Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On September 19, 2011, SRI/Surgical Express, Inc. (SRI) amended its employment agreement with Gerald Woodard, SRI s Chief Executive Officer, and its retention agreements with the following named executive officers:

Mark Faris, SRI s Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary,

William Braun, SRI s Senior Vice President of Operations, and

David J. McGuire, SRI s Senior Vice President of Sales.

Copies of the foregoing amendments are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1 through 10.4 and are incorporated herein by this reference. The summary of the amendments included below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the amendments.

Mr. Woodard s employment agreement previously included a Good Reason concept, pursuant to which he will receive the severance payments specified in his employment agreement if SRI materially and adversely changes either his compensation or his position and duties during the year following a change of control. The amendment to Mr. Woodard s employment agreement expands the definition of Good Reason so that Mr. Woodard will also receive the severance payments specified in his employment agreement if SRI requires Mr. Woodard to relocate more than 50 miles from his current location during the year following a change of control.

The amendments to the retention agreements add the same Good Reason concept that is included in Mr. Woodard s employment agreement. Under the revised retention agreements, if the officer resigns for Good Reason, he will receive the severance payments specified in his retention agreement.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
