QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: What will I receive in the merger?

A: As a result of the merger, you will receive $8.10 in cash, without interest, for each share of our common stock you own (except to the extent you properly exercise your appraisal rights under Delaware law). For example, if you own 100 shares of our common stock, you will receive $810 in cash in exchange for your Agile shares. See The Merger Merger Consideration.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: We urge you to read this proxy statement carefully, including its annexes, and consider how the merger affects you. We urge you to respond by voting your shares through one of the following means: by mail, by completing, signing, dating and mailing each proxy card or voting instruction card you receive and returning it in the envelope provided; via telephone, using the toll-free number listed on each proxy card (if you are a registered stockholder, meaning that you hold your stock in your name) or voting instruction card (if your shares are held in street name, meaning that your shares are held in the name of a broker, bank or other nominee, and your bank, broker or nominee makes telephone voting available); via the Internet, at the address provided on each proxy card (if you are a registered stockholder) or voting instruction card (if your shares are held in street name and your bank, broker or nominee makes Internet voting available); or by person (if you are a registered stockholder), by attending the special meeting and submitting your vote in person.

Q: How does Agile's board of directors recommend I vote?

A: At a meeting held on May 15, 2007, our board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and deemed it advisable and in the best interests of Agile's stockholders to consummate the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement. Our board of directors recommends that you vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement. See The Merger Reasons For The Merger And Board Of Directors Recommendation.

Q: What happens if I do not return a proxy card?

A: The failure to return your proxy card will have the same effect as voting against the merger. See The Special Meeting Voting Of Proxies.

Q: What if I don't vote?

A: If you fail to vote, it will have the same effect as a vote against the merger. If you submit your executed proxy, but fail to indicate how you want to vote on the merger, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of the merger. If you submit your proxy and indicate that you are abstaining from voting, your proxy will have the same effect as a vote against the merger.

Q: How do I vote?

A: If your shares are registered in your name directly with our transfer agent, you may vote by returning a signed proxy card or voting in person at the meeting. If you have shares registered directly with our transfer agent, Computershare Trust Company, N.A., you may choose to vote those shares via the Internet at www.investorvote.com, or you may vote telephonically, within the United States and Canada only, by calling Computershare at •. If your shares are held in street name through a broker or bank, you may vote by completing and returning the voting instruction form provided by your broker or bank or via the Internet or by telephone through your broker or bank, if such a service is provided. See The Special Meeting Voting Of Proxies.

Q: May I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

A: Yes. You may change your vote at any time before your proxy card is voted at the special meeting. You can do this in one of three ways. First, you can send a written, dated notice to our Secretary at 6373 San Ignacio

Table of Contents

Avenue, San Jose, California 95119 stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. Second, you can complete, date, and submit a new proxy card. Third, you can attend the meeting and vote in person. Your attendance alone will not revoke your proxy. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker to change those instructions. See The Special Meeting Revocability Of Proxies.

Q: If my broker holds my shares in street name, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Your broker will not be able to vote your shares without instructions from you. You should instruct your broker to vote your shares, following the procedure provided by your broker. Without instructions, your shares will not be voted, which will have the effect of a vote against the merger. See The Special Meeting Voting Of Proxies.

Q: Should I send in my Agile stock certificates now?

A: No. After the merger is completed, you will receive written instructions for exchanging your shares of our common stock for the merger consideration of $8.10 in cash, without interest, for each share of our common stock.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We are working toward completing the merger as quickly as possible. In addition to obtaining stockholder approval, we must satisfy all other closing conditions, including the expiration or termination of applicable regulatory waiting periods and receipt of specified antitrust approvals. We currently anticipate that the merger will close in July 2007.

Q: Am I entitled to appraisal rights?

A: Yes. Holders of our common stock are entitled to appraisal rights under the Delaware General Corporation Law in connection with the merger if they meet certain conditions. See The Merger Appraisal Rights.

Q: What does it mean if I get more than one proxy card or voting instruction card?

A: If your shares are registered differently and are in more than one account, you will receive more than one card. Please complete and return all of the proxy cards and voting instruction cards you receive (or submit your proxy by telephone or the Internet, if available to you) to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Q: Who can help answer my questions?

A: If you would like additional copies, without charge, of this proxy statement or if you have questions about the merger, including the procedures for voting your shares, you should contact Agile Investor Relations or •, Agile's proxy solicitor, at:

Merger Consideration

If the merger is completed, you will receive $8.10 in cash, without interest, in exchange for each share of our common stock that you own.

After the merger is completed, you will have the right to receive the merger consideration, but you will no longer have any rights as an Agile stockholder and will not have any rights as an Oracle stockholder. Our stockholders will receive the merger consideration after exchanging their Agile stock certificates in accordance with the instructions contained in the letter of transmittal to be sent to our stockholders shortly after completion of the merger.

See The Merger Merger Consideration.

Treatment Of Awards Outstanding Under Agile s Stock Plans

Except as described below, stock options to purchase our common stock that are outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will each be converted into an option to acquire, on the same terms and conditions applicable to such Agile stock options prior to the merger, a number of shares of Oracle common stock (rounded down to the nearest whole share) equal to:

the number of shares of our common stock subject to the option multiplied by a fraction (referred to as the option exchange ratio), the numerator of which is $8.10 and the denominator of which is the average closing price of Oracle common stock on the Nasdaq Global Market on the five trading days immediately prior to the effective date of the merger.

The exercise price for converted options will be equal to the per share exercise price for the shares of our common stock purchasable pursuant to the option divided by the option exchange ratio (rounded up to the nearest whole cent).

Oracle may elect not to assume options held by persons who are not employees of ours immediately prior to the effective time or who Oracle reasonably determines in its sole discretion will not be providing services to us, Oracle or our respective subsidiaries after the effective time. The options that are not assumed by Oracle will become fully vested at the effective time of the merger and exchanged into the right to receive an amount in cash (without interest and less applicable withholding) equal to the positive difference (if any) between $8.10 and the per-share exercise price of the option.

Restricted Shares. If you hold shares of our common stock that are subject to a right of repurchase by us, subject to forfeiture back to us and/or subject to transfer or lock-up restrictions (referred to as restricted shares), at the effective time your restricted shares will be converted into a right to receive (without interest and less applicable withholding) $8.10 in cash per share from Oracle on a deferred basis if and when the conditions to vesting of the shares are satisfied or the restrictions imposed on the shares lapse. If the vesting conditions applicable to restricted shares are not satisfied, or if the restrictions imposed on the shares do not lapse, then you will generally forfeit the cash merger consideration payable with respect to those shares.

Market Price And Dividend Data

Our common stock is listed on The Nasdaq Global Market under the symbol AGIL. On May 15, 2007, the last full trading day prior to the public announcement of the proposed merger, our common stock closed at $7.08. On ●, 2007, the last full trading day prior to the date of this proxy statement, our common stock closed at $●. See Market Price And Dividend Data.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences Of The Merger

The receipt of cash in exchange for shares of our common stock will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes. See Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences Of The Merger. We urge you to consult your own tax advisors to determine the particular tax consequences to you (including the application and effect of any state, local or foreign income and other tax laws) of the receipt of cash in the merger.

Reasons For The Merger

Our board of directors approved the merger based on a number of positive factors, including the following:

the value of the consideration to be received by our stockholders in the merger pursuant to the merger agreement;

the fact that the $8.10 per share to be paid as the consideration in the merger represents a premium of approximately 21.7% over the 90-day average trading price of our common stock of $6.65 per share of our common stock, a premium of approximately 14.4% over the 30 day average trading price of our common stock of $7.08 per share of our common stock, and a premium of approximately 11.6% over the $7.26 closing sale price for the shares of our common stock on The Nasdaq Global Market on May 14, 2007, the last trading day prior to the date our board of directors approved the merger agreement;

the multiple of our revenue represented by the $8.10 per share purchase price relative to multiples of revenue represented by the consideration paid in comparable precedent transactions;

our business and financial prospects, if we were to remain an independent company;

the financial presentation of Citigroup Global Markets, Inc., our financial advisor, on May 15, 2007, and the oral opinion of Citigroup delivered on May 15, 2007, to our board of directors, subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated May 15, 2007, to the effect that, as of the date of the written opinion, and based upon and subject to the considerations and limitations set forth in the written opinion, the $8.10 per share in cash to be received by holders of our common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to those holders (the full text of the written opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by Citigroup in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement);

the likelihood that the proposed acquisition would be consummated, in light of the experience, reputation and financial capabilities of Oracle;

the form of merger consideration, consisting solely of cash, which provides certainty of value to our stockholders;

the process through which Agile, with the assistance of its financial advisors, engaged in or sought to engage in discussions with companies believed to be the most likely candidates to pursue a business combination with or acquisition of Agile;

the belief of our board of directors that, after extensive negotiations with Oracle and its representatives, we have obtained the highest price per share that Oracle is willing to pay and the highest price obtainable on the date of signing of the merger agreement;

the merger agreement, subject to the limitations and requirements contained in the agreement, allows our board of directors to furnish information to and conduct negotiations with third parties in certain circumstances and, upon payment to Oracle of a termination fee of $16,400,000, to terminate the merger agreement to accept a superior offer;

the other terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including among other things the size of the termination fee and the circumstances when that fee may be payable; the limited number and nature of the conditions to Oracle's obligation to complete the merger, including (but not limited to) the absence of a financing condition and the adequacy of Oracle's capital resources to pay the merger consideration; and the definition of material adverse effect and the exceptions for what constitutes a material adverse effect for purposes of the merger agreement; and the voting agreements with our officers and directors terminate in the event that we terminate the merger agreement which permits those persons to support a transaction involving a superior offer.

In approving the merger, our board of directors also took into account a number of negative factors, including the following:

the potential loss of customer or other commercial relationships of Agile as a result of the customer's or other party's unwillingness to do business with Oracle, or other potential disruption to customer, vendor or other commercial relationships important to us as a result of the merger;

risks and contingencies related to the announcement and pendency of the merger, including the likely impact of the merger on our employees, customers and partners and the expected effect of the merger on our existing relationships with third parties;

the possibility that the merger will not be consummated and the potential negative effect of public announcement of the merger on our sales, operating results and stock price and our ability to retain key management and personnel; that our stockholders would not benefit from any future increase in our value;

the conditions to Oracle's obligation to complete the merger and the right of Oracle to terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances;

the possibility that we may be obligated to pay Oracle a termination fee or reimburse Oracle for its expenses if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances;

the fact that the merger consideration consists of cash and will therefore be taxable to our stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

the restrictions on our ability to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations regarding alternative business combination transactions, subject to specified exceptions, and the requirement that we pay a termination fee in order to accept a superior acquisition proposal, which may discourage a competing proposal to acquire us that may be more advantageous to our stockholders;

the restrictions on the conduct of our business prior to the completion of the merger, requiring us to conduct our business in the ordinary course, subject to specific limitations, which may delay or prevent us from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the merger; and the risk of diverting management's focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from operational matters while working to implement the merger, and the possibility of other management and employee disruption associated with the merger, including the possible loss of key management, technical or other personnel.

Opinion Of Our Financial Advisor

Citigroup delivered its opinion to our board of directors that, as of the date of the written opinion, and based upon and subject to the considerations and limitations set forth in the written opinion, the $8.10 per share of our common stock in cash to be received by the holders of shares of our common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to those holders.

The full text of the written opinion of Citigroup, dated May 15, 2007, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement. Our stockholders should read the opinion in its entirety. Citigroup provided its opinion for the information and assistance of our board of directors in connection with its consideration of the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement. The Citigroup opinion is not a recommendation as to how any holder of our common stock should vote with respect to the transaction.

all of our executive officers will have the vesting of options and restricted shares (or the receipt of cash merger consideration into which such restricted shares are converted in the merger) accelerated in the event they are terminated by Oracle other than for cause or constructively terminated within 18 months following the merger; and our non-employee directors will have the vesting of options accelerated in connection with the merger.

Conditions To The Completion Of The Merger

Each party s obligation to effect the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of various conditions, which include, among others, the following:

the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock must have voted in favor of adopting the merger agreement;

no applicable law or order prohibiting the closing of the merger; and the waiting period required under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 must have expired or been terminated, and the waiting period must have been expired or approvals must have been obtained under specified foreign antitrust laws.

See The Merger Agreement Conditions To Completion Of The Merger.

Termination Of The Merger Agreement

Oracle and we can terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances, including:

by mutual written agreement of Oracle and us;

by either Oracle or us, if the merger has not been completed by October 31, 2007 for any reason, provided that this right to terminate the merger agreement will not be available to a party whose material breach of the merger agreement results in the failure of the merger to be completed by October 31, 2007;

by either Oracle or us, if any law or order becomes final and non-appealable that makes closing of the merger illegal or otherwise prohibited or that enjoins closing of the merger;

by either Oracle or us, if our stockholders do not adopt the merger agreement at a duly held stockholders meeting;

by either Oracle or us, if the other party has breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements contained in the merger agreement, which breach or failure to perform would result in failure of the conditions to the merger relating to representations, warranties and covenants, including the condition described in the sixth bullet point in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Conditions to Completion of the Merger," subject to a 30-day cure period under specified circumstances;

by Oracle in the event that our board of directors makes an adverse recommendation change, we enter into or publicly announce an intention to enter into a definitive agreement or agreement in principle relating to an alternative acquisition proposal, or we or any of our representatives willfully and materially breach the provisions of the merger agreement relating to solicitation of alternative acquisition proposals; and by us in order to enter into a binding agreement with respect to a superior proposal from a third party, subject to specified conditions. See "The Merger Agreement - Termination."

Limitations On Considering Other Acquisition Proposals

We have agreed that we and our subsidiaries will not, and will not authorize or permit any of our representatives to, directly or indirectly, take certain actions in connection with alternative acquisition proposal, including not to solicit, initiate or knowingly take any action to facilitate or encourage another transaction involving in excess of 15% of our equity or assets or any liquidation, recapitalization or other significant corporate reorganization.

See "The Merger Agreement - Board Recommendation; No Solicitation Of Alternative Proposals."

Expenses And Termination Fees

The merger agreement requires that we pay Oracle a termination fee of $16,400,000, or reimburse Oracle for up to $5,000,000 of its out-of-pocket expenses, if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances.

See "The Merger Agreement - Termination Fee" and "The Merger Agreement - Expenses."

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase transaction for financial accounting purposes.

See "The Merger - Accounting Treatment."

Regulatory Matters

The Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act prohibits us from completing the merger until we have furnished certain information and materials to the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission and the required waiting period has ended. The merger is also subject to review or notice requirements under the antitrust laws of Germany, Austria, Brazil and China, and may be subject to review or notice requirements under the antitrust laws of other foreign jurisdictions.

See "The Merger - Regulatory Matters."

Voting Agreements

Our directors and certain of our executive officers, in their capacity as stockholders, have entered into voting agreements in substantially the form attached hereto as Annex B, pursuant to which each such stockholder has agreed, among other things, to vote their shares in favor of adoption of the merger agreement, and have granted irrevocable proxies to Oracle to vote their shares in favor of adoption of the merger agreement. These executive officers and directors owned in the aggregate • shares of our common stock that are subject to the voting agreements on the record date for the special meeting, representing •% of the votes entitled to be cast at the special meeting.

See The Voting Agreements.

Appraisal Rights

Our stockholders have the right under Delaware law to dissent from the approval of the merger and to exercise appraisal rights and to receive payment in cash for the fair value of their shares of our common stock determined in accordance with Delaware law. The fair value of shares of our common stock as determined in accordance with Delaware law may be more or less than the merger consideration to be paid to non-dissenting Agile stockholders in the merger. To preserve their rights, stockholders who wish to exercise appraisal rights must not vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and must follow specific procedures. Dissenting Agile stockholders must precisely follow these specific procedures to exercise appraisal rights, or their appraisal rights may be lost. These procedures are described in this proxy statement, and the provisions of Delaware law that grant appraisal rights and govern such procedures are attached as Annex D. You are encouraged to read these provisions carefully and in their entirety.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

We are furnishing this proxy statement to our stockholders as part of the solicitation of proxies by our board of directors for use at the special meeting.

Date, Time And Place

We will hold the special meeting at our headquarters located at 6373 San Ignacio Avenue, San Jose, California 95119, at • a.m., local time, on •, 2007.

