(the Company) for use at the Annual Meeting of the Stockholders (the Annual Meeting) to be held on May 18, 2005, at Sofitel Chicago O'Hare, located at 20 East Chestnut Street, Chicago, Illinois 60611, at 2:00 p.m., local time, and at any adjournment or postponement thereof. Action will be taken at the Annual Meeting for the election of Directors, and any other business that properly comes before the meeting, and the proxy holders have the right to and will vote in accordance with their judgment.

A stockholder who has returned a proxy via mail, telephone or Internet may revoke it at any time before it is voted at the Annual Meeting by delivering a revised proxy bearing a later date, by voting by ballot at the Annual Meeting, or by delivering a written notice withdrawing the proxy to the Corporate Secretary of the Company at the address set forth above.

In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, telephone and the Internet, the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board), without receiving additional compensation for this service, may solicit in person. Arrangements also will be made with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees, and fiduciaries to forward proxy soliciting material to the beneficial owners of the Common Stock, par value $.01 per share, of the Company (Common Stock) held of record by such persons, and the Company will reimburse such brokerage firms, custodians, nominees, and fiduciaries for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them in doing so. The cost of this proxy solicitation will consist primarily of printing, legal fees, and postage and handling.

Holders of Common Stock are entitled to cast one vote per share on each matter presented for consideration and action at the Annual Meeting. Proxies that are transmitted by nominee holders on behalf of beneficial owners will count toward a quorum and will be voted as instructed by the nominee holder. The election of Directors will be determined by a plurality of the votes cast at such election, and will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes present at the meeting. The ratification of our independent registered public accounting firm will be determined by a majority of the votes present at the meeting.

The Board has determined that, except for Mr. Haley, each member of the Board is independent according to the director independence standards of the New York Stock Exchange and the categorical standards adopted by the Board. The categorical standards adopted by the Board to assist it in determining Director independence can be accessed on the Company's website at www.wesco.com.

Director Responsibilities;

Committees of the Board;

Employees are required to report any violations or suspected violations of the Code to their supervisors or by using the Company's ethics toll-free hotline. The full text of the Code is available on the Company's corporate governance website at www.wesco.com and is also available in print for any requesting stockholder.

Annual Performance Evaluation

The Board and each of the Audit, Compensation, Executive and Nominating and Governance Committees conduct an annual self-evaluation, as contemplated by the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and the charters of such Board committees.

Stockholder Communications with Directors

The Board has established a process to receive communications from stockholders and other interested parties. Stockholders and other interested parties may communicate with the Chairman of the Audit Committee, Mr. Tarr, or the Presiding Director, Mr. Singleton, and other non-management members of the Board by confidential e-mail. All communications will be made available to the Board on an immediate basis upon request by any member of the Board. Stockholders who wish to communicate with the Board in writing via regular mail should send such correspondence to: WESCO International, Inc., Suite 700, 225 West Station Square Drive, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15219, Attention: Director of Internal Audit. Any such hard-copy communications received will be reviewed by the Director of Internal Audit and forwarded to the Board on the same basis as electronic communications.

In addition, it is the Company's expectation that each member of the Board attend the Annual Meeting of the Company's stockholders, thereby providing additional opportunities for stockholder access. All then-sitting members of the Board were present at the Company's 2004 Annual Meeting.

Nominating and Governance Committee

In addition to identifying and nominating candidates for election or appointment to the Board, the Nominating and Governance Committee is responsible for reviewing and making recommendations to the Board with respect to the corporate governance policies and practices of the Company. The Nominating and Governance Committee operates under a separate charter, which is available on the Company's corporate governance website at www.wesco.com and is also available in print for any requesting stockholder.

During 2004, the Committee recommended and the Board has approved the following changes in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines:

1. Any Director newly appointed by the Board will stand for re-election by stockholders at the next Annual Meeting.
2. Stockholders will be asked on an annual basis to ratify and approve the appointment of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm as previously approved by the Board.
3. Board members will be expected to maintain beneficial ownership of Company common stock in an amount valued at no less than two times their annual retainer fee.

