Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited)

1. Accounting Policies

These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statement disclosures in our 2016 Form 10-K.

We use the same accounting policies in preparing quarterly and annual financial statements. All adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of quarterly operating results are reflected herein and are of a normal, recurring nature. Certain prior-year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation. Note 3 provides more information about a reclassification of supply chain-related depreciation expense to cost of sales. Unless otherwise noted, amounts presented within the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements refer to our continuing operations.

Due to the seasonal nature of our business, quarterly revenues, expenses, earnings, and cash flows are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year.

2. Revenues

In May 2014, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). We plan to adopt the standard in the first quarter of fiscal 2018 using the full retrospective approach. We do not expect the standard to materially affect our consolidated net earnings, financial position, or cash flows. We expect minor changes to the timing of recognition of revenues related to promotional gift cards.

We are nearly complete with our evaluation of the impact the standard has on our determination of whether we act as principal or agent in certain vendor arrangements where the purchase and sale of inventory are virtually simultaneous. We record revenue and related costs on a gross basis for the vast majority of these arrangements, which represent approximately 3 percent of our consolidated sales. We expect to conclude that we should continue to record these transactions on a gross basis.

We expect to present certain other income streams, including credit card profit sharing income, in an other revenue line on our Consolidated Statements of Operations upon adoption.

3. Cost of Sales and Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Beginning in the second quarter of 2017, we reclassified supply chain-related depreciation expense to cost of sales whereas it was previously included in depreciation and amortization on our Consolidated Statements of Operations. We reclassified prior year amounts to reflect this change. This reclassification increased cost of sales by $60 million and $189 million for the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017, respectively, and $65 million and $200 million for the three and nine months ended October 29, 2016, respectively, with equal and offsetting decreases to depreciation and amortization. This reclassification had no impact on sales, earnings before interest expense and income taxes, net earnings or earnings per share.

The following table illustrates the primary items classified in each major expense category:

Cost of Sales	Selling, General and Administrative Expenses
Total cost of products sold including:	Compensation and benefit costs for stores and headquarters
• Freight expenses associated with moving merchandise from our vendors to and between our distribution centers and our retail stores	Occupancy and operating costs of retail and headquarters facilities

Edgar Filing: TARGET CORP - Form 10-Q

- Vendor income that is not reimbursement of specific, incremental and identifiable costs
- Inventory shrink
- Markdowns
- Outbound shipping and handling expenses associated with sales to our guests
- Payment term cash discounts
- Distribution center costs, including compensation and benefits costs and depreciation
- Import costs
- Advertising, offset by vendor income that is a reimbursement of specific, incremental and identifiable costs
- Pre-opening and exit costs of stores and other facilities
- U.S. credit cards servicing expenses and profit sharing
- Costs associated with accepting 3rd party bank issued payment cards
- Litigation and defense costs and related insurance recovery
- Other administrative costs

Note: The classification of these expenses varies across the retail industry.

4. Fair Value Measurements

Fair value measurements are reported in one of three levels reflecting the valuation techniques used to determine fair value.

^(b) The carrying amount and estimated fair value of debt exclude unamortized swap valuation adjustments and capital lease obligations.

5. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents include highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less from the time of purchase. Cash equivalents also include amounts due from third-party financial institutions for credit and debit card transactions, which typically settle in 5 days or less.

(millions)	October 28, 2017	January 28, 2017	October 29, 2016

^(a) Amounts may be subject to tax if repatriated.

6. Property and Equipment

We review long-lived assets for impairment when events or changes in circumstances—such as a decision to relocate or close a store or distribution center, make significant software changes or discontinue projects—indicate that the asset's carrying value may not be recoverable. We recognized impairment losses of $1 million and $89 million during the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017, respectively, primarily resulting from planned or completed store closures and supply chain changes for the nine month period. Storm-related write-offs of property and equipment, net of insurance recoveries, were immaterial. We recognized impairment losses of $9 million and $37 million during the three and nine months ended October 29, 2016, respectively, primarily resulting from planned or completed store closures. The impairments are recorded in selling, general and administrative expense on the Consolidated Statements of Operations and are included in segment results.

