(Attach extra Sheets if Needed)

Willbros Group, Inc. (the "Company") is filing Form 12b-25 because it needs additional time to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K, which is due on March 16, 2005. The primary reason for the delay is the ongoing independent investigation by the Company's Audit Committee into facts and circumstances surrounding the activities of a former senior executive, which included the filing of improper tax returns in Bolivia, undisclosed related party transactions, and other irregularities, and the resulting restatement of the Company's financial statements for the years 2002, 2003 and the first three quarters of 2004. In addition, the Company has not finalized its assessment of internal controls over financial reporting required by Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

The Company is currently evaluating the information it has obtained regarding the activities of its former executive and the potential impact those activities may have on its financial position at December 31, 2004. Because the independent investigation is still ongoing, management cannot yet determine its potential financial impact.

EXPLANATION REFERRED TO IN PART IV, ITEM (3) OF FORM 12B-25

The Company is currently evaluating the information it has obtained regarding the activities of its former executive and the potential impact those activities may have on its financial position at December 31, 2004. Because the independent investigation discussed in Part III of this Form 12b-25 is still ongoing, management cannot yet determine its financial impact. Moreover, the Company will restate its financial results for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2003, and the first three quarters of 2004. Although the Company anticipates that its 2004 Form 10-K will include significant changes in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year, as of the date of this filing, the Company is unable, without unreasonable effort and expense, to provide a narrative or quantitative assessment of those changes.
