ITEM 4. Purpose of the Transaction

The information contained in Item 4 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following information:

On July 15, 2001, the Company, Mr. Diller, Universal and Liberty entered into a Letter Agreement. The Letter Agreement was entered into, in part, to permit Universal to maintain, through open market purchases, its percentage ownership in the Company. Under the Letter Agreement, the Company and Liberty consented to the increase, through open market purchases, in the beneficial ownership by Universal of the Company's equity securities, including equity securities owned, directly or indirectly, as of the date of the Letter Agreement, to up to an aggregate of 50.1%. Notwithstanding this Letter Agreement, Universal would have the right under the existing Universal/Liberty/USA agreements entered into in 1997 to increase its beneficial ownership of the Company's equity securities to 50.1% starting on February 12, 2002. In connection with such consent, Universal also waived its preemptive rights under the existing Universal/Liberty/USA agreements in connection with the proposed acquisition of a controlling interest in Expedia, Inc. by the Company (the "Proposed Acquisition").

Under the Letter Agreement, pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement, Universal consented to the increase, through open market purchases, in the beneficial ownership by Liberty of additional equity securities of the Company in order to permit Liberty to maintain its proportionate equity interest in the Company vis-a-vis Universal in the same proportions as existed on the date of the Letter Agreement and after giving effect to any purchases of equity securities by Liberty pursuant to the exercise of its preemptive rights under the Transaction Agreements triggered by the Proposed Acquisition, but Liberty may make such open market purchases in reliance on Universal's consent only to the extent that Universal's equity interest in the Company increases during the period from the date of the Letter Agreement until February 12, 2002 as a result of open market purchases by Universal permitted under the Letter Agreement.

Each Reporting Person reserves the right, depending on market conditions and other factors, and subject to any restrictions described in Item 6 or contained in the agreements attached as Exhibits hereto or incorporated by reference herein, to purchase, directly or indirectly, additional shares of Common Stock in the open market or in private transactions. Alternatively, depending on market conditions and other factors, and subject to any restrictions described in Item 6 or contained in the agreements attached as Exhibits hereto or incorporated by reference herein, each Reporting Person reserves the right to sell, directly or indirectly, all or some of its shares of Common Stock.

Except as described in Item 6 or contained in the agreements attached

The information contained in Item 6 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following information:

On July 15, 2001, the Company, Mr. Diller, Universal and Liberty entered into a Letter Agreement. The Letter Agreement was entered into, in part, to permit Universal to maintain, through open market purchases, its percentage ownership in the Company. Under the Letter Agreement, the Company and Liberty consented to the increase, through open market purchases, in the beneficial ownership by Universal of the Company's equity securities, including equity securities owned, directly or indirectly, as of the date of the Letter Agreement, to up to an aggregate of 50.1%. Notwithstanding this Letter Agreement, Universal would have the right under the existing Universal/Liberty/USA agreements entered into in 1997 to increase its beneficial ownership of the Company's equity securities to 50.1% starting on February 12, 2002.
