Item 5.07. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

On May 22, 2014, the unit holders of Marine Petroleum Trust (the Trust) acted by a way of written consent (pursuant to a consent solicitation, and in lieu of a special meeting of unit holders) (the Consent).

In the Consent, unit holders of the Trust were asked to consider and vote upon (i) the appointment of Southwest Bank as successor corporate trustee of the Trust and (ii) certain amendments to the Restated Marine Petroleum Trust Indenture dated January 1, 1984 (the Indenture), as more fully described in the definitive consent solicitation statement filed by the Trust with the Securities Exchange Commission on March 31, 2014, as amended.

Of the 2,000,000 units outstanding and entitled to act pursuant to the Consent, 1,333,050 units voted. As such, a majority of the outstanding units of the Trust acted pursuant to the Consent.

The proposals voted on by the unit holders in the Consent and the voting results are set forth below.

Forward-looking Statements

Any statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K and the exhibits filed or furnished herewith about plans for the Registrant, the expected timing of the completion of the proposed resignation of the Trustee or appointment of a successor trustee, and other statements containing the words estimates, believes, anticipates, plans, expects, intends and similar expressions, other than historical facts, constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Factors or risks that could cause our actual results to differ materially from the results we anticipate include, but are not limited to the inability of the Trustee to resign or Southwest Bank to assume duties as successor trustee due to the failure to obtain necessary unitholder or court approval or the failure to satisfy other conditions set forth in the Trustee's notice of resignation.

Actual results may differ materially from those indicated by such forward-looking statements. In addition, the forward-looking statements included in the materials represent the Trustee's views as of the date hereof. The Trustee anticipates that subsequent events and developments may cause its views to change. However, while the Trustee may elect to update these forward-looking statements at some point in the future, it specifically disclaims any obligation to do so. These forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing the Trustee's views as of any date subsequent to the date hereof.
