Item 5.02(b)

On August 22, 2017, our director, Martin Traber, formally notified the board of directors that he will not seek re-election to the board in 2018. Mr. Traber is a founder of the company and has served on the board of directors since the company's inception.

Our governance and nominating committee has launched a worldwide search for qualified candidates to fill this open board seat. As part of this search the committee will make inquiries of our largest shareholders.

In evaluating director nominee candidates, the governance and nominating committee will consider a variety of candidate attributes, including experience, skills, expertise, education, character, personal and professional integrity, temperament, business judgment, time availability, dedication and conflicts of interest. The committee will also consider factors such as board diversity, including by gender, race, ethnicity, culture and experience and education. The governance and nominating committee has in practice identified and recommended individuals of diverse ethnic, cultural and business backgrounds. At a minimum, director nominee candidates must be at least 18 years of age and have such business, financial, technological or legal experience or education to enable them to make informed decisions on behalf of the company.

The governance and nominating committee will consider director candidates recommended by shareholders. Any shareholder wishing to recommend one or more director candidates should send the recommendations to the Secretary of the Corporation, Andrew L. Graham, 5300 West Cypress Street, Suite 100, Tampa, Florida 33607. Each recommendation should set forth the candidate's name, age, business address, business telephone number, residence address, and principal occupation or employment and any other attributes or factors the shareholder wishes the committee to consider, as well as the shareholder's name, address and telephone number and the class and number of shares held. The Committee may require the recommended candidate to furnish additional information. The secretary will forward recommendations of qualified candidates to the governance and nominating committee and those candidates will be given the same consideration as all other candidates.
