ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

On January 6, 2003, Huntington Bancshares, Inc. issued a news release announcing credit actions taken in the fourth quarter of 2002. These included the sale of $47 million in nonperforming loans with $21 million in incremental charge-offs and a $30 million charge-off, or 100% of the credit exposure associated with one customer in the health care finance business that was previously disclosed as a nonperforming loan in November 2002. The information contained in the news release, which is attached as Exhibit 99.1 in this Report, is incorporated herein by reference. Huntington also presented this information in a conference call on January 7, 2003. The presentation materials are attached as Exhibits 99.2 and 99.3, and are incorporated herein by reference.

The information contained or incorporated herein by reference in this Current Report on Form 8-K may contain certain forward-looking statements, including certain plans, expectations, goals, and projections, which are subject to numerous assumptions, risks, and uncertainties. A number of factors, including but not limited to those set forth under the heading "Business Risks" included in Item 1 of Huntington's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001, and other factors described from time to time in Huntington's other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, could cause actual