7. Notes Payable and Long-Term Debt

In October 2017, we issued unsecured fixed rate debt of $750 million at 3.9% that matures in November 2047. During the three months ended October 28, 2017, we repurchased $344 million of debt before its maturity at a market value of $463 million. We recognized a loss on early retirement of approximately $123 million, which was recorded in net interest expense in our Consolidated Statements of Operations.

In May 2017, we used cash on hand to repay $598 million of debt at its maturity.

In April 2016, we issued unsecured fixed rate debt of $1 billion at 2.5% that matures in April 2026 and $1 billion at 3.625% that matures in April 2046. During the first and second quarter of 2016, we repurchased $565 million and $824 million of debt, respectively, before its maturity at a market value of $820 million and $981 million, respectively. We recognized a loss on early retirement of approximately $261 million and $161 million in first and second quarter of 2016, respectively, which was recorded in net interest expense in our Consolidated Statements of Operations.

We obtain short-term financing from time to time under our commercial paper program, a form of notes payable. No balances were outstanding at any time during the nine months ended October 28, 2017. For the three and nine months ended October 29, 2016, the maximum amount outstanding was $89 million and the average daily amounts outstanding were $3 million and $1 million, respectively, at a weighted average annual interest rate of 0.43 percent. At October 29, 2016, $89 million was outstanding.

8. Derivative Financial Instruments

Our derivative instruments primarily consist of interest rate swaps, which we use to mitigate interest rate risk. As a result of our use of derivative instruments, we have counterparty credit exposure to large global financial institutions. We monitor this concentration of counterparty credit risk on an ongoing basis. See Note 4 for a description of the fair value measurement of our derivative instruments and their classification on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Position.

As of October 28, 2017 and October 29, 2016, interest rate swaps with notional amounts totaling $1,000 million were designated fair value hedges. No ineffectiveness was recognized during the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017 or October 29, 2016.

As of October 28, 2017 and October 29, 2016, one interest rate swap with a notional amount of $250 million was not designated a fair value hedge because it was de-designated concurrent with the repurchase of debt during the first half of 2016.

We recorded income of $2 million and $8 million during the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017, respectively, and $5 million and $21 million during the three and nine months ended October 29, 2016, respectively, within net interest expense on our Consolidated Statements of Operations related to periodic payments, valuation adjustments, and amortization of gains or losses on our interest rate swaps.

9. Leases

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases. The new standard requires lessees to record assets and liabilities on the balance sheet for all leases with terms longer than 12 months. Leases will be classified as either finance or operating, with classification affecting the pattern of expense recognition in the income statement.

We must adopt the standard no later than the first quarter of 2019, which begins on February 3, 2019. A modified retrospective transition approach is required for leases existing at, or entered into after, the beginning of the earliest comparative period presented in the financial statements.

We plan to adopt the standard in the first quarter of 2018. We will take advantage of the transition package of practical expedients permitted within the new standard, which among other things, allows us to carryforward the historical lease classification. In addition, we are electing the hindsight practical expedient to determine the reasonably certain lease term for existing leases. While lease classification will remain unchanged, hindsight will result in generally shorter accounting lease terms and useful lives of the corresponding leasehold improvements. We will make an accounting policy election that will keep leases with an initial term of 12 months or less off of the balance sheet and will result in recognizing those lease payments in the Consolidated Statements of Operations on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

While we are continuing to assess all potential impacts of the standard, we expect total liabilities to increase by $1.3-$1.5 billion, with an offsetting increase to leased assets of $1.2-$1.4 billion as of the date of adoption. The difference between these amounts will be recorded as an adjustment to retained earnings. We do not believe the standard will materially affect our consolidated net earnings. These estimates — based on our current lease portfolio — may change as we continue to evaluate the new standard and as we implement a new lease accounting information system. The estimates could also change due to changes in the lease portfolio, which could include (a) lease volume, (b) lease commencement dates, and (c) renewal option and lease termination expectations. We will update our estimates each quarter as changes occur.

