Energy Transfer Partners, L.P. (NYSE: ETP) and Energy Transfer Equity, L.P. (NYSE: ETE) today announced that Kelcy Warren, Chief Executive Officer, will make a presentation at a conference for analysts being held in Dallas, Texas on November 19, 2008. In his presentation, which is scheduled to begin at 3:00 p.m. (CST), Mr. Warren anticipates discussing ETP's financial and operating results for 2008, the status of certain capital projects and ETP's outlook for 2009. In conjunction with the conference, ETP management will meet with analysts to discuss the information presented, which is anticipated to include the following:

Financial results for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2008;

Completion of various capital projects and the status of the ETP Enogex Partners, Midcontinent Express Pipeline, and Fayetteville Express Pipeline joint venture projects; and EBITDA and capital expenditure guidance for the remainder of 2008 and 2009.

Prior to the presentations, interested parties will be able to view the prepared materials to be presented by visiting our web site at: <http://www.energytransfer.com> under Presentations. ETP does not undertake to update the information as posted on its website; however, it may post additional information included in future press releases and Forms 8-K, as well as posting its periodic Exchange Act reports.

This report may include certain statements concerning expectations for the future that are forward-looking statements as defined by federal law. Such forward-looking statements are subject to a variety of known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors that are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond management's control. An extensive list of factors that can affect future results are discussed in ETP's Annual Report on Form 10-K and other documents filed from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission. ETP undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement to reflect new information or events.
