Item 3 - Press Release

A press release announcing the material change was issued by BCE on November 29, 2002 in Montreal, Quebec. A copy of the press release is annexed hereto and forms an integral part hereof.

Item 4 - Summary of Material Change

On November 29, 2002, BCE announced the closing of the previously announced sale of the directories business carried on by certain affiliates of Bell Canada for $3 billion cash (subject to post-closing adjustment for working capital) to an entity (the "Purchaser") ultimately controlled by Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co. L.P. ("KKR") and the Ontario Teachers' Merchant Bank, the private equity arm of the Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan Board ("Teachers") (see BCE's Material Change Report dated September 23, 2002). The sale included 209 print White Pages and Yellow Pages directories in Ontario and Quebec, the electronic yellowpages.ca, canadatollfree.ca and Canada411.ca directories, and Bell ActiMedia Inc.'s 12.86 % interest in the Aliant ActiMedia general partnership.

Following the sale, approximately $1.1 billion of the net proceeds were lent to BCE, which BCE used to pay part of the acquisition price of SBC Communications Inc.'s ("SBC") remaining indirect interest in Bell Canada. BCE expects to repay the $1.1 billion loan out of future distributions to be made by a partnership to be owned approximately 48% by BCE and 52% by a wholly owned subsidiary of Bell Canada. The remaining net proceeds of the sale are anticipated to be used by Bell Canada for debt reduction and general corporate purposes.

In connection with the sale, a wholly owned subsidiary of Bell Canada invested approximately $91 million to acquire an approximate 10% indirect equity interest in the post-sale directories business.

Item 5 - Full Description of Material Change

On November 29, 2002, BCE announced the closing of the previously announced sale of the directories business carried on by certain affiliates of Bell Canada for $3 billion cash (subject to post-closing adjustment for working capital) to an entity ultimately controlled by KKR and Teachers (the "Sale Transaction"). The sale included the print directories business (the "Print Directories Business") previously carried on by Bell Canada's wholly owned subsidiary, Bell ActiMedia Inc. ("Bell ActiMedia"), including 209 print White Pages and Yellow Pages directories in Ontario and Quebec and Bell ActiMedia's 12.86 % interest in the Aliant ActiMedia general partnership. The sale also included the electronic yellowpages.ca, canadatollfree.ca and Canada411.ca directories (the "Electronic Directories Business") managed and operated by Sympatico Inc. ("Sympatico").

In connection with the sale, Bell Canada entered into certain transitional and long-term operating agreements relating to the Print Directories Business, as previously disclosed in BCE's Material Change Report dated September 23, 2002. Sympatico and Bell Canada also entered into certain Internet website linking and operational agreements relating to the electronic directories.

Prior to the closing of the Sale Transaction, BCE, Bell Canada and certain of their affiliates completed a corporate reorganization. This reorganization included the transfer by Bell ActiMedia of the Print Directories Business at fair market value to a partnership (the "Partnership") formed by Bell ActiMedia and BCE. BCE agreed, subject to regulatory approval, to transfer to the Partnership at fair market value its limited partnership interest in Bell ExpressVu LP, as well as certain debt receivables and cash. Upon completion of the foregoing transfers, BCE will hold an approximate 48% capital interest in the Partnership and Bell ActiMedia will hold an approximate 52% capital interest. On November 29, 2002, the Partnership transferred the Print Directories Business and the Electronic Directories Business to the Purchaser.

Following the Sale Transaction, the Partnership loaned approximately $1.1 billion of the sale proceeds indirectly to BCE. BCE used the amount advanced to pay part of the acquisition price of SBC Communications' minority interest in Bell Canada.

The Partnership is expected to distribute the approximately $2.9 billion net proceeds of the Sale Transaction to the partners in proportion to their respective capital interests. It is anticipated that BCE will use $1.1 billion of the distributed proceeds to repay its $1.1 billion indirect loan from the Partnership and that the balance of the distributed proceeds will be reinvested in Bell Canada.

In connection with the sale, a wholly owned subsidiary of Bell Canada invested approximately $91 million to acquire an approximate 10% indirect equity interest in the post-sale directories business.

In 2001 and for the first nine months of 2002, the Print Directories Business had $569 million and $438 million of revenues, $309 million and $246 million of EBITDA and $163 million and $148 million of net earnings, respectively.

In 2001 and for the first nine months of 2002, Bell ExpressVu had $474 million and $462 million of revenues and ($192 million) and ($104 million) of EBITDA, respectively. As at September 30, 2002, Bell ExpressVu's assets and liabilities were $1,048 million and $506 million, respectively.

1 EBITDA is defined as operating revenues less operating expenses and therefore reflects earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, as well as any non-recurring items. BCE uses EBITDA, amongst other measures, to assess the operating performance of its on-going businesses. The term EBITDA does not have a standardized meaning prescribed by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles and therefore may not be comparable to similarly titled measures presented by other publicly traded companies. EBITDA should not be construed as the equivalent of net cashflows from operating activities.