Purpose Of Special Meeting

At the special meeting, we will ask holders of our common stock to consider and vote on a proposal to adopt the merger agreement. Our board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and deems it advisable and in the best interests of our stockholders to consummate the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement. Our board of directors recommends that our stockholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

Record Date; Stock Entitled To Vote; Quorum

Only holders of record of our common stock at the close of business on •, 2007, the record date, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. On the record date, • shares of our common stock were issued and outstanding and held by approximately • holders of record. A quorum is present at the special meeting if a majority of the shares of our common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote on the record date are represented in person or by proxy. In the event that a quorum is not present at the special meeting, it is expected that the meeting will be adjourned or postponed to solicit additional proxies. Holders of record of our common stock on the record date are entitled to one vote per share at the special meeting on the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

Vote Required

The adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of our common stock outstanding on the record date. If a holder of our common stock abstains from voting or does not vote, either in person or by proxy, it will effectively count as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement.

Voting By Agile s Directors and Executive Officers

At the close of business on the record date, our directors and executive officers and their affiliates owned and were entitled to vote • shares of our common stock, which represented approximately •% of the shares of our common stock outstanding on that date. All of our directors and certain executive officers have entered into a voting agreement with Oracle, in their capacity as Agile stockholders, to vote shares held by them in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement. See The Voting Agreements.

Voting Of Proxies

All shares represented by properly executed proxies received in time for the special meeting will be voted at the special meeting in the manner specified by the holders. Properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions will be voted FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

If you have shares registered directly with our transfer agent, Computershare Trust Company, N.A., you may choose to vote those shares via the Internet at www.investorvote.com, or you may vote telephonically, within the United States and Canada only, by calling Computershare at •. If your shares are held in street name through a broker or bank, you may only vote by completing and returning the voting instruction form provided by your broker or bank or via the Internet or by telephone through your broker or bank, if such a service is provided.

Shares of our common stock represented, but not voting, at the special meeting, including shares of our common stock for which proxies have been received, but for which stockholders have abstained, will be treated as present at the special meeting for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of all business.

Only shares affirmatively voted for the adoption of the merger agreement, including properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions, will be counted as favorable votes for that proposal. If a holder of our common stock abstains from voting or does not execute a proxy, it will effectively count as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement. Brokers who hold shares of our common stock in street name for customers who are the beneficial owners of such shares may not give a proxy to vote those customers' shares in the absence of specific instructions from those customers. These non-voted shares will effectively count as votes against the adoption of the merger agreement.

The persons named as proxies by a stockholder may propose and vote for one or more adjournments of the special meeting, including adjournments to permit further solicitations of proxies.

We do not expect that any matter other than the proposal to adopt the merger agreement will be brought before the special meeting. If, however, our board of directors properly presents other matters, the persons named as proxies will vote, with respect to each of such matters, in accordance with their judgment as to whether such matter is in the best interests of the stockholders.

Revocability Of Proxies

The grant of a proxy on the enclosed form of proxy does not preclude a stockholder from voting in person at the special meeting. A stockholder may revoke a proxy at any time prior to its exercise by:

filing with our Secretary a duly executed revocation of proxy;

submitting a duly executed proxy to our Secretary bearing a later date; or appearing at the special meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the special meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy.

If you have instructed your broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker to change these instructions.

Solicitation Of Proxies

All costs of solicitation of proxies will be borne by us. We have retained • to aid in the solicitation of proxies and to verify records relating to the solicitation for a fee of $•, plus reimbursement of reasonable expenses. The extent to which these proxy soliciting efforts will be necessary depends entirely upon how promptly proxies are received. Please send in your proxy by mail without delay. We also reimburse brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their expenses in sending these materials to you and getting your voting instructions.

Stockholders should not send stock certificates with their proxies. A letter of transmittal with instructions for the surrender of our common stock certificates will be mailed to our stockholders as soon as reasonably practicable after completion of the merger.

THE MERGER

The following discussion summarizes the material terms of the merger. Stockholders should read the merger agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement.

Background To The Merger

Over the past several years, we have considered a diverse range of strategic alternatives with a view to increasing stockholder value, including potential acquisitions by Agile, strategic equity offerings and the possible sale of Agile.

In the spring of 2005, we retained Citigroup to assist us with a potential major strategic acquisition and to identify additional acquisition targets. After a lengthy process, we were not able to reach an agreement on terms of the potential major acquisition and, in the spring of 2006, the potential strategic target pursued a transaction with a third party. During this period we also met with several private equity firms, who expressed their interest in financing a portion of the potential major acquisition by Agile, as well as their views on our overall valuation.

On June 27, 2006, we purchased Prodika for $15,000,000 in cash and up to $12,500,000 in contingent consideration.

On July 17, 2006, we announced that we would be unable to file our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended April 30, 2006, as a result of a review of our financial statements and internal controls with respect to our Taiwan sales operations, which review had not been completed at that time. On October 26, 2006, we announced that we had concluded that we needed to restate certain annual and interim financial statements for our fiscal year 2000 and later periods as a result of our review of our historic stock option grant practices.

On September 5, 2006, we entered into an engagement letter with Citigroup to act as our exclusive financial advisor in connection with a possible transaction involving us.

At a special board meeting held on September 6, 2006, our board of directors, together with its financial and legal advisors, discussed in general various possible transaction scenarios; our board of directors discussed approximately fifteen potential strategic acquirors of Agile and potential private equity firms including some of those private equity firms referenced above. At this meeting, our board of directors authorized management and Citigroup to contact selected potential acquirors to ascertain their level of interest in a possible transaction.

Over the period from September 2006 through May 2007, Citigroup and Agile management contacted and held discussions with eight potential strategic acquirors and three private equity firms. Five of the potential strategic acquirors indicated that they did not wish to engage in discussions regarding a transaction. Oracle and two others expressed a willingness to engage in discussions. We entered into confidentiality agreements with these three potential strategic partners, including Oracle. Over the course of periodic discussions with the private equity firms, it became clear that private equity firms would not entertain valuation levels for Agile that we could achieve with potential strategic partners.

In the fall of 2006, we received an indication of interest from a company in acquiring us, initially for $8.50 per share and subsequently for a price between $8.40 and $8.70 per share. However that party was uncertain as to the timing of a potential transaction with us and unable to commit to timing for, and certainty of, executing a transaction.

By early December 2006, Oracle informed us that it was willing to discuss the potential for a transaction at a tentative price of $8.60, but only on an exclusive basis and subject to the results of its due diligence and understanding of the timing and extent of our financial statement restatement issues.

Our board of directors met on December 6, 2006, together with Citigroup and the board's legal advisor, O Melveny & Myers LLP, and received an update from management on the process and discussions to date with Oracle. Legal counsel also reviewed our board's overall fiduciary duties, and how those duties related to Oracle's requested exclusivity period. Our board of directors authorized management to enter into an exclusivity agreement with Oracle. On December 8, 2006, we entered into an exclusive negotiating period with Oracle, Oracle began conducting detailed due diligence, and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom, LLP, counsel for Oracle, provided Agile with a draft definitive merger agreement. In early January 2007, Oracle informed us that it was withdrawing from negotiations, and the exclusive negotiation period was terminated. One of the reasons cited by Oracle for its withdrawal was uncertainty over when we would become current in our Securities and Exchange Act filings and file restated financial statements.

In mid-February, Citigroup contacted Oracle and the other two potential strategic acquirors to update them on the status of Agile's financial statements and to set the end of February as the deadline for submissions of interest. At a board meeting held on February 28, 2007, Citigroup updated our board of directors on the process to date and indications of interest received from the two remaining potential strategic acquirors. O Melveny & Myers LLP also reviewed in detail with our board of directors its fiduciary duties in the context of the type of transaction under consideration. After deliberation, our board of directors authorized management to enter into exclusive discussions with a company we refer hereinafter to as Company A, which had proposed an $8.75 per share cash price, subject to due diligence and the negotiation of definitive documentation.

Prior to entering into the exclusive arrangement, Citigroup inquired of both Oracle and the other remaining strategic acquirer, which we refer hereinafter to as Company B, as to whether either would be willing to proceed at a price of $9.00 or above, and both declined. However, Company A did agree to proceed with negotiations at a price of $9.00 and enhance certain other terms of its indication of interest.

On March 5, 2007, we filed a Form 10-K with the SEC, restating our consolidated balance sheet as of April 30, 2005 and our related statements of operations, stockholders' equity and cash flows for each of the years in the two year period ended April 30, 2005, and each of the fiscal quarters in our 2005 fiscal year.

During March, we and Company A negotiated the terms of potential transaction documents, and Company A concluded an extensive due diligence of Agile. Our board of directors met on March 7, 2007, at which they received updates from management and Citigroup regarding the status of negotiations with Company A.

On March 30, 2007, Company A withdrew from negotiations as a result of significant business challenges they perceived as a result of their due diligence, and the exclusivity period was terminated. Mr. Fulcher subsequently notified the board of Company A's withdrawal from the process.

By the third week of April, Company B indicated a willingness to proceed with an acquisition at a price of $7.50 per share. Oracle indicated that it would proceed at a price of $8.00 per share. At a meeting of our board of directors held on April 25, 2007, Citigroup updated our board of directors on the status of the process. Our board of directors authorized management to proceed with discussion with Oracle. Between April 25 and April 28, representatives of Oracle and Agile negotiated the price and timing of a potential transaction and tentatively agreed on a price per share of $8.10, with a two-week period to announcement of a transaction. On April 30, 2007, Oracle and we entered into an agreement for a new exclusive negotiation period.

Between April 30 and May 15, 2007, representatives of Agile and Oracle and their respective legal advisors, O Melveny & Myers LLP and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, negotiated the terms of the definitive merger agreement, and Oracle continued to conduct business and legal due diligence. Also during this period, management provided updates to directors on the status of negotiations with Oracle and the terms of the definitive agreements.

On Saturday, May 12, 2007, our board of directors meet with management and our financial and legal advisors. In the first part of the meeting, our board discussed our preliminary fourth quarter 2007 financial results. Following that discussion, Citigroup made a presentation to our board of directors regarding the financial aspects of the proposed merger with Oracle. O Melveny & Myers LLP again reviewed with our board of directors its fiduciary duties, summarized the material terms of the proposed merger agreement, and described the remaining open issues, including issues relating to the operation of our business between signing and closing, the no solicitation covenant and the termination fee. Our board of directors discussed the process to date and the terms and timing of the proposed merger with Oracle. In particular, our board of directors discussed and considered the fact that the terms of the proposed merger agreement would allow Agile to pursue an alternative transaction it determines in good faith is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal (as defined in the merger agreement) and, with Citigroup and O Melveny & Myers LLP, whether a termination fee in the range contained in the merger agreement was likely to prevent other credible bidders from presenting to us a potentially superior proposal. Our board of directors instructed management to proceed with negotiations with Oracle.

During the morning of May 15, 2007, our board of directors met to review and deliberate regarding the final merger agreement. Citigroup orally delivered its opinion to our board of directors that, as of May 15, 2007, and subject to the considerations and limitations described in Citigroup's written opinion (which is attached hereto as Annex C), the consideration to be received by our stockholders pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such stockholders. Our management, Citigroup and O Melveny & Myers LLP advised our board of directors regarding open matters and likely timing. After discussion, our board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement, deemed it advisable, and in the best interests of Agile's stockholders, to consummate the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, and determined to recommend that our stockholders adopt the merger agreement.

In the afternoon of May 15, 2007, Agile and Oracle executed and delivered the merger agreement and publicly announced the transaction.

Reasons For The Merger And Board Of Directors Recommendation

Reasons for the Merger

In the course of reaching its decision to approve the merger and the merger agreement, our board of directors consulted with our senior management, legal counsel and financial advisor, reviewed a significant amount of information and considered a number of factors, including, among others, the following factors:

information concerning our business, financial performance (both past and prospective) and condition and operations;

our competitive position in the product lifecycle management industry, and the lack of predictability of our future financial performance in light of our competitive position in that industry;

our business and financial prospects if we were to remain an independent company, and the scale required to effectively compete in the enterprise software industry;

the possible alternatives to the merger (including the possibility of continuing to operate as an independent entity, and the perceived risks thereof), the range of possible benefits to our stockholders of those alternatives and the timing and the likelihood of accomplishing the goal of any of such alternatives, and our board of directors' assessment that the merger with Oracle presented a superior opportunity to such alternatives;

the results of discussions with third parties relating to a possible business combination or similar transaction with us;

the process undertaken by the our board of directors in connection with pursuing a strategic transaction and the terms and conditions of the proposed merger, in each case in light of the current market dynamics in the product lifecycle management industry;

our financial condition, results of operations (both past and prospective), business and strategic objectives, as well as the risks of accomplishing those objectives;

current financial market conditions and historical market prices, volatility and trading information with respect to Agile common stock;

the potential for obtaining a superior offer from an alternative purchaser in light of the other potential purchasers previously identified and contacted by our management or our financial advisors and the risk of losing the proposed transaction with Oracle; and the terms of the merger agreement, including the parties' representations, warranties and covenants, the conditions to their respective obligations and the termination rights of the parties.

In the course of its deliberations, our board of directors also considered, among other things, the following positive factors:

the value of the consideration to be received by our stockholders in the merger pursuant to the merger agreement;

the fact that the $8.10 per share to be paid as the consideration in the merger represents a premium of approximately 21.7% over the 90-day average closing trading price of our common stock of $6.65 per share, a premium of approximately 14.4% over the 30 day average closing trading price of our common stock of $7.08 per share, and a premium of approximately 11.6% over the $7.26 closing trading price for the shares of our common stock on The Nasdaq Global Market on May 14, 2007, the last trading day prior to the date our board of directors approved the merger agreement;

the multiple of our revenue represented by the $8.10 per share purchase price relative to multiples of revenue represented by the consideration paid in comparable precedent transactions;

the financial presentation of Citigroup on May 15, 2007 and the oral opinion of Citigroup delivered on May 15, 2007 to our board of directors, subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated May 15, 2007, to the effect that, as of the date of the written opinion, and based upon and subject to the considerations and limitations set forth in the written opinion, the $8.10 per share in cash to be received by holders of our common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to those holders (the full text of the written opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by Citigroup in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex C to the proxy statement);

the likelihood that the proposed acquisition would be consummated, in light of the experience, reputation and financial capabilities of Oracle;

the form of merger consideration, consisting solely of cash, which provides certainty of value to our stockholders;

the process through which Agile, with the assistance of its financial advisors, engaged in or sought to engage in discussions with companies believed to be the most likely candidates to pursue a business combination with or acquisition of Agile;

the belief of our board of directors that, after extensive negotiations with Oracle and its representatives, we have obtained the highest price per share that Oracle is willing to pay and the highest price obtainable on the date of signing of the merger agreement;

the merger agreement, subject to the limitations and requirements contained in the agreement, allows our board of directors to furnish information to and conduct negotiations with third parties in certain circumstances and, upon payment to Oracle of a

termination fee of $16,400,000, to terminate the merger agreement to accept a superior offer;

the other terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including among other things the size of the termination fee and the circumstances when that fee may be payable; the limited number and nature of the conditions to Oracle's obligation to complete the merger, including (but not limited to) the absence of a financing condition and the adequacy of Oracle's capital resources to pay the merger consideration; and the definition of "material adverse effect" and the exceptions for what constitutes a material adverse effect for purposes of the merger agreement; and

the voting agreements with our officers and directors terminate in the event that we terminate the merger agreement which permits those persons to support a transaction involving a superior offer.

In the course of its deliberations, our board of directors also considered, among other things, the following negative factors:

the potential loss of customer or other commercial relationships of Agile as a result of the customer's or other party's unwillingness to do business with Oracle, or other potential disruption to customer, vendor or other commercial relationships important to us as a result of the merger;

the possibility that the merger will not be consummated and the potential negative effect of the public announcement of the merger on our sales, operating results and stock price and our ability to retain key management, sales and marketing and technical personnel;

our stockholders would not participate in any future growth potential or benefit from any future increase in our value;

the conditions to Oracle's obligation to complete the merger and the right of Oracle to terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances;

the possibility that we may be obligated to pay Oracle a termination fee or reimburse Oracle for its expenses if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances;

the fact that the merger consideration consists of cash and will therefore be taxable to our stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

the restrictions on our ability to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations regarding alternative business combination transactions, subject to specified exceptions, and the requirement that we pay a termination fee in order to accept a superior acquisition proposal, which may discourage a competing proposal to acquire us that may be more advantageous to our stockholders;

the restrictions on the conduct of our business prior to the completion of the merger, requiring us to conduct our business in the ordinary course, subject to specific limitations, which may delay or prevent us from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the merger;

the risk of diverting management's focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from operational matters while working to implement the merger, and the possibility of other management and employee disruption associated with the merger, including the possible loss of key management, technical or other personnel; and the interests that certain of our directors and executive officers may have with respect to the merger, in addition to their interests as stockholders of Agile generally, as described in The Merger Interests of Agile's Directors and Management in the Merger.

