Board of Directors Rhino Outdoor International, Inc. Torrance, California

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

We have reviewed the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Rhino Outdoor International, Inc., as of June 30, 2006, and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the six months then ended. All information included in these financial statements is the representation of the management of Rhino Outdoor International, Inc.

We conducted our review in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures to financial data and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 2 to the financial statements, the Company has suffered recurring losses and has an accumulated deficit at June 30, 2006. These factors raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note 2. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

NOTE 1 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND DESCRIPTION OF THE BUSINESS

Rhino Outdoor International, Inc. (fka Cyberads, Inc), was incorporated on April 12, 2000 in the State of Florida. On August 10, 2005 the Company changed domicile from Florida to Nevada.

The Company provides management and sales support to businesses focused in the Extreme Sports/Lifestyle market segment. The Company earns commissions/fees on securing distribution for the businesses and products it represents. Additionally, the Company will earn commissions when product deliveries are made through the distribution channel. The Company and its management has devoted their attention toward restructuring debt and seeking profitable products in 2005. The Company's year-end is December 31.

As of January 1, 2005, the Company abandoned its previous business plan of marketing cellular phone services and began a new development stage where it intends to provide management and sales support to businesses focused in the Extreme Sports/Lifestyle market segment.

On June 21, 2006, the Company entered into a share exchange agreement and plan of reorganization with Rhino Off Road Industries, Inc. Under this agreement and plan of reorganization, the Company acquired 100 percent of the outstanding common stock of Rhino in exchange for 1,650,000 shares of the Company's Series C convertible preferred stock. Furthermore, the Company issued another 600,000 shares of Series C convertible preferred stock for the retention of the subsidiary's officers and 400,000 for loan guarantees. As of June 30, 2006, the 400,000 shares had not been issued for loan guarantees. Rhino Off Road Industries, Inc. was incorporated on September 25, 2003 in the State of Nevada. The principal business of the Company is the design, manufacturing and sale of off road vehicles and its related parts. The Company's operations are located in Henderson, Nevada. See Note 3.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This summary of significant accounting policies of Rhino Outdoor International, Inc., is presented to assist in understanding the Company's financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of the Company's management, which is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements.

Accounting Method

The Company's financial statements are prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Accounts Receivable

The Company carries its accounts receivable at cost less an allowance for doubtful accounts. On a periodic basis, the Company evaluates its accounts receivable and establishes an allowance for doubtful accounts, based on a history of past write-offs and collections and current credit conditions.

The Company's policy is to accrue interest on trade receivables 90 days after invoice date. A receivable is considered past due if payments have not been received by the Company for 90 days. At that time, the Company will discontinue accruing interest and turn the account over for collection. If a payment is made after it has been turned over for collection, the Company will apply the payment to the outstanding principal first and resume accruing interest. Accounts are written off as uncollectible if no payments are received 180 days after they have been turned over for collection.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments and short-term debt instruments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Compensated Absences

Employees of the Company are entitled to paid vacation, and sick days, depending on job classification, length of service, and other factors. Management has deemed that any liability arising from this policy would be immaterial and has accrued no compensated absences liabilities for the period ended June 30, 2006

Cost of Sales

Cost of sales consists of the purchase price of materials and supplies, shipping, labor and benefits, and other overhead costs associated with production.

Development Stage Activities

The Company has been in the development stage since the inception of the current development stage (which began January 1, 2005) and has realized minimal revenue from operations. It expects to be engaged to provide management and sales support to businesses focused in the Extreme Sports/Lifestyle market segment.

Going Concern

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern. As shown in the financial statements, the Company has limited revenues, has incurred a net loss for the six months ended June 30, 2006, and has an accumulated deficit since the inception of the Company. These factors indicate that the Company may be unable to continue in existence. The Company is currently putting business plans in place which will, if successful, mitigate these factors which raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustments related to the recoverability and classification of recorded assets, or the amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary in the event the Company cannot continue existence.

Management has established plans designed to increase the sales of the Company's products and services and decrease debt. These plans will include providing management and sales support to businesses focused in the Extreme/Lifestyle market segment where the Company anticipates earning commissions/fees on securing distribution from business and products it represents.