The Company's corporate governance practices have been reviewed, documented, and made available for public access. Recognizing the value of periodic reevaluations, as appropriate or necessary, the Committee and the Board will conduct an orderly assessment of a broad range of corporate governance matters to determine whether any changes are warranted.

Director Nominating Procedures

The Nominating and Governance Committee will, from time to time, seek to identify potential candidates for nomination as Director and will consider potential candidates identified through professional executive search arrangements, as well as referrals or recommendations by members of the Board, by management of the Company, or by stockholders of the Company. The Nominating and Governance Committee has the sole authority to retain, approve the fees and retention terms of and terminate any search firm to be used to identify Director candidates. The Nominating and Governance Committee has previously retained an executive search firm to assist in identifying qualified Board member candidates.

In considering candidates submitted by stockholders of the Company, the Nominating and Governance Committee will take into consideration the needs of the Board along with candidates' qualifications. A confirmation of such person's willingness to serve as a Director if selected by the Nominating and Governance Committee;

Any information about the proposed candidate that, under the federal proxy rules, would be required to be included in the Company's Proxy Statement if such person were a nominee; and

Edgar Filing: WESCO INTERNATIONAL INC - Form DEF 14A

The name of the stockholder submitting the name of the proposed candidate, together with information as to the number of shares owned and the length of time of ownership.

The stockholder recommendation and information described above must be sent c/o WESCO International, Inc., Suite 700, 225 West Station Square Drive, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15219, Attention: Corporate

Secretary and, in order to allow for timely consideration, must be received not less than 120 days prior to the first anniversary of the date of the Proxy Statement for the Company's most recent Annual Meeting.

Once a person has been identified by the Nominating and Governance Committee as a potential candidate, the Committee may collect and review publicly available information to assess whether the person should be considered further. Generally, if the candidate expresses a willingness to be considered to serve on the Board, the Nominating and Governance Committee will conduct a thorough process of determining and assessing the candidate's qualifications and accomplishments. The Nominating and Governance Committee follows the same evaluation process with regard to candidates identified by the Committee and any candidate who is recommended by our stockholders.

The Compensation Committee is responsible for the review, recommendation and approval of compensation arrangements for Directors and executive officers, for the approval of such arrangements for other senior level employees, and for the administration of certain benefit and compensation plans and arrangements of the Company. The Committee operates under a separate charter setting forth its duties and responsibilities, which is available on the Company's corporate governance website at www.wesco.com and is also available in print for any requesting stockholder. The Compensation Committee held five meetings in 2004.

Compensation of Directors

Members of the Board who are also employees of the Company do not receive cash compensation for their services as Directors. During 2004, each Director of the Company who is not an employee of the Company or any of the Company's subsidiaries or The Cypress Group L.L.C. ("Cypress") received an annual Director's fee of $30,000, payable in shares of common stock, or a combination of cash and shares of common stock (of which a maximum of 50% may consist of cash), at each Director's election. Each Director of the Company who receives a Director's fee received a fee of $1,000 for each meeting at which such Director rendered services to the Company, including meetings of stockholders, the Board, or any committee of the Board on which she or he serves. Committee chairpersons receive a fee of $2,000 for committee meeting attendance. If attendance at a Board meeting is telephonic, meeting fees are reduced to $500.

Effective January 1, 2000, the Company established the Deferred Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors under which non-employee Directors can elect to defer 25% or more of the annual Director's fee. Amounts deferred under this arrangement are, on the deferral date, converted into stock units (common stock equivalents), which will be credited via book entry to an account in the Director's name. For purposes of determining the number of stock units to be credited to a Director for a particular year, the average of the high and low trading prices of the Common Stock on the first trading day in January of that year will be used. Distribution of deferred stock units will be made in a lump sum or in installments, in the form of shares of Common Stock, in accordance with the distribution schedule selected by the Director at the time the deferral election is made. All distributions will be made or begin as soon as practical after January 1 of the year following the Director's termination of Board service. In addition, as of each July 1, beginning with July 1, 2002, each non-employee Director who will be continuing as a Director after that date receives a non-qualified stock option to purchase 5,000 shares of Common Stock (or such other amount as the Board may determine from time to time). The exercise price of these options is equal to the fair market value per share of Common Stock on the date of grant. A non-employee Director's options vest on the third anniversary of the date of grant. Effective July 1, 2005, Directors will receive equity compensation in the form of Stock Appreciation Rights ("SARs").