The preceding discussion of the information and factors considered by our board of directors is not, and is not intended to be, exhaustive. In light of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, our board of directors did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise attempt to assign relative weights to the various factors considered in reaching its determination. In addition, our board of directors did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to the ultimate determination of our board of directors, but rather our board of directors conducted an overall analysis of the factors described above, including discussions with and questioning of our senior management, legal counsel and financial advisors.

Board of Directors Recommendation

After careful consideration, our board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement, deems it advisable and in the best interests of Agile's stockholders to consummate the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, and recommends that our stockholders adopt the merger agreement.

Opinion of Agile's Financial Advisor

Citigroup was retained to act as financial advisor to Agile in connection with the merger. Pursuant to Agile's engagement letter agreement with Citigroup, dated September 5, 2006, Citigroup rendered an opinion to the Agile board of directors on May 15, 2007 (which oral opinion was subsequently confirmed in writing on May 15, 2007) to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion, and based upon and subject to the considerations and limitations set forth in the opinion, Citigroup's work described below and other factors Citigroup deemed relevant, the per share merger consideration of $8.10 was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Agile common stock.

The full text of Citigroup's opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, general procedures followed, matters considered and limits on the review undertaken, is included as Annex C to this proxy statement. The summary of Citigroup's opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Holders of Agile common stock are urged to read the Citigroup opinion carefully and in its entirety.

Citigroup's opinion was limited solely to the fairness of the merger consideration from a financial point of view as of the date of the opinion. Neither Citigroup's opinion nor the related analyses constituted a recommendation of the proposed merger to the Agile board of directors or any holder of Agile common stock. Citigroup makes no recommendation to any holder of Agile common stock regarding how such holder should vote with respect to the merger.

In arriving at its opinion, Citigroup reviewed the merger agreement and held discussions with certain senior officers, directors and other representatives and advisors of Agile and certain senior officers and other representatives and advisors of Oracle concerning the business, operations and prospects of Agile. Citigroup examined certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Agile as well as certain financial forecasts and other information and data relating to Agile that were provided to or discussed with, Citigroup by the management of Agile. Citigroup reviewed the financial terms of the merger as set forth in the merger agreement in relation to, among other things:

current and historical market prices and trading volumes of Agile common stock;

the historical and projected earnings and other operating data of Agile; and the capitalization and financial condition of Agile.

Citigroup considered, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain other transactions that Citigroup considered relevant in evaluating the merger and analyzed certain financial, stock market and other publicly available information relating to the businesses of other companies whose operations Citigroup considered relevant in evaluating those of Agile. In connection with its engagement and at the direction of Agile, Citigroup was requested to approach and held discussions with selected third parties to solicit indications of interest in the possible acquisition of Agile. In addition to the foregoing, Citigroup conducted such other analyses and examinations and considered such other information and financial, economic and market criteria as Citigroup deemed appropriate in arriving at its opinion.

In rendering its opinion, Citigroup assumed and relied, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information and data publicly available or provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with it and upon the assurances of the management of Agile that they were not aware of any relevant information that had been omitted or remained undisclosed to Citigroup. With respect to financial forecasts and other information and data relating to Agile provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with it, Citigroup was advised by the management of Agile that such forecasts and other information and data were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Agile as to the future financial performance of Agile.

Citigroup assumed, with the consent of the Agile board of directors, that the merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement reviewed by Citigroup, without waiver, modification or amendment of any term, condition or agreement material to Citigroup's opinion and that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases for the merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Agile or the merger.

Citigroup did not make and was not provided with an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Agile nor did Citigroup make any physical inspection of the properties or assets of Agile. Citigroup expresses no view as to, and Citigroup's opinion does not address, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for Agile or the effect of any other transaction in which Agile might engage. Citigroup's opinion was necessarily based upon information available to it, and financial, stock market and other conditions and circumstances existing, as of the date of its opinion.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses presented to the Agile board of directors in connection with Citigroup's opinion on May 15, 2007. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to understand fully the financial analyses used by Citigroup, these tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The following quantitative information, to the extent it is based on market data, is, except as otherwise indicated, based on market data as it existed at or prior to May 14, 2007, and is not necessarily indicative of current or future market conditions.

52-Week Trading Range

Citigroup reviewed the performance of Agile common stock, including the trading volume of Agile common stock, during the 52-week period ended May 14, 2007. Citigroup noted, among other matters, that the average per share price of Agile common stock for this period was $6.43, the volume weighted average price of Agile common stock for this period was $6.42, and that the highest volume of trading occurred when Agile common stock traded in a range of $6.25 to $6.50 per share. Citigroup also reviewed similar information for the period from March 5, 2007 (the date Agile filed its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2006 and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended July 31, 2006 and October 31, 2006) through May 14, 2007, and noted, among other matters, that the average per share price of Agile common stock for this period was $6.88, the volume weighted average price of Agile common stock for this period was $6.88, and that the highest volume of trading occurred when Agile common stock traded in a range of $7.20 to $7.40 per share. Citigroup further noted that the closing price of Agile common stock on May 14, 2007, the last trading day prior to the announcement of the merger, was $7.26. Citigroup noted that during the 52-week period ended May 14, 2007, Agile common stock traded in a range of $5.08 to $7.61 per share. Citigroup noted that the per share consideration in the merger of $8.10 was above that range.

Comparable Companies Analysis

Citigroup compared financial, operating and stock market data and forecasted financial information for selected publicly traded software companies that Citigroup deemed appropriate with similar information for Agile. The selected comparable companies considered by Citigroup were:

Parametric Technology Corporation

Lawson Software, Inc.

Aspen Technology, Inc.

Open Text Corporation

Epicor Software Corporation

Table of Contents

Manhattan Associates, Inc.

Ariba, Inc.

Interwoven, Inc.

MSC Software Corporation

JDA Software Group, Inc.

Vignette Corporation

Chordiant Software, Inc.

Actuate Corporation

Retailix Ltd.

I2 Technologies, Inc.

QAD Inc.

Citigroup noted that each of Lawson Software, Ariba, Interwoven, MSC Software, Vignette, Retailix and QAD have realized in the trailing twelve-months and are expected in the next twelve months to achieve adjusted operating profit margins below industry norms (e.g., below 15%). These companies, which we refer to herein as the Comparable Margin Companies, shared profitability characteristics with Agile and were thus considered by Citigroup to be more directly comparable to Agile than the broader group of comparable companies.

The forecasted financial information used by Citigroup in the course of this analysis for Agile was based on forecasts prepared by the management of Agile and, in certain cases as described below, consensus projections published by Thomson First Call Research and Reuters. Thomson First Call Research compiles summaries of financial forecasts published by various equity research firms. Reuters is a news company that provides financial information and research. The forecasted financial information used by Citigroup in the course of this analysis for each of the comparable companies was based on consensus projections published by Thomson First Call Research and Reuters. The historical financial information used by Citigroup in the course of this analysis was based on publicly available historical information. Calculations were made based on the closing price per share of each company's common stock as of May 14, 2007, the last trading day before the announcement of the merger.

For each of the selected comparable companies and Agile, Citigroup derived and compared, among other things:

equity value;

firm value;

actual revenue for the last twelve months (LTM), projected revenue for the next twelve months (NTM) and projected NTM revenue growth (reflected as a percentage of LTM revenue);

actual LTM adjusted operating margin and projected NTM adjusted operating margin;

the ratio of firm value to each of actual LTM revenue and projected NTM revenue; and the ratio of common share price to actual LTM adjusted earnings per share (EPS) and projected NTM adjusted EPS.

Equity value was calculated as the sum of all shares of common stock, assuming the exercise of all in-the-money options and the conversion of in-the-money convertible securities, times the closing share price as of May 14, 2007, less the proceeds from the exercise of such in-the-money options. Firm value was calculated as the sum of the value of:

equity value; plus

non-convertible indebtedness; plus

Table of Contents

non-convertible preferred stock; plus minority interest; plus

out-of-the-money convertibles; minus

investments in unconsolidated affiliates and unrestricted cash and cash equivalents.

Information and data for Lawson Software was adjusted to reflect its recently completed convertible notes offering and a related share buyback. For Agile and each of the comparable companies, LTM data was based on the latest four reported quarters of financial information. NTM data for each of the comparable companies was based on consensus projections published by Thomson First Call Research and Reuters. In comparing trading multiples, NTM for Agile was based on consensus projections published by Thomson First Call Research and Reuters. In deriving the reference range as described below, NTM for Agile was based on preliminary results for Agile's next quarter and management projections for the three subsequent quarters. The difference between consensus projections and preliminary results for Agile's next quarter and management projections for the three subsequent quarters were not material to Citigroup's analysis. Agile's latest reported cash balance of $195 million as of January 31, 2007 was adjusted downward by $10 million to reflect the guaranteed (upon a change of control) earnout payment related to Agile's acquisition of Prodika in June of 2006. Equity value for Agile reflected 60.7 million diluted shares using the treasury stock method and a price per share of $7.26.

The results of this analysis were as follows:

Citigroup applied the results of this analysis to Agile's LTM and NTM revenue to determine:

the ranges of implied firm value;

the ranges of implied equity value; and

the ranges of equity value per share.

Based on these analyses, Citigroup derived an implied per share reference range for the equity value of Agile common stock of $6.50 to $7.60. Citigroup noted that the per share consideration in the merger of $8.10 was above the derived range.

For the selected transactions noted above and the merger, Citigroup derived and compared, among other things:

equity value of the transaction;

implied firm value of the target company;

the ratio of the target's firm value to its actual LTM revenue and projected revenue;

the projected increase in NTM revenue growth;

the ratio of the target common stock price to its projected EPS;

the price per share in the transaction as a percentage of target's highest price per share for the 52-weeks preceding the announcement of the transaction; and the implied premium to the target share price one day and thirty days before announcement of the transaction.

With respect to the financial information for the companies involved in the selected precedent transactions, Citigroup relied on information available in public documents, Wall Street research and/or press announcements. Ratios of firm value to projected revenue and projected EPS were determined using estimates as of the time of announcement of each transaction. For the merger and each of the precedent transactions,

Edgar Filing: AGILE SOFTWARE CORP - Form PREM14A

LTM was based on the latest four reported quarters of financial information. NTM for each of the precedent transactions was based on consensus projections published by Thomson First Call Research and Reuters when available, and on individual research reports when consensus estimates were not available. In comparing implied transaction metrics and deriving the reference range as described below, NTM and forward information for the merger was based on preliminary results for Agile's next quarter and management projections for the three subsequent quarters. With respect to the Oracle / Retek transaction, price per share amounts and aggregate equity value were adjusted to include the breakup fees associated with the previously announced acquisition of Retek by SAP. With respect to the financial information for Agile, Citigroup used the same data described above under 'Comparable Companies Analysis' except that Citigroup applied the price per share to be paid in the merger. The results of these analyses were as follows:

Citigroup applied the results of this analysis to Agile's LTM and NTM revenue to determine:

the ranges of implied firm value;

the ranges of implied equity value; and

the ranges of equity value per share.

Based on these analyses, Citigroup derived an implied per share reference range for the equity value of Agile common stock of $7.10 to $8.50. Citigroup noted that the per share consideration in the merger of $8.10 was within the derived range.

Present Value of Agile Future Share Price

Citigroup performed an analysis of the present value of a derived equity value per share of Agile common stock as of December 31, 2008. For purposes of the analysis, Citigroup assumed the following:

a compound annual revenue growth rate range for the next three-year period of 8% to 12%;

a 2009 operating margin range of 8% to 12%;

a diluted share outstanding count of 60.7 million using the treasury stock method (at Agile's closing price of $7.26 as of May 14, 2007);

a blended cash tax rate of 28%; and a ratio of the price per share of Agile common stock to estimated earnings per share for 2009, or forward (2009) P/E, of 20.0x to 24.0x.

The derived price per share of Agile common stock was discounted back to June 30, 2007 using a discount rate of 12.0%. For purposes of this analysis, Citigroup valued Agile's latest reported cash balance of $195 million as of January 31, 2007 on a dollar-for-dollar basis without discount and net of deductions of $10 million to reflect the guaranteed (upon a change of control) earnout payment related to Agile's acquisition of Prodika in June of 2006. Citigroup further assumed that any free cash flows generated during 2007 and 2008 would be used to repurchase Agile common stock. Based on this analysis, Citigroup derived an implied per share reference range for the equity value of Agile based on an 8% compound annual revenue growth rate of $5.67 to $7.77. Citigroup noted that the per share consideration in the merger of $8.10 was above this range. Based on this analysis, Citigroup also derived an implied per share reference range for the equity value of Agile based on a 12% compound annual revenue growth rate of $5.97 to $8.31. Citigroup noted that the per share consideration in the merger of $8.10 was within this range.

Citigroup's advisory services and opinion were provided for the information of the Agile board of directors in its evaluation of the merger and did not constitute a recommendation of the merger to Agile or a recommendation to any holder of Agile common stock as to how that holder should vote on any matters relating to the merger.

The preceding discussion is a summary of the material financial analyses furnished by Citigroup to the Agile board of directors, but it does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Citigroup or of its presentation to the Agile board of directors. The preparation of financial analyses and fairness opinions is a complex process involving subjective judgments and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Citigroup made no attempt to assign specific weights to particular analyses or factors considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of all the analyses and factors considered and determined to give its fairness opinion as described above. Accordingly, Citigroup believes that its analyses, and the summary set forth above, must be considered as a whole, and that selecting portions of the analyses and of the factors considered by Citigroup, without considering all of the analyses and factors, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying the analyses conducted by Citigroup and its opinion. With regard to the comparable companies and precedent transaction analyses summarized above, Citigroup selected comparable public companies and precedent transactions on the basis of various factors, including size and similarity of the line of business of the relevant entities; however, no company utilized in this analysis is identical to Agile and no precedent transaction is identical to the merger. As a result, this analysis is not purely mathematical, but also takes into account differences in financial and operating characteristics of the subject companies and other factors that could affect the transaction or the public trading value of the subject companies to which Agile is being compared.

In its analyses, Citigroup made numerous assumptions with respect to Agile, industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Agile and Oracle. Any estimates contained in Citigroup's analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by these analyses. Estimates of values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies may actually be sold. Because these estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty, none of Agile, Oracle, the Agile board of directors, the Oracle board of directors, Citigroup or any other person assumes responsibility if future results or actual values differ materially from the estimates.

Citigroup's analyses were prepared solely as part of Citigroup's analysis of the fairness of the merger consideration and were provided to the Agile board of directors in that connection. The opinion of Citigroup was only one of the factors taken into consideration by the Agile board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the merger. See Reasons For The Merger And Board of Directors Recommendation.

Citigroup is an internationally recognized investment banking firm engaged in, among other things, the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, restructurings, leveraged buyouts, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. Agile selected Citigroup to act as its financial advisor to the board of directors of Agile in connection with the proposed merger on the basis of Citigroup's international reputation.

Pursuant to its engagement letter with Agile, Agile has agreed to pay Citigroup an aggregate fee equal to 1.130% of the Transaction Value, which fee is contingent upon the consummation of the merger. Transaction Value will be equal to the total proceeds and other consideration paid to or received by, or to be paid or received (including amounts paid into escrow) by, the Company or holders of common stock of the Company in their capacity as such, in connection with the merger, including but not limited to, (a) cash, (b) notes, securities and other property, which will be valued at fair market value, (c) installment payments, (d) the mutually agreed, risk adjusted net present value of any contingent payments (whether or not related to future earnings or operations) and (e) any extraordinary dividends or distributions. Agile has also agreed to reimburse Citigroup for reasonable travel and other expenses incurred by Citigroup in performing its services, including reasonable fees and expenses of its legal counsel, and to indemnify Citigroup against specific liabilities and expenses relating to or arising out of its engagement, including liabilities under the federal securities laws. Citigroup and its affiliates in the past have provided, and currently provide, services to Agile and Oracle unrelated to the merger, for which services Citigroup and/or its affiliates have received and expect to receive compensation, including, without limitation, providing advisory services to Agile since March 2006, acting as bookrunner in connection with Oracle's January 2006 $5.75 billion bond offering, acting as senior managing agent and lender in connection with a $5 billion bridge loan to Oracle in February 2006 and acting as lender to Oracle in connection with its existing $3 billion five-year credit facility. In the ordinary course of its business, Citigroup and its affiliates may actively trade or hold the securities of Agile and Oracle for its own account or for the account of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. In addition, Citigroup and its affiliates (including Citigroup Inc. and its affiliates) may maintain relationships with Agile, Oracle and their respective affiliates.

