Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

Between July 17, 2014 and November 10, 2014, Scio Diamond Technology Corporation (the “Company”) sold 2,605,832 shares of the Company’s Common Stock, par value $.001 per share, at a price of $0.30 per share in exchange for total proceeds of $781,750. No commissions or underwriting discounts were paid in connection with the sale of the shares.

The shares were sold in reliance on an exemption from registration provided by Section 4(a)(2) and Rule 506(b) of Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”). The Company’s reliance on Rule 506(b) is based on the following facts: each of the investors has represented that it is an accredited investor as defined in Rule 501 promulgated under the Securities Act, that it is acquiring the shares for investment only and not with a view towards, or for resale in connection with, the public sale or distribution thereof in violation of applicable securities laws and that it has sufficient investment experience to evaluate the risks of the investment; the Company used no advertising or general solicitation in connection with the issuance and sale of the shares to the investors; and the shares will be issued as restricted securities.

The Company has used, and plans to use, the proceeds of the offering to pay general operating expenses and fund continuing working capital needs.
