ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

Laboratory Corporation of America -Registered Trademark-Holdings (LabCorp -Registered Trademark-) (NYSE:LH) announced that it has entered into $300 million of new senior credit facilities with Credit Suisse First Boston, acting as Administrative Agent, and a group of financial institutions. The new facilities consist of a 364-day revolving credit facility in the principal amount of $100 million and a three-year revolving credit facility in the principal amount of $200 million. The new facilities will be used for general corporate purposes, including working capital, capital expenditures, funding of share repurchases and other payments and acquisitions. The Company's previous credit agreement, under which no loans were outstanding, was terminated upon the closing of the new facilities.

The terms of the new facilities include financial covenants governing total leverage and interest coverage as well as negative covenants
