Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On June 15, 2007, IntercontinentalExchange, Inc., a Delaware corporation (ICE), entered into a License Agreement For Index-Related Derivative Products (the Agreement) with the Frank Russell Company (Russell) under which Russell granted ICE the exclusive rights to list futures contracts and options on futures based on the full range of Russell s benchmark U.S. equity indexes. The New York Board of Trade (NYBOT), ICE s U.S. regulated futures exchange, currently trades futures and options on futures on the Russell 1000, Russell 2000 and Russell 3000, including certain mini and full-size contracts, as well as the Russell 1000 Growth and Russell 1000 Value Indexes and the Russell 2000 Growth and Russell 2000 Value Indexes.

Pursuant to the Agreement, ICE and its affiliates have the exclusive right to list one or more financial products derived from the Russell U.S. indexes. The term of the Agreement is for seven (7) years and the Agreement will automatically renew for successive one (1) year periods unless terminated by either party. ICE will pay Russell $50.0 million for the exclusive rights under the Agreement and will also make annual royalty payments to Russell based on the annual volume of contracts traded, subject to certain minimum annual royalty payments. Beginning three years after the effective date of the Agreement, ICE will be required to maintain a minimum level of average trading volume per quarter to preserve the exclusive rights granted to it under the Agreement. The Agreement is conditioned upon the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended.

The Agreement is attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.1 and a copy of the related press release is attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1, both of which are incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing description of the Agreement is not purported to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, and should be read in conjunction with, the text of the Agreement.
