82-_____.

On September 18, 2009, Genesis Lease Limited (Genesis) (NYSE: GLS) announced that it has entered into an Agreement and Plan of Amalgamation (the Amalgamation Agreement) with AerCap Holdings N.V. (AerCap) (NYSE: AER) and AerCap International Bermuda Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of AerCap (AerCap International), pursuant to which Genesis will amalgamate with AerCap International (the Amalgamation), with the resulting amalgamated company continuing as a wholly-owned subsidiary of AerCap. A copy of the press release announcing the entry into the Amalgamation Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated by reference herein. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Amalgamation Agreement, at the effective time of the Amalgamation, Genesis shareholders (including shareholders that do not vote in favor of the Amalgamation) will have the right to receive one ordinary share, par value 0.01 per share, of AerCap (an AerCap Common Share) in exchange for each common share, par value $0.001 per share, of Genesis (a Genesis Common Share), unless they exercise appraisal rights pursuant to Bermuda law.

The boards of directors of both Genesis and AerCap have adopted the Amalgamation Agreement, and have deemed it fair, advisable and in the best interests of their respective companies and shareholders to enter into the Amalgamation Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated thereby. Genesis intends to seek the approval of its shareholders to adopt the Amalgamation Agreement and approve the Amalgamation. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at a special general meeting of Genesis shareholders at which a quorum of a majority of the outstanding shares is present will be required to adopt the Amalgamation Agreement and approve the Amalgamation. The Amalgamation is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2009, subject to customary closing conditions, including Genesis shareholder approval and the receipt of necessary regulatory approvals.

Each of Genesis and AerCap has made representations and warranties in the Amalgamation Agreement. Each of Genesis and AerCap has also agreed to various covenants, including, among others things, subject to certain exceptions, to conduct their respective operations in the ordinary course of business until the consummation of the Amalgamation and not to engage in certain transactions during such period. Further, each of Genesis and AerCap has agreed to not declare or pay any dividends or make other distributions until the consummation of the Amalgamation. Shortly after the consummation of the transaction, three directors of Genesis will be nominated for election to the board of directors of AerCap for a four-year term in accordance with AerCap's articles of association at an extraordinary general meeting of AerCap shareholders.

The Amalgamation Agreement contains specified termination rights for the parties, including the right of either party to terminate the Amalgamation Agreement if the Amalgamation has not been consummated on or prior to March 17, 2010, subject to extensions in connection with obtaining certain regulatory approvals. The Amalgamation Agreement also provides that, if the Amalgamation Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, Genesis will be required to pay AerCap a termination fee of $9 million.

The foregoing description of the Amalgamation Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amalgamation Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference. The Amalgamation Agreement has been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Genesis, AerCap or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Amalgamation Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of the dates specified therein; were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Amalgamation Agreement; may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purpose of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Amalgamation Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts (such disclosures include information that has been included in Genesis and AerCap's public disclosures, as well as additional non-public information); and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Amalgamation Agreement (except for the right to receive the transaction consideration from and after the consummation of the Amalgamation) and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Genesis, AerCap or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Amalgamation Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Genesis' public disclosures.

The following documents, which are attached as exhibits hereto, are incorporated by reference herein:
