These forward-looking statements include information concerning future production and reserves, schedules, plans, timing of development, contributions from oil and gas properties, marketing and midstream activities, and also include those statements preceded by, followed by or that otherwise include the words "may," "could," "believes," "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "estimates," "projects," "target," "goal," "plans," "objective," "should" or similar expressions or variations on such expressions. For these statements, we claim the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

Although we believe that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, we can give no assurance that our expectations will prove to be correct. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Certain capitalized terms not defined immediately below are defined later in this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

These forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainties. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from our expectations include, but are not limited to, the following risks and uncertainties:

the need to discover or acquire new reserves in the future to avoid declines in production;

- the impact of non-cash gains and losses from derivative accounting on future financial results;
- risks to non-affiliate shareholders arising from the substantial ownership positions of affiliates;
- the effects of the change of control conversion features of our Series C and Series D Preferred Stock on a potential change of control;
- the junior ranking of our Series C and Series D Preferred Stock to our Series B Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock (the "Series B Preferred Stock") and all of our indebtedness;
- our ability to pay dividends on the Series C or Series D Preferred Stock;
- whether our Series C or Series D Preferred Stock is rated;
- the ability of our Series C or Series D Preferred Stockholders to exercise conversion rights upon a change of control;
- fluctuations in the market price of our Series C or Series D Preferred Stock;
- whether we issue additional shares of Series C or Series D Preferred Stock or additional series of preferred stock that rank on parity with the Series C and Series D Preferred Stock;
- the very limited voting rights held by our Series C and Series D Preferred Stockholders;
- the newness of the Series D Preferred Stock and the limited trading market of the Series C and Series D Preferred Stock; and
- risks related to our continued listing of the Series C and Series D Preferred Stock on the NYSE.

Most of these factors are difficult to predict accurately and are generally beyond our control. You should consider the areas of risk described in connection with any forward-looking statements that may be made herein. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, and readers should carefully review this annual report in its entirety, including the risks described in Item 1A.
