On October 17, 2007, the Company signed an agreement to acquire Advanced Academics Inc. (AAI), a leading provider of online secondary education, for $27.5 million in cash. Closing is expected to occur by October 31, 2007.

Founded in 2000 and headquartered in Oklahoma City, Okla., AAI partners with school districts to help more students graduate high school. AAI supplements traditional classroom programs through Web-based course instruction using highly qualified teachers and a proprietary technology platform specifically designed for secondary education. AAI also operates virtual high schools in 5 states. Since its inception, AAI has delivered online learning programs to more than 15,000 students in more than 300 schools.

The existing AAI management team will remain in place, and will report to Steven Riehs, vice president and general manager of DeVry Online. The financial results of AAI will be reported as part of the DeVry University segment.
