The Board of Directors of the Company has unanimously approved the reincorporation proposal. Approval of the proposal by the shareholders will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of the Company's common stock.

Sincerely yours,

PROXY STATEMENT

SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON DECEMBER 18, 2006

GENERAL INFORMATION

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying Notice of Special Meeting of Shareholders and proxy card are being furnished to shareholders of Brainstorm Cell Therapeutics Inc., a Washington corporation ("Brainstorm" or the Company), in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board of Directors), for use at a Special Meeting of Shareholders (the Meeting) to be held on December 18, 2006, at 10:00 a.m., New York time, at the offices of the Company, 110 East 59th Street, 25th Floor, New York, NY 10022 and at any adjournment or postponement thereof. These proxy materials are being sent on or about November 21, 2006 to our shareholders entitled to vote at the Meeting.

The Meeting has been called to (1) approve the reincorporation of the Company in the State of Delaware, and (2) consider and act upon such other business as may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

SUMMARY TERM SHEET REGARDING REINCORPORATION PROPOSAL

The following is only a summary of certain material information contained in this document. You should carefully review this entire document along with the appendices attached hereto to understand the proposal fully.

Time and Place of Special Meeting (See cover page, Notice of Special Meeting of Shareholders):

December 18, 2006 at 10:00 a.m., New York time, at the offices of the Company, 110 East 59th Street, 25th Floor, New York, NY 10022.

Record Date (See page 3): You can vote at the special meeting if you owned common stock of the Company at the close of business on November 8, 2006.

Reincorporation Proposal (See page 4): We are proposing to change the state of incorporation of the Company from Washington to Delaware by merging into a wholly owned subsidiary incorporated in Delaware. We sometimes refer to the merger and to this proposal as the reincorporation.

Our Reasons for the Reincorporation (See page 4): The primary reason for the reincorporation from Washington to Delaware is to obtain the benefits of Delaware's comprehensive, widely used and extensively interpreted corporation law. In addition, as described elsewhere in this proxy statement, the Company is considering a public offering of its common stock in Israel. The Company may have additional difficulties completing such an offering if it is not incorporated in Delaware, as the Israeli regulators recognize and understand the Delaware corporate law, but are unfamiliar with that of the State of Washington.

Our Name in Connection with the Reincorporation: Our name will not change in connection with the reincorporation; we will continue to be named Brainstorm Cell Therapeutics Inc. To distinguish between the company as incorporated in Washington and the company as incorporated in Delaware, we sometimes refer in this document to Brainstorm Cell Therapeutics Inc., the Washington corporation, as the Company and to the Delaware subsidiary as Brainstorm Delaware.

Effect of Approving the Reincorporation Proposal (See page 4): If the reincorporation proposal is approved, the reincorporation merger will be consummated and Brainstorm Cell Therapeutics Inc. will be incorporated in Delaware. The reincorporation will not change our name, headquarters, business, jobs, management, location of any of our offices, number of employees, assets, liabilities or net worth. Our current directors and officers will become the directors and officers of Brainstorm Delaware upon effectiveness of the reincorporation.

Effect of Not Approving the Reincorporation Proposal (See page 5): If the reincorporation proposal fails to obtain the vote required for approval, the reincorporation merger will not be consummated and the Company will continue to operate as a corporation incorporated in Washington. As described in this proxy statement, the Company is considering a public offering of its common stock in Israel. The Company may have additional difficulties completing such an offering if it is not incorporated in Delaware, as the Israeli regulators recognize and understand the Delaware corporate law, but are unfamiliar with that of the State of Washington.

What You Will Receive in the Reincorporation Merger (See page 4): You will not need to exchange your existing stock certificates for stock certificates of Brainstorm Delaware. Each of your shares of common stock of the Company automatically will be converted into one share of common stock of Brainstorm Delaware.

Effect of the Reincorporation on the Trading of Your Shares (See page 22): At the effective time of the reincorporation merger, your shares of common stock of the Company will become an equivalent number of shares of common stock of Brainstorm Delaware and will continue to be listed for trading on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board service of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. under the symbol BCLI.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors of the Company (See page 22): The Board of Directors of the Company recommends that you vote For the reincorporation proposal.

Vote Required (See page 3): Approval of the reincorporation proposal will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders thereof. Approval of the reincorporation proposal will constitute approval of the reincorporation merger, the merger agreement, Brainstorm Delaware's certificate of incorporation and bylaws (described herein).

How to Vote Your Shares (See pages 3): Complete, date and sign the enclosed proxy card and mail it in the enclosed return envelope as soon as possible, so that your shares may be represented at the special meeting. In order to assure that your vote is obtained, please return your completed, dated and signed proxy even if you currently plan to attend the special meeting in person.

How to Revoke Your Proxy (See page 3): You may revoke your proxy either by delivering to the Secretary of the Company a signed notice of revocation or a later dated and properly executed proxy, or by attending the meeting and voting in person.

Dissenters' Rights (See pages 3): There are no rights of appraisal or similar rights of dissenters with respect to any of the matters to be acted upon at the Meeting.

Voting of Shares Held in Street Name (See page 3): Your broker will not be permitted, without your instructions, to vote your shares held in street name on the reincorporation proposal. You should, therefore, be sure to provide your broker with instructions on how to vote your shares. Failure to vote, or to instruct your broker how to vote any shares held for you in your broker's name, will have the same effect as a vote against the reincorporation proposal.

Tax Effects of the Reincorporation (See page 21): We believe that the reincorporation will be tax-free to our shareholders and you will be entitled to the same aggregate basis in the shares of Brainstorm Delaware as the aggregate basis you have in the Company's common stock. However, everyone's tax situation is different and you should consult with your personal tax advisor regarding the tax effects of the reincorporation.

Changes in Shareholder Rights (See pages 6-18): After completion of the reincorporation merger, the rights of all shareholders will be governed by Delaware law and by Brainstorm Delaware's certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

The most significant changes in shareholders' rights before and after the reincorporation are discussed in detail on pages 6-18.

Whom You Should Call with Questions: If you have further questions, you may contact our proxy solicitor, The Altman Group at (201) 806-2207.

VOTING MATTERS

Proxies and Voting Rights

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on November 8, 2006 (the Record Date) are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting. The Company's voting securities issued and outstanding on the Record Date consisted of 24,201,812 shares of common stock, entitling the holders thereof to one vote per share. The Company had no other class of voting securities outstanding on the Record Date.

The holders of one-third of all shares of common stock issued, outstanding and entitled to vote are required to be present in person or to be represented by proxy at the Meeting in order to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Votes withheld, abstentions and shares held in street name by brokers or nominees who indicate on their proxies that they do not have discretionary authority to vote such shares as to a particular matter (broker non-votes) shall be counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business at the Meeting.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock entitled to vote is required for the approval of the reincorporation.

Shares which abstain from voting on a particular matter and broker non-votes will not be counted as votes in favor of such matter and will also not be counted as votes cast or shares voting on such matter. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against the reincorporation. There are no rights of appraisal or similar rights of dissenters with respect to any of the matters to be acted upon at the Meeting.

Any person giving the enclosed form of proxy has the power to revoke it by voting in person at the Meeting, by giving a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by giving written notice of revocation to the Secretary of the Company any time before the proxy is exercised. A shareholder of record attending the Meeting may vote in person whether or not a proxy has been previously given, but the presence, without further action, of a shareholder at the Meeting will not constitute revocation of a previously given proxy.

Expenses and Solicitation

The cost of this solicitation of proxies will be borne by the Company. In addition to soliciting shareholders by mail through its regular employees, the Company may request banks, brokers, and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to solicit their customers who have stock of the Company registered in the names of a nominee, and, if so, will reimburse such banks, brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket costs. Solicitation by officers and employees of the Company may also be made of some shareholders in person or by mail, telephone or facsimile following the original solicitation. Such officers and directors will receive no compensation in connection with any such solicitations.

Shareholder Proposals

Proposals of shareholders intended for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement for the annual meeting of shareholders to be held in 2007 or special meeting of shareholders held in lieu thereof in accordance with Rule 14a-8 promulgated under the Exchange Act, must be received by the Company at its principal executive offices at the following address: Brainstorm Cell Therapeutics Inc.; 110 East 59th Street, 25th Floor, New York, NY 10022 not later than April 24, 2007 in order to be included in the Company's proxy statement relating to the 2007 annual meeting of shareholders. Any such proposal must also comply with the requirements as to form and substance established by the SEC in order to be included in the proxy statement relating to the 2007 annual meeting of shareholders.

Pursuant to Rule 14a-4 promulgated under the Exchange Act (Rule 14a-4), shareholders who wish to make a proposal at the 2007 annual meeting of shareholders, other than a proposal intended for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement for the 2007 annual meeting of shareholders, must notify the Company not later than July 11, 2007. If a shareholder who wishes to present such a proposal fails to notify the Company by July 11, 2007, and such proposal is brought before the 2007 annual meeting of shareholders, then under the SEC's proxy rules, the proxies solicited by management with respect to such meeting will confer discretionary voting authority with respect to such shareholder proposal on those persons selected by management to vote the proxies. Even if a shareholder makes a timely notification, those persons selected by management to vote the proxies may still exercise discretionary voting authority under circumstances consistent with Rule 14a-4.

In order to curtail controversy as to the date on which a proposal was received by the Company, it is suggested that shareholders submit any proposals they might have by certified mail, return receipt requested to the Company.

PROPOSAL NO. 1 REINCORPORATION IN DELAWARE

GENERAL

The Board of Directors has approved and recommends to the shareholders a proposal to change the Company's state of incorporation from the State of Washington to the State of Delaware. If our shareholders approve the reincorporation, we will accomplish the reincorporation by merging the Company, Brainstorm Cell Therapeutics Inc., into a newly formed, wholly owned Delaware subsidiary of the Company, also named Brainstorm Cell Therapeutics Inc. (Brainstorm Delaware). The address and phone number of Brainstorm Delaware's principal office are the same as those of the Company. Prior to the reincorporation merger, Brainstorm Delaware will have no material assets or liabilities and will not have carried on any business.

The merger will not involve any change in the business, properties, corporate headquarters or management of the Company. The directors and officers of the Company immediately prior to the reincorporation will serve as the directors and officers of Brainstorm Delaware following the reincorporation.