Effective January 1, 2005, all meeting fees have been eliminated. Members of the Board who are not employees of the Company will receive an annual Director's fee of $50,000 annually payable in shares of common stock or a combination of cash and shares of common stock (of which a maximum of 50% may consist of cash) at each Director's election. Finally, the Chair of the Audit Committee receives an additional fee of $10,000 payable annually.

The options held by the employees had a weighted average price of $1.75. The options were redeemed at a price of $8.63 per share, effective for accounting purposes, as of December 31, 2003. The transaction was settled, and the aggregate cash payment of $20.1 million was made on January 6, 2004.

Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer

On July 14, 2004, the Company hired John J. Engel to serve in the new role of Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Engel is the senior executive responsible for all sales, service and logistics operations and related headquarters and field support functions. Mr. Engel's compensation arrangements are summarized in the section below referencing Employment Agreement with the Chief Operating Officer.

Employment Agreements

Employment Agreement with the Chief Executive Officer. The Company is a party to an employment agreement with Mr. Haley providing for a rolling employment term of three years. Pursuant to this agreement, Mr. Haley is entitled to an annual base salary of at least $500,000, the actual amount of which may be adjusted by the Board from time to time, and an annual incentive bonus equal to a percentage of his annual base salary ranging from 0% to 200%. The actual amount of Mr. Haley's annual incentive bonus will be determined based upon the Company's financial performance as compared to the annual performance objectives established for the relevant fiscal year. If Mr. Haley's employment is terminated by the Company without cause, by Mr. Haley for good reason or as a result of Mr. Haley's death or disability, Mr. Haley is entitled to continued payments of his average annual base salary and his average annual incentive bonus, reduced by any disability payments for the three-year period, or in the case of a termination due to Mr. Haley's death or disability, the two-year period, following such termination, and continued welfare benefit coverage for the two-year period following such termination. In addition, in the event of any such qualifying termination, all outstanding options held by Mr. Haley will become fully vested.

The agreement further provides that, in the event of the termination of Mr. Haley's employment by the Company without cause or by Mr. Haley for good reason, in either such case, within the two-year period following a change in control of the Company, in addition to the termination benefits described above, Mr. Haley is entitled to receive continued welfare benefit coverage and payments in lieu of additional contributions to the Company's Retirement Savings Plan and Deferred Compensation Plan for the three-year period following such change in control. The Company has agreed to provide Mr. Haley with an excise tax gross up with respect to any excise taxes Mr. Haley may be obligated to pay pursuant to Section 4999 of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 on any excess parachute payments. In addition, following a change in control, Mr. Haley is entitled to a minimum annual bonus equal to 50% of his base salary, and the definition of good reason is modified to include certain additional events. The agreement also contains customary covenants regarding nondisclosure of confidential information and non-competition and non-solicitation restrictions.

Employment Agreement with the Chief Operating Officer. The Company is a party to an employment agreement with Mr. Engel providing for an employment term of two years, subject to automatic renewals for an additional year as of each annual anniversary of the agreement. The agreement provides that Mr. Engel is entitled to an annual base salary of at least $450,000, subject to adjustment by the Board, and incentive compensation under the Company's incentive compensation and other bonus plans for senior executives in amounts ranging from 0% to 100% of his annual base salary, based upon the Company's achievement of earnings, sales growth and return on investment or other performance criteria established by the Compensation Committee.

