ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On March 16, 2007, upon recommendation of the Board of Directors of HEICO Corporation (the "Company"), the shareholders approved the HEICO Corporation 2007 Incentive Compensation Plan (the "Incentive Plan"), a copy of which is attached as Exhibit No. 10.1 to this Form 8-K and the terms of which are hereby incorporated herein by reference below.

The Incentive Plan will provide to senior members of the Company's management team who are executive officers the opportunity to earn cash annual and long-term incentive awards and will enable the Company to claim tax deductions for incentive awards earned and paid under the Incentive Plan without limitation under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Board of Directors regards the Incentive Plan as an important means by which we can link executive pay to performance. By providing for competitive levels of incentive compensation in a program that is fully tax deductible by the Company, the Incentive Plan will serve as a useful tool for attracting and retaining members of our senior management team. Employees who are or may be promoted to executive officers are eligible for selection for participation in the Incentive Plan.

Awards under the Incentive Plan will be granted in the discretion of the Compensation Committee. Except as described below, the recipients and other terms of such awards cannot be determined at this time.

The Compensation Committee has authorized certain incentive awards to executive officers under the Incentive Plan, for the fiscal year ending October 31, 2007. The annual incentive awards will become payable for fiscal 2007 performance if a corporate performance goal relating to net income excluding extraordinary items (if any) is achieved. No amount will be payable unless a specified "threshold" performance level is reached, and the award is payable at a designated maximum rate if performance substantially in excess of the target performance level is achieved. The table below shows the amounts payable under this award upon achievement of specified levels of performance for fiscal 2007:
