Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Credit Agreement Amendment

On May 30, 2014, Alere Inc. (the "Company") and certain of its subsidiaries entered into a Fifth Amendment (the "Credit Agreement Amendment") to its secured Credit Agreement, dated as of June 30, 2011, with certain lenders, General Electric Capital Corporation as collateral agent and administrative agent, and certain other agents and arrangers, as previously amended.

The Credit Agreement Amendment provides for, among other things, amendments to the Credit Agreement to permit the Company and its subsidiaries to enter into, consummate the transactions contemplated by, and perform their obligations with respect to the BBI Transaction (as defined below). The Credit Agreement Amendment requires Alere to repay outstanding loans under the Credit Agreement in the amount of the net cash proceeds of certain component transactions of the BBI Transaction on the terms provided in the Credit Agreement Amendment; the repayment obligation is conditioned on the consummation of the BBI Transaction. The Credit Agreement Amendment also designates BBI (as defined below) and its subsidiaries following the consummation of the BBI Transaction as "unrestricted" subsidiaries for purposes of the financial covenants and other covenants and restrictions in the Credit Agreement, and permits the Company in the future to designate other subsidiaries as so "unrestricted", subject to customary terms and conditions; this permission is also conditioned on the consummation of the BBI Transaction. Such unrestricted subsidiaries are generally not bound to comply with the covenants and restrictions in the Credit Agreement. The Company is required to pay certain amendment fees to the consenting lenders under the Credit Agreement Amendment.

The "BBI Transaction" is broadly defined in the Credit Agreement Amendment and the supplemental indentures (discussed below) as the previously announced proposed initial public offering by the Company's subsidiary BBI Diagnostics Group plc ("BBI") of its ordinary shares in the United Kingdom and the sale of such shares in certain other jurisdictions, together with certain related transactions anticipated to be conducted by the Company and its subsidiaries in connection therewith as previously announced by the Company.

The description of the Credit Agreement Amendment contained herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Credit Agreement Amendment, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Modifications to 7.250% Senior Notes due 2018, 8.625% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2018 and 6.500% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2020

On June 5, 2014, the Company completed its previously announced consent solicitations with respect to its 7.250% Senior Notes due 2018 (the "7.250% Notes"), its 8.625% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2018 (the "8.625% Notes") and its 6.500% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2020 (the "6.500% Notes" and, together with the 7.250% Notes and the 8.625% Notes, the "Notes") in relation to certain waivers (the "Waivers") and amendments (the "Amendments" and, together with the Waivers, the "Note Modifications") under the respective indentures governing the Notes. Following the receipt of the requisite consents from the holders of the Notes, the Company entered into supplemental indentures implementing the Note Modifications, substantially as described in the consent solicitation documents. The Note Modifications will become operative only upon the Company's payment of the consent fees to the relevant holders as described in the consent solicitation documents, which consent fees the Company expects to pay in connection with the consummation of the BBI Transaction.

Among other matters, the Note Modifications, once operative, will permit the Company and its subsidiaries to enter into, consummate the transactions contemplated by, and perform their obligations with respect to the BBI Transaction. The Company is not obligated to make the Note Modifications operative by paying the consent fees or to consummate the BBI Transaction. If the Company were to cause the Note Modifications to become operative, the Company would pay aggregate consent fees of approximately $9.45 million in connection with the Note Modifications.

With respect to the 7.250% Notes, the Company entered into a seventeenth supplemental indenture by and among, the Company, the subsidiary guarantors party thereto, as guarantors, and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, as trustee (Bank of New York), supplementing the fifteenth supplemental indenture, pursuant to which the 7.250% Notes were issued, dated as of December 11, 2012, among the Company, the subsidiary guarantors party thereto and Bank of New York.

With respect to the 8.625% Notes, the Company entered into a seventeenth supplemental indenture by and among the Company, the subsidiary guarantors party thereto, as guarantors, and U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee (U.S. Bank), supplementing the ninth supplemental indenture, pursuant to which the 8.625% Notes were issued, dated as of September 21, 2010, among the Company, the subsidiary guarantors party thereto and U.S. Bank.

With respect to the 6.500% Notes, the Company entered into an eighteenth supplemental indenture by and among the Company, the subsidiary guarantors party thereto, as guarantors, and U.S. Bank, as trustee, supplementing the sixteenth supplemental indenture, pursuant to which the 6.500% Notes were issued, dated as of May 24, 2013, among the Company, the subsidiary guarantors party thereto and U.S. Bank.

The descriptions of the supplemental indentures contained herein are qualified in their entirety by reference to each of the supplemental indentures, which are attached as Exhibits 4.1 through Exhibit 4.3 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
