relationship with the Company. The Board has made this determination based on the fact that no nominee for Director, other than Mr. Griffiths: is an officer or employee of the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates; has an immediate family member who is an officer of the Company or its subsidiaries or has any current or past material relationship with the Company; has worked for, consulted with, been retained by, or received anything of substantial value from the Company aside from his or her compensation as a Director; is, or was within the past three years, employed by the independent auditors for the Company; is an executive officer of any entity which the Company's annual sales to, or purchases from, exceeded one percent of either entity's annual revenues for the last fiscal year; or serves as a director, trustee, executive officer or similar position of a charitable or non-profit organization to which the Company or its subsidiaries made charitable contributions or payments in the last fiscal year in excess of two percent of the organization's charitable receipts. In addition, no executive officer of the Company serves on the compensation committee of any corporation that employs a Director or a member of the immediate family of any Director.

Lead Independent Director:

On March 9, 2006 the Board adopted a Lead Independent Director Charter and elected Selwyn Isakow to serve as Lead Independent Director. The principal role of the Lead Independent Director is to promote open and effective communications among the non-management members of the Board of Directors and between those non-management Directors and the management of the Company, including in particular the Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer.

You can access the Lead Independent Director Charter in the Investor Relations People and Governance section of our website at www.championhomes.com, or by writing to:

2701 Cambridge Court, Suite 300
Auburn Hills, Michigan 48326

Shareholder Communications with Directors:

The Board has established a process for Shareholders to communicate with members of the Board. The Lead Independent Director, with the assistance of the Company's Secretary, will be primarily responsible for monitoring communications from Shareholders and providing copies or summaries of such communications to the other Directors, as he or she considers appropriate. Communications will be forwarded to all Directors if they relate to appropriate matters and may include suggestions or comments from the Lead Independent Director. In general, communications relating to corporate governance and long-term corporate strategy are more likely to be forwarded than communications relating to personal grievances and matters as to which the Company tends to receive repetitive or duplicative communications. Shareholders who wish to send communications to the Board may do so by writing to:

Lead Independent Director
c/o the Secretary
Champion Enterprises, Inc.
2701 Cambridge Court, Suite 300
Auburn Hills, Michigan 48326

Attendance Policy: The Board's policy is that all Directors should attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders if reasonably possible. All members of the Board at the time of the meeting attended the 2005 Annual Meeting.

Director Evaluation: The Board conducts annual performance evaluations of the Board as a whole, the performance of each of the Board members individually, and the performance of each of the Board's Committees.

Executive Session Presiding Director: The presiding Director for executive sessions of the Board is the Lead Independent Director.

Code of Ethics: The Company has a Code of Ethics that applies to all of its employees, officers and Directors. The Code of Ethics, as currently in effect (together with any amendments that may be adopted from time to time), is posted in the Investor Relations People and Governance section of the Company's website at www.championhomes.com. Amendments to, and any waiver from, any provision of the Code of Ethics that requires disclosure under applicable SEC rules will be posted on the Company's website.

To assist in its development of compensation policies, the Committee:

retains an independent consultant from time to time to make recommendations based on its expertise in compensation arrangements for senior executive officers of general manufacturing companies with annual sales comparable to the Company's. The Committee also retains independent legal counsel; and considers the executive compensation levels for generally comparable manufacturing companies and other manufactured housing companies, including those in the Performance Graph on page 23, to the extent relevant in terms of business scope and operations.

Annual Base Salaries: Salaries are based on level of job responsibility, individual performance, work experience, and skill level and compensation data for comparable companies obtained from consultant and market surveys. The objective for executive base salaries is that they be competitive, as adjusted for individual considerations, and generally at the median of comparable companies.

In December 2005, Champion's Compensation and Human Resources Committee increased the base salaries of Champion's executive officers effective January 1, 2006.

Annual Performance Incentives: Annual performance incentives are provided through cash bonuses based on the achievement of performance goals, which are established by the Committee at the start of each fiscal year. During 2005, performance goals were related to cash earnings and cash return on investment.

We believe the Company's performance in 2005 was outstanding considering the factors noted above, and the Company's executive officers received the maximum attainable cash bonuses in February 2006.

Long-Term Performance Incentives: Prior to 2003, stock options were the primary long-term incentives for executive officers. In 2003 stock options were largely replaced by performance shares due to share dilution considerations, general trends in long-term incentive programs, the Company's refocused business strategy, a desire to more closely tie long-term compensation to performance, and the pending accounting charges for stock options.

On November 22, 2004 long-term incentive awards were made to executive officers in the form of performance shares for 2005, and certain executive officers also received restricted stock. The performance shares fully vest only if three-year (2005-2007) financial targets are met and the executive remains employed by the Company until the 2007 results are finalized in early 2008. The restricted stock vests ratably on each award date anniversary beginning November 22, 2005 through November 22, 2009 provided the executive is employed by the Company on each of the vesting dates. No long-term incentive awards were made to any executive officers during the 2005 fiscal year.