If Mr. Engel's employment is terminated by reason of his death, the Company will pay the amount of his accrued but unpaid base salary through his date of death, any accrued but unpaid incentive compensation, any other reimbursable amounts and any payments required to be made under the Company's employee benefit plans or programs. If Mr. Engel's employment is terminated by reason of disability, he will continue to receive his base salary and all welfare benefits through the date of disability, offset by the amount of any disability income payments provided under the Company's disability insurance. If Mr. Engel's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by him for good reason, he is entitled to his accrued but unpaid base salary through the date of termination, a cash amount equal to his pro rata incentive compensation for the fiscal year in which the termination occurs, monthly cash payments equal to 1.5 times his monthly base salary as of the date of termination for the greater of (i) the remainder of the employment agreement's term, or (ii) eighteen months following the date of termination, and continued welfare benefit coverage for the two years. In such event, all stock options, except those that will remain unvested due to specified operational or financial performance criteria not being satisfactorily achieved, will become fully vested, and the Company will pay the full cost of his COBRA continuation coverage. If Mr. Engel's employment is so terminated within one year following a change in control of the Company, the cash amount equal to 1.5 times his monthly base salary will be paid in monthly installments for 24 months. The Company has agreed to provide Mr. Engel with a partial excise tax gross up with respect to any excise taxes Mr. Engel may be obligated to pay. The agreement also contains customary covenants regarding nondisclosure of confidential information and non-competition and non-solicitation restrictions. Additionally, under the terms of the agreement, the Company paid approximately $187,000 in relocation expenses on behalf of Mr. Engel in 2004.

Report of Compensation Committee on Executive Compensation

Responsibilities and Goals

The Compensation Committee, composed of independent, non-employee Directors, has the responsibility of administering executive compensation and benefit programs, policies and practices. In 2004, the Committee consisted of Messrs. Stern, Singleton, Tarr, and Way, with Mr. Stern serving as Chairman. The Committee engages the assistance of outside consultants and uses third-party surveys in its consideration of compensation levels and incentive plan designs. On an annual basis, the Committee reviews and approves the compensation and benefit programs for the executive officers, including the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

Executive Officer Compensation

The objective of the Company's compensation program for executive officers, including Mr. Haley, is to attract, motivate, and reward the high caliber of executive performance required to be successful in the competitive distribution industry, and to enhance positive business results and growth in stockholder value.

The Company's compensation program for executive officers consists of a base salary, annual incentive bonuses and long-term incentives. Executives have significant amounts of compensation at risk, based on performance. Executives also maintain a significant equity stake in the Company, aligning the interests of management with those of the Company's stockholders. As of December 31, 2004, each of the Named Executive Officers owned Company stock valued at more than three times their annual base salary.

The Company's Executive Compensation Programs can be described as follows:

Base salaries for the Company's executives are targeted at or near the median of similarly sized industrial distribution companies and other large distributors or wholesalers. Salaries for each executive are reviewed annually, taking into account factors such as overall company performance in relation to competition and industry circumstances, changes in duties and responsibilities, strategic and operational accomplishments, and individual performance. From time to time (and not necessarily on an annual basis), the Committee adjusts base salaries for executive officers (including Mr. Haley) based on performance, and if appropriate to reflect competitive pay practices of peer companies.

Annual incentives are awarded for achievement of strategic and operational objectives, improvement in operating results, and performance in relation to financial goals of the Company, which are established at the beginning of the year. Cash bonus incentive awards granted for 2004 performance reflect significant financial and operational achievements, which exceeded targeted performance levels.

Long-term incentives generally are granted in the form of equity awards such as stock options or SARs. The Committee believes that equity awards are an effective long-term link between executive performance and stockholder value. The Committee authorized a SARs grant in September 2004, and each of the Named Executive Officers received an equity award as shown in the table reflecting SARs Grants in the Last Fiscal Year.

CEO Compensation

In determining the compensation level for Mr. Haley, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, the Committee reviewed his performance against previously established 2004 objectives, the Company's record performance in most performance categories, and the significant gain in share price benefiting all stockholders. The Committee assessed Mr. Haley's individual performance and leadership, as reflected in the Company's financial and operating performance, new business development initiatives, the effectiveness of the Company's continuous improvement programs, cash flow generation and progress made in capital structure improvements, refinancing transactions, working capital performance, and overall liquidity. Mr. Haley's base salary was increased to $700,000 effective March 1, 2004. The Committee made no subsequent changes to his base salary for 2005. Mr. Haley's cash bonus for 2004 performance was $1,470,000. He was also granted Stock Appreciation Rights for 200,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. This information is also shown in the Summary Compensation Table and the SARs Grants Table in this Proxy Statement.

