Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

On March 15, 2018, Sanchez Midstream Partners LP (the “Partnership”) issued 210,978 common units (the “Units”) to SP Holdings, LLC (“Manager”). The issuance of the Units to Manager was a private placement of equity securities made in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to Section 4(a)(2) thereof as a transaction by an issuer not involving a public offering. The Units were issued as consideration pursuant to the shared services agreement, entered into by and among the Partnership and Manager, pursuant to which Manager provides services that the Partnership requires to operate its business, including overhead, technical, administrative, marketing, accounting, operation, information systems, financial, compliance, insurance, acquisition, disposition and financing services.