After the reincorporation, Brainstorm Cell Therapeutics Inc., the Washington corporation, will cease to exist, and Brainstorm Delaware, our wholly owned subsidiary that we have established solely for the purpose of the merger and reincorporation, will be the surviving corporation. Brainstorm Delaware will succeed to all of the operations, own all of the assets and assume all of the obligations of the Company. All of the Company's employee benefit plans, including The 2004 Global Share Option Plan and the 2005 U.S. Stock Option and Incentive Plan, will be continued by Brainstorm Delaware following the reincorporation.

A copy of the form of merger agreement approved by our Board of Directors and by Brainstorm Delaware (the Merger Agreement) is attached as Appendix A. The Merger Agreement assumes shareholder approval of this Proposal No. 1, and that approval likewise will constitute approval of the Merger Agreement.

When the merger becomes effective, each outstanding share of the Company's common stock will be automatically converted into one share of the common stock of Brainstorm Delaware. At the same time, each outstanding option, right or warrant to acquire shares of the Company's common stock will be converted into an option, right or warrant to acquire an equal number of shares of Brainstorm Delaware common stock under the same terms and conditions as the original options, rights or warrants. Furthermore, when the merger becomes effective, the surviving entity in the merger, Brainstorm Delaware, will be governed by the Certificate of Incorporation of Brainstorm Delaware (the Delaware Charter) attached as Appendix B and by the Bylaws of Brainstorm Delaware (the Delaware Bylaws) attached as Appendix C. The surviving entity will be governed by the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL) instead of the Washington Business Corporation Act (the WBCA). In addition, if the Company completes a public offering of its common stock in Israel following the reincorporation, the Company will be subject to certain Israeli corporate and securities laws contained in the Delaware charter and described in this proxy statement. The Company's current Articles of Incorporation (the Washington Charter) and Bylaws (the Washington Bylaws) will not be applicable to Brainstorm Delaware upon completion of the reincorporation.

REASONS FOR AND ADVANTAGES OF REINCORPORATION IN DELAWARE

The Board of Directors has requested shareholders to approve the reincorporation for many reasons. For many years, Delaware has followed a policy of encouraging incorporation in that state and, in furtherance of that policy, has adopted comprehensive, modern and flexible corporate laws which are periodically updated and revised to meet changing business needs. As a result, many corporations have initially chosen Delaware for their domicile or have subsequently reincorporated in Delaware. Furthermore, the Delaware courts have developed considerable expertise in dealing with corporate issues, and a substantial body of case law has developed construing Delaware law and establishing public policies with respect to Delaware corporations, thereby providing greater predictability with respect to legal affairs.

In the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company, reincorporation in Delaware may provide the Company with more opportunities to raise capital. Specifically, the Company is currently contemplating a public offering of its common stock in Israel. It may be easier for the Company to complete a public offering in Israel if the Company is incorporated in Delaware as the Israeli regulators recognize and understand the Delaware corporate law but are unfamiliar with that of the State of Washington. If the Company does pursue an offering in Israel it expects that it will do so under Regulation S of the Securities Act. The securities will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws and, unless so registered, may not be offered or sold in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state laws. However, the Company intends to complete the reincorporation even if it does not pursue the public offering in Israel.

In addition, the procedures and degree of stockholder approval required for Delaware corporations for the authorization of additional shares of stock, and for approval of certain mergers and other transactions, present fewer practical impediments to the capital raising process than those which apply to Washington corporations.

In the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company, underwriters and other members of the financial services industry may be more willing and better able to assist in capital raising programs for corporations having the greater flexibility afforded by the DGCL. Reincorporation from Washington to Delaware also may make it easier to attract future candidates willing to serve on our board of directors, because many of such candidates will already be familiar with Delaware corporate law, including provisions relating to director indemnification, from their past business experience.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The Merger Agreement provides that the Company will merge with and into Brainstorm Delaware, with Brainstorm Delaware being the surviving corporation. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Brainstorm Delaware will assume all assets and liabilities of the Company, including obligations under our outstanding indebtedness, contracts, options and warrants. Our existing board of directors and officers will become the board of directors and officers of Brainstorm Delaware for identical terms of office.

At the effective time of the reincorporation merger, each outstanding share of the Company's common stock automatically will be converted into one share of Brainstorm Delaware common stock. You will not have to exchange your existing stock certificates of the Company for stock certificates of Brainstorm Delaware. However, after consummation of the reincorporation merger, any stockholder desiring a new form of stock certificate may submit the existing stock certificate to Brainstorm Delaware's transfer agent for cancellation, and obtain a new Delaware form of certificate. At the effective time of the merger, the Brainstorm Delaware common stock will be traded on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board service of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. under the symbol BCLI. There will be no interruption in the trading of the Company's common stock as a result of the merger.

The Merger Agreement was unanimously approved by the Board of Directors of the Company and the Board of Directors of Brainstorm Delaware and subsequently was adopted by the Company, as the sole stockholder of Brainstorm Delaware. Approval of the reincorporation proposal (which constitutes approval of the Merger Agreement) requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all of the votes entitled to be cast by each share of Company common stock.

EFFECTIVE TIME

If approved by the requisite vote of the holders of shares of the Company's common stock, it is anticipated that the merger, and consequently the reincorporation, will become effective at the time set forth in each of the Articles of Merger to be filed with the Secretary of State of Washington in accordance with the WBCA and the Certificate of Merger to be filed with the Secretary of State of Delaware in accordance with the DGCL. However, the Merger Agreement may be terminated, deferred or abandoned by action of the Board of Directors of the Company at any time prior to the effective time of the merger, whether before or after the shareholders of the Company approve this proposal to effect the reincorporation, if the Board of Directors of the Company determines for any reason, in its sole judgment and discretion, that the consummation of the reincorporation would be inadvisable or not in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

EFFECT OF NOT OBTAINING THE REQUIRED VOTE FOR APPROVAL

If the reincorporation proposal fails to obtain the requisite vote for approval, the reincorporation merger will not be consummated and the Company will continue to be incorporated in Washington. In addition, the Company may elect to not pursue a public offering of its common stock in Israel.

COMPARISON OF SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS BEFORE AND AFTER THE REINCORPORATION

Because of differences between the WBCA and the DGCL, as well as differences between the Company's charter and bylaws before and after the reincorporation, the reincorporation will effect some changes in the rights of the Company's shareholders. Summarized below are the most significant differences between the rights of the shareholders of the Company before and after the reincorporation, as a result of the differences among the WBCA and the DGCL, the Washington Charter and the Delaware Charter, and the Washington Bylaws and the Delaware Bylaws.

In addition, the Delaware Charter contains provisions relating to certain Israeli corporate and securities laws that will become applicable to the Company only if the Company completes a public offering in Israel at any time following the reincorporation. If the Company does not complete a public offering in Israel, then such Israeli provisions will not apply to the Company. To the extent that any Israeli legal provisions that become applicable to the Company conflict with any provisions in the Delaware Bylaws, the Israeli legal provisions will supersede the conflicting provisions in the Bylaws. The Israeli legal provisions that will become applicable to the Company upon completion of a public offering in Israel are also summarized below. A copy of the specific excerpts of the Israeli Companies Law and other Israeli laws that the Company would be subject to in the event it completes a public offering in Israel, translated from Hebrew into English, are attached as Appendices D through G to this proxy statement.

The summary below is not intended to be relied upon as an exhaustive list of all differences or a complete description of the differences between the DGCL and the Delaware Charter and Bylaws, on the one hand, and the WBCA and the Washington Charter and Bylaws on the other hand, nor of the Israeli laws that will become applicable to the Company upon completion of a public offering in Israel. The summary below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the WBCA, the Washington Charter, the Washington Bylaws, the DGCL, the Delaware Charter and the Delaware Bylaws and to the text of the Israeli laws that are attached hereto as Appendices D through G. In addition, the portions of the Israeli Companies Law and other Israeli laws described below and attached hereto as Appendices D through G have been translated from Hebrew to English, and the translation is literal; therefore, the words may not have the same meaning translated to English as they do in their original Hebrew form.

Authorized Capital Stock

Delaware Provisions

Brainstorm Delaware's authorized capital stock consists of 800,000,000 authorized shares of common stock, $0.00005 par value, of which 1,000 shares are currently issued and outstanding to the Company. All of the shares of Brainstorm Delaware common stock issued in connection with the reincorporation will be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable. At the Company's annual meeting of shareholders held on September 20, 2006, the Company's shareholders authorized the Company's Board of Directors, in its discretion, should it deem it to be appropriate and in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders, to amend the Washington Charter to eliminate the class of preferred stock and all authorized shares of preferred stock. The Company's Board of Directors has not yet eliminated the preferred stock; however, the Delaware Charter has no authorized preferred stock; therefore, the preferred stock will be eliminated in connection with the reincorporation.

The holders of Brainstorm Delaware common stock will be entitled to one vote for each share on all matters voted on by stockholders, including the election of directors. The holders of Brainstorm Delaware common stock will not have any cumulative voting, conversion, redemption or preemptive rights. The holders of Brainstorm Delaware common stock will be entitled to such dividends as may be declared from time to time by the Brainstorm Delaware Board of Directors from funds available therefor, and upon liquidation will be entitled to receive pro rata all assets of Brainstorm Delaware available for distribution to such holders.

Washington Provisions

The holders of the Company's common stock are entitled to one vote for each share on all matters voted on by stockholders, including the election of directors. The Company's authorized capital stock consists of (i) 440,000,000 authorized shares of common stock, $0.00005 par value, and (ii) 40,000,000 authorized shares of preferred stock, $0.00005 par value. The holders of the Company's common stock do not have any cumulative voting, conversion, redemption or preemptive rights.

Number of Directors; Election; Removal; Filling Vacancies; Independent Directors

Delaware Provisions

The Delaware Charter and Delaware Bylaws provide that the number of directors will be fixed from time to time by action of the Board of Directors. The Delaware Bylaws provide that there shall be no less than one director and that the number of directors may be increased or decreased at any time by a vote of a majority of the directors then in office. The directors are elected by the stockholders at the annual meeting and all directors hold office until their successors are elected and qualified, or until their earlier death, resignation or removal. The Delaware Charter does not divide the Board of Directors into classes and each director will serve for a term ending on the date of the subsequent annual meeting following the annual meeting at which such director was elected.

The Delaware Charter and Delaware Bylaws provide that any director may be removed with or without cause at an annual meeting or special meeting called for that purpose by the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors. Any vacancy created as a result of the removal of a director or a vacancy resulting from an enlargement of the board may be filled only by the vote of a majority of the remaining directors then in office. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders. Under the DGCL, any director or the entire board of directors generally may be removed with or without cause by the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote at an election of directors. If the corporation has a classified Board of Directors, then, unless the certificate of incorporation otherwise provides, shareholders may only remove a director for cause.