An estimated $2 million is believed necessary to continue operations and increase development through the next fiscal year. The timing and amount of capital requirements will depend on a number of factors, including demand for products and services and the availability of opportunities for international expansion through affiliations and other business relationships. Management intends to seek new capital from new equity securities issuances to provide funds needed to increase liquidity, fund internal growth, and fully implement its business plan.

Inventories

The Company records inventories at the lower of cost or market on a first-in, first-out basis. At June 30, 2006, the Company has estimated a reserve of $50,000.

	June 30,		June 30	,
		2006	2005
Raw and work-in-progress	$	152,107	$	-
Finished goods		81,103		-
Reserve for obsolescence		(50,000)		-
Total Inventory	$	183,210	$	-

Investments

The Company's investments in securities are classified as either trading, held to maturity, or available-for-sale in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 115. Available-for-sale securities consist of equity securities not classified as trading securities or as securities to be held to maturity. Unrealized holding gains and losses, net of tax, on available-for-sale securities are reported as a net amount in a separate component of other comprehensive income. Gains and losses on the sale of available-for-sale securities are determined using the average cost method and are included in earnings. The Company determines the gain or loss on investment securities held as available-for-sale, based upon the accumulated cost basis of specific investment accounts. On the Company's balance sheet, short-term available for sale securities are classified as "investments."

Long-lived Assets

The Company accounts for its long-lived assets in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This standard establishes a single accounting model for long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, including discontinued operations, and requires that these long-lived assets be measured at the lower of carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell, whether reported in continuing operations or discontinued operations. Accordingly, the Company reviews the carrying amount of long-lived assets for impairment where events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The determination of any impairment would include a comparison of estimated future cash flows anticipated to be generated during the remaining life of the assets to the net carrying value of the assets.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation of property and equipment is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from three to seven years. See Note 4.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements at June 30, 2006 include the accounts of Rhino Outdoor International, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiaries IDS Cellular, Inc. ("IDS"), and Rhino Off Road Industries, Inc. All significant transactions and balances among the companies included in the consolidated financial statements have been eliminated. The operations of IDS are currently idle.

Provision for Taxes

Income taxes are provided based upon the liability method of accounting pursuant to Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes" (hereinafter "SFAS No. 109). Under this approach, deferred income taxes are recorded to reflect the tax consequences in future years of differences between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and their financial reporting amounts at each year-end. A valuation allowance is recorded against deferred tax assets if management does not believe the Company has met the "more likely than not" standard imposed by SFAS No. 109 to allow recognition of such an asset.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In September 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157, "Fair Value Measurements" (hereinafter "SFAS No. 157"), which defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. Where applicable, SFAS No. 157 simplifies and codifies related guidance within GAAP and does not require any new fair value measurements. SFAS No. 157 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and interim periods within those fiscal years. Earlier adoption is encouraged. The Company does not expect the adoption of SFAS No. 157 to have a significant effect on its financial position or results of operations.

In June 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109" (hereinafter "FIN 48"), which prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. FIN 48 also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition. FIN 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. The Company does not expect the adoption of FIN 48 to have an immediate material impact on its financial reporting, and the Company is currently evaluating the impact, if any, the adoption of FIN 48 will have on its disclosure requirements.

In March 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 156, "Accounting for Servicing of Financial Assets—an amendment of FASB Statement No. 140." This statement requires an entity to recognize a servicing asset or servicing liability each time it undertakes an obligation to service a financial asset by entering into a servicing contract in any of the following situations: a transfer of the servicer's financial assets that meets the requirements for sale accounting; a transfer of the servicer's financial assets to a qualifying special-purpose entity in a guaranteed mortgage securitization in which the transferor retains all of the resulting securities and classifies them as either available-for-sale securities or trading securities; or an acquisition or assumption of an obligation to service a financial asset that does not relate to financial assets of the servicer or its consolidated affiliates. The statement also requires all separately recognized servicing assets and servicing liabilities to be initially measured at fair value, if practicable and permits an entity to choose either the amortization or fair value method for subsequent measurement of each class of servicing assets and liabilities. The statement further permits, at its initial adoption, a one-time reclassification of available for sale securities to trading securities by entities with recognized servicing rights, without calling into question the treatment of other available for sale securities under Statement 115, provided that the available for sale securities are identified in some manner as offsetting the entity's exposure to changes in fair value of servicing assets or servicing liabilities that a servicer elects to subsequently measured at fair value and requires separate presentation of servicing assets and servicing liabilities subsequently measured at fair value in the statement of financial position and additional disclosures for all separately recognized servicing assets and servicing liabilities. This statement is effective for fiscal years beginning after September 15, 2006, with early adoption permitted as of the beginning of an entity's fiscal year. Management believes the adoption of this statement will have no impact on the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

In February 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 155, "Accounting for Certain Hybrid Financial Instruments, an Amendment of FASB Standards No. 133 and 140" (hereinafter "SFAS No. 155"). This statement established the accounting for certain derivatives embedded in other instruments. It simplifies accounting for certain hybrid financial instruments by permitting fair value remeasurement for any hybrid instrument that contains an embedded derivative that otherwise would require bifurcation under SFAS No. 133 as well as eliminating a restriction on the passive derivative instruments that a qualifying special-purpose entity ("SPE") may hold under SFAS No. 140. This statement allows a public entity to irrevocably elect to initially and subsequently measure a hybrid instrument that would be required to be separated into a host contract and derivative in its entirety at fair value (with changes in fair value recognized in earnings) so long as that instrument is not designated as a hedging instrument pursuant to the statement. SFAS No. 140 previously prohibited a qualifying special-purpose entity from holding a derivative financial instrument that pertains to a beneficial interest other than another derivative financial instrument. This statement is effective for fiscal years beginning after September 15, 2006, with early adoption permitted as of the beginning of an entity's fiscal year. Management believes the adoption of this statement will have no impact on the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

Research and Development

Research and development expenses are charged to operations as incurred. The cost of intellectual property purchased from others that is immediately marketable or that has an alternative future use is capitalized and amortized as intangible assets. Capitalized costs are amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated economic life, typically 10 years, of the related asset. The Company periodically reviews its capitalized patent costs to assess recoverability based on the projected undiscounted cash flows from operations. Impairments are recognized in operating results when a permanent diminution in value occurs

Reclassifications

Certain amounts from prior periods have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation. This reclassification has resulted in no changes to the Company's accumulated deficit or net losses presented.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue from product sales upon shipment to independent distributors, the Company's customers. Revenue from administration fees is recognized upon collection from independent distributors.

Use of Estimates

The process of preparing financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the use of estimates and assumptions regarding certain types of assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenses. Such estimates primarily relate to unsettled transactions and events as of the date of the financial statements. Accordingly, upon settlement, actual results may differ from estimated amounts.

NOTE 3 - ACQUISITION OF RHINO OFF ROADS INDUSTRIES, INC.

On June 21, 2006, the Company acquired one hundred percent of the issued and outstanding shares of Rhino Off Roads Industries, Inc. for 1,650,000 convertible preferred shares Series C of Rhino Outdoor International, Inc. Per the merger agreement, the Company issued another 600,000 shares of Series C convertible preferred stock for the retention of the subsidiary's officers. Furthermore, 400,000 shares were to be issued for loan guarantees that the subsidiary's officers had for lines of credit and bank indebtedness. As of June 30, 2006, these shares have not been issued, and the officers still are the guarantee on these lines of credit.

The purchase price was allocated as follows:

Cash	$ 18,578
Accounts receivable	5,000
Investments	1,102,500
Inventories	183,210
Plant, property & equipment, net	126,238
Other assets	2,052
Total Assets Acquired	1,437,578
Current liabilities	(2,177,590)
Other liabilities	(74,508)
Total Liabilities Assumed	(2,252,098)
Liabilities in excess of assets	823,463
Other comprehensive income	540,000
Cost of acquisition	1,650,000
Goodwill	$ 3,013,463

NOTE 4 - BANK OVERDRAFTS

Bank overdrafts consist of checks written in excess of funds on deposit. The underlying bank is used as an imprest account with automatic transfers from the Company's general account as checks are presented.

NOTE 5 - PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. The useful lives of property, plant and equipment for purposes of computing depreciation are five to forty years. The following is a summary of property, equipment, and accumulated depreciation:

	June 30, 2006	June 30, 2005
Plant assets	$ 183,687	$	-
Office furniture	7,445		-
Leasehold improvements	1,604		-
	192,736		-
Less accumulated depreciation	(66,498)	I	-
Net, property and equipment	$ 123,238	$	-

Depreciation and amortization expense for the period ended June 30, 2006 was $851. The Company evaluates the recoverability of property and equipment when events and circumstances indicate that such assets might be impaired. The Company determines impairment by comparing the undiscounted future cash flows estimated to be generated by these assets to their respective carrying amounts. Maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. Replacements and betterments are capitalized. The cost and related reserves of assets sold or retired are removed from the accounts, and any resulting gain or loss is reflected in results of operations.

NOTE 6 - INCOME TAXES

At June 30, 2006, the Company had deferred tax assets calculated at an expected rate of 34% of approximately $9,700,000 principally arising from net operating loss carryforwards for income tax purposes. As management of the Company cannot determine that it is more likely than not that the Company will realize the benefit of the net deferred tax asset, a valuation allowance equal to the net deferred tax asset was recorded at June 30, 2006. The significant components of the deferred tax asset at June 30, 2006 were as follows:

Net operating loss carryforward:	$ 28,600,000
Deferred tax asset	$ 9,700,000
Deferred tax asset valuation allowance	(9,700,000)
Net deferred tax asset	$ -

At June 30, 2006, the Company has net operating loss carryforwards of $28,600,000 which begin to expire in the year 2020. The change in the allowance account from December 31, 2005 to June 30, 2006 was $552,000.

NOTE 7 - CAPITAL STOCK

Preferred Stock

The Company is authorized to issue 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock with a par value of $0.001. These shares are convertible to common stock. As of June 30, 2006, the Company has issued 835,660 shares of preferred Series A, 1,000,000 shares of preferred Series B, and 2,250,000 shares of preferred Series C.

On June 26, 2005, the Company issued 1,000,000 shares of its convertible preferred Series B stock in exchange for partial payment of accrued salary to an officer of the Company. The shares were recorded at $0.10 value, which was a fair price average during the period of accrual. The Company recorded a reduction in accrued salary liability as a result of this issuance. Each share of Series B preferred was originally entitled to 100 votes per share, which was increased to 255 votes per share on June 21, 2006.

On June 21, 2006, the Company issued 1,650,000 shares of its convertible preferred Series C stock in a share exchange agreement and plan of reorganization when the Company acquired 100 percent of the outstanding common stock of Rhino Off Road Industries, Inc. The Company also issued another 600,000 shares of Series C convertible preferred stock for the retention of the subsidiary's officers. Per the merger agreement, 400,000 shares were to be issued for loan guarantees that the subsidiary's officers had for lines of credit and bank indebtedness. As of June 30, 2006, these shares have not been issued, and the officers still are the guarantee on these lines of credit.

Common Stock

The Company is authorized to issue 500,000,000 shares of common stock. All shares have equal voting rights, are non-assessable and have one vote per share. Voting rights are not cumulative and, therefore, the holders of more than 50% of the common stock could, if they choose to do so, elect all of the directors of the Company.

During the six month ended June 30, 2006, the Company issued 51,395,132 and 22,500,000 shares of its common stock for $1,207,630 and $450,000 in exchange for management and consulting services and accrued wages, respectively. The services were measured at the fair market value of the shares received on the day the shares were issued.

During the year ended December 31, 2005, the Company issued 99,626,000 shares of its common stock in exchange for consulting services for $6,946,392. The services were measured at the fair market value of the shares received on the day the shares were issued.

During the year ended December 31, 2005, the Company issued 500,000 shares of its common stock in exchange for debt of $60,000 and recorded a gain of forgiveness of debt of $2,500 for this exchange. The services were measured at the fair market value of the shares received on the day the shares were issued.