We do not believe the new standard will have a notable impact on our liquidity. The standard will have no impact on our debt-covenant compliance under our current agreements.

10. Income Taxes

	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended
	October 2017	October 2016	October 2017	October 2016
(dollars in millions)	28,	29,	28,	29,
Income tax expense	$ 137	$ 311	$ 802	$ 910
Effective tax rate ^(a)	22.3 %	33.8 %	30.5 %	33.0 %

^(a) For the three months ended October 28, 2017, the income tax rate decreased 11.5% compared with the three months ended October 29, 2016. Benefits from our global sourcing operations drove 9.6 percentage points of the decline (3.7 percentage points of which is due to lower earnings before income taxes). This includes $55 million of prior-period discrete tax benefits primarily related to our global sourcing operations. For the nine months ended October 28, 2017, the income tax rate decreased 2.5% compared with the nine months ended October 29, 2016. Benefits from our global sourcing operations drove 2.7 percentage points of rate decline. This includes $56 million of prior-period discrete tax benefits primarily related to our global sourcing operations.

11. Share Repurchase

	Nine Months Ended
(millions, except per share data)	October 2017	October 29, 2016
Total number of shares purchased	10.8	38.5
Average price paid per share	$ 56.80	$ 72.87
Total investment	$ 611	$ 2,807

Note: Accelerated share repurchase (ASR) activity in 2017 and 2016 is omitted because the transactions were not fully settled as of October 28, 2017 and October 29, 2016.

During the third quarter of 2017, we entered into an ASR to repurchase $150 to $250 million of our common stock under the existing $5 billion share repurchase program. Under the agreement, we prepaid $250 million and received an initial delivery of 2.5 million shares, which were retired, resulting in a $139 million reduction to shareholders' investment. As of October 28, 2017, $11 million is included in the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position as an additional reduction to shareholders' investment because the minimum repurchase will be $150 million. The remaining $100 million is included in other current assets. The ASR is not accounted for as a derivative instrument.

In November 2017, the ASR settled. We received an additional 0.3 million shares, which were retired, and $89 million for the remaining amount not settled in shares. In total, we repurchased 2.8 million shares under the ASR for a total cash investment of $161 million ($57.78 per share).

During the third quarter of 2016, we entered into an ASR to repurchase $250 to $350 million of our common stock. Under the agreement, we prepaid $350 million and received an initial delivery of 3.4 million shares, which were retired, resulting in a $230 million reduction to shareholders' investment. As of October 29, 2016, $20 million was included in the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position as an additional reduction to shareholders' investment because the minimum repurchase was $250 million. The remaining $100 million was included in other current assets. The ASR was not accounted for as a derivative instrument.

In November 2016, the ASR settled. We received an additional 1.3 million shares, which were retired, and $36 million for the remaining amount not settled in shares. In total, we repurchased 4.6 million shares under the ASR for a total cash investment of $314 million ($67.67 per share).

12. Pension Benefits

We provide pension plan benefits to certain eligible team members.

In March 2017, the FASB issued ASU 2017-07, Compensation – Retirement Benefits (Topic 715), which requires employers to disaggregate and present separately the current service cost component from the other components of net benefit cost within the Consolidated Statement of Operations. We plan to adopt the standard in the first quarter of fiscal 2018. We expect to reclassify the other components of net benefit cost to an other income and expense line on our Consolidated Statements of Operations upon adoption.

14. Segment Reporting

Our segment measure of profit (segment earnings before interest expense and income taxes) is used by management to evaluate performance and make operating decisions. We operate as a single segment that includes all of our continuing operations, which are designed to enable guests to purchase products seamlessly in stores or through our digital channels. Virtually all of our consolidated revenues are generated in the United States. The vast majority of our long-lived assets are located within the United States.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Executive Summary

Third quarter 2017 includes the following notable items:

GAAP earnings per share from continuing operations were $0.87.

Adjusted earnings per share from continuing operations were $0.91.

Comparable sales increased 0.9 percent, driven by a 1.4 percent increase in traffic.

Comparable digital channel sales increased 24 percent.

We devoted $847 million to capital investment, paid dividends of $339 million, and returned $171 million through share repurchases, including ASR transactions initiated during the quarter and settled in November 2017.

Sales were $16,667 million for the three months ended October 28, 2017, an increase of $226 million or 1.4 percent from the same period in the prior year. During the third quarter of 2017, Hurricanes Harvey and Irma caused widespread damage in Texas and Florida and resulted in temporary closure of some of our stores. The net sales impact and storm-related costs, net of insurance recoveries, was immaterial. Operating cash flow provided by continuing operations was $4,414 million and $2,770 million for the nine months ended October 28, 2017 and October 29, 2016, respectively. The operating cash flow increase is primarily due to increased payables leverage driven by changes in vendor payment terms during the nine months ended October 28, 2017, compared to the nine months ended October 29, 2016. The operating cash flow increase is also partially due to the payment of approximately $500 million of taxes during the first quarter of 2016, primarily related to the December 2015 sale of our pharmacy and clinic businesses (Pharmacy Transaction). These increases were partially offset by a larger inventory increase during the nine months ended October 28, 2017 compared to the nine months ended October 29, 2016, due to an earlier increase for the holiday season.

Adjusted diluted earnings per share	$ 0.91	$ 1.04	(13.1)%	$3.34	$ 3.56	(6.2)%

Note: Amounts may not foot due to rounding. Adjusted diluted earnings per share from continuing operations (Adjusted EPS), a non-GAAP metric, excludes the impact of certain items not related to our routine retail operations. Management believes that Adjusted EPS is meaningful to provide period-to-period comparisons of our operating results. A reconciliation of non-GAAP financial measures to GAAP measures is provided on page 18.

We report after-tax return on invested capital (ROIC) from continuing operations because we believe ROIC provides a meaningful measure of the effectiveness of our capital allocation over time. For the trailing twelve months ended October 28, 2017, ROIC was 13.7 percent, compared with 16.3 percent for the trailing twelve months ended October 29, 2016. Excluding the net gain on the Pharmacy Transaction, ROIC was 14.3 percent for the trailing twelve months ended October 29, 2016. A reconciliation of ROIC is provided on page 20.

Comparable sales is a measure that highlights the performance of our stores and digital channels by measuring the change in sales for a period over the comparable, prior-year period of equivalent length. Comparable sales include all sales, except sales from stores open less than 13 months, digital acquisitions we have owned less than 13 months, stores that have been closed, and digital acquisitions that we no longer operate. Comparable sales measures vary across the retail industry. As a result, our comparable sales calculation is not necessarily comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies.

The collective interaction of a broad array of macroeconomic, competitive, and consumer behavioral factors, as well as sales mix, and transfer of sales to new stores makes further analysis of sales metrics infeasible.

We monitor the percentage of sales that are paid for using REDcards (REDcard Penetration) because our internal analysis has indicated that a meaningful portion of the incremental purchases on REDcards are also incremental sales for Target. Gross Margin Rate

For the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017, our gross margin rate was 29.7 percent and 30.1 percent, respectively, compared with 29.8 percent and 30.4 percent in the comparable periods last year. For the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017, the decrease was primarily due to increased digital fulfillment costs. The rate was also affected by other items, including benefits from cost savings initiatives, partially offset by the net impacts of our efforts to improve pricing and promotions.

Selling, General, and Administrative Expense Rate

For the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017, our SG&A expense rate was 21.1 percent and 20.4 percent, respectively, compared to 20.3 percent and 20.0 percent in the comparable periods last year. The increase was primarily due to higher compensation due to both bonus expense and store wages, partially offset by cost savings driven by efficiency in our technology operations and, for the third quarter, timing of marketing campaigns.

Depreciation and Amortization Expense Rate

For the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017, our depreciation and amortization (exclusive of depreciation included in cost of sales) expense rate was 3.4 percent and 3.2 percent, respectively, compared to 3.1 percent and 3.0 percent in the comparable periods last year. These increases were primarily due to higher accelerated depreciation for planned store remodels.

Other Performance Factors

Net Interest Expense

Net interest expense from continuing operations was $254 million and $532 million for the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017, respectively, compared to $142 million and $864 million for the comparable periods last year. Net interest expense for the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017 included a net loss on early retirement of debt of $123 million. Net interest expense for the nine months ended October 29, 2016 included a loss on early retirement of debt of $422 million.

Provision for Income Taxes

Our effective income tax rate from continuing operations for the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017 was 22.3 percent and 30.5 percent, respectively, compared with 33.8 percent and 33.0 percent for the comparable periods last year. For the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017, the decrease was primarily due to prior-period discrete tax benefits related to our global sourcing operations. The rate decrease for both the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017, was also due to a benefit from our global sourcing operations related to our 2017 taxes, the rate impact of lower pretax earnings, and the resolution of other tax matters. For the nine months ended October 28, 2017, these items were partially offset by the recognition of excess tax benefits related to share-based payments for the nine months ended October 29, 2016.

Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures to GAAP Measures

To provide additional transparency, we have disclosed non-GAAP adjusted diluted earnings per share from continuing operations (Adjusted EPS). This metric excludes certain items presented below. We believe this information is useful in providing period-to-period comparisons of the results of our continuing operations. This measure is not in accordance with, or an alternative for, generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (GAAP). The most comparable GAAP measure is diluted earnings per share from continuing operations. Adjusted EPS should not be considered in isolation or as a substitution for analysis of our results as reported under GAAP. Other companies may calculate Adjusted EPS differently, limiting the usefulness of the measure for comparisons with other companies.

^(a) Represents income from income tax matters not related to current period operations. For the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017, primarily represents prior-period discrete tax benefits related to our global sourcing operations.

We have presented consolidated earnings from continuing operations before interest expense and income taxes (EBIT) and earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA), non-GAAP financial measures, because we believe that these measures provide meaningful information about our operational efficiency compared to our competitors by excluding the impact of differences in tax jurisdictions and structures, debt levels, and for EBITDA, capital investment. These measures are not in accordance with, or an alternative for, generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (GAAP). The most comparable GAAP measure is net earnings from continuing operations. Consolidated EBIT and EBITDA should not be considered in isolation or as a substitution for analysis of our results as reported under GAAP. Other companies may calculate consolidated EBIT and EBITDA differently, limiting the usefulness of the measure for comparisons with other companies.

We have also disclosed after-tax ROIC, which is a ratio based on GAAP information, with the exception of adjustments made to capitalize operating leases. Operating leases are capitalized as part of the ROIC calculation to control for differences in capital structure between us and our competitors. We believe this metric provides a meaningful measure of the effectiveness of our capital allocation over time. Other companies may calculate ROIC differently, limiting the usefulness of the measure for comparisons with other companies.

^(d) Calculated as eight times our trailing twelve months rent expense.

^(e) Average based on the invested capital at the end of the current period and the invested capital at the end of the comparable prior period.

^(f) Excluding the net gain on the Pharmacy Transaction, ROIC was 14.3 percent for the trailing twelve months ended October 29, 2016.