On January 6, 2006 long-term incentive awards were made to the executive officers in the form of performance shares for 2006. The performance share awards were for a total of 275,000 shares of Company Common Stock awarded to Mrs. Knight and Messrs. Griffiths, Collins, Williams, Nugent and Hevelhorst. These shares vest only if certain financial targets are met over a three-year period (2006-2008) and the executive remains employed by the Company until the 2008 results are finalized in early 2009.

The level of long-term performance incentives is determined primarily through the use of guidelines provided by an independent consultant using a nationwide database and are designed to be consistent with general industry practices.

Policy On Deductibility Of Compensation: Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits to $1 million the corporate tax deduction for compensation paid to certain executive officers unless the compensation is based on nondiscretionary, pre-established performance goals. The Committee believes that it has taken appropriate actions to preserve the deductibility of the majority of annual incentive bonuses and stock-based compensation awarded as long-term performance incentives. However, the Committee also recognizes the need to retain flexibility to make compensation decisions that may not meet Section 162(m) standards to enable the Company to attract, retain and motivate highly-qualified executives. The Committee therefore reserves the authority to approve non-deductible compensation in appropriate circumstances. Also, because of ambiguities and uncertainties as to the application and interpretation of Section 162(m) and the related regulations and guidance, no assurance can be given that compensation intended by us to satisfy the requirements for deductibility under Section 162(m) will in fact do so.

Executive Officer
Stock Ownership
Requirement:

Effective January 1, 2004, executive officers are required to attain a certain minimum level of Company Common Stock ownership depending on the position held. Any such officers receiving stock compensation are required to retain and not sell at least fifty percent of the after tax shares received until those minimum Company Common Stock ownership levels are achieved. The current minimum Company Common Stock ownership levels for executive officers are:

CEO: 250,000 shares

Tier 1: 75,000 shares

Tier 2: 25,000 shares

Tier 1 officers include the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, the Senior Vice President and General Counsel, and the Vice President Operations. Tier 2 officers include the Vice President Human Resources and the Vice President and Controller. The Company's General Counsel monitors executive officer share ownership and reports to the Committee annually on stock ownership levels and compliance.

Chief Executive Officer
Compensation:

Mr. Griffiths, the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, joined Champion on August 1, 2004. Pursuant to his Employment Agreement, as amended, Mr. Griffiths receives an annual base salary of $675,000 and is eligible for an annual incentive bonus of between 0% and 200% of his base salary (as determined by the Compensation Committee) upon the attainment of one or more pre-established performance goals set by the Board or the Compensation Committee.

Pursuant to the Company's 1995 Stock Option and Incentive Plan and as an inducement to join the Company, Mr. Griffiths received a stock option grant, a restricted stock award and a performance share award. The stock option, which is for 100,000 shares of Company Common Stock, has an exercise price of $9.73 per share (the fair market value of the Common Stock on the grant date), becomes exercisable at a rate of 33% per year on each of the first three anniversaries of the grant date and remains exercisable for a period of five years from the grant date. The restricted stock award is for 61,665 shares of Company Common Stock valued at $600,000 on the award date. This award will vest on August 1, 2007 subject to Mr. Griffiths' continued employment with the Company through such date. The performance share award is for 61,665 shares of Company Common Stock that will vest if specified earnings per share targets from July 4, 2004 through December 30, 2006 have been attained and Mr. Griffiths remains employed by the Company through August 1, 2007.

On November 22, 2004 Mr. Griffiths received a 2005 performance share award of 110,000 shares that will vest if certain financial targets are met over a three-year period (2005-2007) and he remains employed by the Company until the 2007 results are finalized in early 2008. These shares were awarded pursuant to the Company's 1995 Stock Option and Incentive Plan.

On January 6, 2006 Mr. Griffiths received a 2006 performance share award of 110,000 shares that will vest if certain financial targets are met over a three-year period (2006-2008) and he remains employed by the Company until the 2008 results are finalized in early 2009. These shares were awarded pursuant to the 2005 Equity Compensation and Incentive Plan.

Mr. Griffiths' total base salary for 2005 was $600,000. His incentive bonus for 2005 was $1,200,000, based on the attainment of specified performance targets related to cash earnings and cash return on investment. Effective January 1, 2006, Mr. Griffiths' base salary was increased to $675,000 per year. In the event that Mr. Griffiths' employment is terminated prior to August 1, 2006 by the Company for cause or by Mr. Griffiths without good reason, Mr. Griffiths would be required to repay the $200,000 sign-on bonus he received from the Company in 2004.
