Pursuant to Rule 13d-2(a) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, this Amendment No. 9 amends the Schedule 13D dated August 22, 1995, amended by Amendment No. 1 dated May 19, 2004, Amendment No. 2 dated June 30, 2004, Amendment No. 3 dated September 13, 2005, Amendment No. 4 dated January 3, 2007, Amendment No. 5 dated November 13, 2007, Amendment No. 6 dated June 20, 2008, Amendment No. 7 dated August 12, 2010 and Amendment No. 8 dated December 3, 2010. Unless indicated otherwise, all items left blank remain unchanged and any items that are reported are deemed to amend and supplement, rather than supersede, the existing items in the Schedule 13D (as previously amended). All defined terms shall have the same meaning as previously ascribed to them in the Schedule 13D (as previously amended), unless otherwise noted.

Item 2. Identity and Background.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

On March 27, 2011, Anheuser-Busch, Incorporated (ABI), a subsidiary of Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc., and Craft Brewers Alliance, Inc. (CBA) entered into a binding term sheet by which ABI will purchase the 42% interest in Fulton Street Brewery, LLC (FSB) owned by CBA (the CBA Interest) for a purchase price of $16,300,000 in cash, reductions in the distribution fees to be paid by CBA to ABI under the existing distribution arrangements between the parties, amendments to the minority rights held by ABI and additional commercial considerations described below. FSB is a Chicago-based brewer of malt beverage products under the Goose Island brand.

ABI had previously entered into an equity purchase agreement (the GHI Proposal) with Goose Holdings, Inc. (GHI) to purchase GHI's 58% interest (the GHI Interest) in FSB for a purchase price of $22,500,000. Pursuant to the FSB operating agreement between GHI and CBA, GHI notified CBA that CBA was required either (i) to match the GHI Proposal on the same terms provided in the equity purchase agreement or (ii) to sell the CBA Interest in FSB to ABI for a purchase price of $16,300,000 (being 42% of the aggregate price that would be paid by ABI for all of FSB). The GHI Proposal conditioned the obligations of each of GHI and ABI to consummate the transaction on CBA's agreement to sell the CBA Interest to ABI. Although the exchange and recapitalization agreement between ABI and CBA (Exchange and Recapitalization Agreement) prohibited CBA from acquiring the GHI Interest without the consent of ABI or the waiver by ABI of certain provisions of that agreement, ABI advised CBA on March 25, 2011 that should the CBA board of directors determine to purchase the GHI Interest, ABI would provide the necessary waiver.

CBA had initially indicated to ABI its intention to exercise its right to match the GHI Proposal and purchase the GHI Interest. On March 25, 2011, ABI made an oral proposal to CBA's representatives for CBA to sell its CBA Interest to ABI, which was formalized in a letter dated March 27, 2011. ABI also described its concerns regarding execution, leverage and other risks relating to CBA's potential exercise of its match rights. On March 25, as detailed in the letter, ABI offered to (i) pay CBA $14,700,000 in cash for its agreement to sell the CBA Interest (in addition to the $16,300,000 provided by the equity purchase agreement), (ii) provide enhanced assistance to CBA in marketing its products to retailers and (iii) permit CBA to refrain from using ABI as a master distributor for products subsequently acquired by CBA. Following receipt of the ABI letter on March 27, 2011, after a meeting of its Board of Directors (the CBA Board) at which the director designated by ABI did not participate, the CBA Board authorized CBA's chief executive officer to negotiate and approve a transaction with ABI on the terms specified by the CBA Board. During those negotiations, the chief executive officer informed ABI that CBA valued ongoing reductions in the distribution fees currently paid by CBA to ABI more than the $14,700,000 additional cash offered by ABI. On March 28, 2011, ABI and CBA executed a term sheet by which CBA agreed to join the equity purchase agreement and sell the CBA Interest to ABI pursuant to its terms and ABI agreed to (a) reduce the distribution fees payable by CBA to ABI during the current term of the distribution agreement between ABI and CBA to no more than 25 cents per case, (b) reduce the distribution fees during any renewal term of the distribution agreement to no more than 75 cents per case, (c) the concessions described in (ii) and (iii) above, (d) amendments to the Exchange and Recapitalization Agreement increasing the threshold for CBA acquisitions that do not require ABI's consent to $30,000,000, increasing the threshold for CBA divestitures that do not require ABI's consent to $30,000,000 and eliminating ABI's right to require CBA to consider change of control transactions under specified circumstances and (e) pay to CBA $150,000 in respect of CBA's transaction costs (in addition to the $16,300,000 prescribed in the equity purchase agreement).

CBA and ABI expect to complete the documentation implementing the term sheet shortly.

ABI's purchase of FSB is subject to customary closing conditions, including obtaining required regulatory approvals. ABI expects to close the transaction in the second quarter of 2011.
