Fidelity National Financial, Inc. and Sanchez Computer Associates, Inc.
Announce Anticipated Exchange Rate

Jacksonville, Florida and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania (April 12, 2004) Fidelity National Financial, Inc. (NYSE: FNF), a Fortune 500 provider of products and outsourced services and solutions to financial institutions and the real estate industry, and Sanchez Computer Associates, Inc. (NASDAQ: SCAI) announced today that assuming that the shareholders of Sanchez approve the merger at the special meeting of shareholders on April 14, 2004 and that all other conditions to the merger are satisfied or waived on or prior to such date, FNF expects to consummate the pending acquisition of Sanchez on April 14, 2004.

If the acquisition closes on that date, unless a shareholder makes a valid election as described below, each outstanding share of Sanchez common stock will be converted into the right to receive $3.25 in cash and, except as set forth below, 0.08365 shares of FNF common stock (subject to the payment of cash in lieu of fractional shares). Each shareholder may elect to receive cash or FNF common stock as further described in the proxy statement/prospectus of Sanchez dated March 9, 2004. The number of shares of FNF common stock to be received as part of the merger consideration is based on the average closing sale prices for FNF common stock for the twenty consecutive trading days immediately preceding but not including the second trading day before the closing date of the acquisition. If the acquisition closes on April 14, 2004, the exchange ratio would be based on a price per share of FNF common stock of $38.85 per share, which was established from March 12, 2004 through April 8, 2004. The exchange ratio will change if the closing of the acquisition is not completed on April 14, 2004 or if the closing price of FNF common stock on the date immediately prior to closing is significantly different than the 20-day average price otherwise used to calculate the exchange ratio, all as further described in the proxy statement/prospectus.

The final stock and cash consideration received by Sanchez shareholders is subject to their elections and the allocation and adjustment described in the proxy statement/prospectus. As previously reported, any Sanchez shareholder who wishes to make an election to receive merger consideration in cash or a combination of cash and stock, must submit an election form in accordance with the instructions set forth in the form of election provided with the proxy statement/prospectus. The election form must be received by the exchange agent no later than 5:00 p.m., New York, New York time, on April 12, 2004.