Interests Of Agile s Directors And Management In The Merger

In considering the recommendation of our board of directors in favor of the merger, you should be aware that members of our board of directors and our executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, yours. All such additional interests are described below, to the extent material. Except as described below, such persons have, to our knowledge, no material interest in the merger apart from those of stockholders generally. Our board of directors was aware of, and considered the interests of, our directors and executive officers in approving the merger agreement and the merger.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that all rights of indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger existing in favor of our and our subsidiaries' current and former directors or officers, as provided in our respective certificates of incorporation or by-laws or other comparable organizational documents, and any indemnification or other agreements in effect as of the date of the merger agreement will be assumed by the surviving corporation of the merger, and will continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms. Oracle has agreed to cause the surviving corporation of the merger to comply with and honor those obligations, subject to applicable law. The merger agreement further provides that, for six years after the effective time of the merger, the surviving corporation of the merger will (and Oracle will cause the surviving corporation of the merger to) maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance for acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective time of the merger covering those persons who were, as of the date of the merger agreement, covered by our directors' and officers' liability insurance policies, on terms with respect to coverage and amounts no less favorable than those in effect on the date of the merger agreement. Oracle's obligation to provide this insurance coverage is subject to a cap of 200% of the current annual premium paid by us for our existing insurance coverage. If Oracle cannot maintain the existing or equivalent insurance coverage without exceeding the 200% cap, Oracle is required to maintain as much insurance coverage as can be obtained by paying an annual premium equal to the 200% cap. Alternatively, we may, and we currently expect to, acquire a six-year tail or runoff policy to our current directors' and officer's liability insurance policy for an amount not exceeding the 200% cap, and Oracle and the surviving corporation of the merger will maintain that tail or runoff policy in full force and effect.

Stock Options and Restricted Shares

Under the merger agreement, at the effective time of the merger, each stock option granted under our stock option plans (other than certain options Oracle may elect not to assume, which will be accelerated so that these options will become fully vested, and cashed out at closing) will be assumed by Oracle and converted into an option to acquire a number of shares of Oracle common stock equal to the number of shares of our common stock subject to the stock option multiplied by the option exchange ratio. The exercise price per share of Oracle common stock under each converted stock option will be equal to the per share exercise price for the shares of our common stock otherwise purchasable pursuant to the stock option divided by the option exchange ratio. Oracle may elect not to assume options held by persons who are not employees of ours immediately prior to the effective time or who Oracle reasonably determines in its sole discretion will not be providing services to us, Oracle or our respective subsidiaries after the effective time. The options that are not assumed by Oracle will become fully vested at the effective time of the merger and exchanged into the right to receive an amount in cash (without interest and less applicable withholding) equal to the positive difference (if any) between $8.10 and the per-share exercise price of the option, multiplied by the number of shares of our common stock subject to the option. At the effective time of the merger, each share of restricted stock will be converted into a right to receive $8.10 in cash (without interest and less applicable withholding) from Oracle on a deferred basis if and when the conditions to vesting of the shares are satisfied or the restrictions imposed on the shares lapse. If the vesting conditions applicable to restricted shares are not satisfied, or if the restrictions imposed on the shares do not lapse, then the cash merger consideration payable with respect to those shares will generally be forfeited. See The Merger Effect On Awards Outstanding Under Agile's Stock Plans.

Options granted to all our employees, including executive officers, under our 1995 Stock Option Plan and our 2000 Nonstatutory Stock Option Plan provide that the vesting of options (and restricted shares acquired upon exercise of those options) accelerates 100% in the event of a change of control of Agile, which would include the merger, where the options are not assumed by the acquiring company. In the merger, Oracle is assuming our outstanding options (except with respect to certain options, which will be accelerated and cashed out in the merger, as indicated above). However, the Agile plans and applicable option agreements further provide for an additional 18 months of vesting of an option if there is a change of control and the option is assumed and, within 18 months following the change of control, the optionee's employment is terminated by the acquiring company without cause or the optionee is constructively terminated, each as defined in the respective option plans. In April 2005, our board of directors accelerated the vesting of all options (other than those held by non-employee directors) with exercise prices in excess of $6.76 per share. In connection with this acceleration, we imposed restrictions on reselling the shares underlying the accelerated options such that those shares may only be sold at such time as the option under which they are acquired would have been vested, but for the acceleration. The restrictions on resale are eliminated in the same fashion and to the same extent as for options in the event of a change of control (which would include the merger).

Each of our executive officers has outstanding stock options that will be assumed by Oracle in the merger. Jay Fulcher, President and Chief Executive Officer, Carolyn V. Aver, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Christopher L. Wong, Executive Vice President, Corporation Strategy, Jeff Johnson, Executive Vice President, Global Sales and Services, and Kevin Kennedy, Senior Vice President-Products, along with other officers of Agile, have entered into stock options agreement providing that if, within 18 months following a change of control, which would include the merger, the executive is terminated other than for cause, or by reason of constructive termination, each as defined or described in the respective option agreement, the following number of stock options will accelerate in full and, with respect to the options with respect to which vesting has been previously accelerated and shares of restricted stock issued upon the exercise of options, the resale restrictions on the following number of underlying shares will terminate:

Jay Fulcher, 162,783 options and resale restrictions with respect to 101,667 shares, which options and shares have an intrinsic value (with respect to options, the intrinsic value is the amount by which the merger consideration payable with respect to the underlying shares exceeds the aggregate exercise price thereof and with respect to restricted shares, the intrinsic value is $8.10 per share) of $1,029,849;

Carolyn Aver, 57,750 options and resale restrictions with respect to 74,750 shares, which options and shares have an intrinsic value of $705,885;

Christopher L. Wong, 25,201 options and resale restrictions with respect to 53,000 shares, which options and shares have an intrinsic value of $483,530;

Jeff Johnson, 23,334 options and resale restrictions with respect to 103,335 shares, which options and shares have an intrinsic value of $882,411; and

Kevin Kennedy, 15,000 options and resale restrictions with respect to 25,000 shares, which options and shares have an intrinsic value of $228,575.

Table of Contents

Under the terms of the option agreements covering stock options granted to each of our non-employee directors, in the event of any corporate transaction (as defined in these option agreements, and which would include the merger), each such option will automatically vest in full so that the option will become fully exercisable immediately prior to the effective date of the merger. To the extent such option is not assumed in the merger, it will be cashed out as described above. The following number of options held by the following non-employee directors will accelerate and become fully vested in connection with the merger:

Klaus Deiter-Laidig, 95,834 options, which options have an intrinsic value of approximately $102,709;

Gareth Chang, 95,834 options, which options have an intrinsic value of approximately $102,709;

Nancy J. Schoendorf, 95,834 options, which options have an intrinsic value of approximately $102,709;

Ronald E.F. Codd, 97,918 options, which options have an intrinsic value of approximately $102,709;

Bryan D. Stolle, 141,700 options, which options have an intrinsic value of approximately $116,440; and

Paul Wahl, 95,834 options, which options have an intrinsic value of approximately $102,709.

Executive Retention and Severance Plan

We maintain an executive retention and severance plan, referred to as the ERSP, which provides certain severance and other benefits, in connection with a change in control of Agile, to our senior officers designated by our board of directors or its compensation committee. The merger will constitute a change in control under the terms of the ERSP. At present, the ERSP covers all our executive officers and certain other senior officers. If, during a change in control period (as described below), a participant's employment is terminated other than for cause or by the participant for good reason (each as defined in the ERSP), any such terminations of employment being referred to as a termination upon a change in control, then, provided that the participant executes a prescribed release of claims against us, the participant will be entitled to certain payments and benefits described below, in addition to all compensation and benefits earned by the participant through the date of the participant's termination of employment. The applicable change in control period commences on the consummation of a change in control and ends on the date which is 18 months following the change in control.

On a termination upon a change in control, an ERSP participant, other than Mr. Fulcher (whose benefits are described below under Employment Agreement with Jay Fulcher), will receive a lump sum cash severance payment in an amount equal to the sum of (1) one-half of the participant's annual base salary immediately prior to termination or, if higher, immediately prior to the change in control, plus (2) one-half of the greatest of:

the aggregate of all bonuses earned by the participant for the fiscal year immediately preceding the fiscal year of the change in control;

the aggregate of all bonuses earned by the participant for the fiscal year immediately preceding the fiscal year of the participant's termination upon a change in control; or the aggregate of all annual bonuses that would be earned by the participant at the targeted annual rate (assuming attainment of 100% of all applicable performance goals) for the fiscal year of the participant's termination upon a change in control.

Edgar Filing: AGILE SOFTWARE CORP - Form PREM14A

Following a participant's termination upon a change in control, the ERSP also provides that we will provide the participant and his or her dependents with continued health and other group insurance benefits for the participant's benefit period (i.e., 6 months) after the participant's termination upon change in control. The participant will also be indemnified by us to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, as set forth in the ERSP. In addition, if any payment or benefit received or to be received by any participant pursuant to the ERSP or otherwise would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, then the

ERSP provides that compensation and benefits payable upon a change in control will be determined in a manner that produces the greatest after-tax benefit for the employee. Accordingly, in some instances a reduction in payments may be made to an amount just below the safe harbor threshold under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code in order to produce a greater after-tax benefit to the executive by avoiding the payment of the excise tax on the value of the benefits, although we do not currently expect any such reductions.

The ERSP does not alter the treatment of options under our existing stock option plans.

If benefits were triggered under the ERSP in connection with the merger, based upon information available as of the date of this proxy statement, the following executive officers would be entitled to the following cash payments:

Carolyn Aver, $237,500;

Christopher L. Wong, $187,500;

Jeff Johnson, $325,000; and Kevin Kennedy, $212,500.

Employment Agreement with Jay Fulcher

Under the executive employment agreement between us and Jay Fulcher, our chief executive officer, if Mr. Fulcher is terminated following a change in control (which would include the merger), Mr. Fulcher will be entitled to receive health and other group insurance benefits for himself and his dependents for a period of 12 months, and cash severance payments in an amount equal to one year of his base salary and annual bonus in accordance with the terms of the ERSP (currently $400,000 and $300,000, respectively, for a total cash severance payment equal to $700,000).

Appraisal Rights

The discussion of the provisions set forth below is not a complete summary regarding your appraisal rights under Delaware law and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the relevant provisions of Delaware law, which are attached to this proxy statement as Annex D. Stockholders intending to exercise appraisal rights should carefully review Annex D. Failure to follow precisely any of the statutory procedures set forth in Annex D may result in a termination or waiver of these rights.

If the merger is consummated, dissenting holders of our common stock who follow the procedures specified in Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporate Law, within the appropriate time periods, will be entitled to have their shares of our common stock appraised by a court and to receive the fair value of such shares in cash as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery, in lieu of the consideration that such stockholder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to the merger agreement.

The following is a brief summary of Section 262, which sets forth the procedures for dissenting from the merger and demanding statutory appraisal rights. Failure to follow the procedures set forth in Section 262 precisely could result in the loss of appraisal rights. This proxy statement constitutes notice to holders of our common stock concerning the availability of appraisal rights under Section 262. A stockholder of record wishing to assert appraisal rights must hold the shares of stock on the date of making a demand for appraisal rights with respect to such shares and must continuously hold such shares through the effective time of the merger.

Stockholders who desire to exercise their appraisal rights must satisfy all of the conditions of Section 262. A written demand for appraisal of shares must be filed with us before the special meeting on •, 2007. This written demand for appraisal of shares must be in addition to and separate from a vote against adoption of the merger agreement. Stockholders electing to exercise their appraisal rights must not vote for adoption of the merger agreement. Any proxy or vote against or failing to vote for the merger will not by itself constitute a demand for appraisal within the meaning of Section 262.

A demand for appraisal must be executed by or for the stockholder of record, fully and correctly, as such stockholder's name appears on the share certificate. If the shares are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, this demand must be executed by or for the fiduciary. If the shares are owned by or for more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, such demand must be executed by or for all joint owners. An authorized agent, including an agent for two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner and expressly disclose the fact that, in exercising the demand, he is acting as agent for the record owner. A person having a beneficial interest in our common stock held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker or nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the steps summarized below, and in a timely manner, to perfect whatever appraisal rights the beneficial owner may have.

An Agile stockholder who elects to exercise appraisal rights should mail or deliver his, her or its written demand to us at our address at 6373 San Ignacio Avenue, San Jose, California 95119, Attention: Secretary. The written demand for appraisal should specify the stockholder's name and mailing address, and that the stockholder is thereby demanding appraisal of his, her or its Agile common stock. Within ten days after the effective time of the merger, we must provide notice of the effective time of the merger to all of our stockholders who have complied with Section 262 and have not voted for the merger.

Within 120 days after the effective time of the merger (but not thereafter), any stockholder who has satisfied the requirements of Section 262 may deliver to us a written demand for a statement listing the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. We, as the surviving corporation of the merger, must mail such written statement to the stockholder no later than the later of ten days after the stockholders' request is received by us or ten days after the latest date for delivery of a demand for appraisal under Section 262.

Within 120 days after the effective time of the merger (but not thereafter), either we or any stockholder who has complied with the required conditions of Section 262 and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights may file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery, demanding a determination of the fair value of the Agile shares of stockholders entitled to appraisal rights. We have no present intention to file such a petition if demand for appraisal is made.

Upon the filing of any petition by a stockholder in accordance with Section 262, service of a copy must be made upon us. Within 20 days after service of such copy, we must file, in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed, a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by us. If we file a petition, the petition must be accompanied by the verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the court, will give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to us and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated, and notice will also be given by publishing a notice, at least one week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware, or such publication as the court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication must be approved by the court, and we will bear the costs thereof. The Delaware Court of Chancery may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares (and who hold stock represented by certificates) to submit their stock certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings and the Delaware Court of Chancery may dismiss the proceedings as to any stockholder that fails to comply with such direction.

If a petition for an appraisal is filed in a timely fashion, after a hearing on the petition, the court will determine which stockholders are entitled to appraisal rights and will appraise the shares owned by these stockholders, determining the fair value of such shares, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest to be paid, if any, upon the amount determined to be the fair value.

Agile stockholders considering seeking appraisal of their shares should note that the fair value of their shares determined under Section 262 could be more, the same or less than the consideration they would receive pursuant to the merger agreement if they did not seek appraisal of their shares. The costs of the appraisal proceeding may be determined by the court and taxed against the parties as the court deems equitable under the circumstances. Upon application of a dissenting stockholder, the court may order that all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any dissenting stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts, be charged pro rata against the value of all shares entitled to appraisal. In the absence of a determination or assessment, each party bears his, her or its own expenses.

Any stockholder who has duly demanded appraisal in compliance with Section 262 will not, after the effective time of the merger, be entitled to vote for any purpose the shares subject to demand or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on such shares, except for dividends or distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date prior to the effective time of the merger.

At any time within 60 days after the effective time of the merger, any stockholder will have the right to withdraw his demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered in the merger agreement. After this period, a stockholder may withdraw his demand for appraisal and receive payment for his shares as provided in the merger agreement only with our consent. If no petition for appraisal is filed with the court within 120 days after the effective time of the merger, stockholders' rights to appraisal (if available) will cease. Inasmuch as we have no obligation to file such a petition, any stockholder who desires a petition to be filed is advised to file it on a timely basis. No petition timely filed in the court demanding appraisal may be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the court, which approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the court deems just.

Failure by any Agile stockholder to comply fully with the procedures described above and set forth in Annex D to this proxy statement may result in termination of such stockholder's appraisal rights.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase transaction for financial accounting purposes.

Form of The Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and in accordance with Delaware law, at the effective time of the merger, Aqua Acquisition, a wholly owned subsidiary of Oracle and a party to the merger agreement, will merge with and into us. We will survive the merger as a wholly owned Delaware subsidiary of Oracle.