Analysis of Financial Condition

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our cash and cash equivalents balance was $2,725 million at October 28, 2017, compared with $1,231 million for the same period in 2016. As of October 28, 2017, $1,084 million of cash and cash equivalents were held at entities located outside the United States and may be subject to taxation if repatriated. Our investment policy is designed to preserve principal and liquidity of our short-term investments. This policy allows investments in large money market funds or in highly rated direct short-term instruments that mature in 60 days or less. We also place certain dollar limits on our investments in individual funds or instruments.

Capital Allocation

We follow a disciplined and balanced approach to capital allocation, based on the following priorities, ranked in order of importance: first, we fully invest in opportunities to grow our business profitably, create sustainable long-term value, and maintain our current operations and assets; second, we maintain a competitive quarterly dividend and seek to grow it annually; and finally, we return excess cash to shareholders by repurchasing shares within the limits of our credit rating goals.

Cash Flows

Operating cash flow provided by continuing operations was $4,414 million for the nine months ended October 28, 2017, compared with $2,770 million for the same period in 2016. The operating cash flow increase is due to increased payables leverage primarily driven by changes in vendor payment terms during the nine months ended October 28, 2017, compared to the nine months ended October 29, 2016. The operating cash flow increase is also partially due to the payment of approximately $500 million of taxes during the first quarter of 2016, primarily related to the Pharmacy Transaction. These increases were partially offset by a larger inventory increase during the nine months ended October 28, 2017 compared to the nine months ended October 29, 2016, due to an earlier increase for the holiday season. In October 2017, we issued $750 million of unsecured debt that matures in 2047. Combined with our prior year-end cash position, these proceeds and operating cash flows allowed us to invest in the business, retire debt, pay dividends, and repurchase shares under our share repurchase program.

Share Repurchases

We returned $171 million and $772 million to shareholders through share repurchase during the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017, respectively, and $878 million and $3,121 million during the three and nine months ended October 29, 2016, respectively. For the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017 and October 29, 2016, these amounts include $161 million and $314 million, respectively, repurchased through ASR transactions initiated during the third quarter with the final settlement in November 2017 and November 2016, respectively. See Part II, Item 2 of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and Note 11 to the Financial Statements for more information.

Dividends

We paid dividends totaling $339 million ($0.62 per share) and $1,001 million ($1.82 per share) for the three and nine months ended October 28, 2017, respectively, and $345 million ($0.60 per share) and $1,011 million ($1.72 per share) for the three and nine months ended October 29, 2016, respectively, a per share increase of 3.3 percent and 5.8 percent, respectively. We declared dividends totaling $341 million ($0.62 per share) in third quarter 2017, a per share increase of 3.3 percent over the $342 million ($0.60 per share) of declared dividends during the third quarter of 2016. We have paid dividends every quarter since our 1967 initial public offering, and it is our intent to continue to do so in the future.

Short-term and Long-term Financing

Our financing strategy is to ensure liquidity and access to capital markets, to maintain a balanced spectrum of debt maturities, and to manage our net exposure to floating interest rate volatility. Within these parameters, we seek to minimize our borrowing costs. Our ability to access the long-term debt and commercial paper markets has provided us with ample sources of liquidity. Our continued access to these markets depends on multiple factors, including the condition of debt capital markets, our operating performance, and maintaining strong credit ratings. As of October 28, 2017 our credit ratings were as follows:

Credit Ratings	Moody's	Standard and Poor's	Fitch
Long-term debt	A2	A	A-
Commercial paper P-1		A-1	F2

If our credit ratings were lowered, our ability to access the debt markets, our cost of funds, and other terms for new debt issuances could be adversely impacted. Each of the credit rating agencies reviews its rating periodically and there is no guarantee our current credit ratings will remain the same as described above.

We have additional liquidity through a committed $2.5 billion revolving credit facility obtained through a group of banks in October 2016. In October 2017, we extended this credit facility by one year, which now expires in October 2022. This unsecured revolving credit facility replaced a $2.25 billion unsecured revolving credit facility that was scheduled to expire in October 2018. No balances were outstanding under either credit facility at any time during 2017 or 2016.

