Edgar Filing: FAMOUS DAVES OF AMERICA INC - Form SC 13D/A

Board of Directors
Famous Dave's of America, Inc.
12701 Whitewater Drive, Suite 200
Minnetonka, Minnesota 55343

Gentlemen:

As the owner of 11.3% of Famous Dave's of America, Vicuna Advisors requests the Board of Directors to provide a seat on the Board of Directors to a representative of Vicuna Advisors. Vicuna Advisors has been a patient owner of Famous Dave's of America for nearly five years and has remained an owner as Famous Dave's has executed the Board's various strategies. Over this time period, notwithstanding their good intentions, the Board's record includes extraordinary CEO turnover, undisciplined capital allocation, and a bizarre reluctance to make the corporation more productive in the face of horrendous economic conditions. We have been repeatedly snubbed in prior requests for improved representation.

It is worth noting that Vicuna Advisors owns approximately twice the number of common shares as the combination of the directors and named executive officers of Famous Dave's of America. Drawn from the last four proxy statements, a comparison of the outright stock ownership follows:

Proxy Date	Directors and Named Executive Officers	Vicuna Advisors
3/25/09	526,027	1,032,533
4/7/08	592,365	982,733
4/9/07	525,620	860,212
4/11/06	462,935	626,592

This illustrates Vicuna's significant and sustained share ownership in relation to the management and Board of Directors. Notwithstanding the ownership differential described above, a vacancy on the Board, and a poor track record, the Board has consistently found reasons to dismiss our requests.

In 2009, Vicuna Advisors intends to withhold votes, as it did in 2008, for all of the directors nominated to serve on the Board. Apart from a seat occupied by revolving CEOs, the composition of the Board of Directors has remained the same for the last five years. The Chairman of the Board has advised us that the Board considers its current composition to be well-suited to the task of overseeing our capital. Famous Dave's of America is now run by its fourth CEO since 2003. The CEO turnover and collateral executive fallout has distracted focus from creating cooperative relationships with franchise partners, from optimizing the marketing and procurement efforts, and from developing a flexible restaurant prototype. If four CEOs in five years do not prompt Board change, what exactly will precipitate such change? Instead of searching for different approaches, the Board is a static group acting only when confronted with disaster.

With respect to the allocation of capital, the company seems to have operated without a consistent methodology of calculating intrinsic value. We support share repurchase when done at attractive discounts to a firm's intrinsic value. We support building new restaurants when the returns earned by proposed restaurants are both attractive and consistent with the company's experience. Share repurchase is a poor idea at narrow discounts to intrinsic value, as new restaurant development is a poor idea when the projected returns are just that, projections with no tether to the company's experience. We have suggested methods for calculating the company's intrinsic value but there is no evidence that the Board considers the impact on intrinsic value in evaluating potential uses of capital. Unfortunately, we were late in realizing that the company's new store analysis fails to account for allocated costs. Whether the Board would have stopped opening new stores absent our protests last year is purely hypothetical.

Based on recently reported figures, we believe that Famous Dave's is not being adequately conservative in weighting the risk of continued restaurant traffic weakness. We feel that additional oversight of expenses and accumulated overhead is critical. The attitude at headquarters seems to be "if business worsens, we will take the appropriate actions."

Perhaps we are being overly conservative, but in the worst economy since the Great Depression we are strong advocates of acting now rather than later. If we are wrong, corrective action can be taken later. In a strong hurricane the knowledge of a storm surge is sufficient incentive for us to seek high ground - we need not wait until the waves are breaking on our doorstep.

The Board of Directors of Famous Dave's of America has a track record of poor judgment. This group of individuals is managing our capital in the most challenging economy in decades. We must rely on the Board's record of actions and results, not on their assurances. Given the track record, it is unreasonable to expect the present Board to represent the shareholders more effectively in the future than in the past. The results show that the quality of decisions has been poor, and may or may not be better in the future. We believe that the probabilities of sound decision making would be far greater if there were greater accountability, attendant to the presence of the largest shareholder's representatives. We do not have the answers to all of the problems the company faces. It is quite clear, however, that the current Board as presently constituted is ill-suited to continue to make sound long-term decisions on behalf of the shareholders. We encourage the Board of Directors to act on our requests for improved shareholder representation.

Joshua G. Welch