Merger Consideration

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding share of our common stock, other than treasury shares, shares held by Oracle or Aqua Acquisition, those shares held by stockholders who perfect their appraisal rights (as described in "The Merger Appraisal Rights") and shares of restricted stock (as described under "The Merger Effect On Awards Outstanding Under Agile's Stock Plans"), will be converted into the right to receive $8.10 in cash, without interest. Treasury shares and shares held by Oracle will be canceled immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

As of the effective time of the merger, all shares of our common stock will no longer be outstanding and will automatically be canceled and will cease to exist and each holder of a certificate representing any shares of our common stock (other than stockholders who have perfected their appraisal rights) will cease to have any rights as a stockholder, except the right to receive $8.10 per share in cash, without interest. The price of $8.10 per share was determined through arm's-length negotiations between Oracle and us.

Conversion of Shares; Payment Procedures

The conversion of our common stock into the right to receive $8.10 per share in cash, without interest, will occur automatically at the effective time of the merger. Promptly after the effective time of the merger, the exchange agent (to be selected by Oracle), will send a letter of transmittal to each former Agile stockholder. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions for obtaining cash in exchange for shares of our common stock. You should not return stock certificates with the enclosed proxy.

Upon surrender of a stock certificate representing shares of our common stock, together with a duly completed and validly executed letter of transmittal (or other evidence of transfer as the exchange agent may reasonably request in the case of shares held in book entry form), the holder of the certificate will be entitled to receive from the exchange agent, on behalf of Oracle, $8.10 in cash for each share surrendered and any surrendered stock certificate will be cancelled.

No interest will be paid or accrue on any cash payable upon the surrender of shares of our common stock. The cash paid upon conversion of shares of our common stock will be issued in full satisfaction of all rights relating to the shares of our common stock.

See The Merger Agreement Payment Procedures for additional information about the procedures for exchange of your shares of Agile common stock.

Effect On Awards Outstanding Under Agile's Stock Plans

Stock Options

Subject to the exception described below, immediately following the effective time of the merger, each outstanding option to purchase our common stock will be assumed by Oracle and converted into an option to purchase common stock of Oracle in accordance with the terms and conditions of the applicable Agile stock option plan and stock option agreement governing such option, except that:

the number of shares of Oracle common stock subject to each such option will be determined by multiplying the number of shares of our common stock subject to such option immediately prior to the effective time of the merger by a fraction (referred to as the option exchange ratio), the numerator of which is $8.10 and the denominator of which is the average closing price of Oracle common stock on the Nasdaq Global Market on the five trading days immediately prior to the effective date of the merger (rounded down to the nearest share); and the exercise price per share of Oracle common stock will equal the per share exercise price for the shares of our common stock subject to each such option immediately prior to the effective time of the merger divided by the option exchange ratio (rounded up to the nearest cent).

Oracle will prepare and file with the Securities and Exchange Commission a registration statement on Form S-8 with respect to the shares of Oracle common stock subject to the converted Agile stock options promptly following the effective time of the merger, but in any event within fifteen business days after the effective time of the merger.

If (1) any options to purchase our common are held by a person who is not an employee of ours or any of our subsidiaries immediately prior to the effective time or, as reasonably determined by Oracle in its sole discretion, are held by a person who will not be a service provider of ours, Oracle's or any of our or its respective subsidiaries immediately following the effective time of the merger and (2) Oracle determines options held by such persons will not be treated as assumed options as described in the prior paragraph, then those options will be fully accelerated and converted into the right to receive an amount in cash (without interest and less applicable withholding) equal to the product obtained by multiplying the aggregate number of shares of our common stock that were issuable on exercise of that option immediately prior to the effective time and the positive different (if any) between $8.10 and the per share exercise price of such option.

Restricted Shares

At the effective time, outstanding restricted shares will be converted into the right to receive $8.10 per share (without interest and less applicable withholding), which cash will be retained by Oracle for the benefit of the holders of restricted shares, subject to the same restrictions and vesting arrangements that were applicable to the restricted shares immediately prior to the effective time. The merger consideration will be paid to a holder of restricted shares on the date or dates those shares would have become vested under the applicable vesting schedule prior to the effective time, subject to the satisfaction of restrictions and other terms of such vesting schedule. All outstanding rights to repurchase restricted shares held by us (or similar restrictions in our favor, including, but not limited to, the forfeiture restrictions) immediately prior to the effective time will be assigned to Oracle and will be exercisable by Oracle on the same terms and subject to the same conditions as in effect immediately prior to the effective time, except that such rights may be exercised by Oracle retaining the cash into which the restricted shares were converted in the merger and paying to the former holder of the restricted shares the repurchase price (if any) applicable for each share subject to that right immediately prior to the effective time.

ESPP

We have agreed to accelerate the purchase period under our employee stock purchase plan in effect at the effective time so that outstanding purchase rights under the plan will be exercised immediately prior to the effective time. We have also agreed to take all actions necessary to ensure that no further offering period will commence under our employee stock purchase plan following the date of the merger agreement, to permit participants to exercise purchase rights immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, and to refund any amounts remaining in the plan after that exercise. We will then terminate our employee stock purchase plan immediately prior to, and effective as of, the effective time of the merger.

Effective Time Of The Merger

The merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger with the Delaware Secretary of State or at such later time as is agreed upon by Oracle and us and specified in the certificate of merger. The filing of the certificate of merger will occur as soon as practicable on or after the closing date, which will not be later than the second business day after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the completion of the merger described in the merger agreement.

Delisting And Deregistration Of Agile s Common Stock

If the merger is completed, our common stock will no longer be traded on The Nasdaq Global Market and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences Of The Merger

The following is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger relevant to United States Holders (as defined below). This summary is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), applicable Treasury Regulations, judicial authority and administrative rulings and practice, all as in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which may change, possibly with retroactive effect. This summary is written on the basis that shares of our common stock are held as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code. This summary is for general information only and does not address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to particular holders in light of their personal circumstances or to those holders who may be subject to special rules under the U.S. federal income tax laws, including, without limitation, banks or other financial institutions, insurance companies, broker-dealers, persons who elect to mark to market their securities holdings, U.S. expatriates, tax-exempt organizations, persons who are not United States Holders, persons that are, or are holding our common stock through, S-corporations, partnerships or other pass through entities, persons who are subject to alternative minimum tax, persons who hold their shares of our common stock as a position in a straddle or as part of a hedging, conversion, or other constructive sale transaction, persons that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar, persons validly exercising appraisal rights, persons who acquired their shares of our common stock upon the exercise of stock options or otherwise as compensation or persons who own shares of restricted stock. In addition, this discussion does not address any tax consequences of the merger other than United States federal income tax consequences, and in particular it does not address any state, local or foreign tax consequences.

We urge you to consult your tax advisor to determine the particular tax consequences to you (including the application and effect of any federal, state, local or foreign income and other tax laws) of the receipt of cash in exchange for our common stock pursuant to the merger.

For purposes of this discussion, a United States Holder means a beneficial owner of our common stock that is for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

an individual citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (or another entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia;

an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or a trust if it (i) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more United States persons has the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (ii) has a valid election in effect under the applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person.

The receipt of cash in exchange for shares of our common stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In general, a United States Holder will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference, between the amount of cash received in exchange for such United States Holder's common stock and the United States Holder's adjusted tax basis in such common stock. Any such gain or loss would be long-term capital gain or loss if the United States Holder's holding period in our common stock exceeded one year as of the date of the merger. If a United States Holder acquired different blocks of our common stock at different times or different prices, the United States Holder must calculate its gain or loss and determine its adjusted tax basis and holding period separately with respect to each block of our common stock. Long-term capital gain of United States Holders who are individuals is generally subject to tax at a reduced rate. Capital gain of corporate stockholders is generally taxable at the regular tax rates applicable to corporations. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Under the Code, a United States Holder may be subject, under certain circumstances, to information reporting on the cash received in the merger unless such United States Holder is a corporation or other exempt recipient. Backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28%) may also apply to a United States Holder with respect to payments made in connection with the merger, unless such holder properly provides proof of an applicable exemption or a correct taxpayer identification number and otherwise complies with the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against such holder's United States federal income tax liability, provided the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service in a timely manner.

Table of Contents

The foregoing does not purport to be a complete analysis of the potential tax considerations relating to the merger, and is not tax advice. Holders of our common stock are urged to consult their tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences to them of the merger, including the applicability and effect of federal, state, local, foreign and other tax laws.

Regulatory Matters

HSR Act

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 and the rules thereunder, certain transactions, including the merger, may not be completed unless certain waiting period requirements have been satisfied. Oracle and we have each filed a notification and report form pursuant to the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act with the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission. The successful completion of the applicable notification and waiting requirements under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act will be effective for one year from the termination of the waiting period. If the completion occurs later than one year after the termination of the waiting period, a further Hart-Scott-Rodino filing and waiting period requirement will arise. Even if the waiting period is terminated, the Antitrust Division, the Federal Trade Commission or others could take action under the antitrust laws with respect to the merger, including seeking to enjoin the completion of the merger, to rescind the merger or to impose conditions upon completion of the merger. There can be no assurance that a challenge to the merger on antitrust grounds will not be made or, if such a challenge is made, that it would not be successful.

German Federal Cartel Office Review

The merger is subject to review by the German Federal Cartel Office (FCO) under the Act against Restraints of Competition (Gesetz gegen Wettbewerbsbeschränkungen). A transaction that is subject to German merger control may not be completed before either the FCO has cleared the transaction or the relevant waiting period has expired without the FCO having prohibited the transaction. In practice, the FCO always issues a decision before expiration of the waiting period. After submission of a complete notification, the FCO must decide within one month whether to clear the transaction or to commence a second-stage investigation. Second-stage decisions must be issued within four months from the filing date. The four-month period may be further extended, provided that the notifying parties consent to such extension.

Austria

The transaction is subject to Austrian merger control. Transactions subject to Austrian merger control may not close until regulatory clearance is obtained. Upon receipt of the notification, the Austrian Federal Competition Authority (FCA) forwards a copy of the notification to the Federal Cartel Prosecutor (FCP) and publishes a short summary of the notification on its website. Both the FCA and the FCP (statutory parties) have the right to initiate proceedings for an in-depth review of merger cases (phase II) before the Vienna Court of Appeal as Cartel Court, which is the sole adjudicator in competition law matters. A transaction is cleared if neither statutory party requests initiation of phase II-proceedings within four weeks or if both statutory parties have waived their right to make such request. In the event that the FCA or the FCP requests a phase II-review, the Cartel Court has five months to reach a prohibition or clearance decision.

Brazil

The transaction is subject to Brazilian merger control. Transactions subject to Brazilian merger control must be notified to the Antitrust Commission (CADE) within 15 business days of the execution of the merger agreement by the parties. The Ministry of Finance (SEAE) and Ministry of Justice (SDE) review merger control notifications that are submitted to CADE, as well, although CADE is the final decision-making agency. Merger control notifications in Brazil do not impose a pre-closing waiting period on the parties, and parties therefore can close and implement a transaction before clearance by CADE.

Table of Contents

China

The transaction is subject to review in the People's Republic of China (PRC), by the Ministry of Commerce (MOFCOM), and the State Administration of Industry and Commerce (SAIC), pursuant to the Regulations on Acquisitions of Domestic Enterprises by Foreign Investors (Regulations). MOFCOM, SAIC, and other agencies that regulate foreign trade in China jointly issued new Guidelines on Antitrust Filings for Mergers & Acquisitions of Domestic Enterprises by Foreign Investors on March 8, 2007 (Guidelines). Under the Regulations and Guidelines, a transaction is deemed to be approved upon the expiration of the 30th business day after the receipt of a complete set of filing materials by the authorities, unless the authorities issue a notice of extended review to the parties. If the review period is extended, a transaction is deemed approved upon the expiration of the 90th business day after the receipt of a complete set of filing materials, unless the authorities issue a notice of approval or a notice of disapproval.

General

Comparable notifications and antitrust reviews may be required in one or more additional jurisdictions. The parties are currently evaluating the need for such notifications. Those material to the completion of the merger have been or will be effected as soon as possible. It is possible that any of the governmental entities with which filings are made may seek, as conditions for granting approval of the merger, some form of regulatory concessions. There can be no assurance that Oracle or we will be able to satisfy or comply with these conditions or be able to cause our respective subsidiaries to satisfy or comply with these conditions, or that compliance or noncompliance will not have adverse consequences for Oracle after completion of the merger, or that the required regulatory approvals will be obtained within the time frame contemplated by Oracle and us or on terms that will be satisfactory to Oracle and us. See The Merger Agreement Conditions To The Completion Of The Merger.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Oracle is not required to, or to agree to, divest, hold separate, or enter into any license or similar agreement with respect to, or agree to restrict the ownership or operation of, any business or assets of Oracle, us or any of our respective subsidiaries.

Litigation

On May 16, 2007, an action, Carl Sulzberger v. Agile Software Corporation., et al., was filed in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Santa Clara. In this action, the plaintiffs named as defendants our board of directors and us. The complaint asserts claims on behalf of our public stockholders who are similarly situated with the plaintiffs. Among other things, the complaint alleges that the members of our board of directors have breached their fiduciary duties to our public stockholders, that our directors engaged in self-dealing in connection with approval of the merger, and that our directors failed to take steps to maximize our value to our public stockholders. The complaint seeks class certification and certain forms of equitable relief, including enjoining the consummation of the merger. We believe that the allegations are without merit and intend to vigorously contest the action. However, there can be no assurance that we or the other defendants will be successful in our or their defense.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following description summarizes the material provisions of the merger agreement. Stockholders should read carefully the merger agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement and is hereby incorporated into this document by reference.

The merger agreement and the following summary have been included to provide you with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement and are not intended to provide you with any factual information about any party to the merger agreement, including any information about their condition (financial or otherwise). Specifically, although the merger agreement contains representations and warranties of each of Agile, Aqua Acquisition and Oracle, the assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of the merger agreement and the closing conditions under the merger agreement and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed to by the respective parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the merger agreement, including exceptions and other information contained in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties exchanged in connection with signing the merger agreement that are not included in this document. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specific date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to stockholders, or may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters of fact. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of such representations and warranties may change after the date of the merger agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in our or Oracle's public disclosures. Accordingly, you should not look to or rely on such representations and warranties for information about the parties to the merger agreement. You should read the merger agreement together with the other information covering Agile and Oracle that each company publicly files in reports and statements with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Structure and Effective Time

The merger agreement provides for the merger of Aqua Acquisition with and into us. At that time, the separate corporate existence of Aqua Acquisition will cease and we will continue as the surviving corporation of the merger and as a wholly owned subsidiary of Oracle.

The merger will become effective when a certificate of merger is filed with the Delaware Secretary of State (or at a later time as specified in the certificate of merger). We will file the certificate of merger as soon as practicable on or after the closing, which will take place no later than two business days after the satisfaction or waiver of the parties' conditions to completion of the merger. See Conditions To The Completion Of The Merger. Following the completion of the merger, our common stock will no longer be listed on The Nasdaq Global Market, will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and will no longer be publicly traded. We will be a privately held corporation and our current stockholders will cease to have any ownership interest in Agile or rights as Agile stockholders. Therefore, our current stockholders will not participate in any future earnings or growth of Agile and will not benefit from any appreciation in the value of Agile.

Merger Consideration

The merger agreement provides that each share of our common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted at the effective time of the merger into the right to receive $8.10 in cash, without interest. All treasury shares and shares owned by Oracle will be cancelled at the effective time of the merger and no payment will be made for those shares. If appraisal rights for any of our shares are perfected by any of our stockholders, then those shares will be treated as described under The Merger Appraisal Rights.

Table of Contents

After the merger is effective, each holder of a certificate or book entry position representing shares of our common stock will no longer have any rights as a stockholder of Agile with respect to the shares, except for the right to receive the merger consideration.

See The Merger Effect On Awards Outstanding Under Agile's Stock Plans for a description of the treatment of stock options, restricted shares and purchase rights under our employee stock purchase plan.

Payment Procedures

Effective automatically upon completion of the merger, you will have the right to receive the per share merger consideration in cash, without interest. Prior to the effective time of the merger, Oracle will enter into an agreement with a third party reasonably acceptable to Agile to act as exchange agent under the merger agreement. At the effective time of the merger, Oracle will make available to the exchange agent cash in an amount sufficient to enable the exchange agent to pay the aggregate merger consideration to the holders of shares of our common stock.

