Item 8.01. Other Events

1. Conversion/Redemption of the PPGI Series B 10% Convertible Preferred Stock

Photonic Products Group, Inc. (PPGI, the Company) previously announced on October 26, 2007, that holders of 75% of the Company's Series B 10% Convertible Preferred Stock (the Series B) had notified the Company they were exercising their right to convert their preferred shares into PPGI common shares at the specified conversion price of $2.50 per share. In the aggregate, these holders represent 1,560 shares with a liquidation preference of $1,560,000 of the total of 2,082 shares or $2,082,000 of the total Series B issued and outstanding and are convertible into 624,000 shares of PPGI common stock.

The Company subsequently issued a call for the redemption of the remaining 522 shares of the Series B and a liquidation value of $522,000, with a redemption date of November 29, 2007. The holders of these shares had the option of converting their shares into PPGI common shares at the specified conversion price of $2.50 per share. Nine of the remaining Series B shareholders elected to convert into common shares. One remaining Series B shareholder has elected to redeem shares for cash and a final stock dividend accrued to the redemption date.

In summary, the results from both the initial voluntary conversions and from the Company's subsequent recall of the remaining shares are as follows:

Of the 2,082 Series B preferred shares issued and outstanding, holders representing 2,032 shares or approximately 98% elected to convert their preference shares to common shares of the Company. The holder of the remaining 50 shares or 2% elected to redeem their Series B shares for cash and payment of an accrued stock dividend. In total, the liquidation of the Series B will result in the issuance of 812,800 shares of common stock through conversion, and a cash payment of $50,000 and accrued final stock dividend of 1,332 shares of common stock upon redemption.

2. Re-payment of Promissory Note

In furtherance of its initiative to reduce its indebtedness, the Company announced it will pre-pay, in full, the outstanding balance of its 6.75% note to Clarex Limited in the amount of approximately $554,600 along with accrued interest of $1,740. Payment will be made on or about November 29, 2007.