Israeli Provisions

If the Company completes a public offering in Israel, then the following additional provisions contained in the Delaware Charter will take effect and become applicable to the Company:

The person holding the office of Chairman of the Board may not also hold the office of General Manager, unless otherwise permitted by Section 121(c) of the Israeli Companies Law. Such section provides that the general meeting of a public company may resolve that for a period of no more than three years from the date of passing the resolution to such effect, the Chairman of the Board of Directors may be authorized to fulfill the role of General Manager provided that in counting the votes at the general meeting, the majority shall include at least two-thirds of the shareholders who are not holders of control in the company present at the vote, and abstaining votes shall not be taken into account in counting the votes of such shareholders.

The Board of Directors must at all times include at least two directors who are elected by stockholders where at least one of the following is true: (i) the majority of the votes represented at the stockholders' meeting includes at least one-third of all the votes of the stockholders who are not holders of control in the Company and who participate in the voting (with abstentions not being included in the total of the votes of the foregoing stockholders), or (ii) the total of opposing votes from among the stockholders referenced in the foregoing subsection (i) does not exceed 1% of all the voting rights in the Company. Directors elected in accordance with this provision are considered Independent Directors. For purposes of this provision, control is defined in the Israeli Companies Law as the ability to direct the activity of a corporation, and a person shall be presumed to control a corporation if he holds half or more of the means of control of the corporation such as the right to vote at a general meeting or a corresponding body of the corporation or the right to appoint directors and/or the general manager of the corporation.

Any vacancy in the office of an Independent Director may be filled only by the stockholders and may not be filled by the remaining directors. If at any time there is less than two Independent Directors, the Board of Directors must call a special stockholders' meeting for the election of Independent Directors. An Independent Director may not be removed from office without cause and no person may serve as an Independent Director for more than six one-year terms. An Independent Director is required to be a resident of the State of Israel.

At any election to fill the office of an Independent Director, other than an election to fill the office of an Exempt Directorship or a vacancy or a newly created directorship, only a person then serving in the office of an Independent Director may qualify for election to such office unless such person is otherwise disqualified to serve as an Independent Director. Exempt Directorship means the office of an Independent Director then filled by a person who was elected as an Independent Director for three (and not more than three) consecutive one-year terms.

An Independent Director must have, subject to Section 240(a1) of the Israeli Companies Law, professional qualifications or accounting and financial expertise, and at least one of the Independent Directors must have accounting and financial expertise.

No individual may be appointed as an Independent Director if, at the time of the appointment or at any time during the preceding two years, he or any of his affiliates had an interest in the Company, in a person who was a controlling party of the Company at the time of the appointment, or in another corporate body. For purposes of this provision (i) interest means an employment relationship, commercial or professional ties in general or control, as well as service as an officer, other than service as a director who was appointed as an Independent Director in a company that is due to offer shares to the public for the first time, and (ii) other corporate body means a corporate body in which the company or controlling member of it is a controlling member at the time of the appointment or during the two years before the time of the appointment.

A director in a company cannot be appointed as an Independent Director in another company if at that time a director of the other company serves as an Independent Director in the first company.

An Independent Director may not receive any compensation from the Company, except as determined by applicable law and except for insurance coverage and indemnification under the Company's Bylaws or as determined by other applicable laws.

Each committee of the Board of Directors must include at least one Independent Director.

If the Board of Directors determines that an Independent Director no longer meets a condition required under applicable law for his appointment, or that he has violated his fiduciary duty of loyalty, the Board of Directors shall call a special meeting of stockholders for the removal of the Independent Director. The reasons of the Board of Directors shall be presented to the meeting of stockholders, and the Independent Director shall be given a reasonable opportunity to present his position; the decision of the stockholders to terminate an Independent Director's term of office shall be adopted with the same majority that was necessary for his appointment.

For a period of two (2) years following the termination of an Independent Director of the Company, the Company may not directly or indirectly enter into any employment, consulting or other arrangement for fees with such person, and such person may not serve as a director or officer of the Company.

Washington Provisions

The Washington Charter and the Washington Bylaws provide that the number of directors shall not be less than one nor more than six. Under the Washington Charter and the Washington Bylaws, the specific number of directors must be set by a resolution of the Board of Directors. The Washington Charter and Washington Bylaws provide for a staggered board divided into three classes, Class I, Class II and Class III, with each class of director elected for a three-year term. The Class I director elected at the Company's 2006 annual meeting of shareholders has a one-year term and will be up for re-election at the 2007 annual meeting of shareholders for a three-year term, and the Class II director elected at the Company's 2006 annual meeting of shareholders will have a two-year term and will be up for re-election at the 2008 annual meeting of shareholders for a three-year term.

The Washington Charter and Washington Bylaws provide that the shareholders may remove one or more directors with or without cause at a special meeting called for the purpose of removing the director if the number of votes cast to remove the director exceeds the number of votes cast not to remove the director. A vacancy on the Board of Directors, whether created as a result of the removal of a director or resulting from an enlargement of the board, may only be filled by the directors then in office. The shareholders may fill the vacancy only if there are no directors in office.

Under the WBCA, stockholders may remove one or more directors with or without cause unless the articles of incorporation provide that directors may be removed only for cause. A director may be removed by the shareholders only at a special meeting called for that purpose. If a vacancy occurs on the Board of Directors either the shareholders or the directors shall fill the vacancy.

Cumulative Voting for Directors

Delaware Provisions

Delaware law permits cumulative voting if provided in the certificate of incorporation. The Delaware Charter does not provide for cumulative voting rights.

Washington Provisions

Under Washington law, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, shareholders are entitled to use cumulative voting in the election of directors. The Washington Charter expressly prohibits cumulative voting.

Business Combinations; Interested Transactions

Delaware Provisions

Section 203 of the DGCL provides that, subject to certain exceptions specified therein, a corporation shall not engage in any business combination with any interested stockholder for a three-year period following the date that such stockholder becomes an interested stockholder unless (i) prior to such date, the board of directors of the corporation approved either the business combination or the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, (ii) upon consummation of the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation outstanding at the time the transaction commenced (excluding shares held by directors who are also officers and employee stock purchase plans in which employee participants do not have the right to determine confidentially whether plan shares will be tendered in a tender or exchange offer), or (iii) on or subsequent to such date, the business combination is approved by the board of directors of the corporation and by the affirmative vote at an annual or special meeting, and not by written consent, of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding voting stock which is not owned by the interested stockholder. Except as specified in Section 203 of the DGCL, an interested stockholder is defined to include (a) any person that is the owner of 15% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation or is an affiliate or associate of the corporation and was the owner of 15% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation, at any time within three years immediately prior to the relevant date, and (b) the affiliates and associates of any such person.

Under certain circumstances, Section 203 of the DGCL may make it more difficult for a person who would be an interested stockholder to effect various business combinations with a corporation for a three-year period, although the corporation's certificate of incorporation or stockholders may elect to exclude a corporation from the restrictions imposed thereunder. The Delaware Charter does not exclude Brainstorm Delaware from the restrictions imposed under Section 203 of the DGCL. It is anticipated that the provisions of Section 203 of the DGCL may encourage companies interested in acquiring Brainstorm Delaware to negotiate in advance with the Brainstorm Delaware Board, since the stockholder approval requirement would be avoided if a majority of the directors then in office approve either the business combination or the transaction which results in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder.

Israeli Provisions

If the Company completes a public offering in Israel, then the following additional provisions contained in the Delaware Charter will take effect and become applicable to the Company:

The Company may not enter into an interested transaction unless the transaction is approved by the following in the following order: (i) the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, (ii) the Board of Directors, (iii) the meeting of stockholders, on condition that one of the following applies: (A) the majority of votes at the meeting of stockholders includes at least one-third of all the votes of stockholders who do not have a personal interest in the approval of the transaction and who are participating in the vote (abstentions shall not be included in the total of the votes of such stockholders), or (B) the total of opposing votes from among such stockholders does not exceed 1% of all the voting rights in the Company. For purposes of this provision, personal interest means a personal interest of a person in an action or a transaction of a corporation including personal interest of his relative and of another corporation in which he or his relative are interested parties, excluding personal interests deriving only from the holding of stock.

The term interested transaction means any transaction of a public company with its holder of control (as defined in Sections 1 and 268 of the Israeli Companies Law), or an exceptional transaction of a public company with another person in whom the holder of control has a personal interest, including a private offering in which the holder of control has a personal interest; and also a contract of a public company with its holder of control or his relative, if he also is an officer of the company in respect of his service and employment conditions, and if he is a company employee and is not an officer in respect of his employment by the company. Control and Control Block are defined in Section 1 of the Israeli Companies Law. Control Block means a holding of 25% or more of the voting rights in the general meeting of the company if there is no other person who holds more than 50% of the voting rights in the company.

In addition, certain procedures must be followed by any stockholder voting on an interested transaction, or who has a personal interest in the interested transaction, and by any director who has a personal interest in the interested transaction.

Washington Provisions

Section 23B.19.010 of the WBCA provides that a Washington public company may not, for a period of five years following the date on which a shareholder becomes the beneficial owner of ten percent or more of the corporation's outstanding shares, without the prior approval of the corporation's board of directors of the transaction or of the acquisition by the shareholder resulting in the shareholder's ownership of ten percent or more of the corporation's outstanding shares, engage in (i) a merger, share exchange, or consolidation with such shareholder or an affiliate of such shareholder, (ii) a sale or other disposition to such shareholder of assets with a value equal to five percent or more of the aggregate market value of all the corporation's assets, or having an aggregate value equal to five percent or more of the aggregate market value of all the outstanding shares of the corporation, or representing five percent or more of the earning power of the corporation, (iii) a termination, as a result of such shareholder's acquisition of ten percent or more of the shares of the corporation, of five percent or more of the employees of the corporation employed in Washington whether at one time or over the five-year period following the date that the shareholder acquires ten percent of the corporation's voting securities, (iv) an issuance, transfer or redemption by the corporation of shares, options or warrants to such shareholder, (v) a liquidation or dissolution proposed by or pursuant to an agreement with such shareholder, (vi) a reclassification of securities, including any share splits, share dividend or other distribution of shares in respect of stock, proposed by or pursuant to any agreement with such shareholder that has the effect of increasing the proportionate share of the outstanding shares of a class of shares owned by such shareholder, or (vii) a transaction with such shareholder in which the corporation makes any loans or advances to such shareholder or provides other financial assistance or tax credits or other tax advantages to such shareholder through the target corporation. For a foreign corporation to be covered by these provisions, however, among other requirements, it must have, together with all of its subsidiaries, at least $50 million of tangible assets in Washington State. Because we do not meet this test, Brainstorm Delaware will not be covered by such provisions.