NOTE 8 - LEASE COMMITMENTS

Lease Payments

The Company has operating lease commitments for its premises. The monthly lease commitment is approximately $6,000. For years ended December 31, 2005, and 2004, the Company had paid approximately $72,000 for rent of facilities costs. The lease expired in April 2006. No replacement lease agreement has been signed and the Company continues to rent the facilities on a month-to-month basis.

NOTE 9 - LOAN PAYABLE

Notes payable consisted of the following at June 30:

	2006	2005
The Company has a $100,000 operating line of credit with Nevada First Bank that bears interest at a rate of 8.5% per annum, and was completely drawn down at June 30, 2006. This line of credit has no security directly associated with it. The Company has a second operating line of $199,950 with Nevada First Bank that bears interest at 8.5% per annum, and was completely drawn down at June 30, 2006. This line of credit is 100%
secured with a CD owned by related parties.	$ 299,950	$ -
The Company has a 5-year term loan with Nevada First Bank which had an initial value of $125,000. With 3 years left on the term, it bears interest at an annual rate of 7.5%, and is secured by all physical assets of the business.
This loan is secured by a personal guarantee by related parties.	76,323	-

Note payable to cellular phone service provider; due in installments of $92,596 payable on January 2, 2005 and August 2, 2005, plus interest at Libor index. In default.	185,192	185,192
Total Notes Payable	$ 713,755	$ 294,192

NOTE 10 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

On June 9, 2006, the Company signed an agreement with Hebei Sida Industry Group Col, Ltd ("Sida"), pursuant to which Sida will become an authorized exclusive distributor of the Company's products in China. Sida has agreed to purchase 1,000 units over a three year period. Under the agreement, Sida will manufacture these units in China and pay the Company a license fee of 10% over its purchase costs for distribution rights.

The Company is non-compliant with respect to certain federal and state payroll related taxes. Included in accrued payroll and payroll related liabilities at June 30, 2006 is approximately $582,800 of unpaid payroll taxes.

In April 2004, the Company agreed to indemnify a former officer of the Company for any loss he sustained in a settlement reached with a cellular phone service provider against IDS and him personally. Under the indemnification, the Company was obligated to pay an aggregate of $72,261 in installments of $5,000 each on or before August 1, 2004 and September 1, 2004, with the balance due October 1, 2004. The indemnification had no effect on the accompanying financial statements as the amount owed to the cellular phone service provider was previously recorded as accounts payable in the records of IDS.

The Company is currently in negotiations with an individual who has threatened a lawsuit against the Company, a former officer and a cellular phone service provider. The Company has offered to issue the individual 250,000 shares of common stock to settle any claims he may have against the Company. This individual has verbally accepted the settlement offer. The offer had no effect on the accompanying consolidated financial statements as consulting services totaling $27,500 owed this individual were previously recorded as accounts payable in the records of Rhino Outdoor International, Inc. The Company has reserved 250,000 shares of common stock to be issued under this settlement offer.

A claim against the Company of approximately $500,000 has been threatened by the Creditors Committee of World Com. The Company does not believe that it owes the amount and intends to vigorously defend the claim. The claim has not been pursued and the Company is not subject to any legal action pursuing this claim. Any claims asserted may be challenged by claims of the Company concerning funds owed to Rhino Outdoor International, Inc. for its prior trade relationship with World Com.

NOTE 11 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Accrued payroll and accrued taxes represents amounts owed to management for services provided. At June 30, 2006, the Company had accrued payroll of $211,333.

Related party payables represent amounts due to management and shareholders, who have loaned money to the Company to pay expenses on behalf of the Company. At June 30, 2006, short-term related party payables were $1,687,925. These loans are unsecured, non-interest bearing, and payable on demand.

NOTE 12 - INVESTMENTS

The Company's securities investments are classified as trading securities and are recorded at fair value as of the balance sheet date, with the change in fair value during the period included in accumulated comprehensive income.

In May 2006, the Company acquired shares of common stock in Luvoo, Inc, a public company, for sponsorship and visual representation on Rhino vehicles in competition for a consecutive twelve months beginning on June 1, 2006. The Company carries this investment at cost. See Note 2.