Conclusions

The Committee's goal is to maintain compensation and benefit programs that are competitive within the distribution industry and clearly linked to stockholder value. The Committee believes that the 2004 compensation levels as disclosed in this Proxy Statement are reasonable and appropriate.

The Committee intends to ensure that compensation paid to its executive officers is within the limits of, or exempt from, the deductibility limits of 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code and expects that all compensation will be deductible. However, it reserves the right to pay compensation that is not deductible if it determines that to be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

Respectfully Submitted:

Compensation Committee

James A. Stern, Chairman

James L. Singleton

Robert J. Tarr, Jr.

Kenneth L. Way

APPENDIX A
WESCO INTERNATIONAL, INC.
AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

Purpose

The purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board in:

its oversight of the Company's accounting and financial reporting principles, policies and internal controls and the performance of the internal audit function;

its oversight of the quality and integrity of the Company's financial statements and the independent audit thereof;

selecting, evaluating and, where deemed appropriate, replacing the Company's outside auditors;

evaluating the independence, qualification and performance of the Company's outside auditors;

evaluating the performance of the Company's internal auditors; and ensuring the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements.

In addition, the Audit Committee annually shall prepare the Audit Committee Report required to be included in the Company's annual report and Proxy Statement by applicable Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) rules.

While certain duties and responsibilities of the Audit Committee are more specifically set forth below, the general function of the Audit Committee is oversight. Management of the Company is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of the Company's financial statements. In addition, management is responsible for maintaining appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles and policies and internal controls and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations.

Each member of the Audit Committee may rely on (a) the integrity of those persons and organizations within and outside the Company from which it receives information and (b) the accuracy of the financial and other information provided to the Audit Committee by such persons or organizations, in each case absent actual knowledge to the contrary (which shall be reported to the Board promptly).

The outside auditors for the Company ultimately are accountable to the Board and the Audit Committee. The outside auditors shall submit to the Audit Committee and the Company annually a formal written statement delineating all relationships between the outside auditors and the Company (Statement as to Independence), addressing at least the matters set forth in Independence Standard No. 1 adopted by the Independence Standards Board.

Audit Committee Membership

The Audit Committee shall consist of at least three Directors, all of whom shall have no relationship to the Company that may interfere with the exercise of their independence from management and the Company and shall otherwise satisfy the applicable membership and independence requirements under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE). Rule 10A-3(b)(1) under the Exchange Act and applicable law. All members of the Committee shall have a working familiarity with basic financial and accounting processes and one member shall be a financial expert according to the criteria set forth under Item 401(h) of SEC Regulation S-K.

The members of the Audit Committee shall be appointed at least annually by the Board on the recommendation of the Nominating and Governance Committee and may be replaced by the Board from time to time.

Each member of the Audit Committee should limit the number of public companies for which he or she serves as a member of the audit committee to no greater than three. If a member of the Committee serves on more than three public company audit committees, the Board shall evaluate whether such simultaneous service would impair the ability of such member to effectively serve on the Committee and will ensure that disclosure of such evaluation will be made in the Company's annual Proxy Statement as required by NYSE rules.

Meetings

The Audit Committee shall hold at least four meetings per year and such additional meetings as the Audit Committee or its Chairperson shall determine.

In addition, the Audit Committee should meet separately and periodically with management, the Director of the internal audit department and the outside auditors to review and discuss the annual and quarterly reporting process and such other appropriate matters and to discuss any matters that the Audit Committee or any of those persons or firms believes should be discussed privately.

The Audit Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company or the Company's outside counsel or outside auditors to attend a meeting of the Audit Committee or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the Audit Committee.

