Item 8.01. OTHER EVENTS

On May 30, 2008, Proliance International, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release , attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1, announcing that it had eliminated the over-advance on its credit facility as required by amendments to its credit agreement and that it had received a third preliminary insurance advance, in the amount of $10.7 million, related to automotive and light truck heat exchange inventory damaged by tornadoes and storms on February 5, 2008 at the Company s central distribution facility in Southaven, Mississippi (the Southaven Casualty). The additional insurance proceeds, along with cash generated by operations were applied in accordance with the Company s credit agreement to eliminate the borrowing base overadvance. The Company had previously received $21 million of preliminary insurance advances.

The Company is in the process of securing additional insurance advances with respect to the Southaven Casualty. The Company s insurance policy covers losses of property and business interruption up to $80 million, which the Company believes should provide sufficient coverage with respect to the Southaven Casualty and related expenses.
