(c) On February 11, 2008, Lear Corporation ( Lear ) issued a press release announcing that Louis R. Salvatore has been appointed President, Global Seating Systems, and Raymond E. Scott has been named President, Global Electrical and Electronic Systems, both effective immediately. In their new roles, Mr. Salvatore and Mr. Scott will continue to report to Lear Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President, Bob Rossiter.

Mr. Scott, 42, was previously Senior Vice President and President of Lear's North American Seating Systems Group, a position he has held since August of 2006. Since joining Lear in 1988, he has held a series of increasingly responsible positions at Lear, both in Europe and in the U.S., including Senior Vice President and President of Lear's North American Customer Group; President of Lear's European Customer Focused Division; President of the General Motors and Fiat Customer Focused Divisions; Vice President and General Manager of Lear GM-Europe; and Vice President of Operations for Lear-Saab.

Mr. Salvatore, 52, was previously Senior Vice President and President of Lear's Global Asian Operations/Customers, a position he has held since August 2005. He began his career with Lear in 1996 as Vice President of Global Purchasing and has held various positions of increasing responsibility including President Global Ford Division, President DaimlerChrysler Division and President of Lear's North American Electrical/Electronic and Interior Divisions. Prior to joining Lear, Mr. Salvatore held a number of manufacturing, finance, engineering and purchasing roles during a 14-year career with Ford Motor Company.