Promptly after the effective time of the merger, the exchange agent will mail to each record holder of shares, as of the effective time, a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in surrendering certificates (for certificated shares) or shares you may hold represented by book entry in exchange for the merger consideration. No stockholder should surrender any certificates until the stockholder receives the letter of transmittal and other materials for such surrender. Upon surrender of a stock certificate (for certificated shares) for cancellation to the exchange agent, together with a letter of transmittal, duly completed and executed in accordance with the instructions, and such other customary documents as the exchange agent may require, or upon surrender of book entry shares, the holder of such shares will be entitled to receive the merger consideration into which the number of such shares will have been converted pursuant to the merger agreement, without any interest thereon. The surrendered certificates or book entry shares will be cancelled.

If payment of the merger consideration is to be made to a person other than the person in whose name a surrendered certificate or instrument is registered, it will be a condition to such payment that the certificate or instrument so surrendered will be properly endorsed or will be otherwise in proper form for transfer and that the person requesting such payment will have paid all taxes required by reason of such payment in a name other than that of the registered holder of the certificate or instrument surrendered or will have established to the satisfaction of the exchange agent that such tax is not payable.

In the event any certificates representing shares of our common stock have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the exchange agent will issue the merger consideration to such stockholder upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the holder thereof; provided that Oracle may, in its discretion, require such stockholder to deliver a bond in a customary and reasonable amount as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against Oracle with respect to the certificates alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

You should not send your certificates now, and should send them only pursuant to instructions set forth in the letter of transmittal to be mailed to stockholders promptly after the effective time of the merger. In all cases, the merger consideration will be provided only in accordance with the procedures set forth in this proxy statement, the merger agreement and such letters of transmittal.

Six months after the effective time of the merger, the exchange agent will deliver to Oracle, upon demand, any funds made available to the exchange agent which have not been disbursed to holders of our common stock. Any holders of our common stock who have not complied with the above-described procedures to receive payment of the merger consideration during such period may thereafter look only to Oracle for payment, without interest, of the merger consideration to which they are entitled. Oracle will not be liable to any holder of shares of our common stock for any amounts paid to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws. Any amounts remaining unclaimed by holders of shares of our common stock two years after the effective time of the merger, or such earlier date immediately prior to such time when the amounts would otherwise escheat to or become property of any governmental authority, will become, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the property of Oracle, free and clear of any claims or interests of any person previously entitled thereto.

Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws

At the effective time of the merger, our amended and restated certificate of incorporation will be amended and restated and will become the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation of the merger. The bylaws of Aqua Acquisition as in effect immediately prior to the effective time will become the bylaws of the surviving corporation of the merger.

Directors and Officers

The merger agreement provides that the directors and officers of Aqua Acquisition immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be the directors and officers of the surviving corporation of the merger.

Board Recommendation; No Solicitation of Alternative Proposals

We have agreed to certain limitations on our ability to take action with respect to other acquisition transactions. Except as set forth below, we have agreed that neither we nor any of our subsidiaries will, nor will we or any of our subsidiaries authorize or permit any of our or their directors, officers, employees or representatives to, directly or indirectly solicit, initiate or knowingly take any action to facilitate or encourage any acquisition proposal or any proposal that could reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal. In addition, we may not:

conduct or engage in any discussions or negotiations with, disclose any non-public information relating to us or any of our subsidiaries to, afford access to the business, properties, assets, books or records of us or any of our subsidiaries to, or knowingly assist, participate in, facilitate or encourage any effort by, any third party that is seeking to make, or has made, an acquisition proposal;

amend or grant any waiver or release under any standstill or similar agreement with respect to any class of equity securities of us or any of our subsidiaries, approve any transaction under, or any third party becoming an interested stockholder under, Section 203 of the DGCL, or amend or grant any waiver or release or approve any transaction or redeem any rights under our rights agreement; or enter into any agreement in principle, letter of intent, term sheet, acquisition agreement, merger agreement, option agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement or other contract relating to any acquisition proposal.

Under the merger agreement, acquisition proposal means any offer or proposal by a third party with respect to:

any acquisition or purchase, directly or indirectly, of 15% or more of any class of our outstanding voting or equity securities, or any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any third party beneficially owning 15% or more of any class of our outstanding voting or equity securities;

any merger, amalgamation, consolidation, share exchange, business combination or other similar transaction involving us or any of our subsidiaries pursuant to which our stockholders immediately preceding such transaction hold, directly or indirectly, less than 85% of the equity interests in the surviving or resulting entity of such transaction;

any sale, lease (other than in the ordinary course of business), exchange, transfer, license (other than in the ordinary course of business), acquisition or disposition of 15% or more of our assets or any of our subsidiaries (measured by the lesser of book or fair market value thereof); or any liquidation, dissolution, recapitalization, extraordinary dividend or other significant corporate reorganization of us or any of our subsidiaries.

Table of Contents

Notwithstanding these limitations, prior to the time that our stockholders approve and adopt the merger agreement and after delivery of prior written notice to Oracle advising Oracle that it intends to take the action, if our board of directors determines in good faith by a majority vote, after consultation with our outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law, our board of directors may,:

engage in negotiations or discussions with any third party that has made (and not withdrawn) a bona fide, unsolicited acquisition proposal in writing that our board of directors believes in good faith, after consultation with our outside legal counsel and financial advisor, constitutes or would reasonably be expected to result in a superior proposal (as defined below); and thereafter furnish to such third party non-public information relating to us or any of our subsidiaries pursuant to an executed confidentiality agreement with terms no less favorable to us than those contained in the confidentiality agreement with Oracle.

We may also take any action that any court of competent jurisdiction orders us to take if such order has not been stayed.

Under the merger agreement, superior proposal means any bona fide, unsolicited written acquisition proposal made by a third party, which proposal did not result from a breach of our no-solicitation covenant and which, if consummated, would result in the third party (or in the case of a direct merger between the third party or any subsidiary of the third party and us, the stockholders of the third party) owning, directly or indirectly, all of the outstanding shares of our common stock, or all or substantially all the consolidated assets of us and our subsidiaries, and which our board of directors determines in good faith by a majority vote, after consultation with our outside legal counsel and financial advisor and taking into account all of the terms and conditions of such acquisition proposal and all financial, legal, regulatory and other aspects of such acquisition proposal, including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions, conditions to consummation and time to consummation, (1) is more favorable from a financial point of view to our stockholders (including any changes to the terms of the merger agreement by Oracle in response to such superior proposal), and (2) is not subject to any financing condition (and if financing is required, such financing is then fully committed to the third party).

Our board of directors has agreed to recommend adoption of the merger agreement. Our board has further agreed that it will not fail to make, withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to Oracle or Aqua Acquisition, its recommendation that our stockholders adopt the merger agreement, recommend another acquisition proposal, fail to recommend against acceptance of any tender offer or exchange offer within 10 business days after commencement, make any public statement inconsistent with its recommendation in favor of adoption of the merger agreement, or resolve or agree to take any of the foregoing actions (referred to as an adverse recommendation change), unless:

such adverse recommendation change is in connection with a superior proposal;

our board of directors determines, in good faith by a majority vote (after consultation with our outside legal counsel), that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law;

we give Oracle five business days notice before making an adverse recommendation change;

we provide certain information about the superior proposal to Oracle (including a copy of the proposed agreement); and

Oracle does not make, within five business after receipt of the notice from us, an offer that is determined by our board of directors in good faith, after consultation with our outside legal counsel and financial advisor, to be at least as favorable to our stockholders as the superior proposal.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, we are required to notify Oracle promptly (but in no event later than 24 hours) after we obtain knowledge of receipt of any acquisition proposal, of any inquiry that would reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal or any request for nonpublic information relating to us or our subsidiaries by any third party. In addition, we must keep Oracle reasonably informed on a prompt basis of the status and terms of any acquisition proposal, indication or request, including any material amendments or proposed amendments as to price or other material terms. We must also promptly provide to Oracle any nonpublic information provided to any third party that was not previously provided to Oracle.

Indemnification and Insurance

We and Oracle have agreed that all rights of indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger existing in favor of our and our subsidiaries' current and former directors or officers, as provided in their respective certificates of incorporation or by-laws or other comparable organizational documents, and any indemnification or other agreements in effect as of the date of the merger agreement will be assumed by the surviving corporation of the merger, and will continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms. The merger agreement further provides that for six years after the effective time of the merger, the surviving corporation of the merger will (and Oracle will cause the surviving corporation of the merger to) maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance for acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective time of the merger covering those persons who were, as of the date of the merger agreement, covered by our directors' and officers' liability insurance policies, on terms with respect to coverage and amounts no less favorable than those in effect on the date of the merger agreement, subject to a cap equal to 200% of our current annual premium. See The Merger Interests Of Agile's Directors and Management In The Merger Indemnification and Insurance.

Employee Benefit Matters

Oracle has agreed (1) to provide our employees who become employees of Oracle or any subsidiary of Oracle (including the surviving corporation of the merger and its subsidiaries) with credit for prior service to us, for eligibility to participate and vesting purposes, under our or Oracle's benefit plans (other than equity compensation or sabbatical plans), and (2) with respect to welfare plans, to waive all limitations as to pre-existing conditions, waiting periods and exclusions with respect to participation and coverage requirements under applicable Oracle plans, subject to certain limitations, and to provide credit for any co-payments and deductibles paid by such employees in the calendar year, and prior to the date, that such employees commence participating in applicable Oracle plans.

Reasonable Best Efforts

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, we and Oracle have agreed to use our respective reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable law to complete the merger. However, the merger agreement does not require Oracle or its subsidiaries to divest any assets or agree to restrict the ownership or operation of any of our or Oracle's or any of our or its subsidiaries' business or assets. In addition, neither Oracle nor its subsidiaries are obligated to litigate or participate in litigation of any judicial or administrative proceedings brought by any governmental authority:

challenging or seeking to make illegal, delay materially or otherwise directly or indirectly restrain or prohibit the consummation of the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or seeking to obtain from Oracle or any of its subsidiaries any damages in connection therewith;

seeking to prohibit or limit in any respect, or place any conditions on, the ownership or operation by us, Oracle or any of our or its respective affiliates of all or any portion of the business, assets or any product of us or any of our subsidiaries or Oracle or any of its subsidiaries or to require any such person to dispose of, license (whether pursuant to an exclusive or nonexclusive license) or enter into a consent decree or hold separate all or any portion of the business, assets or any product of us or any of our subsidiaries or Oracle or any of its subsidiaries, in each case as a result of or in connection with the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

seeking, directly or indirectly, to impose or confirm limitations on the ability of Oracle or any of its affiliates to acquire or hold, or exercise full rights of ownership of, any of our shares or any shares of common stock of the surviving corporation of the merger; or seeking to require divestiture by Oracle or any of its affiliates of any of our shares.

Other Covenants

The merger agreement contains a number of other covenants, including covenants relating to:

preparation of this proxy statement and holding of the special meeting;

public announcements;

product remediation;

governmental filings;

access to information; and

notice of certain events.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

The obligations of us and Oracle to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions:

the merger agreement will have been adopted by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of our outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote thereon;

no applicable law or order that prohibits the consummation of the merger must be in effect; the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act will have expired or terminated; and requisite approvals under German, Austrian and Chinese competition laws will have been received and the waiting periods under such foreign competition laws must have expired or terminated.

Oracle's and Aqua Acquisition's obligations to complete the merger are also subject to the following conditions:

the following Agile representations and warranties must be accurate in all material respects as of the closing date: organization, good standing, corporate power, corporate authorization, capitalization, broker fees, the opinion of Citigroup and the inapplicability of anti-takeover statutes/amendment of our rights plan;

all other representations made by us, (1) disregarding any materiality or material adverse effect qualifications contained in such representations, must be accurate in all respects as of the closing date for the merger as if made at and as of the closing date (except to the extent such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date, in which case such representations and warranties must be accurate in all material respects as of such earlier date), provided that all other representations and warranties made by us will be deemed accurate unless the aggregate impact of their failure to be accurate would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect, as defined, and (2) will be true and correct in all material respects if the breach of such other representations and warranties would reasonably be expected to have a material and adverse effect on the business of Oracle and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, at or following the effective time;

we will have performed in all material respects all of our obligations required to be performed by us at or prior to the closing;

there must not have been instituted or pending any proceeding by any governmental authority that is continuing as of the effective time of the merger:

challenging or seeking to make illegal, delay materially or otherwise directly or indirectly restrain or prohibit the consummation of the merger or seeking to obtain material damages in connection therewith;

seeking to restrain or prohibit Oracle's ownership or operation (or that of its affiliates) of all or any material portion of the business, assets or products, of us and our subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or of Oracle and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or to compel Oracle or any of its affiliates to dispose of, license (whether pursuant to an exclusive or nonexclusive license) or hold separate all or any material portion of the business, assets or products of us and our subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or of Oracle and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole;

seeking, directly or indirectly, to impose or confirm material limitations on the ability of Oracle or any of its affiliates effectively to acquire, hold or exercise full rights of ownership of any our shares or any shares of common stock of the surviving corporation of the merger, including the right to vote our shares or the shares of common stock of the surviving corporation of the merger acquired or owned by Oracle, Aqua Acquisition or any of Oracle's other affiliates on all matters properly presented to our stockholders; or seeking to require divestiture by Oracle, Aqua Acquisition or any of Oracle's other affiliates of any of our shares.

there must not have been any action taken, or any applicable law proposed, enacted, enforced, promulgated, issued or deemed applicable to the merger, in each case by any governmental authority, other than the application of the waiting period provisions of the HSR Act or of any foreign competition laws, that, in the reasonable judgment of Oracle, is likely, directly or indirectly, to result in any of the consequences listed in the immediately preceding sub bullet points; and there must not have been any change in our or our subsidiaries' business, financial condition or operations or results of operations that is or is likely to have a material adverse effect.

Our obligation to complete the merger is also subject to the following conditions:

the representations and warranties of Oracle contained in the merger agreement must be accurate in all material respects at and as of the closing date of the merger as if made at and as of such time (other than such representations or warranties that address matters only as of a certain date, which must be true in all material respects as of such date); and each of Oracle and Aqua Acquisition must have performed in all material respects all of its obligations required to be performed by it at or prior to the effective time of the merger.

Termination

The merger agreement may be terminated and the merger abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the merger:

by the mutual written agreement of us and Oracle;

by either us or Oracle if:

the merger has not been consummated on or before October 31, 2007; provided that the right to terminate under this provision will not be available to any party whose material breach of the merger agreement resulted in the failure of the effective date of the merger to occur on or before October 31, 2007;

Table of Contents

there is any applicable law or order that has become final and non-appealable that makes completion of the merger illegal or otherwise prohibited or enjoins us or Oracle from completing the merger; or our stockholders do not adopt the merger agreement upon a vote of our stockholders held at the special meeting.

by Oracle if:

our board of directors makes an adverse recommendation change;

we enter into, or publicly announce our intention to, enter into a definitive agreement or agreement in principle with respect to a superior proposal;

we or any of our representatives willfully and materially breach our obligations concerning solicitation of other offers;

we breach any representation or warranty or fail to perform any covenant or agreement under the merger agreement that would cause the conditions to closing relating to our representations, warranties and covenants not to be satisfied, but if the breach is capable of being cured within 30 days, and before October 31, 2007, through the exercise by us of commercially reasonable efforts, then Oracle cannot terminate the agreement if we continue to exercise commercially reasonable efforts during the 30-day period to cure the breach or the breach is cured; or by us if:

prior to adoption of the merger agreement by our stockholders, our board authorizes us to accept or enter into a binding definitive agreement for a superior proposal; provided that: (1) we pay the termination fee required by the merger agreement; (2) we notify Oracle, in writing and at least five business days prior to such termination, of our intention to terminate the merger agreement to enter into a binding written agreement for a superior proposal; and (3) Oracle does not make, within five days of receipt of that notice, an offer that our board of directors determines, in good faith after consultation with our financial advisors, is at least as favorable to our stockholders as the superior proposal; or

Oracle breaches any representation or warranty or fails to perform any covenant or agreement under the merger agreement that would cause the conditions to closing relating to its representations, warranties and covenants not to be satisfied, but if the breach is capable of being cured within 30 days, and before October 31, 2007, through the exercise by Oracle of commercially reasonable efforts, then we cannot terminate the agreement if Oracle continues to exercise commercially reasonable efforts during the 30-day period to cure the breach or the breach is cured.