We are not aware of any specific effort by any party to assume control of the Company. Because the WBCA includes provisions affecting acquisitions and business combinations, the possibility that Section 203 of the DGCL may impede the accomplishment of mergers with, or the assumption of control of, the Company is not among the principal reasons for the reincorporation.

Limitation of Liability of Directors

Delaware Provisions

The DGCL permits a corporation to include a provision in its certificate of incorporation eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for damages for certain breaches of the director's fiduciary duty. However, no such provision may eliminate or limit the liability of a director: (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) for declaration of unlawful dividends or illegal redemptions or stock repurchases; or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The Delaware Charter provides that a director will not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the DGCL, which concerns unlawful payments of dividends, stock purchases or redemptions, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. While these provisions provide directors with protection from awards for monetary damages for breaches of their duty of care, they do not eliminate such duty. Accordingly, these provisions will have no effect on the availability of equitable remedies such as an injunction or rescission based on a director's breach of his or her duty of care.

Washington Provisions

The WBCA permits a corporation to include in its articles of incorporation provisions that eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director, provided that such provisions may not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct by the director or a knowing violation of law by a director, liability for unlawful distributions, or for any transaction from which the director will personally receive a benefit in money, property or services to which the director is not legally entitled.

The Washington Charter provides that a director of the Company will not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for any conduct as a director to the fullest extent permitted by the WBCA. The Washington Bylaws also provide that any person serving as an officer or director of the corporation, or in a similar capacity for another entity at the request of the corporation, shall not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct in such person's capacity as an officer or director of the corporation or similar capacity for another entity.

Indemnification of Officers and Directors

Both the WBCA and the DGCL permit a corporation to indemnify officers, directors, employees and agents for actions taken in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action, which they had no reasonable cause to believe was unlawful. Both states' laws provide that a corporation may advance expenses of defense (upon receipt of a written undertaking to reimburse the corporation if indemnification is not appropriate), and both states permit a corporation to purchase and maintain liability insurance for its directors and officers.

Delaware Provisions

The DGCL provides that indemnification may not be made for any matter as to which a person has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent a court determines that the person is entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

The Delaware Bylaws provide that Brainstorm Delaware shall indemnify each person whom it may indemnify to the extent permitted by the Delaware Charter and that Brainstorm Delaware may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was serving as a director, officer, employee or agent of the company, or of another entity at the request of the company. The Delaware Charter provides that Brainstorm Delaware shall indemnify its present and former directors and officers to the maximum extent permitted by the DGCL and that such indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

Washington Provisions

The WBCA provides that a corporation may not indemnify a director in connection with a proceeding in which the director was adjudged liable to the corporation or in connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to the director in which the director was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by the director. The Washington Bylaws provide that each person who is or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding by reason of such person being an officer or director of the corporation, or serving in a similar capacity for another entity at the request of the corporation, must be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation against all damages and expenses incurred by the indemnitee in connection with the proceeding. The Company may not provide indemnification for any acts or omissions of the indemnitee finally adjudged to be intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, for any unlawful distribution or for any transaction with respect to which it was finally adjudged that such indemnitee personally received a benefit in money, property or services to which he was not legally entitled. The Washington Bylaws also provide that the right to indemnification includes the right to advancement of expenses incurred in connection with defending any proceeding so long as the indemnitee delivers to the Company an undertaking to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified. The Washington Charter provides that the Company shall indemnify its directors to the fullest extent permitted by the WBCA provided that the Company may not provide indemnification for (i) acts or omissions of the director finally adjudged to be intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (ii) conduct of the director adjudged to be an unlawful distribution, or (iii) any transaction with respect to which it was finally adjudged that the director personally received a benefit in money, property or other services to which the director was not legally entitled.

Special Meetings of Stockholders

Delaware Provisions

Under the DGCL, a special meeting of stockholders may be called by the corporation's board of directors or by such persons as may be authorized by the corporation's certificate of incorporation or bylaws. The Delaware Bylaws provide that a special meeting may be called at any time by (i) the Brainstorm Delaware President, (ii) the Chairman of the Board, (iii) any two directors, or (iv) by stockholders holding at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Brainstorm Delaware.

Israeli Provisions

If the Company completes a public offering in Israel, then the following provisions contained in the Delaware Charter will take effect and become applicable to the Company:

A notice of any annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Company must be accompanied by a form of proxy card setting forth the resolutions to be presented by the Board of Directors for a vote at such meeting. In addition, the Company must comply with Sections 87 and 89 of the Israeli Companies Law. Such provisions of the Israeli Companies Law provide that stockholders in a public company may vote at a stockholders' meeting by means of a voting paper in which the stockholder indicates how he votes on resolutions relating to (i) the appointment and removal of directors; (ii) approval of acts or transactions requiring the approval of the general meeting pursuant to Sections 255 and 268 through 275 of the Israeli Companies Law, (iii) approval of a merger pursuant to Section 320 of the Israeli Companies Law; (iv) any other matter with respect to which the Company's charter provides that decisions of the general meeting may also be passed by means of a voting paper; and (v) other matters prescribed by the Israeli Minister of Justice pursuant to Section 89 of the Israeli Companies Law.

The Company must also provide prompt notice of a stockholders' meeting to the Israeli Securities Authority and the Tel-Aviv Stock Exchange and must publish a notice of the meeting in two daily newspapers of general circulation in Hebrew at least two days prior to the meeting.

Each beneficial stockholder whose shares are held by a bank or a member of the Tel-Aviv Stock Exchange (TASE) and are registered on the books of the Company, or in the name of any company acting for DTC, shall be permitted to participate at the meeting and to vote such stock by proxy.

Washington Provisions

Under the WBCA, a corporation must hold a special meeting of shareholders upon request by the board of directors or by such persons authorized to do so by the articles of incorporation or bylaws. A corporation must also hold a special meeting of shareholders if the holders of at least ten percent of all votes entitled to be cast at a special meeting deliver to the corporation a demand for a special meeting. However, a corporation that is a public company may in its articles of incorporation limit or deny the right of shareholders to call a special meeting. A corporation other than a public company may require that shareholders who hold a greater amount than ten percent of the outstanding shares may call a special meeting of shareholders provided that the amount is not greater than twenty-five percent.

The Washington Charter and Washington Bylaws provide that, so long as the Company is a public company, special meetings of stockholders may be called by the board of directors but not by any other person.

Amendment or Repeal of the Certificate of Incorporation

Delaware Provisions

Under the DGCL, unless the certificate of incorporation otherwise provides, amendments to the certificate of incorporation generally require the approval of the holders of a majority of the outstanding stock entitled to vote thereon, and if the amendment would increase or decrease the number of authorized shares of any class or series or the par value of such shares, or would adversely affect the rights, powers or preferences of such class or series, a majority of the outstanding stock of such class or series also would have to approve the amendment. The Delaware Charter provides that Brainstorm Delaware reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in the Delaware Charter, in the manner prescribed by statute and in the charter, and that all rights conferred upon stockholders in the charter are granted subject to this reservation.

Washington Provisions

Under the WBCA, the board of directors may amend the Company's articles of incorporation without stockholder approval (i) to change any provisions with respect to the par value of any class of shares, (ii) to delete the names and addresses of the initial directors, (iii) to delete the name and address of the initial registered agent or registered officer, (iv) if the corporation has only one class of shares outstanding, solely to effect a forward or reverse stock split, or (v) to change the corporate name. Other amendments to the articles of incorporation must be approved, in the case of a public company, by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the proposed amendment. The Washington Charter provides that the Company reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in the articles of incorporation in any manner permitted by the WBCA and that the rights of shareholders of the Company are granted subject to the reservation.

Amendment to Bylaws

Delaware Provisions

Under the DGCL, directors may amend the bylaws of a corporation only if such right is expressly conferred upon the directors in its certificate of incorporation. The Delaware Charter and Delaware Bylaws provide that the board of directors and the shareholders will have the power to adopt, amend, alter or repeal the Delaware Bylaws.

Washington Provisions

The WBCA provides that the board of directors may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws unless the articles of incorporation reserve this power exclusively to the shareholders or the shareholders, in amending or repealing a particular bylaw, provide expressly that the board of directors may not amend or repeal that bylaw. The shareholders may also amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws, or adopt new bylaws, even though the bylaws may also be amended or repealed by the board of directors. The Washington Charter and Washington Bylaws provide that the board of directors has the power to adopt, amend or repeal the bylaws of the Company, subject to the power of the shareholders to amend or repeal the bylaws, and that the shareholders also have the power to amend or repeal the bylaws and to adopt new bylaws.

Merger with Subsidiary

Delaware Provisions

The DGCL provides that a parent corporation may merge into a subsidiary and a subsidiary may merge into its parent, without stockholder approval, where such parent corporation owns at least 90% of the outstanding shares of each class of capital stock of its subsidiary.

Washington Provisions

The WBCA provides that a parent corporation may merge a subsidiary into itself without stockholder approval if the parent corporation owns at least 90% of the outstanding shares of each class of capital stock of its subsidiary.

Committees of the Board of Directors

Delaware Provisions

The DGCL provides that the board of directors may delegate certain of its duties to one or more committees elected by a majority of the board. A Delaware corporation can delegate to a committee of the board of directors, among other things, the responsibility of nominating candidates for election to the office of director, to fill vacancies on the board of directors, to reduce earned or capital surplus, and to authorize the acquisition of the corporation's own stock. Moreover, if the corporation's certificate of incorporation or bylaws, or the resolution of the board of directors creating the committee so permits, a committee of the board of directors may declare dividends and authorize the issuance of stock.

Israeli Provisions

If the Company completes a public offering in Israel, then the following provisions contained in the Delaware Charter will take effect and become applicable to the Company:

The Board of Directors must appoint an Audit Committee comprised of at least three (3) directors. The members of the Audit Committee must include the Independent Directors, and may not include (i) the Chairman of the Board, (ii) any director who is either employed by, or provides services to, the Company on a regular basis (other than in the capacity as a director), or (iii) any director who is either a controlling stockholder of the Company or any relative of a controlling stockholder. In addition, Sections 110-118 of the Israeli Companies Law apply to the Audit Committee. Such sections generally authorize the Board of Directors to designate committees of the Board, set forth the obligations of any committee and identify such powers that the Board of Directors may not delegate to a committee.