Most of our long-term debt obligations contain covenants related to secured debt levels. In addition to a secured debt level covenant, our credit facility also contains a debt leverage covenant. We are, and expect to remain, in compliance with these covenants. Additionally, as of October 28, 2017, no notes or debentures contained provisions requiring acceleration of payment upon a credit rating downgrade, except that certain outstanding notes allow the note holders to put the notes to us if within a matter of months of each other we experience both (i) a change in control; and (ii) our long-term debt ratings are either reduced and the resulting rating is noninvestment grade, or our long-term debt ratings are placed on watch for possible reduction and those ratings are subsequently reduced and the resulting rating is noninvestment grade.

We believe our sources of liquidity will continue to be adequate to maintain operations, finance anticipated expansion and strategic initiatives, fund debt maturities, pay dividends, and execute purchases under our share repurchase program for the foreseeable future. We continue to anticipate ample access to commercial paper and long-term financing.

Contractual Obligations and Commitments

As of the date of this report, other than the new borrowings and payments discussed in Note 7 of the Financial Statements, there were no material changes to our contractual obligations and commitments outside the ordinary course of business since January 28, 2017 as reported in our 2016 Form 10-K.

New Accounting Pronouncements

Refer to Note 2, Note 9, and Note 12 of the Financial Statements for a description of new accounting pronouncements related to revenues, leases, and pension benefits, respectively. We do not expect any other recently issued accounting pronouncements will have a material effect on our financial statements.

Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements, which are based on our current assumptions and expectations. These statements are typically accompanied by the words “expect,” “may,” “could,” “believe,” “would,” “might,” “anticipates,” or words of similar import. The principal forward-looking statements in this report include: our financial performance, statements regarding the adequacy of and costs associated with our sources of liquidity, the funding of debt maturities, the continued execution of our share repurchase program, our expected capital expenditures, the impact of changes in the expected effective income tax rate on net income, the expected compliance with debt covenants, the expected impact of new accounting pronouncements, our intentions regarding future dividends, the expected return on plan assets, the expected outcome of, and adequacy of our reserves for, claims, litigation and the resolution of tax matters, and changes in our assumptions and expectations.

All such forward-looking statements are intended to enjoy the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended. Although we believe there is a reasonable basis for the forward-looking statements, our actual results could be materially different. The most important factors which could cause our actual results to differ from our forward-looking statements are set forth on our description of risk factors in Item 1A of our Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 28, 2017, which should be read in conjunction with the forward-looking statements in this report. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and we do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

There have been no material changes in our primary risk exposures or management of market risks from those disclosed in our Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 28, 2017.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the third quarter of 2017 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

As of the end of the period covered by this quarterly report, we conducted an evaluation, under supervision and with the participation of management, including the chief executive officer and chief financial officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Rules 13a-15 and 15d-15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act). Based upon that evaluation, our chief executive officer and chief financial officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective at the reasonable assurance level. Disclosure controls and procedures are defined by Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Exchange Act as controls and other procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in reports filed under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

The following update to a previously reported proceeding is being reported pursuant to Item 103 of Regulation S-K:

The Federal Securities Law Class Actions and ERISA Class Actions relating to certain prior disclosures of Target about its expansion of retail operations into Canada (the “Canada Disclosure”) were previously described in described in Target’s annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 28, 2017 and in Target’s quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended July 29, 2017. Both the Federal Securities Law Class Actions and the ERISA Class Actions were dismissed by the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota on July 31, 2017. During the quarter ended October 28, 2017, the plaintiffs in both cases sought to refile their claims, as described below. Target intends to continue to vigorously defend these actions.