Termination Fee

We are obligated to pay Oracle a fee of $16,400,000 if the merger agreement is terminated because:

Oracle terminates the merger agreement because our board of directors makes an adverse recommendation change;

Table of Contents

We are also obligated to pay a termination fee of $16,400,000 if the merger agreement is terminated because our stockholders fail to adopt the merger agreement at the special meeting and, prior to the special meeting, an acquisition proposal had been publicly made, and within 12 months following the date of such termination we enter into a definitive agreement with respect to, recommend to our stockholders, or complete an acquisition proposal (except references to 15% and 85% in the definition of acquisition proposal will be deemed references to 50%).

We are further obligated to pay a termination fee of $16,400,000 if the merger agreement is terminated because the merger does not close by October 31, 2007 and, prior to termination of the merger agreement, an acquisition proposal had been publicly made, and within 12 months following the date of such termination we enter into a definitive agreement with respect to, recommend to our stockholders, or complete, an acquisition proposal (except references to 15% and 85% in the definition of acquisition proposal will be deemed references to 50%).

Expenses

Pursuant to the merger agreement, whether or not the merger is consummated, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement will be paid by the party incurring such fees or expenses, except that we and Oracle will share equally fees and expenses relating to the printing, filing and mailing of this proxy statement and filing fees payable pursuant to applicable antitrust laws.

In addition, we will be required to reimburse Oracle for its documented reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by it and its affiliates in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, in an amount up to $5,000,000, if the merger agreement is terminated because our stockholders fail to adopt the merger agreement at the special meeting. Any payment of Oracle's expenses by us will be credited against any termination fee that may become payable by us under the last two paragraphs under Termination Fee above.

Amendment

The merger agreement may be amended by the parties at any time before or after any approval of the merger agreement by our stockholders, but after stockholder approval, no amendment may be made that by law requires further stockholder approval without such further stockholder approval.

(a) except as otherwise provided in Section 2.03(b), Section 2.03(c) or Section 2.05, each Company Share outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (together with the Company Rights attached to each such share) shall be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration;

(b) each Company Share held by the Company as treasury stock or owned by Parent or Merger Subsidiary immediately prior to the Effective Time (together with the Company Rights attached to each such share) shall be canceled, and no payment shall be made with respect thereto;

(c) each Company Share held by any Subsidiary of either the Company or Parent (other than Merger Subsidiary) immediately prior to the Effective Time (together with the Company Rights attached to each such share) shall be converted into such number of shares of stock of the Surviving Corporation such that each such Subsidiary owns the same percentage of Surviving Corporation immediately following the Effective Time as such Subsidiary owned in the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time; and

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Parent shall not be liable to any holder of Company Shares for any amounts paid to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws. Any amounts remaining unclaimed by holders of Company Shares two (2) years after the Effective Time (or such earlier date immediately prior to such time when the amounts would otherwise escheat to or become property of any Governmental Authority) shall become, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, the property of Parent free and clear of any claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.

In the event that the Company shall purchase such a tail policy prior to the Effective Time, Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall maintain such tail policy in full force and effect and continue to honor their respective obligations thereunder, in lieu of all other obligations of Parent and the Surviving Corporation under the first sentence of this Section 7.02(b) for so long as such tail policy shall be maintained in full force and effect.

(c) If Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger, or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, to the extent necessary, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent or the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 7.02.

(d) The rights of each Indemnified Person under this Section 7.02 shall be in addition to any rights such Person may have under the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or under the Delaware Law or any other Applicable Laws or under any agreement of any Indemnified Person with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. The rights of each Indemnified Person under this Section 7.02 shall survive consummation of the Merger and are intended to benefit, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Person. The obligations of Parent and the Surviving Corporation under this Section 7.02 shall not be terminated or modified in such manner as to adversely affect any Indemnified Person to whom this Section 7.02 applies, without the consent of such Indemnified Person.

Section 7.03 Employee Benefits. From and after the Closing Date, with respect to employees of the Company or its Subsidiaries immediately before the Effective Time who continue employment with the Surviving Corporation or any Subsidiary of the Surviving Corporation following the Effective Time (Continuing Employees), Parent shall cause the service of each such Continuing Employee with the Company and its ERISA Affiliates prior to the Closing Date to be recognized for purposes of eligibility to participate and vesting (but not for any other purpose, including, without limitation, for purposes of benefit accrual or determination of levels of benefits) under each compensation, vacation, fringe or other welfare benefit plan, program or arrangement of Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any of their ERISA Affiliates, but not including any sabbatical or equity compensation plans, programs, agreements or arrangements (collectively, the Parent Benefit Plans) in which any Continuing Employee is or becomes eligible to participate, but solely to the extent service was credited to such employee for such purposes under a comparable Company Employee Plan immediately prior to the Closing Date. From and after the Closing Date, with respect to each Parent Benefit Plan that is an employee welfare benefit plan as defined in Section 3(1) of ERISA in which any Continuing Employee is or becomes eligible to participate, Parent shall cause each such Parent Benefit Plan to (i) waive all limitations as to pre-existing conditions, waiting periods and exclusions with respect to participation and coverage requirements applicable under such Parent Benefit Plan to the same extent that such pre-existing conditions, waiting periods and exclusions would not have applied or would have been waived under the corresponding Company Employee Plan in which such Continuing Employee was a participant immediately prior to his commencement of participation in such Parent Benefit Plan but, with respect to long-term disability and life insurance benefits and coverage, solely to the extent permitted under the terms and conditions of Parent's applicable insurance contracts in effect as of the Closing Date (for purposes of clarity, to the extent such benefit coverage includes eligibility conditions based on periods of employment, the first sentence of this Section 7.03 shall control) and (ii) provide each Continuing Employee with credit for any co-payments and deductibles paid by such Continuing Employee in the calendar year that, and prior to the date that, such Continuing Employee commences participation in such Parent Benefit Plan in satisfying any applicable co-payment or deductible requirements under such Parent Benefit Plan for the applicable calendar year. Effective as of the Closing Date, Parent shall assume (or shall cause any successor to the Company to assume) absolutely and unconditionally the Company's Executive Retention and Severance Plan, as amended, and the Company's Vice President Retention and Severance Plan, and shall agree to perform the Company's obligations under such plans in the same manner and to the same extent as the Company would be required to perform had no such succession taken place.

COVENANTS OF PARENT AND THE COMPANY

The parties hereto agree that:

Section 8.01 Reasonable Best Efforts.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Company and Parent shall use their reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under Applicable Law to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including (i) preparing and filing as promptly as practicable with any Governmental Authority or other third party all documentation to effect all necessary filings, notices, petitions, statements, registrations, submissions of information, applications and other documents, (ii) obtaining and maintaining all approvals, consents, registrations, permits, authorizations and other confirmations required to be obtained from any Governmental Authority or other third party that are necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (iii) attempting to obtain a stay of any applicable order referenced in Section 6.03(b)(iv).

(b) In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, each of Parent and the Company shall (i) make an appropriate filing of a Notification and Report Form pursuant to the HSR Act with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby as promptly as practicable and in any event within ten (10) Business Days of the date hereof, (ii) supply as promptly as practicable any additional information and documentary material that may be requested pursuant to the HSR Act and Foreign Competition Laws, as defined in Schedule 9.01(c), and (iii) take all other actions necessary to cause the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act and Foreign Competition Laws, as defined in Schedule 9.01(c), as soon as practicable.

(c) Each of Parent and the Company shall, subject to Applicable Law, cognizable objections by the relevant agency, and the reasonable confidentiality concerns of each party (i) promptly notify each other party hereto of any written or oral communication to that party or its Affiliates from any Governmental Authority and permit each other party to review in advance any proposed written communication to any Governmental Authority, in each case concerning this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) not agree to participate, or to permit its Affiliates to participate, in any substantive meeting or discussion with any Governmental Authority in respect of any filings, investigation or inquiry concerning this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby unless it consults with each other party in advance and, to the extent permitted by such Governmental Authority, gives each other party the opportunity to attend and participate in such meeting, provided that if the Governmental Authority does not permit such participation by the other parties, or if all parties agree that such joint participation would not be advisable, each party shall allow outside counsel for the other parties to attend and participate, and (iii) furnish each other party with copies of all correspondence, filings, and communications (and memoranda setting forth the substance thereof) between them and their Affiliates and their respective Representatives, on the one hand, and any Governmental Authority or members of their respective staffs, on the other hand, concerning this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, prior to any termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article 10, the Company shall provide Parent the opportunity to participate in the defense of any Proceeding against the Company and/or its directors relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and will obtain the prior written consent of Parent prior to settling or satisfying any such Proceeding.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, nothing in this Agreement shall require Parent or any of its Subsidiaries to, nor shall the Company or any of its Subsidiaries without the prior written consent agree or proffer to, divest, hold separate, or enter into any license or similar agreement with respect to, or agree to restrict the ownership or operation of, any business or assets of Parent, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein (other than Section 8.01(b)(i) and (ii)), in no event shall Parent or any of its Subsidiaries be obligated to litigate or participate in the litigation of any Proceeding, whether judicial or administrative, brought by any Governmental Authority or appeal any Order (i) challenging or seeking to make illegal, delay materially or otherwise directly or indirectly restrain or prohibit the consummation of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement or seeking to obtain from Parent or any of its Subsidiaries any damages in connection therewith, (ii) seeking to prohibit or limit in any respect, or place any conditions on, the ownership or operation by the Company, Parent or any of their respective Affiliates of all or any portion of the business, assets or any product of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or to require any such Person to dispose of, license (whether pursuant to an exclusive or nonexclusive license) or enter into a consent decree or hold separate all or any portion of the business, assets or any product of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, in each case as a result of or in connection with the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (iii) seeking, directly or indirectly, to impose or confirm limitations on the ability of Parent or any of its Affiliates to acquire or hold, or exercise full rights of ownership of, any Company Shares or any shares of common stock of the Surviving Corporation, including the right to vote the Company Shares or the shares of common stock of the Surviving Corporation on all matters properly presented to the stockholders of the Company or the Surviving Corporation, respectively, or (iv) seeking to require divestiture by Parent or any of its Affiliates of any Company Shares.

Section 8.02 Certain Filings. The Company and Parent shall cooperate with one another (i) in connection with the preparation of the Proxy Statement, (ii) in determining whether any action by or in respect of, or filing with, any Governmental Authority is required, or any actions, consents, approvals or waivers are required to be obtained from parties to any material contracts, in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (iii) in taking such actions or making any such filings, furnishing information required in connection therewith or with the Proxy Statement to obtain any such actions, consents, approvals or waivers.

Section 8.03 Public Announcements. Parent and the Company shall consult with each other before issuing any press release, making any other public statement, or scheduling any press conference or conference call with investors or analysts, with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby and, except as may be required by Applicable Law or any listing agreement with or rule of any national securities exchange or association, shall not issue any such press release, make any such other public statement, or schedule any such press conference or conference call before such consultation.

Section 8.04 Section 16 Matters. The Company shall take all reasonable steps as may be required to cause the transactions contemplated by Section 2.03(a) and 2.06(a) and any other acquisitions of Parent equity securities or dispositions of Company equity securities (including derivative securities) in connection with this Agreement by each individual who is a director or officer of the Company to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act, such steps to be taken in accordance with the Interpretive Letter dated January 12, 1999, issued by the SEC relating to Rule 16b-3.

At and after the Effective Time, the officers and directors of the Surviving Corporation shall be authorized to execute and deliver, in the name and on behalf of the Company or Merger Subsidiary, any deeds, bills of sale, assignments or assurances and to take and do, in the name and on behalf of the Company or Merger Subsidiary, any other actions and things to vest, perfect or confirm of record or otherwise in the Surviving Corporation any and all right, title and interest in, to and under any of the rights, properties or assets of the Company acquired or to be acquired by the Surviving Corporation as a result of, or in connection with, the Merger.

- (a) (i) each of the Specified Company Representations shall be true in all material respects when made or at any time prior to the Effective Time as if made at and as of such time (other than any Specified Company Representation that is made only as of a specified date, which need only to be true in all material respects as of such specified date); (ii) each of the Other Company Representations, disregarding any materiality or Company Material Adverse Effect qualifications contained therein, shall be true when made or at any time prior to the Effective Time as if made at and as such time (other than any Other Company Representations that are made only as of a specified date, which need only to be true as of such specified date); provided that the Other Company Representations shall be deemed true at any time unless the individual or aggregate impact of the failure to be so true of the Other Company Representations would reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect; provided further that each of the Other Company Representations, the breach of which would reasonably be expected to have a material and adverse effect on the business of Parent and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, occurring at or following the Effective Time, shall be true in all material respects as of such specified date; and (iii) Parent shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of the Company by a senior executive officer of the Company to the foregoing effect;

(d) there shall not have been any action taken, or any Applicable Law shall have been proposed, enacted, enforced, promulgated, issued or deemed applicable to the Merger, by any Governmental Authority, other than the application of the waiting period provisions of the HSR Act or any Foreign Competition Law or any requirement for affirmative approval of a Governmental Authority under any Foreign Competition Law, that is likely, directly or indirectly, to result in any of the consequences referred to in clauses (i) through (iv) of paragraph (c) above; and

(e) no change shall have occurred in the business, financial condition, or operations or results of operations of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that is or is likely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

Section 9.03 Conditions to the Obligations of the Company. The obligation of the Company to consummate the Merger is subject to the satisfaction, at or prior to Closing, of the following conditions:

(a) by mutual written agreement of the Company and Parent;

(b) by either the Company or Parent, if:

(i) the Merger has not been consummated on or before October 31, 2007 (the End Date); provided that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.01(b)(i) shall not be available to any party whose material breach of any provision of this Agreement results in the failure of the Merger to be consummated by the End Date; or

(ii) there shall be any Applicable Law or Order that shall have become final and non-appealable that (A) makes consummation of the Merger illegal or otherwise prohibited, or (B) enjoins consummation of the Merger; or

(iii) if the Company or any of its Representatives shall have willfully and materially breached any of its obligations under Section 6.03; or

(iv) in the event (A) of a material breach of any covenant or agreement on the part of the Company set forth in this Agreement or (B) that any representation or warranty of the Company set forth in this Agreement shall have been inaccurate when made or shall have become inaccurate, in either case such that the conditions to the Merger set forth in Section 9.02(a) or Section 9.02(b), respectively, would not be satisfied as of the time of such breach or as of the time such representation and warranty became inaccurate; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that such breach by the Company or such inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the Company are curable by the Company through the exercise of commercially reasonable efforts prior to the End Date and within thirty (30) days, then Parent shall not be permitted to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.01(c)(iv) until the earlier to occur of (1) the expiration of a thirty (30) calendar day period after delivery of written notice from Parent to the Company of such breach or inaccuracy, as applicable, or (2) the ceasing by the Company to exercise commercially reasonable efforts to cure such breach or inaccuracy, provided that the Company continues to exercise commercially reasonable efforts to cure such breach or inaccuracy (it being understood that Parent may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.01(c)(iv) if such breach or inaccuracy by the Company is cured within such thirty (30) calendar day period); or

(d) by the Company:

(i) if prior to the Stockholder Approval, the Company Board authorizes the Company, subject to complying with the terms of this Agreement, to enter into a binding definitive agreement in respect of a Superior Proposal with a third party; provided that the Company shall have paid any amounts due pursuant to Section 11.04 in accordance with the terms, and at the times, specified therein; and provided further that in the case of any such termination by the Company, (A) the Company promptly notifies Parent, in writing at least five (5) Business Days prior to such termination, of its intention to terminate this Agreement and to enter into a binding definitive agreement in respect of a Superior Proposal, attaching the then-current version of such proposed definitive agreement, and (B) Parent does not make, within five (5) Business Days after its receipt of that written notification, an offer that is determined by the Company Board in good faith, after consultation with its outside counsel and financial advisor to be at least as favorable to the stockholders of the Company as such Superior Proposal; or

(ii) in the event (A) of a material breach of any covenant or agreement on the part of Parent or Merger Subsidiary set forth in this Agreement or (B) that any of the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Subsidiary set forth in this Agreement shall have been inaccurate in any material respect; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that such breach by Parent or Merger Subsidiary or such inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of Parent or Merger Subsidiary are curable by Parent or Merger Subsidiary through the exercise of commercially reasonable efforts prior to the End Date and within thirty (30) days, then the Company shall not be permitted to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.01(d)(ii) until the earlier to occur of (1) the expiration of a thirty (30) calendar day period after delivery of written notice from the Company to Parent of such breach or inaccuracy, as applicable, or (2) Parent or Merger Subsidiary ceasing to exercise commercially reasonable efforts to cure such breach or inaccuracy, provided that Parent or Merger Subsidiary continues to exercise commercially reasonable efforts to cure such breach or

The party desiring to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.01 (other than pursuant to Section 10.01(a)) shall give notice of such termination to each other party hereto.