The Audit Committee shall have the following duties: (i) to identify deficiencies in the management of the Company in consultation with the Company's Internal Auditor and auditing accountant, and recommending corrective measures as needed; and (ii) to consider the approval of actions by an officer allegedly in violation of such officer's fiduciary duty of loyalty as set forth in Section 255 and 268 through 275 of the Israeli Companies Law including an Interested Transaction.

Washington Provisions

The WBCA also provides that the board of directors may delegate certain of its duties to one or more committees elected by a majority of the board. Under the WBCA, each committee may exercise such powers of the board of directors specified by the board of directors; however, a committee may not (i) authorize or approve a distribution except in accordance with a general formula or method prescribed by the board of directors, (ii) approve or propose to shareholders any action that the WBCA requires be approved by shareholders, (iii) fill vacancies on the board of directors or on any of its committees, (iv) amend the articles of incorporation, (v) adopt, amend or repeal bylaws, (vi) approve a plan of merger not requiring shareholder approval, or (vii) approve the issuance or sale of shares or determine the designation and relative rights, preferences and limitations of a class or series of shares.

Mergers, Acquisitions and Transactions with Controlling Stockholder

Delaware Provisions

Under the DGCL, a merger, consolidation, sale of all or substantially all of a corporation's assets other than in the regular course of business or dissolution of a corporation must be approved by a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote. No vote of stockholders of a constituent corporation surviving a merger, however, is required (unless the corporation provides otherwise in its certificate of incorporation) if (i) the merger agreement does not amend the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation; (ii) each share of stock of the surviving corporation outstanding before the merger is an identical outstanding or treasury share after the merger; and (iii) the number of shares to be issued by the surviving corporation in the merger does not exceed twenty (20%) of the shares outstanding immediately prior to the merger. The certificate of incorporation of Brainstorm Delaware does not make any provision with respect to such mergers.

Israeli Provisions

If the Company completes a public offering in Israel, then the following provisions contained in the Delaware Charter will take effect and become applicable to the Company:

The Company will be governed by the Israeli Securities (Transactions between a Company and a Controlling Stockholder therein) Regulations, 2001 to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law. These Israeli Securities Regulations generally govern transactions between the Company and a controlling stockholder and stockholders meetings convened for the purpose of approving a transaction with a controlling shareholder. For purposes of these provisions the term controlling shareholder means a holder of control as defined in the Israeli Companies Law. The regulations require that the Company give notice to shareholders of a transaction with a controlling stockholder and that the Company provide a transaction report containing all relevant details of the transaction. The regulations govern the contents of the notice and the transaction report and provide that the Israeli Securities Authority may deliver a directive to the Company requesting that the Company amend the transaction report.

A complete copy of the Israeli Securities (Transactions between a Company and a Controlling Stockholder therein) Regulations, 2001 is attached as Appendix F hereto.

Washington Provisions

Under the WBCA, a merger, share exchange, consolidation, sale of substantially all of a corporation's assets other than in the regular course of business, or dissolution of a public corporation must be approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of directors when a quorum is present, and by two-thirds of all votes entitled to be cast by each voting group entitled to vote as a separate group, unless a higher or lower proportion is specified in the articles of incorporation.

The WBCA also provides that certain mergers need not be approved by the shareholders of the surviving corporation if (i) the articles of incorporation will not change in the merger, except for specified permitted amendments; (ii) no change occurs in the number, designations, preferences, limitations and relative rights of shares held by those shareholders who were shareholders prior to the merger; (iii) the number of voting shares outstanding immediately after the merger, plus the voting shares issuable as a result of the merger, will not exceed the authorized voting shares specified in the surviving corporation's articles of incorporation immediately prior to the merger; and (iv) the number of participating shares outstanding immediately after the merger, plus the number of participating shares issuable as a result of the merger, will not exceed the authorized participating shares specified in the corporation's articles of incorporation immediately prior to the merger.

Class Voting

Delaware Provisions

The DGCL requires voting by separate classes only with respect to amendments to the certificate of incorporation that adversely affect the holders of those classes or that increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares or the par value of the shares of any of those classes. The Delaware Charter provides that the common stock votes together as a single class.

Washington Provisions

Under the WBCA, a corporation's articles of incorporation may authorize one or more classes of shares that have special, conditional or limited voting rights, including the right to vote on certain matters as a group. The Washington Charter provides that all common stock votes together as a single class. Under the WBCA, a corporation's articles of incorporation may not limit the rights of holders of a class to vote as a group with respect to certain amendments to the articles of incorporation and certain mergers that adversely affect the rights of holders of that class.

Preemptive Rights

Delaware Provisions

Under Delaware law, a stockholder does not have preemptive rights unless such rights are specifically granted in the certificate of incorporation. The Delaware Charter does not provide for preemptive rights.

Washington Provisions

Under Washington law, a stockholder has preemptive rights unless such rights are specifically denied in the articles of incorporation. The Washington Charter states that stockholders do not have any preemptive rights.

Transactions with Officers and Directors

Delaware Provisions

The DGCL provides that contracts or transactions between a corporation and one or more of its officers or directors or an entity in which they have an interest is not void or voidable solely because of such interest or the participation of the director or officer in a meeting of the board of directors or a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction if (i) the material facts as to the relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the board of directors or the committee, and the board of directors or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors are less than a quorum; (ii) the material facts as to the relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified by the board of directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders.

Washington Provisions

The WBCA sets forth a safe harbor for transactions between a corporation and one or more of its directors. A conflicting interest transaction may not be enjoined, set aside or give rise to damages if (i) it is approved by a majority of the qualified directors on the board of directors or an authorized committee, but in either case no fewer than two qualified directors; (ii) it is approved by a majority of all qualified shares; or (iii) at the time of commitment, the transaction was fair to the corporation. For purposes of this provision, "qualified director" is one who does not have (a) a conflicting interest respecting the transaction; or (b) a familial, financial, professional or employment relationship with a non-qualified director which relationship would reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the qualified director's judgment when voting on the transaction. "Qualified shares" are defined generally as shares other than those beneficially owned, or the voting of which is controlled, by a director who has a conflicting interest respecting the transaction.

Stock Redemptions and Repurchases

Delaware Provisions

Under the DGCL, a Delaware corporation may purchase or redeem its own shares of capital stock, except when the capital of the corporation is impaired or when such purchase or redemption would cause any impairment of the capital of the corporation.

Washington Provisions

A Washington corporation may acquire its own shares.

Proxies

Delaware Provisions

Under the DGCL, a proxy executed by a stockholder will remain valid for a period of three years unless the proxy provides for a longer period.

Washington Provisions

Under the WBCA, a proxy executed by a stockholder will remain valid for eleven months unless a longer period is expressly provided in the appointment.

Consideration for Stock

Delaware Provisions

Under the DGCL, a corporation may accept as consideration for its stock a combination of cash, property or past services in an amount not less than the par value of the shares being issued, and a secured promissory note or other binding obligation executed by the subscriber for any balance, the total of which must equal at least the par value of the issued stock, as determined by the board of directors.

Washington Provisions

Under the WBCA, a corporation may issue its capital stock in return for consideration consisting of any tangible or intangible property or benefit to the corporation, including cash, promissory notes, services performed, contracts for services to be performed, or other securities of the corporation.

Stockholders Rights to Examine Books and Records

Delaware Provisions

The DGCL provides that any stockholder of record may demand to examine the corporation's books and records for any proper purpose. If management of the corporation refuses, the stockholder can compel release of the books by court order.

Israeli Provisions

If the Company completes a public offering in Israel, then the following provisions contained in the Delaware Charter will take effect and become applicable to the Company:

Any stockholder of the Company will have the right, upon written request, to receive copies of minutes of meetings of stockholders, the Company's stock ledger and a list of its stockholders. A stockholder will also have the right to receive copies of any document relating to any act or transaction requiring the consent of the stockholders. The Company may refuse a stockholder's request if the Board of Directors believes that such demand was not made in good faith or that the requested documents include a commercial secret or that disclosure would otherwise have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Washington Provisions

The WBCA provides that upon five business days' notice to the corporation a shareholder is entitled to inspect and copy, during regular business hours at the corporation's principal office, the corporation's articles of incorporation, bylaws, minutes of all shareholders' meetings for the past three years, certain financial statements for the past three years, communications to shareholders within the past three years, list of the names and business addresses of the current directors and officers and the corporation's most recent annual report delivered to the secretary of state. Upon five business days' notice, so long as the shareholder's demand is made in good faith and for a proper purpose, the shareholder describes with reasonable particularity the shareholder's purpose and the records the shareholder desires to inspect, and the records are directly connected with the shareholder's purpose, a stockholder may inspect and copy excerpts from minutes of any meeting of the board of directors or other records of actions of the board, accounting records of the corporation and the record of shareholders.

Appraisal and Dissenters' Rights

Under the DGCL and the WBCA, stockholders have appraisal or dissenter's rights, respectively, in the event of certain corporate actions such as a merger. These rights include the right to dissent from voting to approve such corporate action, and demand fair value for the shares of the dissenting stockholder. If a proposed corporate action creating dissenter's rights is submitted to a vote at a stockholders meeting, a stockholder who wishes to assert dissenter's rights must (i) deliver to the corporation, before the vote is taken, written notice of his intent to demand payment for his shares if the proposed action is effected, and (ii) not vote his shares in favor of the proposed action. If fair value is unsettled, the DGCL and the WBCA provide for the dissenter and the company to petition the Court of Chancery or a superior court of the county in Washington where a corporation's principal office or registered office is located, respectively. Although appraisal or dissenter's rights are substantially similar in Delaware and Washington, this discussion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the DGCL and the WBCA, which provide more specific provisions and requirements for dissenting stockholders.

Dividends

Delaware Provisions

The DGCL provides that the corporation may pay dividends out of surplus, out of the corporation's net profits for the preceding fiscal year, or both, provided that there remains in the stated capital account an amount equal to the par value represented by all shares of the corporation's stock having a distribution preference.

