Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On February 10, 2011, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Harley-Davidson, Inc. (the Company) approved an amendment to Section 2.07 of the Company's By-laws to provide that no person may be elected as a director of the Company after such person's 72nd birthday, except as may otherwise be approved by the Board in advance of such election. This amendment replaces the prior provision mandating the automatic retirement of a director upon the commencement of the annual meeting of the Company's shareholders following such director's 72nd birthday. In light of the strategic transformation being undertaken by the Company, the Board believes that retaining the retirement policy for directors while allowing for discretion by the Board to make exceptions to the policy when it deems it to be in the best interests of the Company is a prudent balance of succession planning for members of the Board and ensuring continuity in the leadership of the Company.

The foregoing description of the amendment to the By-Laws is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the By-Laws which is attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 3.1 and incorporated by reference herein.
