Excerpts from a video interview of Jerre Stead, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of IHS Inc. made available to IHS employees on June 28, 2016:

IHS Second-Quarter 2016 Company Update June 28, 2016

Jerre Stead: yeah thanks Jo. This is actually an amazing quarter, it is our last quarter as IHS Inc. before the merger and will talk about that in a minute.

Jo: It has been just three short months since our last quarterly update. How's the merger planning coming?

Jerre: It is in great shape several things I would just like to mention, by the way this will be the last time I get to wear the almost official blue IHS shirt which I am so proud of and will continue to be we will introduce the new brand I am hopeful on the morning of July 13. So working backwards we originally said I think on the last call on the last video it was going to be mid-September everybody has done an incredible job and we are going to close I think well actually we have announced the election meetings will be on July 11 will be simultaneously in the UK for Markit and here in Denver for our vote. We will then (I hope) close late on July 12th we will have our first official new board meeting on the 13th we will have a celebration every place across the world of IHS Markit.

Jo: Recently the UK decided to exit the European Union (Jerre interjects: I heard that) will that have any impact on our company and the merger.

Jerre: A critical question a great question zero impact on the merger look forward to staying on that very tight schedule that we have there is a lot of unrest right now I think the thing most interesting is because it was a big surprise. Had the prognosticators/forecasters been more accurate and said that it was going to happen and that they would vote to exit two weeks before I think it would have been much different but surprise uncertainty is very difficult thing in the world so lots to learn and lots to see what is going to happen going forward but it doesn't slow our merger down at all and I would also say and I mean this really respectfully but for our customers and Markit's customers uncertainty is a good thing for us because it gives us the opportunity to help them make the better decisions and help them be focused on the things they need to be.

Jo: On a different topic we recently announced our Diversity and Inclusion statement and also announced that we are a signatory on the UN Women's Empowerment principal. Why are these actions important and will they continue after the merger?

Jerre: Absolutely, backwards, they will absolutely continue after the merger very important one more step forward for us as a company as we focus on sustainability remember sustainability starts with building a wonderful sustainable profitable business so we can do all the things we are doing. Those are two important steps and ones I am very proud of.

No Offer or Solicitation

This communication is not intended to and shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities or a solicitation of any vote of approval, nor shall there be any sale of securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction. No offer of securities shall be made except by means of a prospectus meeting the requirements of Section 10 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Forward-Looking Statements

This communication contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws, including Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. In this context, forward-looking statements often address expected future business and financial performance and financial condition, and often contain words such as expect, anticipate, intend, plan, believe, see, will, would, target, similar expressions, and variations or negatives of these words. Forward-looking statements by their nature address matters that are, to different degrees, uncertain, such as statements about the consummation of the proposed transaction and the anticipated benefits thereof. These and other forward-looking statements, including the failure to consummate the proposed transaction or to make or take any filing or other action required to consummate such transaction on a timely matter or at all, are not guarantees of future results and are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements. Important risk factors that may cause such a difference include, but are not limited to, (i) the completion of the proposed transaction on anticipated terms and timing, including obtaining shareholder or stockholder (as applicable) and regulatory approvals, anticipated tax treatment, unforeseen liabilities, future capital expenditures, revenues, expenses, earnings, synergies, economic performance, indebtedness, financial condition, losses, future prospects, business and management strategies for the management, expansion and growth of the combined company's operations and other conditions to the completion of the merger, (ii) the ability of IHS and Markit to integrate the business successfully and to achieve anticipated synergies, risks and costs, (iii) potential litigation relating to the proposed transaction that could be instituted against IHS, Markit or their respective directors, (iv) the risk that disruptions from the proposed transaction will harm IHS's and Markit's business, including current plans and operations, (v) the ability of IHS or Markit to retain and hire key personnel, (vi) potential adverse reactions or changes to business relationships resulting from the announcement or completion of the merger, (vii) continued availability of capital and financing and rating agency actions, (viii) legislative, regulatory and economic developments, (ix) potential business uncertainty, including changes to existing business relationships, during the pendency of the merger that could affect IHS's and/or Markit's financial performance, (x) certain restrictions during the pendency of the merger that may impact IHS's or Markit's ability to pursue certain business opportunities or strategic transactions and (xi) unpredictability and severity of catastrophic events, including, but not limited to, acts of terrorism or outbreak of war or hostilities, as well as management's response to any of the aforementioned factors. These risks, as well as other risks associated with the proposed merger, are more fully discussed in the joint proxy statement/prospectus included in the registration statement on Form F-4 filed with the SEC in connection with the proposed merger. While the list of factors presented here is, and the list of factors presented in the registration statement on Form F-4 are, considered representative, no such list should be considered to be a complete statement of all potential risks and uncertainties. Unlisted factors may present significant additional obstacles to the realization of forward-looking statements. Consequences of material differences in results as compared with those anticipated in the forward-looking statements could include, among other things, business disruption, operational problems, financial loss, legal liability to third parties and similar risks, any of which could have a material adverse effect on IHS's or Markit's consolidated financial condition, results of operations, credit rating or liquidity. Neither IHS nor Markit assumes any obligation to publicly provide revisions or updates to any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, should circumstances change, except as otherwise required by securities and other applicable laws.