Washington Provisions

The WBCA provides that shares may be issued pro rata and without consideration to the corporation's shareholders as a share dividend. The board of directors may authorize distributions to its shareholders provided that no distribution may be made if after giving it effect, the corporation would not be able to pay its liabilities as they become due in the usual course of business or the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

Corporate Action Without a Stockholder Meeting

Delaware Provisions

The DGCL permits corporate action without a meeting of stockholders upon the written consent of the holders of that number of shares necessary to authorize the proposed corporate action being taken, unless the certificate of incorporation or articles of incorporation expressly provide otherwise. In the event such proposed corporate action is taken without a meeting by less than the unanimous written consent of stockholders, the DGCL requires that prompt notice of the taking of such action be sent to those stockholders who have not consented in writing.

Israeli Provisions

If the Company completes a public offering in Israel, then the following provisions contained in the Delaware Charter will take effect and become applicable to the Company:

If the stockholders of the Company take action by written consent, the Company will be required to give prompt notice of such action to any stockholder who did not execute such written consent no later than 30 days after the taking of the action.

Washington Provisions

If the corporation is a public company, the WBCA only permits action by stockholders without a meeting if the action is taken by all stockholders entitled to vote on the action.

Additional Israeli Provisions

If the Company completes a public offering in Israel, then the following provisions contained in the Delaware Charter will take effect and become applicable to the Company:

Internal Auditor

The Company must have an Internal Auditor appointed by the Board of Directors, based upon the proposal of the Audit Committee. The Internal Auditor must be a natural person who is not (i) an interested party (as interpreted under applicable law), (ii) an officer or employee of the Company or a relative of any officer or employee of the Company, or (iii) the Company's auditing accountant or its designee.

The Internal Auditor shall perform his duties consistent with Sections 3(a), 4(b), 8-10, 14(b) and 14(c) of the Israeli Internal Audit Law, 1992 (the Internal Auditing Law), subject to the provisions of the Israeli Companies Law. The Internal Auditing Law governs internal auditing in public entities such as governmental offices, governmental companies and statutory institutes. The Israeli Companies Law applies seven general sections from the Internal Auditing Law on the Internal Auditor of a public company, which sections relate to the Internal Auditor's residency, experience, education and criminal record, the Internal Auditor's professional standards, restrictions over the Internal Auditor's additional positions and conflicts of interest, the Internal Auditor's authority, the Internal Auditor's report as evidence and permission to expand and/or preserve the Internal Auditor's authority by the Company, subject to Sections 146 through 153 of the Israeli Companies Law.

The Internal Auditor must submit to the Audit Committee periodic and annual audit plans for its advance approval. The Chairman of the Board and the Chair of the Audit Committee may delegate to the Internal Auditor additional audit duties for urgent examination in addition to the audit plan. The Internal Auditor shall, among other duties, audit the Company's compliance with applicable laws and proper business practices. The Internal Auditor shall report his findings to the Chairman of the Board, the Chair of the Audit Committee and the General Manager.

The Internal Auditor's term in office may not be terminated without his agreement, and he shall not be suspended from office, unless the Board of Directors determines to terminate the Internal Auditor based upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee and after the Internal Auditor was given a reasonable opportunity to state his case before the Board of Directors and before the Audit Committee.

Derivative Actions

The provisions of Sections 194 through 206 of the Israeli Companies Law shall apply to the Company. Such sections generally provide that a shareholder or director of the Company may file a derivative action by delivering a written demand to the Company requesting that it exhaust its rights by instituting an action. The Company may elect to take measures to drop the cause of action, reject the plaintiff's demand or file a lawsuit. The plaintiff may elect to file a derivative action with the approval of any court having competence to hear the action if the Company rejected the plaintiff's demand, the Company did not file suit within 75 days of delivering notice to the plaintiff of its intention to file suit, or the Company did not respond to the demand.

All derivative actions require the approval of a court with competence to hear the action. The court has the authority to require the parties to pay costs and expenses relating to the derivative action in such manner as the court elects. A plaintiff may not withdraw a derivative action or enter into an arrangement or settlement with the defendant other than with the consent of the court.

Class Actions

The provisions of Sections 207 through 218 of the Israeli Companies Law shall apply to the Company. Such sections generally provide that a person having a connection to a security may, with the consent of the relevant court, sue on behalf of a group all of whose members have a cause of action deriving from the same connection to a security. The Israeli Companies Law sets forth the requirements regarding the delivery of notice to the Israeli Attorney-General and the Israeli Securities Authority, the court's authority to approve a representative action upon satisfaction of certain conditions, the fees to be paid to the representative plaintiff and the authority of the court to approve any arrangement or compromise with a defendant.

Special Tender Offers; Forced Sale of Shares

Sections 328 through 340 of the Israeli Companies Law, which relate to special tender offers and forced sales of shares, shall be applicable to the Company. Such sections provide that in a public company, no purchase shall be effected as a result of which a person shall become a holder of a control block if there is no such holder in the company, and no purchase shall be effected as a result of which the purchaser's holdings shall increase above 45% of the voting rights of the Company if there is no other person holding more than 45% of the voting rights in the Company, other than by way of a tender offer in accordance with the Israeli Companies Law.

The sections dealing with tender offers do not apply to the purchase of shares in a private placement.

Where a special tender offer has been made, the Board of Directors of the Company must give its opinion to the offerees regarding the advisability of the special tender offer and must disclose all personal interests of each of the directors in the tender offer. A special tender offer must be made to all offerees, and the offer may only be accepted by a majority of the votes of those offerees who gave notice of their position with respect to the offer. The votes of a holder of a controlling interest in the offeror, a holder of a control block in the Company, or any person acting on their or on the offeror's behalf, shall not be taken into account.

A special tender offer may not be accepted unless shares conferring at least 5% of the voting rights in the Company have been purchased. Shares purchased in contravention of these requirements of the Israeli Companies Law will not confer any right and will be dormant shares as defined in the Israeli Companies Law.

Where a special tender offer has been accepted, the offeror, or any person controlling the offeror, shall not for a period of one year following the date of the tender offer, make another tender offer for purchase of shares in the company, and they shall not effect a merger of the company unless they undertook to do so in the special tender offer.

A person may not purchase shares of the Company such that after the purchase he holds more than 90% of the shares of the Company other than by way of a tender offer of all of the shares. When a stockholder owns more than 90% of all of the shares of the Company he shall not purchase any additional shares for so long as he continues to hold at least 90%.

Where a complete tender offer is accepted by the offerees in such a way that the rate of holding of the offerees who did not accept the offer is less than 5% of the issued shares, all of the shares that the offeror sought to purchase shall be transferred to him. Where a complete tender offer is not accepted, the offeror shall not purchase shares from offerees who have accepted the offer that will confer on him a holding of more than 90% of all the outstanding shares.

Upon application of an offeree submitted no later than three months after the date of receipt of the complete tender offer, a court may rule that the consideration paid for shares in a tender offer was less than their fair value and that fair value should be paid.

Compromises and Arrangements with Creditors and Stockholders

Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between the Company and its creditors or any class of them and/or between the Company and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application of the Company or of any creditor or stockholder, or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Company under the provisions of Section 291 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code, or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Company under the provisions of Section 279 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code, order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the Company, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the court directs. If a majority in number representing three-fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the Company, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of the Company as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, such compromise or arrangement and the reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of the Company and on the Company.

Director Liability

Sections 252 through 256 of the Israeli Companies Law will apply to the Company. Such sections provide that (i) an office holder owes a duty of care to the Company as provided in sections 35 and 36 of the Civil Wrongs Ordinance (which sections are included in Appendix E hereto), (ii) an office holder shall act with the standard of proficiency with which a reasonable office holder, in the same position and in the same circumstances, would act, and (iii) an office holder shall owe a fiduciary duty to the Company, and shall act in good faith and for the benefit of the Company. The Company may approve an act that would otherwise be deemed a violation of an office holder's fiduciary duty to the Company if (1) the office holder acted in good faith and neither the act nor the approval of the act prejudices the benefit of the Company, and (2) the office holder disclosed the essence of his personal interest in the act, including any substantial fact or document, a reasonable time before the date for discussion of the approval.

Securities (Purchase Offer) Regulations, 5760-2001

The Securities (Purchase Offer) Regulations, 5760-2000 shall apply to the Company following a public offering of its common stock in Israel. A complete copy of the Securities (Purchase Offer) Regulations, 5760-2000 is attached as Appendix G hereto.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE REINCORPORATION

The following description of federal income tax consequences is based on the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") and applicable treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial authority and current administrative rulings and practices as in effect on the date of this proxy statement. This discussion should not be considered tax or investment advice, and the tax consequences of the reincorporation may not be the same for all stockholders. In particular, this discussion does not address the tax treatment of special classes of stockholders, such as banks, insurance companies, tax-exempt entities and foreign persons. Stockholders desiring to know their individual federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences should consult their own tax advisors.

The reincorporation is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a)(1)(F) or 368(a)(1)(A) of the Code. Assuming such tax treatment, the following U.S. federal income tax consequences will generally result:

No taxable income, gain, or loss will be recognized by the Company or the Company's stockholders as a result of the exchange of shares of the Company's common stock for shares of Brainstorm Delaware common stock pursuant to the reincorporation.

The aggregate tax basis of the Brainstorm Delaware common stock received by each Company stockholder in the reincorporation will be equal to the aggregate tax basis of the Company's common stock surrendered in exchange therefore.

The holding period of the Brainstorm Delaware common stock received by each Company stockholder in the reincorporation will include the period for which such stockholder held the Company common stock surrendered in exchange therefor, provided that such Company common stock was held by such stockholder as a capital asset at the time of the reincorporation.

The Company has not requested a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) or an opinion of counsel with respect to the federal income tax consequences of the reincorporation under applicable tax laws. The Company believes that such a ruling and opinion are unnecessary and would add unneeded cost and delay because it knows of no reason why the IRS should challenge the described income tax consequences of the reincorporation. However, a successful IRS challenge to the reorganization status of the reincorporation would result in material adverse tax consequences to the Company, and in a shareholder recognizing gain or loss with respect to each share of Company common stock exchanged in the Reincorporation.

REGULATORY APPROVALS

The Company does not expect the merger to occur until it has all required consents of governmental authorities, including the filing of a Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and the filing of Articles of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Washington.

SECURITIES ACT CONSEQUENCES

The shares of Brainstorm Delaware common stock to be issued in exchange for shares of Company common stock are not being registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "1933 Act"). In that regard, Brainstorm Delaware is relying on Rule 145(a)(2) under the 1933 Act, which provides that a merger which has as its sole purpose a change in the domicile of a corporation does not involve the sale of securities for purposes of the 1933 Act, and on interpretations of the rule by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") which indicate that the making of certain changes in the surviving corporation's charter documents which could otherwise be made only with the approval of the stockholders of either corporation does not render Rule 145(a)(2) inapplicable.

