Item 2.06 Material Impairments.

On May 24, 2013, News Corporation (the Company) concluded that certain of its goodwill and intangible assets were potentially impaired and that it expects to record a pre-tax non-cash impairment charge in the range of $1.2 billion to $1.4 billion in the quarter ending June 30, 2013 related to its Publishing segment.

The Company tests goodwill for impairment on an annual basis in the fourth quarter and at other times if a significant event or change in circumstances indicates that it is more likely than not that the fair value of these assets has been reduced. The valuation of goodwill requires assumptions and estimates of many factors, including revenue and market growth, operating cash flows, market multiples and discount rates. During the fourth quarter of 2013, as part of the Company's long-range planning process in preparation for the distribution (as discussed below), the Company adjusted its future outlook and related strategy principally with respect to the Australian Publishing business and secondarily with respect to the US Publishing businesses which resulted in a reduction in expected future cash flows. As a result, the Company determined that the fair value of these reporting units declined below their respective carrying values and expects to record an impairment charge in the quarter ending June 30, 2013. Additionally, goodwill and intangible assets in the Publishing segment continue to be at risk for future impairment. The Company is continuing its evaluation of the extent of the impairment of goodwill and intangible assets and the range noted above reflects our best estimate of the impairment at this time. However, until the evaluation has been finalized, the Company can make no assurances that such range will not change.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

In connection with the Company's separation of its publishing and media and entertainment businesses into two distinct publicly traded businesses (the Separation), on May 24, 2013 the Company announced that as of the date of the Separation, which is expected to be June 28, 2013, Delphine Arnault, Jacques Nasser and Robert Silberman (collectively, the New Directors) will join the Board of Directors of the Company, which will retain the global media and entertainment businesses and is expected to be renamed 21st Century Fox. Also in connection with the Separation, the Company's directors José María Aznar, Natalie Bancroft, Peter L. Barnes, Elaine Chao and Joel I. Following the Separation, Dow Jones will be part of New News Corporation, and accordingly, Ms. Bancroft will serve as a director of that company.

As of the date of the Separation, the Company's Board of Directors would consist of K. Rupert Murdoch, Delphine Arnault, James W. Breyer, Chase Carey, David F. DeVoe, Viet Dinh, Sir Roderick I. Eddington, James R. Murdoch, Lachlan K. Murdoch, Jacques Nasser, Robert Silberman and Álvaro Uribe.

Mr. Nasser has been a Director of BHP Billiton Limited and BHP Billiton Plc since 2006 and the Chairman of each since 2010. He served as a Director of British Sky Broadcasting plc from 2002 to November 2012.

Stockholder Rights Agreement

On May 24, 2013, the Company issued a press release announcing that, in advance of the Separation, its Board of Directors determined to adopt a stockholder rights agreement.

Under the rights agreement, each outstanding share of common stock of the Company will have attached to it one right, with the distribution of the rights by dividend to be conditioned upon consummation of the Separation.

Initially, the rights will be represented by the common stock of the Company, will not be traded separately from the common stock and will not be exercisable.

Beginning on May 24, 2013 any acquisition of shares of voting common stock of the Company as a result of acquiring in the ex-dividend market or otherwise, will be taken into account in calculating the beneficial ownership of a person or group for the purposes of determining whether the rights have become exercisable.

The rights will become exercisable for common stock of the Company only if, after May 24, 2013, a person or group obtains beneficial ownership (defined to include stock which a person has the right to acquire, regardless of whether such right is subject to the passage of time or the satisfaction of conditions), including by means of a tender offer, of 15% or more of the Company's voting common stock, at which time, unless the Board of Directors redeems the rights, each right would enable the holder of such right to buy additional shares of common stock of the Company. Following the acquisition of 15% or more of the Company's voting common stock, each right will entitle its holder (other than the acquiring person or group) to purchase, at the exercise price (subject to adjustments provided in the rights agreement), a number of shares of the Company's voting or non-voting common stock, as applicable, having a then-current market value of twice the exercise price, and in the event of a subsequent merger or other acquisition of the Company, to purchase, at the exercise price, a number of shares of common stock of the acquiring entity having a then-current market value of twice the exercise price. The exercise price for the Company rights will be $150.00.

The rights will not become exercisable by virtue of any person's or group's beneficial ownership, as of May 24, 2013, of 15% or more of the voting common stock of the Company, unless such person or group acquires beneficial ownership of additional shares of the Company's voting common stock after May 24, 2013.

The description of the rights agreement contained herein does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of rights agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

A copy of the Company's press release (the "Release") regarding the matters discussed herein is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2 and is incorporated herein by reference. The Release also discusses New News Corporation matters that are covered in greater detail in Amendment No. 5 to New News Corporation's Registration Statement on Form 10 filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on May 24, 2013.