Committee Authority and Responsibility

To carry out its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee shall have the following duties and powers:

With respect to the outside auditors, the Audit Committee shall:

- have sole authority to appoint, compensate, retain, oversee, evaluate and replace the Company's outside auditors (including resolution of disagreements between management and the auditor regarding financial reporting) and to approve all audit services and audit engagement fees and terms and any non-audit engagements by the outside auditors;

- instruct the outside auditors that they report directly to the Committee;

- at least annually, review the services proposed to be rendered to the Company by the outside auditors, including the nature, type and scope of services contemplated and the related fees to be rendered by the firm during the year, and approve the appropriate services and fees;

- review and, as appropriate, pre-approve those engagements that may arise during the course of the year that are outside the scope of the initial services and fees pre-approved by the Audit Committee;

- annually evaluate the outside auditor's qualifications, performance and independence, including that of the lead audit partner for the Company's account, taking into account the opinions of management and the Company's internal auditors;

- ensure regular rotation of the lead partner on the Company's account as required by applicable SEC regulation and consider whether regular rotation of the outside audit firm is appropriate;

- ensure that the outside auditors prepare and deliver annually the Statement as to Independence (it being understood that the outside auditors are responsible for the accuracy and completeness of this Statement), actively engage the outside auditors in a dialogue with respect to any relationships or services disclosed in this Statement that may impact the objectivity and independence of the Company's outside auditors and take appropriate action to satisfy itself of the outside auditors' independence;

meet with the outside auditors to discuss the planning and staffing of the annual audit and the results of their examination and their evaluation of internal controls and the overall quality of financial reporting;

approve in advance any non-audit services that are proposed to be furnished to the Company by the Company's outside auditors as permitted by law and review the disclosure of such arrangements in the Company's periodic reports;

set clear hiring policies for employees or former employees of the Company's outside auditors; and review with the outside auditor any audit problems or difficulties, including any restrictions on the scope of the outside auditor's activities or access to requested information and any significant disagreements with management, and management's response; and at least annually, obtain and review a report by the independent auditor describing: (i) the firm's internal quality-control procedures; (ii) any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review, of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm; and (iii) any steps taken to deal with any such issues and (iv) (to assess the auditor's independence) all relationships between the auditors and the Company.

With respect to financial reporting principles and policies and internal audit controls and procedures, the Audit Committee shall:

advise management, the internal audit department and the outside auditors that they are expected to provide to the Audit Committee a timely analysis of significant financial reporting issues and practices;

meet with the outside auditors, with and without representatives of management and the internal audit department present, to:

discuss the scope of the annual audit; discuss the Company's annual and quarterly financial statements prior to filing, including the Company's disclosures under Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, as well as the results of the outside auditor's review of the annual and quarterly financial statements;

review and discuss the Company's press releases, including the type and presentation of information to be included (paying particular attention to any use of pro forma or adjusted non-GAAP information), as well as financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and rating agencies;

discuss any other significant matters arising from any audit or report or communication above, whether raised by management, the internal audit department or the outside auditors, relating to the Company's financial statements;

review and discuss material off-balance sheet transactions;

confirm that there are no material non-compliance issues with SEC reporting requirements that would require accounting restatements of special disclosures;

discuss significant changes to the Company's auditing and accounting principles, policies, controls, procedures and practices proposed or contemplated by the outside auditors, the internal audit department or management;

discuss guidelines and policies with respect to risk assessment and risk management and inquire about significant risks and exposures, if any, and the steps taken to monitor and minimize such risks; and review the form of opinion the outside auditors propose to render to the Board and stockholders; recommend to the Board whether the audited financial statements should be included in the Company's Form 10-K;

obtain from the outside auditors assurance that the audit was conducted in a manner consistent with prior years and in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and regulatory requirements; and discuss with the Company's counsel any legal matters that may have a material effect on the financial statements or the Company's compliance policies, including materials notices to or inquiries received from governmental agencies.

With respect to reporting, the Audit Committee shall:

review and approve the Company's Code of Ethics for its senior officers as required by SEC rules;

obtain reports from management, the Company's internal audit department and the outside auditor that the Company and its subsidiaries and foreign affiliated entities are in conformity with applicable legal requirements, the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and the Company's Code of Ethics for its senior officers and advise the Board with respect to the Company's policies and procedures regarding compliance with applicable laws and regulations and with the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and Code of Ethics for senior officers;