After the reincorporation, Brainstorm Delaware will be a publicly-held company, Brainstorm Delaware common stock will be traded on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board service of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. under the symbol "BCLI", and Brainstorm Delaware will file periodic reports and other documents with the Commission and provide to its stockholders the same types of information that the Company has previously filed and provided. Stockholders whose common stock is freely tradable before the reincorporation will have freely tradable shares of Brainstorm Delaware common stock. Stockholders holding restricted shares of common stock will have shares of Brainstorm Delaware common stock which are subject to the same restrictions on transfer as those to which their present shares of common stock are subject, and their stock certificates, if surrendered for replacement certificates representing shares of Brainstorm Delaware common stock, will bear the same restrictive legend as appears on their present stock certificates.

For purposes of computing compliance with the holding period requirement of Rule 144 under the 1933 Act, stockholders will be deemed to have acquired their shares of Brainstorm Delaware common stock on the date they acquired their shares of Company common stock. In summary, Brainstorm Delaware and its stockholders will be in the same respective positions under the federal securities laws after the reincorporation as were the Company and its stockholders prior to the reincorporation.

ABANDONMENT, DEFERRAL AND AMENDMENT

Notwithstanding a favorable vote of the stockholders, the Company reserves the right, by action of the Company's Board of Directors, to abandon the reincorporation prior to effectiveness of the reincorporation or to amend the Merger Agreement if it determines that such abandonment or amendment is in the best interests of the Company. The Company also reserves the right, by action of the Company's Board of Directors, to defer the reincorporation for a reasonable period of time if, in the opinion of the Boards of Directors of the Company, such action would be in the best interests of the Company. The Merger Agreement, however, may not be amended after shareholder approval if such amendment would have a material adverse effect on the rights of such shareholders or violate applicable law. The Company's Board of Directors has made no determination as to any circumstances which may prompt a decision to abandon the reincorporation.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BRAINSTORM BOARD

Pursuant to the WBCA, this proposal to reincorporate the Company in Delaware pursuant to the Merger Agreement must be approved by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the voting group comprising all the votes entitled to be cast on the plan of reincorporation.

The Company's Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote FOR this proposal.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table sets forth certain information as of September 30, 2006 with respect to the beneficial ownership of common stock of the Company by the following: (i) each of the Company's current directors; (ii) each of the named executive officers as defined in Item 402(a)(2) of Regulation S-B; (iii) the former Chief Executive Officer of the Company; (iv) all of the current executive officers and directors as a group; and (v) each person known by the Company to own beneficially more than five percent (5%) of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock.

For purposes of the following table, beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and the information is not necessarily indicative of beneficial ownership for any other purpose. Except as otherwise noted in the footnotes to the table, the Company believes that each person or entity named in the table has sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of the Company's common stock shown as beneficially owned by that person or entity (or shares such power with his or her spouse). Under the SEC's rules, shares of the Company's common stock issuable upon exercise of options that are exercisable on or within 60 days after September 30, 2006 ("Presently Exercisable Options") or under warrants that are exercisable on or within 60 days after September 30, 2006 ("Presently Exercisable Warrants") are deemed outstanding and therefore included in the number of shares reported as beneficially owned by a person or entity named in the table and are used to compute the percentage of the common stock beneficially owned by that person or entity. These shares are not, however, deemed outstanding for computing the percentage of the common stock beneficially owned by any other person or entity. Unless otherwise indicated, the address of each person listed in the table is c/o Brainstorm Cell Therapeutics Inc., 110 East 59th Street, 25th Floor, New York, NY 10022.

The percentage of the common stock beneficially owned by each person or entity named in the following table is based on 23,729,961 shares of common stock outstanding as of September 30, 2006 plus any shares issuable upon exercise of Presently Exercisable Options and Presently Exercisable Warrants held by such person or entity.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Company is a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Washington and is authorized to issue (i) 440,000,000 shares of Common Stock, $0.00005 par value per share, and (ii) 40,000,000 shares of preferred stock;

WHEREAS, the Surviving Company is a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company and is authorized to issue 800,000,000 shares of Common Stock, $0.00005 par value per share, of which 1,000 shares are issued to the Company and outstanding as of the date hereof;

WHEREAS, the Company desires to merge itself into the Surviving Company;

WHEREAS, the Surviving Company desires that the Company be merged into itself; and

WHEREAS, the Boards of Directors of the Company and the Surviving Company have adopted a resolution approving this Agreement and Plan of Merger;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the undertakings herein contained and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Merger. The Company shall be merged into the Surviving Company pursuant to Section 251 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware and Section 23B.11.010 of the Washington Business Corporation Act. The Surviving Company shall survive the merger herein contemplated and shall continue to be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware. The separate corporate existence of the Company shall cease upon the Effective Date (as defined below). The merger of the Company into the Surviving Company shall herein be referred to as the Merger.
2. Stockholder Approval. As soon as practicable after the execution of this Agreement and Plan of Merger, the Company and the Surviving Company shall submit this Agreement and Plan of Merger to their respective stockholders for approval.
3. Effective Date. The Merger shall be effective upon the filing of a Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and the filing of Articles of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Washington, which filings shall be made as soon as practicable after all required stockholder approvals have been obtained. The time of such effectiveness shall herein be referred to as the Effective Date.
4. Common Stock of the Company. On the Effective Date, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holders thereof, each share of Common Stock of the Company issued and outstanding immediately prior thereto shall cease to exist and shall be changed and converted into fully paid and non-assessable share(s) of the Common Stock of the Surviving Company.

5. Warrants of the Company. On the Effective Date, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holders thereof, each outstanding Warrant which prior to that time represented Warrants of the Company shall cease to exist and shall be deemed for all purposes to evidence ownership of and to represent Warrants of the Surviving Company and shall be so registered on the books and records of the Surviving Company or its transfer agents.

6. Options of the Company. On the Effective Date, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holders thereof, the Surviving Company will assume and continue any and all of the Company's employee benefit plans in effect on the Effective Date with respect to which employee options, rights or accrued benefits are outstanding and unexercised as of such date. Effective on the Effective Date, the Surviving Company shall continue in effect all such employee benefit plans upon the same terms and conditions as were in effect immediately prior to the Merger, and shall continue to reserve that number of shares of Common Stock of the Surviving Company with respect to each such employee benefit plan as was reserved by the Company prior to the Effective Date with no other changes in the terms and conditions of such options.

7. Common Stock of the Surviving Company. On the Effective Date, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, each share of Common Stock of the Surviving Company issued and outstanding immediately prior thereto shall be canceled and returned to the status of authorized but unissued shares.

8. Stock Certificates. On and after the Effective Date, all of the outstanding certificates which prior to that time represented shares of the Common Stock of the Company shall be deemed for all purposes to evidence ownership of and to represent the shares of the Surviving Company into which the shares of the Company represented by such certificates have been converted as herein provided. The registered owner on the books and records of the Surviving Company or its transfer agent of any such outstanding stock certificate shall, until such certificate shall have been surrendered for transfer or conversion or otherwise accounted for to the Surviving Company or its transfer agent, have and be entitled to exercise any voting and other rights with respect to and to receive any dividend and other distributions upon the shares of the Surviving Company evidenced by such outstanding certificate as above provided.

9. Succession. On the Effective Date, the Surviving Company shall succeed to all of the rights, privileges, debts, liabilities, powers and property of the Company in the manner of and as more fully set forth in Section 259 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware. Without limiting the foregoing, upon the Effective Date, all property, rights, privileges, franchises, patents, trademarks, licenses, registrations, and other assets of every kind and description of the Company shall be transferred to, vested in and devolved upon the Surviving Company without further act or deed and all property, rights, and every other interest of the Company and the Surviving Company shall be as effectively the property of the Surviving Company as they were of the Company and the Surviving Company, respectively. SECTION 2. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of stockholders for the election of directors and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting shall be held on such date and at such hour and place as the directors or an officer designated by the directors may determine. If the annual meeting is not held on the date designated therefor, the directors shall cause the meeting to be held as soon thereafter as convenient.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the stockholders may be called at any time by the President, the Chairman of the Board, if any, or any two members of the Board of Directors, or by the Secretary or any other officer upon the written request of one or more stockholders holding of record at least a majority of the outstanding shares of stock of the corporation entitled to vote at such meeting. Such written request shall state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting. Business transacted at any special meeting of stockholders shall be limited to matters relating to the purpose or purposes stated in the notice of meeting.

SECTION 4. Notice of Meetings. Except where some other notice is required by law, written notice of each meeting of stockholders, stating the place, date and hour thereof and the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given by or under the direction of the Secretary, not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date fixed for such meeting, to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting of record at the close of business on the day fixed by the Board of Directors as a record date for the determination of the stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting or, if no such date has been fixed, of record at the close of business on the day before the day on which notice is given. Notice shall be given personally to each stockholder or left at his or her residence or usual place of business or mailed postage prepaid and addressed to the stockholder at his or her address as it appears upon the records of the corporation. In case of the death, absence, incapacity or refusal of the Secretary, such notice may be given by a person designated either by the Secretary or by the person or persons calling the meeting or by the Board of Directors. A waiver of such notice in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to such notice. Attendance of a person at a meeting of stockholders shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the stockholder attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the stockholders need be specified in any written waiver of notice. Except as required by statute, notice of any adjourned meeting of the stockholders shall not be required.

SECTION 5. Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock ledger of the corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten days prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder who is present. The stock ledger shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by this section or the books of the corporation, or to vote at any meeting of stockholders.

SECTION 6. Quorum of Stockholders. At any meeting of the stockholders, the holders of a majority in interest of all stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote upon a question to be considered at the meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the consideration of such question, but a smaller group may adjourn any meeting from time to time. When a quorum is present at any meeting, a majority of the stock represented thereat and entitled to vote shall, except where a larger vote is required by law, by the certificate of incorporation, or by these by-laws, decide any question brought before such meeting. Any election by stockholders shall be determined by a plurality of the vote cast by the stockholders entitled to vote at the election.

