Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. Announces Upcoming Closing of Mutual Holding Company Reorganization and Stock Offering

Nampa, Idaho - December 3, 2004 - Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. ("Home Federal Bancorp"), the holding company for Home Federal Bank ("Home Federal"), announced today that Home Federal's mutual holding company reorganization and the related subscription and community offering of shares of Home Federal Bancorp's common stock are scheduled to close on Monday, December 6, 2004. Trading is expected to commence on Tuesday, December 7, 2004 on the NASDAQ National Market System under the symbol "HOME".

In the stock offering Home Federal Bancorp sold 6,083,500 shares of common stock at $10.00 per share to its qualifying depositors as of December 31, 2002 (Eligible Account Holders in Preference Category No. 1) and Home Federal's employee stock ownership plan. The offering was oversubscribed, and as a result, those subscribers who were not in Preference Category No. 1 will not receive any shares. Subscribers in Preference Category No. 1 may receive a reduced allocation based upon the terms contained in the plan of reorganization and stock issuance described in the prospectus and prospectus supplement. An additional 146,004 shares will be contributed to the Home Federal Foundation, a charitable foundation that has been established by Home Federal and as a result the total number of shares held by the public will be 6,229,504 shares or 40.96% of the outstanding shares. The mutual holding company will own the remainder of the outstanding shares.

Daniel L. Stevens, President and Chief Executive Officer of Home Federal said, "We are pleased by the outstanding support and confidence shown by the depositors of Home Federal, who voted to approve our plan of reorganization and stock issuance and who chose to participate in the offering. We look forward to continuing to provide them with the level of service and products they have come to expect from Home Federal. We intend to use the proceeds of the offering to enhance our ability to grow our franchise in Idaho and expand our products and services."

Upon the closing, which has received final regulatory approval, Home Federal will convert from a federal mutual savings and loan association to a federal stock savings bank, with the concurrent formation of Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. as the stock holding company of Home Federal Bank and the formation of Home Federal MHC as a mutual holding company.

Subscribers may obtain additional information regarding the stock allocations by contacting Home Federal's stock information center at (208) 468-5025.

Home Federal is headquartered in Nampa, Idaho and serves the Treasure Valley of southwestern Idaho, which includes Ada, Canyon, Elmore and Gem Counties. At June 30, 2004, Home Federal had total assets of $519.3 million, deposit accounts of $333.5 million and equity capital of $43.7 million.

This news release contains certain forward-looking statements about the proposed stock issuance by Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. These include statements regarding the proposed offering and anticipated consummation date of the transaction.

The shares of common stock offered in the offering are not savings accounts or deposits and are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other Government Agency.

Forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. They often include words like "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate" and "intend" or future or conditional verbs such as "will," "would," "should," "could" or "may." Certain factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from expected results include changes in interest rates, changes in general economic conditions, legislative and regulatory changes that adversely affect the business of Home Federal and changes in the securities markets.