Federal Securities Law Class Actions

On August 29, 2017 the plaintiff filed a motion to alter or amend the final judgment entered by the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota on July 31, 2017 dismissing the Federal Securities Law Class Actions. The plaintiffs also asked the Court for permission to file a Second Amended Class Action Complaint (the “Second Complaint”), which, like the prior complaint, alleges violations of Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule 10b-5 relating to the Canada Disclosure. Target, its former chief executive officer, its present chief operating officer, and the former president of Target Canada are named as defendants in the Second Complaint. The plaintiff seeks to represent a class consisting of all purchasers of Target common stock between March 20, 2013 and August 4, 2014. The plaintiff seeks damages and other relief, including attorneys’ fees, based on allegations that the defendants misled investors about the performance and prospects of Target Canada and that such conduct affected the market price of Target common stock. On October 16, 2017, Target and the other defendants filed their opposition to plaintiff’s motion to alter or amend the final judgment dismissing the Federal Securities Law Class Actions. The plaintiff’s motion has not yet been heard or decided.

ERISA Class Actions

On August 30, 2017 the plaintiffs in the ERISA Class Actions, which were dismissed on July 31, 2017, filed a new ERISA Class Action (the “Second ERISA Class Action”) in the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota, which, like the prior ERISA Class Actions, alleges violations of Sections 404 and 405 of ERISA relating to the Canada Disclosure. The Second ERISA Class Action is captioned Dormani, et al. v. Target Corporation, et al., Case No. 0:17-cv-04049-JNE-BRT. Target, the Plan Investment Committee, and seven present or former officers are named as defendants in the Second ERISA Class Action Complaint. The plaintiffs seek to represent a class consisting of all persons who were participants in or beneficiaries of the Target Corporation 401(k) Plan or the Target Corporation Ventures 401(k) Plan (collectively, the “Plans”) at any time between February 27, 2013 and August 6, 2014 and whose Plan accounts included investments in Target stock. The plaintiffs seek damages, an injunction and other unspecified equitable relief, and attorneys’ fees, expenses, and costs, based on allegations that the defendants breached their fiduciary duties under ERISA by failing to take action to prevent Plan participants from continuing to purchase Target stock during the class period at prices that allegedly were artificially inflated. On November 13, 2017, Target and the other defendants filed a motion to dismiss the Second ERISA Class Action. The motion has not yet been heard or decided.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

There have been no material changes to the risk factors described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 28, 2017.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

On September 20, 2016, our Board of Directors authorized a new $5 billion share repurchase program. We began repurchasing shares under this new authorization during the fourth quarter of 2016. There is no stated expiration for the share repurchase program. Under the program, we have repurchased 14.5 million shares of common stock through October 28, 2017, at an average price of $60.27, for a total investment of $0.9 billion, excluding the August 2017 ASR because the transaction was not fully settled as of October 28, 2017. The table below presents information with respect to Target common stock purchases made during the three months ended October 28, 2017, by Target or any "affiliated purchaser" of Target, as defined in Rule 10b-18(a)(3) under the Exchange Act.

Period	Total Number of Shares Purchased	Average Price Paid per Share	Total Number of Shares Purchased as Part of Publicly Announced Programs	Dollar Value of Shares that May Yet Be Purchased Under Publicly Announced Programs
July 30, 2017 through August 26, 2017
August 2017 ASR ^(a)	2,500,000	TBD	2,500,000	$ 3,884,046,448
August 27, 2017 through September 30, 2017
Open market and privately negotiated purchases	169,233	58.74	169,233	3,874,106,311
October 1, 2017 through October 28, 2017
Open market and privately negotiated purchases	—	—	—	3,874,106,311
Total	2,669,233	TBD	2,669,233	$ 3,874,106,311

^(a) In November 2017, the contract was settled and we received an additional 0.3 million shares, which were retired, and $89 million for the remaining amount not settled in shares. The $89 million, in addition to the amount reflected in the table, is available under the program. We repurchased a total of 2.8 million shares under the ASR for total cash investment of $161 million, or an average per share price of $57.78. Refer to Note 11 of the Financial Statements for further details about the ASR contract.