If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 10.01, this Agreement shall become void and of no effect without liability of any party (or any stockholder, director, officer, employee, agent, consultant or representative of such party) to each other party hereto; provided that if such termination shall result from the willful failure of any party to perform a covenant hereof, such party shall be fully liable for any and all liabilities and damages incurred or suffered by any other party as a result of such failure. The provisions of this Section 10.02 and Sections 11.04, 11.06(b), 11.07, 11.08 and 11.09 shall survive any termination hereof pursuant to Section 10.01.

Section 11.02 Survival of Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties contained herein and in any certificate or other writing delivered pursuant hereto shall not survive the Effective Time.

Section 11.03 Amendments and Waivers.

(a) Any provision of this Agreement may be amended or waived prior to the Effective Time if, but only if, such amendment or waiver is in writing and is signed, in the case of an amendment, by each party to this Agreement or, in the case of a waiver, by each party against whom the waiver is to be effective; provided that after the Stockholder Approval without the further approval of the Company's stockholders, no such amendment or waiver shall be made or given that requires the approval of the stockholders of the Company under Delaware Law unless the required approval is obtained.

(b) No failure or delay by any party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. The rights and remedies herein provided shall be cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by Applicable Law.

Section 11.04 Expenses.

(a) Except as otherwise provided herein, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement shall be paid by the party incurring such cost or expense; provided that the Company and Parent shall share equally all (i) all fees and expenses, other than attorneys' and accountants' fees and expenses (which fees shall be paid for by the party incurring such expense), incurred in relation to the printing, filing and mailing of the Proxy Statement (including any preliminary materials related thereto and the financial statements and exhibits included therein) and any amendments or supplements thereto, and (ii) filing fees payable pursuant to the HSR Act or any Foreign Competition Law.

(b) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 10.01(c)(i), (ii) or (iii), then the Company shall pay to Parent (by wire transfer of immediately available funds), within two (2) Business Days after such termination, a fee in an amount equal to $16,400,000 (the Termination Fee).

(c) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 10.01(d)(i), then the Company shall pay to Parent (by wire transfer of immediately available funds), at or prior to such termination, the Termination Fee.

(d) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 10.01(b)(i) or 10.01(b)(iii) and (i) prior to such termination (in the case of termination pursuant to Section 10.01(b)(i)) or the Stockholder Meeting (in the case of termination pursuant to Section 10.01(b)(iii)), an Acquisition Proposal shall have been publicly made, and (ii) within twelve (12) months following the date of such termination the Company shall have (A) entered into a definitive agreement with respect to, (B) recommended to its stockholders, or (C) consummated, an Acquisition Proposal, then the Company shall pay to Parent (by wire transfer of immediately available funds), within one (1) Business Day after entering into such definitive agreement, making such recommendation, or consummating such transaction, the Termination Fee (it being understood that for all purposes of this clause (d), all references in the definition of Acquisition Proposal to 15% and 85% shall be deemed to be references to 50% instead).

(e) In the event that this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 10.01(b)(iii), the Company shall as promptly as possible (but in any event within three (3) Business Days) following receipt of an invoice therefor pay all of Parent's documented reasonable out-of-pocket fees and expenses (including reasonable legal and other third party advisors fees and expenses) actually incurred by Parent and its Affiliates on or prior to the termination of this Agreement in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, but in no event more than $5,000,000 (the Parent Expenses) as directed by Parent in writing; provided that the amount of any payment of the Parent Expenses pursuant to this Section 11.04(e) shall be credited against any obligation of the Company to pay the Company Termination Fee pursuant to Section 11.04(d).

(f) The Company acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 11.04 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and that, without these agreements, Parent and Merger Subsidiary would not enter into this Agreement. Accordingly, if the Company fails to pay any amount due to Parent pursuant to this Section 11.04, when due, the Company shall pay the costs and expenses (including legal fees and expenses) in connection with any action taken to collect payment (including the prosecution of any lawsuit or other legal action), together with interest on the unpaid amount at the publicly announced prime rate of Citibank, N.A. in New York City from the date such amount was first payable to the date it is paid.

(g) In no event shall more than one Termination Fee be payable under Section 11.04(b), Section 11.04(c) and Section 11.04(d).

Section 11.05 Disclosure Schedule References. The parties hereto agree that any reference in a particular Section of the Company Disclosure Schedule shall only be deemed to be an exception to (or, as applicable, a disclosure for purposes of) (i) the representations and warranties (or covenants, as applicable) of the Company that are contained in the corresponding Section of this Agreement, and (ii) any other representations and warranties (or covenants, as applicable) of the Company that are contained in this Agreement, but only if the relevance of that reference as an exception to (or a disclosure for purposes of) such representations and warranties (or covenants, as applicable) would be reasonably apparent.

Section 11.06 Binding Effect; Benefit; Assignment.

(a) (a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns. Except as provided in Section 7.02, no provision of this Agreement is intended to confer any rights, benefits, remedies, obligations or liabilities hereunder upon any Person other than the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns. Without limiting the foregoing, it is expressly understood and agreed that the provisions of Section 7.03 are statements of intent and no employee or other Person (excluding any party hereto) shall have any rights or remedies, including rights of enforcement, with respect thereto, and no employee or other Person is or is intended to be a third-party beneficiary thereof.

(b) No party may assign, delegate or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the consent of each other party hereto, except that Parent or Merger Subsidiary may transfer or assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement, in whole or from time to time in part, to one or more of its Affiliates at any time; provided that such transfer or assignment shall not relieve Parent or Merger Subsidiary of any of its obligations hereunder.

Section 11.07 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to the conflicts of law rules of such State.

Section 11.08 Jurisdiction. The parties hereto agree that any Proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or in connection with, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be brought in any federal court located in the State of Delaware or any Delaware state court, and each of the parties hereby irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of such courts (and of the appropriate appellate courts therefrom) in any such suit, action or proceeding and irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding in any such court or that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Process in any such Proceeding may be served on any party anywhere in the world, whether within or without the jurisdiction of any such court. Without limiting the foregoing, each party agrees that service of process on such party as provided in Section 11.01 shall be deemed effective service of process on such party.

Section 11.09 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

Section 11.10 Counterparts; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be signed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, with the same effect as if the signatures thereto and hereto were upon the same instrument. This Agreement shall become effective when each party hereto shall have received a counterpart hereof signed by all of the other parties hereto. Until and unless each party has received a counterpart hereof signed by each other party hereto, this Agreement shall have no effect and no party shall have any right or obligation hereunder (whether by virtue of any other oral or written agreement or other communication).

Section 11.11 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the Voting Agreement and the Confidentiality Agreement, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both oral and written, between the parties with respect to their subject matter.

Section 11.12 Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or restriction of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction or other Governmental Authority to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, provisions, covenants and restrictions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such a determination, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the fullest extent possible.

Section 11.13 Specific Performance. VOTING AGREEMENT

VOTING AGREEMENT, dated as of May 15, 2007 (this Agreement) between Oracle Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Parent), and the individual listed as Stockholder on the signature page hereto (Stockholder).

WHEREAS, as a condition and inducement to Parent's and Aqua Acquisition Corporation's (Merger Subsidiary) willingness to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of the date hereof (the Merger Agreement), with Agile Software Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company), Parent has requested Stockholder, and Stockholder has agreed, to enter into this Agreement with respect to all shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of the Company that Stockholder beneficially owns (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) (the Shares).

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto agree as follows:

VOTING AGREEMENT; GRANT OF PROXY

Section 1.01 Voting Agreement. Until the earlier of the Effective Time or the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms (the Termination Date), Stockholder hereby agrees to vote or exercise its right to consent with respect to all Shares that Stockholder is entitled to vote at the time of any vote or action by written consent to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement and any action required in furtherance thereof at any meeting of the stockholders of the Company, and at any adjournment thereof, at which such Merger Agreement and other related agreements (or any amended version thereof), or such other actions, are submitted for the consideration and vote of the stockholders of the Company. Stockholder hereby agrees that it will not vote any Shares in favor of, or consent to, and will vote against and not consent to, the approval of any (i) Acquisition Proposal, (ii) reorganization, recapitalization, liquidation or winding-up of the Company or any other extraordinary transaction involving the Company other than the Merger, or (iii) proposal made in opposition to or in competition with consummation of the Merger or the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Section 1.02 Irrevocable Proxy. Stockholder hereby revokes any and all previous proxies granted with respect to the Shares. By entering into this Agreement, Stockholder hereby grants a proxy appointing Parent as Stockholder's attorney-in-fact and proxy, with full power of substitution, for and in Stockholder's name, to vote, express consent or dissent, or otherwise to utilize such voting power in the manner contemplated by Section 1.01 above as Parent or its proxy or substitute shall, in Parent's sole discretion, deem proper with respect to the Shares. The proxy granted by Stockholder pursuant to this Article 1 is irrevocable and is granted in consideration of Parent entering into this Agreement and the Merger Agreement and incurring certain related fees and expenses. The proxy granted by Stockholder shall not be exercised to vote, consent or act on any matter except as contemplated by Section 1.01 above. The proxy granted by Stockholder shall be revoked upon termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

ARTICLE 2

Section 2.03 Ownership of Shares. Stockholder (together with Stockholder's spouse if Stockholder is married and the Shares and options set forth on the signature page hereto opposite such Stockholder's name constitute community property under Applicable Law) is the record or beneficial owner of the Shares and options set forth on the signature page hereto opposite such Stockholder's name, free and clear of any Lien and any other limitation or restriction (including any restriction on the right to vote or otherwise dispose of the Shares, but other than any restrictions on transfer pursuant to applicable securities laws). ARTICLE 4

COVENANTS OF STOCKHOLDER

Stockholder hereby covenants and agrees that until the Termination Date:

Section 4.01 No Proxies for or Encumbrances on Shares. Except pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, Stockholder shall not, without the prior written consent of Parent, directly or indirectly (except, if Stockholder is an individual, as a result of the death of Stockholder), (i) grant any proxies or enter into any voting trust or other agreement or arrangement with respect to the voting of any Shares or (ii) sell, assign, transfer, encumber or otherwise dispose of, or enter into any contract, option or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the direct or indirect sale, assignment, transfer, encumbrance or other disposition of, any Shares during the term of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Stockholder may (i) transfer shares to a family member or trust for estate planning purposes provided that, as a condition to such transfer, the transferee agrees in writing to be bound by the terms and provisions of this Agreement, and (ii) in connection with the exercise of any options to purchase Company Common Stock (cashless or otherwise), sell Shares in an amount that is sufficient to (x) satisfy the payment of any tax liability incurred by Stockholder in connection with such exercise and (y) pay the exercise price of such options.

Section 4.02 Other Offers. Stockholder (in Stockholder's capacity as such), hereby agrees to be bound by the provisions of Section 6.03 of the Merger Agreement.

Section 4.03 Additional Shares. In the event that Stockholder acquires record or beneficial ownership of, or the power to vote or direct the voting of, any additional voting interest with respect to the Company, such voting interests shall, without further action of the parties, be subject to the provisions of this Agreement, and the number of Shares set forth on the signature page hereto will be deemed amended accordingly. Stockholder shall promptly notify Parent of any such event.

Section 4.04 Appraisal Rights. Stockholder agrees not to exercise any rights (including under Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware) to demand appraisal of any Shares which may arise with respect to the Merger.

Stockholder agrees that it will not (a) bring, commence, institute, maintain, prosecute, participate in or voluntarily aid any action, claim, suit or cause of action, in law or in equity, in any court or before any governmental entity (an Action), which challenges the validity of or seeks to enjoin the operation of any provision of this Agreement or (b) bring or commence any Action that alleges that the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Stockholder, either alone or together with the other voting agreements to be delivered in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, or the approval of the Merger Agreement by the Board of Directors of the Company, breaches any fiduciary duty of the Board of Directors of the Company or any member thereof.

[CITIGROUP GLOBAL MARKETS INC. LETTERHEAD]

May 15, 2007

The Board of Directors

Agile Software Corporation

6373 San Ignacio Avenue

San Jose, CA 95119

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the common stock of Agile Software Corporation (the Company) of the Merger Consideration (defined below) to be received by such holders, pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of May 15, 2007 (the Merger Agreement), entered into among the Company, Oracle Corporation (Parent) and Aqua Acquisition Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub). As more fully described in the Merger Agreement, (i) Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company (the Merger) and (ii) each outstanding share of the common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of the Company (Company Common Stock), other than any shares of Company Common Stock held by the Company as treasury stock or owned by Parent or Merger Sub or any of their respective subsidiaries, will be converted into the right to receive $8.10 in cash (the Merger Consideration).

In arriving at our opinion, we reviewed the Merger Agreement and held discussions with certain senior officers, directors and other representatives and advisors of the Company and certain senior officers and other representatives and advisors of Parent concerning the business, operations and prospects of the Company. We examined certain publicly available business and financial information relating to the Company as well as certain financial forecasts and other information and data relating to the Company that were provided to or discussed with us by the management of the Company. We reviewed the financial terms of the Merger as set forth in the Merger Agreement in relation to, among other things: current and historical market prices and trading volumes of Company Common Stock; the historical and projected earnings and other operating data of the Company; and the capitalization and financial condition of the Company. We considered, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain other transactions which we considered relevant in evaluating the Merger and analyzed certain financial, stock market and other publicly available information relating to the businesses of other companies whose operations we considered relevant in evaluating those of the Company. In connection with our engagement and at the direction of the Company, we were requested to approach, and we held discussions with, selected third parties to solicit indications of interest in the possible acquisition of the Company. In addition to the foregoing, we conducted such other analyses and examinations and considered such other information and financial, economic and market criteria as we deemed appropriate in arriving at our opinion.

In rendering our opinion, we have assumed and relied, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information and data publicly available or provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with us and upon the assurances of the management of the Company that they are not aware of any relevant information that has been omitted or that remains undisclosed to us. With respect to financial forecasts and other information and data provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with us relating to the Company, we have been advised by the management of the Company that such forecasts and other information and data were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company as to the future financial performance of the Company. We have assumed, with your consent, that the Merger will be consummated in accordance with its terms, without waiver, modification or amendment of any term, condition or agreement.

material to our opinion and that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases for the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on the Company or the Merger. We have not made or been provided with an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company nor have we made any physical inspection of the properties or assets of the Company. Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for the Company or the effect of any other transaction in which the Company might engage. Our opinion is necessarily based upon information available to us, and financial, stock market and other conditions and circumstances existing, as of the date hereof.

Citigroup Global Markets Inc. has acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with the proposed Merger and will receive a fee for such services, which fee is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. We and our affiliates in the past have provided, and currently provide, services to the Company and Parent unrelated to the proposed Merger, for which services we and such affiliates have received and expect to receive compensation, including, without limitation, providing advisory services to the Company since March 2006, acting as bookrunner in connection with Parent's January 2006 $5.75 billion bond offering, acting as senior managing agent and lender in connection with a $5 billion bridge loan to Parent in February 2006 and acting as lender to Parent in connection with its existing $3 billion five-year credit facility. In the ordinary course of our business, we and our affiliates may actively trade or hold the securities of the Company and Parent for our own account or for the account of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. In addition, we and our affiliates (including Citigroup Inc. and its affiliates) may maintain relationships with the Company, Parent and their respective affiliates.

Our advisory services and the opinion expressed herein are provided for the information of the Board of Directors of the Company in its evaluation of the proposed Merger, and our opinion is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act on any matters relating to the proposed Merger.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, our experience as investment bankers, our work as described above and other factors we deemed relevant, we are of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Company Common Stock.

Very truly yours,

CITIGROUP GLOBAL MARKETS INC.

Annex D

DELAWARE GENERAL CORPORATION LAW

§ 262: Appraisal Rights

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of § 251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to § 251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

- a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;
- b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;
- c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or
- d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

Table of Contents

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228 or § 253 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation.

of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.
