For Immediate Release

TEVA TO ACQUIRE BENTLEY PHARMACEUTICALS

Acquisition Will Provide Teva with a Strong Platform to Become a Leading Player in Spain

Jerusalem, Israel and Exeter, NH, March 31, 2008 - Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (Nasdaq: TEVA) and Bentley Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (NYSE: BNT) announced today that they have entered into a definitive agreement under which Teva will acquire Bentley. The acquisition will take place following the spin-off of Bentley's drug delivery business to its shareholders, which Bentley announced on October 23, 2007.

Teva will acquire Bentley, which at closing will consist solely of the generic pharmaceutical operations, for an aggregate cash purchase price of approximately $360 million. Shareholders of Bentley will receive approximately $15.02 per share in cash in the acquisition (which price is subject to potential adjustment, as described below), and also will receive shares of CPEX Pharmaceuticals, Inc. pursuant to the spin-off, which will occur before the acquisition.

Bentley manufactures and markets a portfolio of approximately 130 pharmaceutical products in various dosages and strengths, as both branded generic and generic products, to physicians, pharmacists and hospitals. Bentley markets its products primarily in Spain, but also sells generic pharmaceuticals in other parts of the European Union. These efforts are supported by finished dosage and active pharmaceutical ingredient manufacturing facilities. Bentley's generic pharmaceutical operations generated revenues of approximately $114 million for the year ended December 31, 2007.

Commenting on today's transaction, Shlomo Yanai, Teva's President and Chief Executive Officer, said: "This is an important acquisition for Teva, as the combination of Teva Spain and Bentley will provide us with a platform to capture a leading position in the fast-growing Spanish generic pharmaceutical market. Spain was identified as one of our target markets in the strategic review we conducted last year. We are extremely pleased that we will have Bentley's strong management and work force, complementing our existing management team, to support our growth strategy."

"We are excited about today's announcement. By separately selling Bentley's generic operations while spinning off its drug delivery business, we believe that we are maximizing shareholder value," added James R. Murphy, Bentley's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. "Our generic pharmaceutical operations will serve as the platform on which Teva can build a leading position in Spain. Becoming part of the world's leading generic pharmaceutical company - and gaining access to its extensive resources and expertise in generic R&D, manufacturing and marketing - will enable us to better serve our customers in bringing to market high quality and affordable generic pharmaceuticals."

Teva initially established a presence in Spain in 2004. Since then, TEVA Genericos Espanola, S.L. has introduced more than 60 products targeted both to hospitals and pharmacies. Teva is currently the fourth largest generic company in Spain in the hospital market. Teva, through the combination of its existing operations in Spain and Bentley's operations, will offer the Spanish market over 170 products (in approximately 465 presentations) and will have over 45 products pending generic product registrations. Teva expects that the acquisition of Bentley's generic pharmaceutical operations will become accretive within 12 months of closing.

The boards of directors of both companies have unanimously approved the transaction. Closing is subject to certain conditions, including completion of the proposed spin-off of Bentley's drug delivery business, antitrust approvals, the approval of Bentley's shareholders and other customary closing conditions. Approval by Teva's shareholders is not required. Mr. James Murphy and Mr. Michael McGovern, Bentley's Vice Chairman, who currently hold an aggregate of approximately 13.8% of the outstanding Bentley shares, have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the transaction. The transaction is expected to close in the third quarter of 2008. Teva will fund the acquisition from its internal resources.

Based on the exercise price and number of outstanding shares and options of Bentley as of the signing, and prior to any potential tax or options adjustments as result of the spin-off, the purchase price per share of Bentley common stock to be paid by Teva in the acquisition is approximately $15.02. If the value of the CPEX stock distributed to Bentley shareholders in the spin-off described above exceeds certain thresholds set forth in the merger agreement, then the per share price would be reduced by a percentage of that excess. This reduction is designed to compensate Teva for tax liabilities it may assume as a result of the spin-off. In addition, in order to account for the equitable adjustment to the exercise price and number of Bentley options and restricted stock units that will be made in connection with the spin-off of CPEX, the per share price will be recalculated prior to the shareholders` meeting in order to spread the aggregate purchase price across all shares of Bentley common stock then outstanding and all options for Bentley common stock with an exercise price less than the price per share to be paid in the acquisition. The final per share price, reflecting any potential adjustments as a result of the spin-off, will be announced by Bentley at least 14 days prior to its shareholders` meeting relating to the transaction.