SECTION 7. Proxies and Voting. Unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation, each stockholder shall at every meeting of the stockholders be entitled to one vote in person or by proxy for each share of the capital stock held of record by such stockholder, but no proxy shall be voted or acted upon after three years from its date, unless said proxy provides for a longer period. Persons holding stock in a fiduciary capacity shall be entitled to vote the shares so held, and persons whose stock is pledged shall be entitled to vote, unless in the transfer by the pledgor on the books of the corporation the pledgee shall have been expressly empowered to vote thereon, in which case only the pledgee or the pledgee's proxy may represent said stock and vote thereon. Shares of the capital stock of the corporation belonging to the corporation or to another corporation, a majority of whose shares entitled to vote in the election of directors is owned by the corporation, shall neither be entitled to vote nor be counted for quorum purposes.

SECTION 8. Conduct of Meeting. Meetings of the stockholders shall be presided over by one of the following officers in the order of seniority and if present and acting: the Chairman of the Board, if any, the Vice-Chairman of the Board, if any, the President, a Vice-President, or, if none of the foregoing is in office and present and acting, a chairman to be chosen by the stockholders. The Secretary of the corporation, if present, or an Assistant Secretary, shall act as secretary of every meeting, but if neither the Secretary nor an Assistant Secretary is present the chairman of the meeting shall appoint a secretary of the meeting.

SECTION 9. Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders of the corporation may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the holders or by proxy for the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote on such action were present and voted. Prompt notice of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing.

ARTICLE II DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. General Powers. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who may exercise all of the powers of the corporation which are not by law required to be exercised by the stockholders. In the event of a vacancy in the Board of Directors, the remaining directors, except as otherwise provided by law, may exercise the powers of the full Board until the vacancy is filled.

SECTION 2. Number; Election; Tenure and Qualification. The number of initial Directors shall be fixed by the incorporator, and the initial Board of Directors shall be elected by the incorporator. Thereafter, the number of directors which shall constitute the whole Board shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors, but in no event shall be less than one. Each director shall be elected by the stockholders at the annual meeting and all directors shall hold office until the next annual meeting and until their successors are elected and qualified, or until their earlier death, resignation or removal. Directors need not be stockholders of the corporation.

SECTION 3. Change in Number of Directors on the Board of Directors. The number of the Board of Directors may be increased or decreased at any time, such change to be effective immediately, by vote of a majority of the directors then in office.

SECTION 4. Vacancies. Unless and until filled by the stockholders, any vacancy in the Board of Directors, however occurring, including a vacancy resulting from an enlargement of the Board and an unfilled vacancy resulting from the removal of any director for cause or without cause, may only be filled by vote of a majority of the directors then in office although less than a quorum, or by the sole remaining director. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until his or her successor is elected and qualified or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. When one or more directors shall resign from the Board, effective at a future date, a majority of the directors then in office, including those who have so resigned, shall have the power to fill such vacancy or vacancies, the vote thereon to take effect when such resignation or resignations shall become effective. If at any time there are no directors in office, then an election of directors may be held in accordance with the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

SECTION 5. Resignation. Any director may resign at any time upon written notice to the corporation. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, or if no time is specified, at the time of its receipt by the President or Secretary.

SECTION 6. Removal. Notwithstanding Section 141(k)(1) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, any director or the entire Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, at an annual meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose, by the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors. The vacancy or vacancies thus created may be filled by the directors in the manner provided in Section 4 of this Article II.

SECTION 7. Committees. The Board of Directors may designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of one or more directors of the corporation. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee.

Any such committee may fix its rules of procedure and fix the time and place, whether within or without the State of Delaware, of its meetings and specify what notice thereof, if any, shall be given, unless the Board of Directors shall otherwise by resolution provide. The Board of Directors shall have the power to change the members of any such committee at any time, to fill vacancies therein and to discharge any such committee, either with or without cause, at any time.

Any such committee, unless otherwise provided in the resolution of the Board of Directors, or in these by-laws, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, and may authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it; but no such committee shall have the power or authority denied it by Section 141 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

Each committee shall keep regular minutes of its meetings and make such reports as the Board of Directors may from time to time request.

SECTION 8. Meetings of the Board of Directors. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without call or formal notice at such places either within or without the State of Delaware and at such times as the Board may from time to time determine. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors may be held without call or formal notice immediately after and at the same place as the annual meeting of the stockholders, or any special meeting of the stockholders at which a Board of Directors is elected.

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any place either within or without the State of Delaware at any time when called by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, Treasurer, Secretary, or two or more directors. Forty-eight hours notice by mail, facsimile, telephone or word of mouth shall be given for a special meeting unless shorter notice or a different method of notice is adequate under the circumstances. A notice or waiver of notice need not specify the purpose of any special meeting. Notice of a meeting need not be given to any director, if a written waiver of notice, executed by him before or after the meeting, is filed with the records of the meeting, or to any director who attends the meeting without protesting prior thereto or at its commencement the lack of notice to him. No notice of any adjourned meeting of the Board of Directors shall be required.

Directors or members of any committee designated by the directors may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

SECTION 9. Quorum and Voting. A majority of the total number of directors shall constitute a quorum, except that when a vacancy or vacancies exist in the Board, a majority of the directors then in office (but not less than one-third of the total number of the directors) shall constitute a quorum. A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any meeting from time to time. The vote of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors, except where a different vote is required or permitted by law, by the certificate of incorporation, or by these by-laws.

SECTION 10. Compensation. The Board of Directors may fix fees for their services and for their membership on committees, and expenses of attendance may be allowed for attendance at each meeting. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity as an officer, agent or otherwise, and receiving compensation therefor.

SECTION 11. Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors, or of any committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting, and without notice, if a written consent thereto is signed by all members of the Board of Directors, or of such committee, as the case may be, and such written consent is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or such committee.

SECTION 7. Powers and Duties. The officers of the corporation shall have such powers and perform such duties as are specified herein and as may be conferred upon or assigned to them by the Board of Directors, and shall have such additional powers and duties as are incident to their office except to the extent that resolutions of the Board of Directors are inconsistent therewith.

SECTION 8. President and Vice-Presidents. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and the Board of Directors unless a Chairman or Vice-Chairman of the Board is elected by the Board, empowered to preside, and present at such meeting, shall have general and active management of the business of the corporation and general supervision of its officers, agents and employees, and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect.

The Board of Directors may assign to any Vice-President the title of Executive Vice-President, Senior Vice-President or any other title selected by the Board of Directors.

C-4

SECTION 9. Secretary and Assistant Secretaries. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the stockholders and record all the proceedings of such meetings in a book to be kept for that purpose, shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, shall maintain a stock ledger and prepare lists of stockholders and their addresses as required and shall have custody of the corporate seal which the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary shall have authority to affix to any instrument requiring it and attest by any of their signatures. The Assistant Secretary if any (or if there be more than one, the Assistant Secretaries in the order determined by the Board of Directors or if there be no such determination, then in the order of their election) shall, in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of the Secretary's inability or refusal to act, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Secretary.

SECTION 10. Treasurer and Assistant Treasurers. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities, shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors or the President, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or whenever they may require it, an account of all transactions and of the financial condition of the corporation.

The Assistant Treasurer if any (or if there be more than one, the Assistant Treasurers in the order determined by the Board of Directors or if there be no such determination, then in the order of their election) shall, in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his or her inability or refusal to act, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Treasurer.

SECTION 12. Salaries. Officers of the corporation shall be entitled to such salaries, compensation or reimbursement as shall be fixed or allowed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Any or all signatures on any such certificate may be facsimiles. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who shall have signed or whose facsimile signature shall have been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the corporation with the same effect as if he or she were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Each certificate for shares of stock which are subject to any restriction on transfer pursuant to the certificate of incorporation, the by-laws, applicable securities laws, or any agreement among any number of shareholders or among such holders and the corporation shall have conspicuously noted on the face or back of the certificate either the full text of the restriction or a statement of the existence of such restriction.

SECTION 2. Transfers of Shares of Stock. Subject to the restrictions, if any, stated or noted on the stock certificates, shares of stock may be transferred on the books of the corporation by the surrender to the corporation or its transfer agent of the certificate representing such shares properly endorsed or accompanied by a written assignment or power of attorney properly executed, and with such proof of authority or the authenticity of signature as the corporation or its transfer agent may reasonably require. The corporation shall be entitled to treat the record holder of stock as shown on its books as the owner of such stock for all purposes, including the payment of dividends and the right to vote with respect to that stock, regardless of any transfer, pledge or other disposition of that stock, until the shares have been transferred on the books of the corporation in accordance with the requirements of these by-laws.

SECTION 3. Lost Certificates. A new certificate of stock may be issued in the place of any certificate theretofore issued by the corporation and alleged to have been lost, stolen, destroyed, or mutilated, upon such terms in conformity with law as the Board of Directors shall prescribe. The directors may, in their discretion, require the owner of the lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificate, or the owner's legal representatives, to give the corporation a bond, in such sum as they may direct, to indemnify the corporation against any claim that he made against it on account of the alleged loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of any such certificate, or the issuance of any such new certificate.

SECTION 4. Record Date. The Board of Directors may fix in advance a record date for the determination of the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action. Such record date shall not be more than 60 nor less than 10 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action to which such record date relates.

If no record date is fixed, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given, or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held. Unless otherwise fixed by the Board of Directors, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, when no prior action by the Board of Directors is necessary, shall be the day on which the first written consent is expressed. The record date for determining stockholders for any other purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution relating to such purpose.

A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

SECTION 5. Fractional Share Interests. Unless otherwise prohibited by the certificate of incorporation, the corporation may, but shall not be required to, issue fractions of a share. If the corporation does not issue fractions of a share, it shall (1) arrange for the disposition of fractional interests by those entitled thereto, (2) pay in cash the fair value of fractions of a share as of the time when those entitled to receive such fractions are determined, or (3) issue scrip or warrants in registered or bearer form which shall entitle the holder to receive a certificate for a full share upon the surrender of such scrip or warrants aggregating a full share. A certificate for a fractional share shall, but scrip or warrants shall not unless otherwise provided therein, entitle the holder to exercise voting rights, to receive dividends thereon, and to participate in any of the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation. The Board of Directors may cause scrip or warrants to be issued subject to the conditions that they shall become void if not exchanged for certificates representing full shares before a specified date, or subject to the conditions that the shares for which scrip or warrants are exchangeable may be sold by the corporation and the proceeds thereof distributed to the holders of scrip or warrants, or subject to any other conditions which the Board of Directors may impose.

SECTION 6. Dividends. Subject to the provisions of the certificate of incorporation, the Board of Directors may, out of funds legally available therefor, at any regular or special meeting, declare dividends upon the common stock of the corporation as and when they deem expedient.

(1) The material facts as to the relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or
